Quay has lost his "grip."

Hello, Mr. Quay, "the d-case" isn't "over" yet.

Justice Green, while the Quay case was being argued in supreme court last Saturday, took a nap on the bench when the argument was being made.

The trouble the machine boss has in the newspaper offices, and that is a powerful reason why he should be done up and laid away.

The proposed bill of representative Ford, of Allegheny county, creating intermediate courts between Justices' of the Peace and Common Pleas, prowhere the population is 100,000 and an and merry prose by Charles M. Snyof Justices of the Peace, etc., to cases $1500 each.

It is appalling that thousands of Republicans should desire to have Mr. Quay elected to the Senate for a third term knowing that he is covered all over with dishonesty and knowing that he falls far short of the qualifications required to represent the great state of Pennsylvania in the United States Senate. There are pure and able Republicans, Wanamaker, Dalzell, Grow, and others, that would be ereredit to our state in that august body, yet it would seem a great majority of the Republicans prefer a machine boss to an honest and capable man in the senate.

Great credit is due the Independent Republicans who refuse to touch or to be bossed by Quay. They are on the eve of bringing about the much needed Reform with the assistance of the Democrats. With the crushing of the machine Pennsylvania will be freed from a gang of plunderers that set in the shade carpet-bag rule in the south after the close of the war.

IN THE FIGHT TO STAY.

In answer to certain rumors that Flinn would in the end be induced to loosen his grip on the "old man," the senator replied

"I have enlisted for the war and I will go through with it if I am the on- den Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; ly man who sticks to the flag. The anti-Quay organization has been formed and I am in it, and we will fight to the finish. The trouble in the past in fighting Quay has been that he men at the front, while well ugh meaning, were always looking something for themselves, and they ere always fooled with that beautiilly polished gold brick that Quay is sold on many occasions. I had sample of the brick myself and I now it when I see it, and he had better not send it on a tour around where I am or it may become-disfigured."

There is fear among the Quayites that they may lose the Lancaster members. In that case Quay will be 24 votes short instead of 19. :
