England's Oriental Fleet Ready for Action.

WAR CLOUD DARKENS.

Serious Situation in the Harbor of Wel-Hai-Wei—The Russian Fleet Moves—It is Already Assembling at Port Arthur—Fresh Complications in the Fashoda Problem.

London, (Special).—A dispatch from Wel-Hai-Wei says that all of the British war vessels there have been cleared for action, and are ready to put to sea at an hour's notice.

The authorities observe the utmost secrecy as to their movements.

A large Russian fleet has assembled at Port Arthur.

The Globe, commenting upon the telegrams received from Wel-Hai-Wei, announcing the readiness of the British warships there for action and the assembling of a large Russian fleet at Port Arthur, says:

"These matters are of the gravest importance, especially when taken in conjunction with the extraordinary preparations for war which have been in progress on both sides of the English Channel during the last 10 days.

"In the absence of more definite information, it must be surmised that Russia, taking advantage of the present tension between England and France, has pushed her Far Eastern policy to unbearable lengths by forcibly taking possession of the valuable treaty port of New-Chwang."

READY FOR ACTION.

The British Fleet in Chinese Waters Will Not Be Caught Unprepared.

Wel-Hai-Wei, (By Cable).—All the British warships here, the first battleship Centurion, the first-class cruiser Narcissus, the second-class cruiser Hermione, the torpedo-boat destroyer Whiting, the torpedo-boat destroyer Fame, the torpedo-boat destroyer Handy and the first-class gunboat Peacock, have been cleared for action and are ready for sea at an hour's notice.

The first-class battleship Victorious and the first-class cruiser Undaunted, at Che-Fob, are coaling to their full capacity.

The greatest secrecy is maintained as to the meaning of these warlike preparations, but there is no doubt important instructions are expected at any moment. A large Russian fleet is assembled at Port Arthur.

LONDON ALARMED.

The News From the Orient Regarded as of the Gravest Importance.

London, (Special).—The dispatch from Wel-Hai-Wei, announcing the war preparation of the British naval authorities there, is regarded here as being of grave importance, coupled with the Anglo-French war preparations. It is surmised that Russia, profiting by the present strained relations between Great Britain and France, has decided to push forward her aims in the Far East by forcibly seizing the valuable treaty port of New-Chwang, which Great Britain cannot permit, it is said.

The dispatch from London to the Associated Press, on October 2, said a cable message had been received there from Shanghai, as follows:

"A Russian regiment occupied the town of Niuchwang (Province of Leaotung) and the forts at the mouth of the River Liaou, on October 15, thus securing complete possession of Niuchwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the Empress Dowager and Li Hung Chang.

"A British submarine was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole of Manchuria to the Russians and gives Russia an invaluable strategic position. Great Britain is certain to lose the New-Chwang trade, of which it has had 80 per cent."

No Work For Americans in Porto Rico.

WASHINGTON, D. C., (Special).—Mr. Hanna, American consul at Porto Rico, in a report to the State Department, says: "I am convinced that young men seeking work or positions of any kind should not come to Porto Rico. Such persons as clerks, carpenters, mechanics and laborers of all grades stay away from here. No American should come here expecting to 'strike it rich,' and no person should come here without plenty of money to pay board bills and enough to take him back to his home in the United States. This is a small island, has a population of about a million people, and is the most densely populated country in the world. There are several hundred thousand Porto Ricans ready to supply the demand for labor, and at a low price."

Lawton Expects No Trouble in Cuba.

WASHINGTON, D. C., (Special).—Maj. Gen. Henry W. Lawton, who recently arrived from Santiago, was at the War Department and also called at the White House. General Lawton says it is impossible to express an opinion now as to the time it will be necessary for this government to maintain military supervision of the island of Cuba. The Cubans are, he said, a quiet, tractable people, and he did not think there would be any trouble in managing them so far as this might be necessary pending the formation of an independent government on the island.

NO SPANISH BONDS.

Decision Reached by a Cabinet Meeting.

PAYMENT IN A LUMP.

Balance Due the Dons Not $30,000,000—Military Government to Be Maintained in Cuba and Porto Rico for the Present Terms Offered Will Likely Be Accepted.

Washington, D. C., (Special).—The Cabinet Wednesday devoted most of its attention to consideration of questions connected with the administration of affairs in Cuba and Porto Rico.

The administrative features of the Philippine question also received some attention.

While the Cabinet gave little attention to the peace negotiations at Paris, there is no longer any doubt as to the general purpose of this government to retain the entire Philippine archipelago.

After final balancing of the account, viz., the cost of the war to the United States on one side and our acquisitions on the other, it is found that any compensation is due the Spaniards, it will be made in a lump sum. It is pointed out that at the time the protocol was signed the United States did not have, and has not since acquired any part of the Philippine Islands outside of Manila City and harbor, and that the United States has never entertained a purpose to acquire any territory by the power of conquest.

Must Be Paid War Expenses.

When the United States will insist upon that she must be fully reimbursed for every dollar expended by her on account of the war, and in the statement will be included an amount sufficient to cover all payments, present and prospective, on account of pension incident to the war.

No Spanish bonds of any character or amount, other than local or municipal bonds, will be paid or assumed by this government. The question of the status of municipal obligations under circumstances like the present is fully settled by international law; they must be recognized as valid and binding by the conquering power, and hence it is assumed that the United States will not raise any question on this point, but promptly consent to guarantee their final payment. What sum of money this government would consent to pay to Spain cannot even be estimated, but when the final account is rendered, it is believed that the balance due Spain will be small, probably not exceeding $25,000,000 or $30,000,000.

The belief still prevails among the majority of the Cabinet that the Spaniards will accept the terms laid down by the United States, and that whatever delay occurs before that result is reached will be chargeable only to the purpose of the Spaniards to secure the best possible terms; to extort the last possible million dollars before acceding to demands.

The possibility of disagreement of the Commission, on the failure of the conference, however, is now contemplated with greater equality than at an earlier stage of the negotiations. The Administration has satisfied itself that Spain is neither able nor willing to resume hostilities on any scale that would make her a dangerous opponent to the United States. Therefore, supposing the Paris Conference to fail, all that would be imposed upon our government as an immediate duty would be to take complete military possession of the Philippine Islands.

This, it is believed, could be accomplished by us without loss of time or life. The last vestige of Spanish military power in the islands is that under Colonel Rios, commander-in-chief of the Vizayas Islands, and by deputized authority, in charge of all Spanish territory not directly within the control of the United States in the Philippine Islands. His force is organized from a military point of view, and it is doubtful if he could have held his own against the insurgents had the Tagals been allowed by Admiral Dewey to make Manila the base of an expedition directed against the Spanish commander.

So far as Cuba is concerned, the difficulty might be more serious, but even in Cuba the Spanish military forces are not in condition to offer a prolonged resistance to the American conquest of the island, and, with the Spanish navy at the bottom of the sea, they could not be reinforced by troops from Spain.

Therefore, about the worst that could happen would be the necessity imposed upon us of struggling along without the signature of a treaty of peace, but in full possession of all the territory we desire, and that such conditions can exist without damage to material interests is shown by the history of the Spanish-American republics which revolted from Spain's rule.

So far as the Cabinet discussion touched upon Cuba and Porto Rico, it was the purpose to develop views as to the best means of collecting the revenues and customs, providing some means of equalizing the duties which will be collected locally upon imports from the United States, as well as from other countries, and providing for the peaceful and satisfactory government of the cities and towns until such time as Congress shall have ordered otherwise.

It is the intention of the President to maintain a military government in both Cuba and Porto Rico for the time being, but his purpose is also to mitigate the harsher features of such form of government so far as lies within his power.

With the exception of J. E. Lyons, who was shot in the eye, no serious consequences have resulted.

The affair was the outgrowth of a number of practical jokes played on Hammer by his fellow workmen.

PREPARING FOR FIGHT.

England's Naval Activity Displays No Diminution.

LONDON, (Special).—There is an unexpected gloom on the Stock Exchange and the Paris Bourse, both these markets being influenced, it is inferred, from the aggressive tone of some of the French papers.

Besides this, something extraordinary seems to have happened and it looks as if a crisis were approaching. The British naval preparations are certainly being pushed with great activity.

The British emergency squadron is gathering at Davenport with all possible speed. Seven battleships and one cruiser have thus far been designated to join this squadron. Officers and sailors have been hurriedly recalled from leave of absence.

Several battleships and cruisers at Portsmouth are taking their fall crews on board and other warlike preparations are being made.

A number of signalmen now on duty with the British channel squadron, which served at Gibraltar, have been ordered home for service, it is presumed, on board the auxiliary cruisers, if the latter should be required for active service.

A sensation has been caused by the arrest of a supposed Russian spy at a fort near Harwich. The man was already under surveillance, and went to a redoubt, where he tried to obtain some information from a sentry regarding the fortifications. He was promptly arrested, and inquiries are being made regarding his antecedents.

It was also asserted that the commanding officers of the London volunteer regiments have received orders to prepare for immediate mobilization, and it was asserted that the different artillery corps have been informed as to the forts on the southern and eastern coast to which they have been allotted.

The Pall Mall Gazette says: "England has been and even now is so near to war that the government has carried its preparations to the farthest limit of the preparatory stage. It has been arranged to call out the reserves and militia, and to mobilize the volunteers simultaneously, and to form large camps at various important railroad junctions, where locomotives and rolling stock will be concentrated."

The Daily Mail publishes no news regarding England's war preparations, explaining that silence is due to a letter from the war office asking it not to publish "anything which might be useful to a possible enemy."

CUBANS CHANGE ABOUT.

Delegates at Santa Cruz Said to Favor Dissolving Insurgent Government.

HAVANA, (Special).—Advice received here from Santa Cruz del Sur state that a majority of the representatives of the Cuban army who are meeting there are in favor of the dissolution of the Cuban insurgent government and the appointment of a commission to go to Washington for the purpose of thanking the American government for its intervention in favor of the Cubans, also to put themselves unconditionally at the disposition of the Washington authorities.

The delegates to the delegates now in attendance at Santa Cruz del Sur, in which he reviews the considerations upon which the Cubans solicited the help of the United States and indicates what he considers their wisest future policy. The address is in part as follows:

"The Cubans excepted the assistance of America, not knowing exactly what were the American aims, just as they would have accepted help from any country in their fight against Spain. As the contest progressed, the Cubans in the field were gratified to hear of a solemn declaration by the United States Congress regarding the intentions of the American government and the path it would follow in the Spanish-American war. America came to our help to compel Spain to relinquish her sovereignty over Cuba, in order that the Cubans themselves might be placed as promptly as possible in possession of the island; might assume the administration of its affairs and have a government of their own."

"We have now reached a time when even more than in the days of fighting it is incumbent upon all Cubans to show true patriotism, and while making every expression of gratitude to America for having given Cuba freedom and independence, to make no arrangements for paying off the Cubans now in arms, and for getting the country into working order."

GEORGIA BOUNDARIES.

Chattanooga Claimed As a Part of the State.

ATLANTA, Ga., (Special).—State's Attorney Winship has filed his report with Governor Candler on the claim set forth by Georgia that 1,500 square miles of territory lying in Tennessee and North Carolina belongs to the first named State. Mr. Winship goes over the case as far back as 1323, and says the question is still open for the courts to decide.

There is still some doubt as to whether Chattanooga is in Georgia or Tennessee. Referring to this matter, the State's Attorney said:

"Chattanooga is within the ancient boundary of Georgia. If the question is reopened and that boundary is established Chattanooga will, of course, be in this State."

A B. & O. DENIAL.

The Baltimore & Ohio Railroad is not going to adopt the Raub locomotive for services between New York and Washington, as has been stated in an item which has been going the rounds of the papers for the last month. The Motive Power Department of this railroad has looked upon the rumor with considerable amusement, as within the past year and a half the Royal Blue trains have been hauled by the finest, fastest and strongest ten-wheel passenger engines in the world. These locomotives have 78-inch drivers, and since they have been in service have proved so eminently satisfactory that nothing better can probably be secured.

Demands by Porto Ricans.

Territorial Rights and an Eight-Hour Day for Workmen.

SAN JUAN, PORTO RICO, (Special).—The principal theatre of this city was taxed to its utmost capacity Sunday afternoon on the occasion of a public meeting of delegates from the chief towns of the island to draft recommendations regarding the necessities of the island for the use of special commissioners who will be selected later to represent Porto Rico at Washington.

The assembly was fairly representative. There was abundant evidence of intelligent reflection on the part of the delegates and a determination not to tolerate partisan politics at this crisis in the island's affairs.

Carefully prepared reports were submitted by political, social and economic committees. The meeting received with enthusiasm resolutions demanding territorial rights, the cessation of the present military rule and the installation of a regular civil government.

Other resolutions were adopted asking an eight-hour day for laboring men and severely denouncing the present corrupt system of registering deeds of land. It was obvious that the delegates proceeded upon the assumption that the United States would grant Porto Rico territorial rights.

OCCUPATION OF CUBA.

Orders Issued by Secretary of War Alger.

TROOPS THAT WILL GO.

Sen. L. H. Carpenter Will be in Command—Stations at Nuevitas and Puerto Principe—Preparations for Supplies—The Order Says the Movement is to Begin at Once.

WASHINGTON, D. C., (Special).—Secretary Alger issued the first order looking to the military occupation of Cuba by the United States troops. The order was issued only after very careful consideration of the reports of the military officers now in Cuba and of the Hecker board and other expert commissioners which have been in the field.

The order looks to the occupation of two points to begin with, namely, Nuevitas and Puerto Principe, but the occupation will be extended as rapidly as the Spanish evacuation proceeds. The order directs the movement to begin at once, but, according to the calculations of the Department, it will be scarcely feasible to make the first landing before November 22. Headquarters of the new corps, which has been created for the purpose of beginning the occupation, will be at Nuevitas, under the command of Gen. L. H. Carpenter. He is now in command of the cavalry brigade, composed of the Sixth and Seventh Cavalry, at Huntsville, Ala. The order is as follows:

The Official Order.

"The headquarters of six troops of United States Cavalry and the Third Georgia Volunteer Infantry will be at Nuevitas.

"Six troops of the Eighth United States Cavalry and the Fifteenth Infantry to Puerto Principe.

"The regiments will be prepared for embarkation at once, and the Subsistence Department will arrange for the necessary rations. The command will be equipped and rationed for 60 days.

"The Quartermaster-General's Department will furnish the necessary wagon transportation for use at their new stations.

"The Surgeon-General will make provision for hospital and medical supplies.

"Brig-Gen. L. H. Carpenter, United States Volunteers, is assigned to command these troops, with headquarters at Nuevitas.

"The cavalry brigade, composed of the Seventh and Eighth United States Volunteers, is discontinued. The Seventh is assigned to the First Army Corps and the Eighth to the Second Army Corps.

"The Fifteenth United States Infantry is detached from the Fourth Army Corps, and an infantry brigade created, composed of the Third Georgia Volunteers and the Fifteenth United States Infantry, and designated as the Second Brigade, Third Division, Second Corps.

"The orders sending the Second Brigade, Third Division, Second Corps, to Athaus, Ga., have been revoked."

General Carpenter's Staff.

The staff of General Carpenter's brigade will consist of the following officers:

Captain John E. McMahon, assistant adjutant-general of volunteers, adjutant-general; Capt. William K. Alexander, assistant adjutant-general of volunteers, quartermaster; Capt. William M. Loveland, commissary of subsistence of volunteers, commissary; Maj. William F. De Neidman, United States Volunteers, surgeon.

Nuevitas is a seaport at the eastern end on the northern shore of Cuba. Puerto Principe is located in about the central portion of the province of the same name. This general order has nothing to do with the assumption of control of the island by the United States, no change being made from January 1, the date agreed upon.

Preparations have also been made for the embarkation of other troops which may be directed to Cuba. These orders may be directed to other corps commanding, and not by general order such as just issued.

Cause of the Order.

It was explained at the War Department that the first movement of troops to Cuba was ordered in advance of the date originally intended for the reason that the Spanish Evacuation Commissioners had unexpectedly notified the American Commissioners that they intended to evacuate Puerto Principe on the 23d of the present month. Consequently it became necessary to have United States troops on hand in Cuba to replace these Spanish forces to maintain order and protect life and property.

JUSTICE FOR DREYFUS.

Court of Cassation Decides on Revision of Case.

PARIS, (Special).—The Court of Cassation granted the appeal for revision of the Dreyfus case, and ordered a supplementary inquiry, but refused to release the prisoner, pending a re-trial. The decision created no public excitement and complete tranquillity prevails on the streets.

The decision of the court textually, is as follows:

"In view of the letter of the Minister of Justice, dated September 20, 1899, in view of the arguments of the public prosecutor denouncing to the court the condemnation pronounced by the first court-martial of the military government of Paris, on December 22, 1894, against Alfred Dreyfus, then a Captain of artillery attached to the general staff; in view of all the documents in the case and also of articles 443 and 446 of the code of criminal procedure, amended by the law of June 10, 1895, relative to the admissibility of an application in proper form, for revision."
