PORTUGEE ENGLISH.

Marvelous English in a Rio Janeiro Zoological Garden Circular.

It was a renowned Portuguese instructor in language who first taught us, some twenty years ago, 'English as she is spoke." Remembering still those brilliant exposition of our mother tongue, we are glad to note that the instruction still goes on and that the gift of tongues has not passed from the Portuguese and their children. At Rio Janeiro there has lately been produced some of the finest specimens of our language used for the education and information of persons temporarily sojourning in that city. One of the undoubted attractions of the Brazilian capital is the Zoological gardens, and a circular advertisement addressed "to visitors lying at anchor" runs thus: Joological Gardens-In these gardens the visitor will find soum of rarest et best specimens of wild beasts of Brazil, also a collection of Suaks (snakes), reptiles, etc. Whick will prover a source of witerest et Entertainment to many who haor a four bours to spau whib in Rio Janeiro. Tramways belonging to Compy Evry 10 Minutes. The wayfaring man, as well as the seagoing passenger, cannot misunderstand this very choice piece of Portugee-English as she is spoke. Who can doubt that those "suaks and reptiles" will furnish no end of "witerest" to whoever has "a four bours to spau" in Rio? May those Joological Gardens long survive!

TO MRS. PINKHAM

Most is a Battle Cry.

TEXT: "Let God arise, let His enemies be scattered."-Psalms,lxviii., 1.

A procession was formed to carry the ark, or sacred box, which, though only three feet nine inches in height and depth, was the symbol of God's presence. As the leaders of the procession lifed this ornamented and brilliant box by two golden poles run through four golden rings, and started for Mount Zion, all the people chanted the battle hymn of my text, "Let God arise, let His enemies be scattered." The Cameronians of Scotland, outraged by James I., who forced upon them religious forms that were offensive, and by the terrible persecution of Drummond, Dalziel and Turner, and by the oppressive laws of Charles I. and Charles II., were driven to proclaim war against tyrants, and went forth to fight for religious liberty; and the mountain heather became red with car-nage, and at Bothwell Bridge and Aird's Moss and Drumclog the battle hymn and the battle shout of those glorious old Scotchmen was the text I have chosen: "Let God arise, let His enemies be scattered." What a whirlwind of power was Oliver Cromwell, and how with his soldiers, named the "Ironsides," he went from victory to victory! Opposing enemies melted as he looked at them. He dismissed Parliament as easily as a schoolmaster a school. He pointed his finger at Berkeley Castle, and it was taken. He ordered Sir Ralph Hopton, the general, to dismount, and he dismounted. See Cromwell marching on "ironsides," loud as a storm and solemn as a death-knell, standards reeling before it, and cavalry horses going back on their haunches, and armies flying at Marston Moor, at Winceby Field, at Naseby, at Bridgewater and Dartmonth—"Let God arise, let His enemies he scattered!"

So you see my text is not like a compli-mentary and tasselled sword that you sometimes see hung up in a parlor, a sword that was never in battle, and only to be used on general training day, but more like some weapon carefully hung up in your home, telling its story of battles, for my text hangs in the Scripture armory, telling of the holy wars of three thousand years in which it has been carried, but still as keen and mighty as when David first unsheathed it. It seems to me that in the Church of God, and in all styles of re-formatory work, what we most need is formatory work, what we most now a battle-cry. We raise our little stan-dard, and put on it the name of some man who only a few years ago began to live and in a few years will cease to live. We go into conquest against the armies of iniquity, depending too much on human agencies. We use for a battle-cry the name of some brave Christian reformer, but after awhile that reformer dies, or gets old, or loses his courage, and then we take another battle-cry, and this time perhaps we put the name of someone who betrays the cause and sells out to the enemy. What we want for a battle-cry is the name of What some leader who will never betray us, and will never surrender, and will never die. All respect have I for brave men and women, but if we are to get the victory all along the line we must take the hint of the Gideonites, who wiped out the Bedouin Arabs, commonly called Midianites. These Gideonites had a glorious leader in Gideon. but what was the battle-cry with which they flung their enemies into the worst de-

It is an honest name, and anyone can understand it. "Sour mash!" That is, it makes a man's disposition sour and his associations sour and his prospects sour; and then it is good to mash his body, and mash his soul, and mash his business. and mash his family. ### A Retort of Willis.

Mr. M. E. W. Sherwood tells this anecdote in the new volume of reminiscences, "Here and There and Everywhere": I was present at many dinners when Willis was the life of the company, and although I did not hear the famous repartee of the Washington dinner so often recorded, I will record it here. It was Mrs. Gales, I think, who, at one of her own dinners, wrote a card to her niece at the other end of the table, "Don't flirt so with Nat Willis." She was talking vivaciously herself to Mr. Campbell. Willis replied: "Dear aunt, don't attempt my young feelings to trammel, Nor strain at a Nat while you swallow a Campbell"---

From Mrs. Walter E. Budd, of Patchogue, New York.

Mrs. Bupp, in the following letter, tells a familiar story of weakness and suffering, and thanks Mrs. Pinkham for complete relief:

" DEAR MES. PINKHAM:-I think it is my duty to write to you and tell you what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I feel like another woman. I had such dreadful headaches through my temples and on top of my head, that I nearly went crazy; wasalso troubled with chills, was very weak; my left side from my shoulders to my waist pained me terribly. I could not sleep for the pain. Plasters would help for a while, but as soon as taken off, the pain would be just as bad as ever. Doctors prescribed medicine, but it gave me no relief.

"Now I feel so well and strong, have no more headaches, and no pain in side, and it is all owing to your Compound. I cannot praise it enough. It is a wonderful medicine. I recommend it to every woman ] know."

I suffered the tortures of the damned with protruding piles brought on by constipa-tion with which I was afficied for twenty vears. I ran across your CASCARETS in the town of Newell. Ia., and never found anything to equal them. To-day I am entirely free from piles and feel like a new man." C. H. KETZ, 1411 Jones St., Slour City, Ia.

Von Moltke." Waterloo was won for the English, because not only the armed men overthrow at the front, but the worshipers in the cathedrais at the rear, were crying "The sword of the Lord and of Wellington." The Methodists have gone in triumph across nation after nation with the cry. "The sword of the Lord and of Wesley." The Presbyterians have gone from victory to victory with the cry, "The sword of the Lord and of John Knox." The Baptists have Lord and of John Knox." The Baptists have conquered millions after millions for Christ with the cry, "The sword of the Lord and of Judson." The American Episcopalians have won their mighty way with the cry, "The sword of the Lord and of Bishop M'livaine." The victory is to those who put God first. But as we want a battle-cry suited to all sects of religion-ints and to all lands I promise a the sts, and to all lands I nominate as the battle-cry of Christendom in the approach-ing Armageddon the words of my text, sounded before theark as it was carried to Mount Zion: "Let God arise, let His enemies be scattered."

As far as our finite mind can judge, it seems about time for God to rise. Does it not seem to you that the abominations of this earth have gone far enough? Was there ever a time when sin was so deflant? Was there ever a time when sin was so deflant? Was there ever before so many fists lifted toward God telling Him to come on if He dare? Look at the blasphemy abroad! What towering profanity! Would it be possible for anyone to calculate the numpossible for anyone to calculate the num-bers of times that the name of the Almighty God and of Jesus Christ are every day taken irreverently on the lips? Profane Swearing is as much forbidden by the law as their, or arson, or murder, yet who executes it? Profanity is worse than theft, or arson, or murder, for these crimes are attacks on humanity-that is an attack on God.

This country is pre-eminent for blasphemy. A man traveling in Russia was sup-posed to be a clergyman. "Why do you take me to be a clergyman?" said the man. "Ob," said the Bussian, "all other Americans swear." The crime is multiplying in inten-sity. God very often shows what He thinks of it, but for the most part the fatality is hushed up. Among the Adirondacks I met the funeral procession of a man who two days before had fallen under a flash of lightning, while boasting, after a Sunday of work in the fields, that he had cheated God out of one day anyhow, and the man who worked with him on the same Sabbath is still living, but a helpless invalid, under the same flash.

is still living, but a helpless invalid, under the same flash. Years ago, in a Pittsburg prison, two men were talking about the Bible and Christi-anity, and one of them, Thompson by name, applied to Jeszs Christ a very low and vil-lainous epithet, and, as he was uttering it, he fell. A physian was called, but no help could be given. After a day lying with distended pupils and palsied tongue, he passed out of this world. In a cemetery in Sullivan County in New York State are eight headstones in a line and all alike, and these are the facts. In 1861 diphtheria raged in the village and a physician was remark-ably successful in curing his patients. So confident did he become that he boasted that no case of diphtheria could stand be-fore him, and finsily defied Almighty God to produce a case of diphtheria sthat he could not cure. His youngest child soon after took the disease and died, and one child after another, until all the eight had died of diphtheria. The blasphemer chal-lenged Almighty God, and God accepted the challenge. Do not think that because God has been silent in your case, O pro-fame sweareri that He is dead. Is there nothing now in the peculiar iseling of your brain, that indicates that God may come to avenge your blasphemies, or is already avenging them? But these cases I have noticed. I believe, are only a few cases where there are hundreds. Families keep them quiet to avoid the horrible conspicuity. Physicians suppress them through profes-sional confidence. It is a very, very long Physicians suppress them through profes-sional confidence. It is a very, very long roll that contains the names of those who died with biasphemies on their lips. Still the crime rolls on, up through par-capture this Gibraltar of rum jugs. And while I approve of all human agencies of reform, I would utterly despair if we had nothing else. But what cheers me is that our best troops are yet to come. Our chief artillery is in reserve. "Our greatest com-mander has not yet fully taken the field. If all Hell is on their side, all Heaven is on our side. Now "Lef God arise, and let His enemies be scattered." Then look at the impurities of these

Then look at the impurities of these great cities. Ever and anon there are in the newspapers explosions of social life that make the story of Sodom quite re-spectable; "for such things," Christ says, "were more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrah" than for the Chorazins and Bethsaidas of greater light. It is no unusual thing in our cities to see men in high positions with two or three families, or refined ladies willing solemnly to marry the very swine of society, if they be wealthy. The Bible all aflame with denunciation against an impure life, but many of the American ministry uttering not one point-blank word against this iniquity lest some old libertine throw up his church pew. Machinery organized in all the cities of the United States and Canada by which to put yearly in the grinding-mill of this iniquity thousands of the unsuspecting of the country farm-houses, one procuress con-fessing in the court that she had supplied the infernal market with one hundred and fifty victims in six months. Ohl for five hundred newspapers in America to swing open the door of this lazar-house of social orruption! Exposure must come before extiroation.

While the city van carries the scum of this while the city van carries the soun of this sin from the prison to the police court morning by morning, it is full time, if we do not want high American life to become like that of the court of Louis XV., to put millionaire Lotharios and the Pompadours of your brown-stone palaces into a van of popular indignation, and drive them out of respectable associations. What prospect popular indignation, and drive them out of respectable associations. What prospect of social purification can there be, as long as at summer watering places it is usual to see a young woman of excellent rearing stand and simper and giggle and roll up her eyes sideways before one of those first-class satyrs of fashionable life, and on the ballroom floor join him in the dance, the maternal chaperon meanwhile beaming maternal chaperon meanwhile beaming from the window on the scene? Matches are made in Heaven, they say. Not such matches; for the brimstone indicates the

The evil is overshadowing all our cities. The evil is overshadowing all our celes. Dy some these immoralties are called pec-cadilloes, gallantries, eccentricities, and are relegated to the realms of jocularity, and few efforts are being made against them. God bless the "White Cross" move-ment, as it is called—an organization mak-less or blass of the second control of the form ing a mighty assault on this evil! God for-ward the tract societies of the land! God help the parents in the great work they are doing, in trying to start their children with doing, in trying to start their children with pure principles! God help all legislators in their attempt to prohibit this crime! But is this all? Then it is only a question of time when the last vestige of purity and home will vanish out of sight. Human arms, human pens, human voices, human talents are not sufficient. I begin to look up. I listen for artillery rumbling down the sapphire boulevards of Heaven. J watch to see if in the .norning light there be not the flash of descending scimitars Oh, for God! Doesit not seem time for Hit appearance? Is it not time for all lands to cry out: "Let God arise, and let His en-emics be scattered?"

MRS. PINKHAM TALKS "O THE FUTURE WOMAN.

Will the New Generation of Women be More Beautiful or Less So? Miss Jessie Ebner's Experience.

A pleasing face and graceful figure ! These are equipments that widen the sphere of woman's usefulness. How can a woman have grace of movement when she is suffering from some disorder that gives her those awful bearing-down sensations? How can she retain her beautiful face when she is nervous and racked with pain?

Young women, think of your future and provide against ill health. Mothers, think of your growing daughter, and prevent in her as well as in yourself irregularity or suspension of nature's duties.

If puzzled, don't trust your own judgment. Mrs. Pinkham will charge you nothing for her advice; write to her at Lynn, Mass., and she will tell you how to make yourself healthy and strong.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound strengthens the female organs and regulates the menses as nothing else will. Following is a letter from Miss JESSIE EBNER, 1712 West Jefferson St., Sandusky, Ohio, "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM :--- I feel it my duty to let you
