LINDEN HALL.

Interesting Items from the Busy Town up the Valley.

Mr. Henry Zeigler was visiting her son Nathaniel, at Centre Hall, a few days of last week.

The engine owned by the Linden Hall Lumber Company, generally called the "dinkie" was wrecked on the track near Shingletown branch on Saturday. Repairs were brought up Monday and by Tuesday the well known whistle was again heard.

J. H. Ross had a new pair of scales built in his mill shed, which is another grand addition.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rossman, of Farmers Mills, were the guests of Henry Zeigler and family a few days of last week.

Miss Betty Kimport, of this place, spent a few days of last week in Bellefonte, as the guest of her brother Arthur.

Jimmy Markle who had been working on a farm west of Altoona for the last six months, returned to his home here on Thursday last.

$600 in an Old Bustle.

Mrs. Mary Stephen, a hermit, who lived in a tumble-down hut in Lehigh county, was found dead in her home on Tuesday. She was 72 years of age, and had the reputation of being a miser. This suspicion was confirmed when an investigation was made and $600 found sewed in an old bustle. In secret pockets in her dress $66.22 was found in coin.

Her husband died 25 years ago. Five years later she was tortured by the notorious "Ohio Jack" gang and robbed of $400. She generally wore four petticoats, in all of which she had money sewed. When found she had on four undershirts. She was eccentric and never mingled with her neighbors.

A Young Girl's Experience.

My daughter's nerves were terribly out of order. She was thin and weak; the least noise startled her, and she was wakeful at night. Before she had taken one package of Celery King the change in her was so great that she could hardly be taken for the same girl. She is rapidly growing well and strong, her complexion is perfect, and she sleeps well every night.—Mrs. Lucy McNutt, Brush Valley, Pa. Celery King for the Nerves, Stomach, Liver, and Kidneys is sold in 25c. and 50c. packages by G. H. Long, Spring Mills.

SPRING MILLS.

The Cleanings of Our Scribe Who is on the Lookout for News.

A Corman and Son closed their elder press on Tuesday last.

Hunters in our neighborhood report indifferent success.

Mrs. Lewis Waltz, who was stricken with paralysis on Saturday night last, is reported as being slightly improved.

Edward Confer, formerly employed by the Spring Mills Planing Mill Company, is now engaged with John Hagen of Farmers Mills. Mr. Confer will notwithstanding reside in our village.

Daniel Kennelley, one of our war worn veterans, is making decided improvements to his residence, both internally and externally, it adds greatly to the neighborhood.

Shooting at a mark in a field is all well enough, but when the target is so located that the shooting is directly towards the public highway, it becomes a very dangerous amusement.—A word to the wise is sufficient.

Burglars appear to be applying their trade quite vigorously in our neighborhood. During Sunday night last, the Spring Mills Planing Mill was entered and the robbers supposing the nail, screw and finishing apartment contained boxes and barrels full of gold and silver, broke it open, but being disappointed in their expectations, evidently retired in utter disgust for nothing is missing.

An election is no sooner decided, than candidates loom up and vegetate like mushrooms for the next political contest. Since the recent election, I have heard mention the names of several gentlemen, Democrats and Republicans, in connection with the several offices to be voted for next fall. Of course it seems very early to be scheming and maneuvering for a new contest, almost before the result of the last election has been fully digested, but this is American politics. Only one gentleman however, on the Penns valley side of the mountain, has positively announced that he is a candidate, and he is D. H. Ruhl the very popular landlord of the Spring Mills hotel, although there are several others on the tapis aspiring for most any office. I know that Mr. Ruhl has been repeatedly urged by his friends to enter the political arena, to which he seemed rather averse, but has finally concluded to be a candidate, and will now engage in a sharp contest for the Republican nomination for sheriff. That he is capable and ranks high in character is unquestionable, and his stance Republicanism admits of no doubt.

MILLHEIM.

An Interesting Account of What Has Happened in the Lively Town.

Sunday was a beautiful day, and consequently very many people noticed on our streets.

W. H. Smith and wife, of Water street, and Michael Frank and family, spent Sunday in Tusseyville.

Prof. and Mrs. J. W. King enjoyed the hospitality of their Millheim friends and relatives over last Sunday.

D. L. Zerby and wife are making a ten days' visit in Baltimore, where they are being entertained by Rev. M. I. Jamison and family.

On last Saturday Miss Mittie Winkelman and Mrs. Wm. Mauck, both of Nittany, came to this place to visit a short time with friends and relatives.

W. F. Smith, of Bellefonte, was in town on Tuesday. "Bill" is a jovial and all-round good fellow, and never finds himself an unwelcome guest in this community.

On our last inquiry, which was on Monday, we were told that our friend, the editor, R. A. Bumiller, is gaining strength and getting along very nicely. He has been very ill and was confined to his bed since July, but is now able to sit up the greater part of the time.

Mrs. Margaret Rieker, of Scranton, and Mrs. Anna Diehl, of Col., are visiting their parents, Jos. Cantners, in this place. The ladies had already departed for their respective homes, but returned to see their brother who came home on a furlough the day after they had left.

A party of men from town, accompanied by three men from Millersburg, are off for a week's hunting. They started at two o'clock on Monday morning, to the delight (?) of many of our town people, who so greatly enjoy being kept awake at that hour of the night.

There will be a union Thanksgiving service held in the Lutheran church at this place on Nov. 24th, at ten o'clock. The Aid society of the United Evangelical church, will also serve dinner and supper in a part of the old school building on Penn street on that day.

REBERSBURG.

Personal Mention and Other Items of Interest.

A quiet wedding took place in our town on Sunday evening.

Mr. E. C. Nearhood's were to town on Sunday to visit his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Nearhood were to Booneville to attend the funeral of her uncle.

Jacob Kerstetter will have sale and dispose of all his furniture Saturday next.

Rev. Mumma, of the Lutheran congregation, left our town for a new field of labor.

A drove of western horses were brought to our town on Monday, stopping at the hotel.

The Evangelicals of our town have started protracted meeting, but have no seekers as yet.

BOALSBURG.

An Epidemic of Typhoid Fever in this Generally Healthy Town.

Mrs. Charles E. Hower and Mrs. Scott Bricker were shopping in Bellefonte last Wednesday.

Mrs. J. N. Dinges, who has been sick for the past two weeks, we are glad to report, is again able to be about.

Union Thanksgiving service will be held in the St. John's Reformed church, at 10 a. m. Thanksgiving morning. Rev. Leisher will preach the sermon.

The High school students last Wednesday, instead of the Civil Government class, with the specimen ballots, elected Stone governor of Pennsylvania.

Boalsburg, generally a very healthy town, has had an epidemic of typhoid fever this fall. The doctors report five fully developed cases together with a number of light cases. No deaths have occurred at this writing, however Calvin Sagner continues very ill.

It often happens that the doctor is out of town when most needed. The two-year-old daughter of J. Y. Schenck of Caddo, Ind. Ter., was threatened with croup, he writes: "My wife insisted that I go for the doctor at once; but as he was out of town, I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy which relieved the child immediately." A bottle of that remedy in the house will often save the expense of a doctor's bill, besides the anxiety always occasioned by serious sickness. When it is given as soon as the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. Thousands of mothers always keep it in their homes. The 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mill; H. F. Rossman, Spring Mills.

CHAS. M. N. KILLEN, SPECIAL DESIGNS IN WALL PAPERS.

It does not cost any more to have artistic wall paper (if you buy it right, from the right man) than to have the commonplace kind. Good taste in wall paper will make a dark, bare and cheerless room so bright and beautiful that it is safe to say the same money spent in any other way would not do so much to make a home attractive. Whether you buy the most expensive or the lower price wall paper you need not get anything dull or ugly. The special designs I am now offering are all in good taste, whatever the prices. And the prices are wonderfully little. Both designs and coloring are the work of true artists. Rich new effects are shown in embossed golds, glimmers and silk effects for parlors and dining rooms; stripes, chintz, leather and floral effects for parlors, bedrooms, halls and dining rooms—all with 9-inch and 18-inch borders to match.

FREE SAMPLES MAILED

If you are going to paper one room or the whole house write us for samples. Let us know the kind of rooms you want to paper and about what price you wish to pay. We will mail you free samples of such papers as you request.

WE WANT AN AGENT in every town to sell our wall papers from sample books, and will allow liberal commission on all sales. No experience or money required to sell our goods. We furnish complete line of samples, including all grades and prices, showing a bigger variety of the latest designs and colorings than are carried by your local dealer, and at a much lower price. Full particulars about agency mailed on application.
