

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of town.

—Will Boozer has been ill for some time past with pleurisy, but is slowly improving.

—Forest Ocker and his bride are in town the guests of Ed. Nearhood's family.

—Miles Arney is home from State College to spend Thanksgiving with his parents.

—Elmer Houtz, of Linden Hall, favored our sanctum with a call, and set his label into '99.

—Miss Emma McCoy went to Look Haven on Saturday on an extended visit with relatives.

—Miss Edna Murray went to Hartleton Tuesday, to attend the wedding of her cousin, Miss Flora Hartler.

—Miss Emma Aikens, of Bellefonte, was the guest of Miss Jennie Odenkirk several days last week.

—Mr. and Mrs. Rearick, of Snyder county, were here on a few days' visit to their son, Rev. J. M. Rearick.

—Miss Blanche Boal arrived home on Saturday after a visit of about six weeks with relatives in Pittsburg.

—Lyman Smith and family returned last Thursday from a visit of a week with friends in Williamsport.

—Will McClenahan has gone into the Seven mountains with the Bradford party on a ten day hunt for deer.

—Mrs. Mary A. Rearick, of Spring Mills, was a pleasant caller at the REPORTER office on Tuesday, while in town on a short visit to her son, W. O. Rearick.

—Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Meyer drove to Millersburg, Pa., last Thursday, on a visit to their son Charles, who is running a livery stable in that town.

—Miss Grace Alexander, student at State College is spending Thanksgiving at her home at this place. She is accompanied by her friend Miss Neta Guy. They will return Friday.

—Joseph P. Condo, a native of the east end of this valley, now a resident a Moccasin, Ill., is back on a visit. Joe has become prominent out there in business and political circles.

—Frank Benner, who was home on a short visit to his parents near the Old Fort, returned again to Maine on Tuesday last week. Frank says living is easier in that part of the country than in Pennsylvania, and he has a good position.

—Mrs. W. C. Heinle, wife of Senator elect Heinle, has returned to Bellefonte from the hospital in Philadelphia, where she underwent an operation. Her condition was a surprise to all, as she is looking well and the wound where a tumor was removed is almost healed.

—Wm. K. Alexander, of Millheim, was in town Monday exploiting the advantages of the Commercial telephone company, which wants to enter this territory providing sufficient shares of stock can be sold to justify the extension.

—Mrs. Andrew Shelly, of Mercersburg, and Mrs. Tice, of Green Castle, are visiting at the home of their nephew, Elmer Royer, near Old Fort. Mrs. Shelly brought with her a sample of sweet potatoes raised in that section of country, one potato weighing 3 1/2 pounds.

—William Singer, Centre county's affable and hustling District Attorney, was in town last Thursday on professional business. Mr. Singer will have completed two terms in office at the end of the year, when he will be succeeded by N. B. Spangler, the recent elect.

—Joseph M. Gilliland, of New Bloomfield, Perry county, is back to his old haunts in Centre county, and is out with a party in the Seven mountains after deer. Joe makes an annual trip up to his old home for a couple weeks hunt with the boys. He has lost none of his affability and his old Potter township friends are just as glad to see him as ever before.

It often happens that the doctor is out of town when most needed. The two-year-old daughter of J. Y. Schenk of Caddo, Ind. Ter., was threatened with croup, he writes: "My wife insisted that I go for the doctor at once; but as he was out of town, I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy which relieved the child immediately." A bottle of that remedy in the house will often save the expense of a doctor's bill, besides the anxiety always occasioned by serious sickness. When it is given as soon as the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. Thousands of mothers always keep it in their homes. The 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mill; H. F. Rossman, Spring Mills.

Only the Gun can be Used.

Hunters should remember that all game must be killed with a gun. If a sportsman comes across rabbit traps and grouse snares or deadfalls in the woods, he should not fail to destroy them and attempt to bring the owner of these unlawful devices to justice.

You invite disappointment when you experiment. De Witt's Little Early Risers are pleasant, easy, thorough little pills. They cure constipation and sick headache just as sure as you take them; for sale by Smith & Crawford.

SPRING MILLS.

Our Scribe Finds News of Interest in Our Neighboring Burg.

Commercial agents still report business on the road as fair.

Lem Blair and wife, of Cressen, formerly of our village, buried their infant daughter here on Tuesday last.

O. T. Corman the extensive produce dealer of our village, shipped a large lot of turkeys to the coal regions this week.

Edwin Ruhl and wife of our village made a trip to Lewistown on Saturday last, and report having had a very pleasant visit.

The foundation walls of the Evangelical parsonage are about finished. The rest of the work will be pushed rapidly to completion.

Butchering has commenced in earnest in this neighborhood. No very marvelous weight has been reported as yet, but no doubt before the week is over "heavy weights" will be quite numerous.

Frank Rearick having built a very substantial board walk in front of his bicycle establishment, Wm. Allison continued the walk up to near the pike. This is a decided improvement, as during wet weather it is impossible to pass through this locality without wading ankle deep in mud. Mr. Allison deserves the thanks of the community.

BOALSBURG ITEMS.

Death of Calvin Segner.—The Modocs Return With Four Deer.

Rev. and Mrs. Black spent last week in Philadelphia.

Mr. Fisher and family, of Bellefonte spent Sunday in Boalsburg.

David Stewart, Sr., has been confined to his room during the past week.

L. Roup formerly the huckster, has now charge of a meat market in Renova.

The Reiley party who were camping at Diamond valley for the past ten days, have returned but only secured one deer.

Samuel Bailey was stricken with paralysis last Tuesday morning while at the house of a neighbor, J. H. Meyer. We are glad to state however, he is about again.

The school board purchased two stoves from I. O. Meek, of State College, and they were set up on Friday, one in the High school room, the other in the Walnut Grove school house.

The Modocs returned last Friday, and had excellent luck. Three large bucks and one large doe with small prize. Every member save one saw live deer. Another party was camping near Bear meadows, they chased out several but were unsuccessful in getting any.

The union C. E. which has disbanded in order to form like societies in the several churches, has granted the use of their organ to the Boalsburg High school Literary society. The society last Friday night elected their officers for the ensuing month: President, George Hosterman; vice president, Margaretta Goheen, rec. sec'y, George Fortney.

Calvin Segner died last Friday morning, the first victim of typhoid fever. The funeral took place last Sunday afternoon; the services were held in the Lutheran church, Rev. Aikens officiating. The interment services were conducted by the Odd Fellows of Boalsburg, besides the lodges from Lemont, Penns valley and Centre Hall were well represented. Mr. Segner was 27 years of age, was a member of Pine Grove Lutheran church, and of the I. O. O. F., of Boalsburg.

A preliminary meeting of the Farmers' Institute was held in the grammar school room last Friday night. The meeting was called by State director Woodward, who was present and assisted in organizing. W. A. Murray was in the chair, and N. Meyers secretary; twenty-one persons, consisting of ladies and gentlemen, were nominated to consist of the general committee. They will meet on Monday evening, Nov. 28, at 7 p. m., in the High school room to select the chairman of the subordinate committee.

MILLHEIM.

A Bunch of Interesting Items from this Lively Point.

Butchering season has opened and many large hogs are being slaughtered in our town.

Rev. Faus closed his protracted meeting on Sunday evening, after having continued for two weeks.

Miss Blanche Meyer, one of Penn Hall's attractive young ladies, was noticed on our streets on Monday.

Miss Carrie Spigelmyer was visiting at State College a few days last week; while there she was the guest of Miss Sadie Hartler.

Mrs. J. H. Hall, of Mill Hall, spent Sunday in town; she visited her father, Israel Confer, who has been ill for many months.

H. L. Stine, of Red Lion, York county, formerly a resident of this place, is here visiting his many friends and acquaintances.

J. P. Condo and family took a trip to Sugar valley last Sunday, where they were royally entertained by Mrs. Condo's parents, Mr. Millers.

Miss Margaret Goodhart, first operator in the telephone exchange at this place, is confined to the house with sickness; during her illness Miss Sallie Brungard is taking her place.

J. H. Reifsnnyder made a business trip to Bellefonte, Milroy and Jersey Shore last week; Mr. Reifsnnyder appears to be enjoying better health at present than he has for some time, he spends the greater part of his time away from home.

A little child of J. R. Hays, living near Colquitt, Ga., overturned a pot of boiling water, scalding itself so severely that the skin came off its breast and limbs. The distressed parents sent to Mr. Bush, a merchant at Colquitt, for a remedy, and he promptly forwarded Chamberlain's Pain Balm. The child was suffering intensely, but was relieved by a single application of the Pain Balm. Another application or two made it sound and well. For sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; H. F. Rossman, Spring Mills.

COBURN.

A Hunter Caught in a Bear Trap.—Dogs Killing Sheep.

People have commenced to butcher in this section. Now for pon haus and metsle soup.

Frank Wingard shot a deer last week the first of the season for our hunters in this section.

Miss Caroline Yearick, a maiden lady of Millinburg, is spending a few days at this place, the guest of T. W. Hosterman and family.

Chester A. Kerstetter, his four-year-old son, and his sister-in-law, Miss Zubler, all have typhoid fever, but they are over the danger point.

The Lutheran Sunday school at this place will have one of their delightful Christmas Cantatas on Christmas evening in the Lutheran church.

Mr. Condo, of Stephenson county, Ill., spent a few days with his father-in-law, T. B. Motz recently. He was one of the invited guests to Mr. and Mrs. Musser's golden wedding, which happy event took place at Penn Hall on Monday evening.

A. B. Meyer one of our young hunters of this place, while out hunting on the White mountains, one of the principal ranges of the Seven mountains, last week in company with his father,

J. W. Meyer, and Andrew, and F. P. vonada, chased up a bear, and shot it before it could make its escape. His bearship weighed 240 pounds. Mr. Meyer feels very much elated over his success.

Quite a number of sheep have been killed by dogs in Penn township the last few weeks; our auditors are kept busy appraising damages. On last Saturday night one was killed for A. W. Ulrich, and on Monday night one for Emanuel Kerstetter, and a number for T. J. Stover. Last week some were killed for Edward Boob. Thus far all efforts to discover whose dog or dogs do the mischief have been futile.

Last week while W. J. Rote of this place and a few others were hunting for deer in Stone valley, William accidentally stepped into a large steel bear trap, and sprung the trap and was caught in it by one of his legs, and was held captive in it until his companions came and helped him out. He brought the trap along home as a trophy.

HUMPHREYS' VETERINARY SPECIFICS.

That the diseases of domestic animals, Horses, Cattle, Swine, Dogs, Hens, and Poultry, are cured by Humphreys' Veterinary Specifics, is as true as that people ride on railroads, send messages by telegraph, or sew with sewing machines. It is as irrational to bottle, ball and bleed animals in order to cure them, as it is to take passage in a sloop from New York to Albany. Used in the best stables and recommended by the U. S. Army Cavalry Officers.

CHAS. M. N. KILLEN,
SPECIAL DESIGNS IN WALL PAPERS.

It does not cost any more to have artistic wall paper (if you buy it right, from the right man) than to have the commonplace kind. Good taste in wall paper will make a dark, bare and cheerless room so bright and beautiful that it is safe to say the same money spent in any other way would not do so much to make a home attractive. Whether you buy the most expensive or the lower price wall paper you need not get anything dull or ugly. The special designs I am now offering are all in good taste, whatever the prices. And the prices are wonderfully little. Both designs and coloring are the work of true artists. Rich new effects are shown in embossed golds, glimmers and silk effects for parlors and dining rooms; stripes, chintz, leather and floral effects for parlors, bedrooms, halls and dining rooms—all with 9-inch and 18-inch borders to match.

FREE SAMPLES MAILED

If you are going to paper one room or the whole house write us for samples. Let us know the kind of rooms you want to paper and about what price you wish to pay. We will mail you free samples of such papers as you request.

WE WANT AN AGENT in every town to sell our wall papers from sample books, and will allow liberal commission on all sales. No experience or money required to sell our goods. We furnish complete line of samples, including all grades and prices, showing a larger variety of the latest designs and colorings than are carried by your local dealer, and at a much lower price. Full particulars about agency mailed on application.
