New Goods Arriving Daily

Our buyer has just returned from Eastern cities where he purchased a finer and larger assortment of goods than ever before carried by us.

Wolf & Crawford.

Foster's Weather.

My last bulletin gave forecasts of the storm wave to cross the continent from 11th to 15th and the next will reach the Pacific coast about 16th.

Warm wave will cross the west of Rockies country about 16th, great central valleys 19th, eastern states 20th.

A moderately high temperature wave has been expected to cross through the northern states not far from 12th, followed by a cold dip.

Not so Hard to Take.

A doctor down in Delaware is on the road to sure fame and honor. He prescribed kissing as a sure cure for indigestion, and some chronic dyspeptics there will form a society to advance the idea.

A Fast Runner.

A gentleman calling at a hotel left his umbrella in the stand in the hall with the following inscription attached to it: "This umbrella belongs to a man who can strike a blow of 250 pound weight."

THE SPORTSMEN.

The Hunting Season On.—Game Fairly Plenty.

The hunting season having opened, Centre county sportsmen are out in large numbers tramping mountains and fields for all kinds of game from deer down to quail, on foot or wing.

Deer, of course, are no longer plenty too much hunting in the last twenty-five years having thinned out this noble fleetfooted animal, that once was so numerous that the early settler could kill one and two any time before breakfast.

Some wild turkeys have been killed and according to reports these birds are not scarce, and many a gobular will be still before the season is ended, and Thanksgiving will yearn for the game.

Rabbits never were so numerous, and sportsmen never return without good luck. Pheasants are not scarce, and the expert wing shot always bags a few.

Squirrels have been plenty, and other smaller game could always be found. The weather has been unusually fine for hunting and camping out.

Keep an Eye Open for Him.

William Lytle, an old soldier of Stormstown, befriended a comrade a few days ago by giving him shelter and food. The "comrade" demonstrated his appreciation of the kindness shown him by stealing Mr. Lytle's pension check.

Upset and Run-off at Linden Hall.

On last Sunday evening, it being quite dark, Wm. Harshbarger, with his best girl, met with an accident in starting from Linden Hall for Potters Mills in a buggy.

Verdict in Turnpike Case.

The case of the Bellefonte, Aaronsburg and Youngmanstown Turnpike Road Co. vs. the County of Union which was still on trial at the time of going to press last week was concluded on Saturday, a verdict of $750 being rendered in favor of the plaintiffs and against the defendants.—Lewisburg Journal, 10 inst.

Successful Centre Haller.

At the late election two former Centre Hall boys were candidates for Coroner in Cambria county. Prof. Warren S. Krise on the Democratic ticket and Dr. Edward Miller on the Republican ticket, both residents of Johnstown.

A Veteran Cornhusker.—Big Ears.

Our old farmer friend, Jas. A. Sweetwood, of Centre Hill, aged 70 years, still knows how to husk corn. Not having done any husking for quite a number of years he tried his hand this fall, and scored 520 bushels.

Typoid Fever in Sugar Valley.

Typoid fever prevails to an alarming extent in Sugar valley, Clinton county. There are now over sixty cases in the valley. Five members in the family of Samuel Eisenhower are ill with the disease.

The old, old story, after election a reduction of wages and then strikes.

Sadly Afflicted Parents. John McDonald, a prominent citizen of Northumberland county, lost a child by death, last week, from diphtheria.

Mr. McDonald and wife have been especially afflicted by the death of their children, having already lost eleven. At the time of the diphtheria epidemic at Shearmanville, about six and one half years ago, they lost seven in a week, but they bore their sorrow with remarkable and christian-like fortitude.

Co. B Mustered Out. The Bellefonte National Guard, Co. B, was mustered out at Bellefonte, on Thursday last, and the soldiers, who were encamped there since October 18, scattered to their homes.

The mustering out officer was Capt. S. M. Miller, 5th U. S. Infantry, and the paymaster, Major W. W. Lang, of Washington. There was paid out $6,500, or about $67 to each enlisted man. The officers have not yet been paid.

Married on Sunday Evening. On Sunday evening at six o'clock, Mr. Forest Ocker, who for the last six months has been employed as clerk by Wolf & Crawford at this place, was united in marriage to Miss Orpha Bierly, of Rebersburg.

The wedding took place at the bride's home, and was private, only the immediate friends of the contracting parties being present. Rev. Stover, of Rebersburg, was the officiating minister. The bride and groom left for Harrisburg and other eastern cities on a wedding tour.

Married. On the 12th inst., at Bellwood, Pa., by Rev. J. H. Matters, D. D., Mr. Clayton A. McKinney, of Altoona, and Miss Kate E. Kessler, of Spring Mills.

A stubborn cough or tickling in the throat yields to One Minute Cough Cure. Harmless in effect, touches the right spot, reliable and just what is wanted. It acts at once; for sale by Smith & Crawford.

OLDEST IN THE COUNTY.

Mrs. Mary Eilert, of Dakota, Celebrates Her 94th Birthday.

The following article taken from the Freeport, Ill., Weekly Democrat, of Oct. 19th, will be of interest to many of our older readers:

To Mrs. Mary Eilert was given the pleasure of gathering about her four generations yesterday, when children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, besides nieces galore, down to great-grandnieces, and a host of other relatives gathered around the family fire-side to celebrate the ninety-fourth anniversary of her birthday.

When Grandma Eilert was born the United States extended only to the Mississippi river and this county, in which she now lives, was an unexplored waste, inhabited only by the roving red men. She has lived to see her country grow from a group of weak states to one of the powers of the earth, extending from ocean to ocean, and age has not impaired her memory or her mental faculties.

Mrs. Eilert was born at Millheim, Pa., October 18, 1804, and she was the daughter of Judge Kryder. Of her family one sister still lives, Mrs. James Evans, of Spring Mills, Pa. She married Michael Eilert and in 1842 they moved to Rock Run, Stephenson county, where she lived ever since. In 1853 her husband died. Of the three children born to her T. J. Eilert is the only one living and she makes her home with him in this village. S. H. Eilert died in California in 1881, and J. K. Eilert in Monroe in 1892.

Mrs. Eilert is the oldest person in the county and is held in highest esteem here. The celebration yesterday was a family reunion and a beautiful, old fashioned dinner was served. Mrs. Eilert said it was the most enjoyable event of her life and she hoped to see several more anniversaries.

Clinton County News. Mrs. Elizabeth, widow of Eli Kramer, died near Loganton, on 10th, of dropsy, aged 69 years. Mrs. Catherine, of Millheim, is a daughter.

Martin Saar, a Nippenose valley farmer, while out hunting on 9th, raised his gun to fire at a rabbit and fell dead, heart disease carrying him off without warning.

Mrs. Jane, widow of James Johnson, died on 14, at Millhall, aged 87 years.

Jonathan Stover, an old and highly respected citizen of Boonville, died on Monday. A state veterinary surgeon examined several herds of cattle in Nittany valley on Friday and found five head affected with tuberculosis. The diseased cattle were killed and will be paid for by the state.—Clinton Republican.

Chestnuts for Winter Use. A good plan for storing chestnuts for winter use is to place a small quantity of salt in the bags with the nuts. They will then become soft and sweet, and any worms which happen to be among them will be driven out.

The bags will become covered with sweat caused by the salt, but this will not impair the quality of the nuts in the slightest degree. This plan is followed by many persons and is considered one of the best.

Woes of the Non-Advertiser. The non-advertising merchant goeth forth to his lair at the rising of the sun and lo, no man interfereth. He standeth around all day like a bottle of castor oil, and the people with the shuffles come not to his shanty. He advertiseth not his wares, and his name is forgotten on the face of the earth. Who hath fly-soiled hams? Who hath stale baking powder without end? He that knoweth not the way to the printing office.

Ensign Curtin Married. Roland I. Curtin, U. S. N., was married to Miss May Randolph Hammersly, a daughter of Lewis R. Hammersly, of New York, on last Wednesday. The ceremony was performed in New York City. The groom is the eldest son of Gen. J. I. Curtin, of Bellefonte, and is an ensign in the navy. It is he who had the honor of receiving the surrender of Ponce.

Had Enough of the War. The Lewistown Gazette says: "At the roll call of Co. G, 5 Reg., P. V. infantry, held at the armory in this place on Monday morning, the members were asked to remain in the service instead of being mustered out—84 men were present and but one gave his assent."

New Industry. Samuel Mills, of Milroy, has taken a 21 years' lease on S. Bruss' stone quarry, near the pike midway between this place and Pleasant Gap. He is now at work taking out stones for building and paving purposes. He will put a machine there for sawing stones to order, and ship to all points by rail.
