Wanamaker made 139 speeches during the campaign just closed; Swallow made 232, and Jenks over a 100.

Secretary Alger, among other suggestions concerning the regular army, will recommend that the standing army be increased to 100,000 men.

John Wanamaker closed his brilliant campaign for Honest Government by an address at Lewisburg on Monday evening.

The Pope's health is failing. He is esteemed as a kind and well-meaning old man, more broad and liberal in his views than any of his predecessors.

The disgusting politician and office seeker is he who would achieve all on the half-cent principle, and thinks his party owes him piles of favors when he never did anything to build it up.

The rumors of war between France and England have been stilled. It is now said England and Russia are preparing to meet each other in battle, over a foothold which the latter is gaining in China.

And now the magnificent capitol at Washington has come nigh sharing the fate of our state capitol at Harrisburg. On Sunday afternoon at 5.13, an explosion and fire wrecked the supreme court room and the rooms immediately adjoining it on the main floor of the capitol.

The damage is enormous. The entire central eastern part of the great marble pile from the main floor to the subterranean basement practically is a mass of ruins. The force of the explosion was so heavy that the coping stones on the outer walls just east of the point where the explosion occurred were bulged out nearly two inches; windows in all that part of the building were blown out, and locked doors were forced from their hinges 150 feet from the scene of it. were forced from their hinges 150 feet | nov10-3t from the scene of it.

Is an art nowadays, and it isn't everybody who knows what are the latest points. Our tailoring department is organized and run by young men whose only thought is to better and perfect the clothes-making we do. We can't afford to have a man take away a garment that is not satisfactory. If you are not acquainted with us and our methods we don't know a better way or time than to ask you to see now. Our Mr. Bullock's only thought is to make perfect fitting trousers. No matter how critical you are we'll please you.
