

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of town.

George Ishler, Tusseyville's bustling butcher, was in town yesterday.

Mrs. David Bradford, of Eerlystown, was a pleasant caller at this office yesterday.

Miss Eva Moyer, of Centre Mills, spent several days this week with friends in town.

Landlord Wm. Runkle and daughter Pearl spent Sunday with friends in Spring Mills.

Mrs. Anna Hemphill will leave this afternoon on a month's visit with friends in Philadelphia.

Forest Ocker is in Rebersburg this week arranging to move his household effects to Centre Hall.

Our old friend and patron, John Foreman, was a caller, and put his label out to 1900. The grip has not yet found him.

Miss Florence Rhone went to Harrisburg last week on a visit to her sister May, and to attend the Governor's inauguration.

Blaine Loveland, of Lock Haven, is the young man who is instructing Ed. Nerhood in the art of making good bread and cakes.

Miss Emma McCoy, who had been staying in Lock Haven the last couple months, returned to the home of her sister, Mrs. J. W. Wolf.

John H. Moyer, of Colyer, one of the valley's jovial and pleasant citizens, was in town Monday, and in the course of his rounds favored the Reporter with a call.

Our Jacksonian friend, Jacob Neese, gave the Reporter a call and related his experience in curing a severe attack of grip several years back, a friend having informed him boiled cider was a sure cure.

Neese warmed up some cider, drank freely of it several times, and presto, the grip was cured.

Squire M. L. Rishell, the sturdy and towering Democrat from Farmers Mills, was a caller on Monday. The Squire is one of the few justices in the county who is successfully filling the position.

He has served several terms and many cases have been before him for judgment. His keen perception of the law is relied upon by all contenders, and seldom is there an appeal from his judgment to the higher court.

Hot Lemonade for the Grip.

Charles F. Heizer, of Brooklyn, writing to the Pittsburgh Times, says: It may interest your readers to know that during the great influenza epidemic in London in 1889 the board of health of that city advised the public affected with the disease to make an abundant use of hot lemonade. The perspiration caused thereby is in most cases sufficient to relieve the patient from severe colds and consequent complications, doing away with quinine or other drugs, which often leave unpleasant results.

In bronchial troubles the acid of lemons relieves the irritation of the throat, acting at the same time as a natural disinfectant.

Fresh lemon juice will kill cholera bacillus in water, hence it is not surprising that it will also destroy the so-called influenza bacillus.

Uses for Old Papers.

A few folds of newspapers under the cake tin prevents it burning while in the oven.

A few newspapers perforated with small holes for ventilation, tacked onto a blanket makes a warm and comfortable bed covering on cold nights.

Rub the hair brushes every morning with a pad of paper; it removes the dust. A piece of newspaper rolled into a pad is a good substitute for a saucen-pan brush.

Torn into shreds—a nice amusement for a child, by the way—newspapers can be put into washing ticks, and, if frequently changed, make a good bed for a small child.

Crush some paper in the hand and rub the cooking stove over after the cooking is done; it removes the grease quickly and keeps the stove in capital order if done frequently.

Do not throw away the stacks of newspapers which accumulate in every household. Dipped in cold water they will clean windows almost as well as though hot water and soap had been used.

Married.

Thursday evening, Jan. 12th, at the Lutheran parsonage, Harvey E. Smith, of Blanchard, and Annie S. Houser, of Centre Hall, were united in marriage by Rev. J. M. Rearick.

La Grippe Successfully Treated.

"I have just recovered from the second attack of la grippe this year," says Mr. Jas. A. Jones, publisher of the Leader, Mexia, Texas. "In the latter case I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and I think with considerable success, only being in bed a little over two days against ten days for the former attack. The second attack I am satisfied would have been equally as bad as the first but for the use of this remedy as I had to go to bed in about six hours after being 'struck' with it, while in the first case I was able to attend to business about two days before getting down." For sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; H. F. Rossman Spring Mills.

SPRING MILLS.

John Rossman Urged as Candidate for the Office of Supervisor.

Joseph Alters and R. G. Kennelley are now fixtures in the Spring Mills planing mill; both gentlemen are very excellent mechanics.

C. E. Confer and wife of our village left on Tuesday last to locate in Hinkley, Ill. We are very sorry to lose Mr. Confer; he proved a good citizen and besides is an unflinching Democrat.

Frank Long, of Punxsutawney, formerly of this place, has been here on a visit to his parents for the last week or ten days. He reports business in his locality as being very satisfactory.

Quite a number of our people are afflicted with the grippe, though in a mild form. Of course any trifling cold is at once pronounced the prevailing malady, and in consequence more cases are reported than actually exists.

On Saturday morning last I observed several parties pass through our village in sleighs. In the evening I saw the same parties on the home road, walking by the side of their horses, the snow having disappeared, of course sleighing was decidedly "off!"

Harry S. Snyder, a very bright youth at present engaged in the large establishment of C. P. Long, is fast growing in favor. He is very agreeable, always in good humor and will evidently, at no very distant day, be a very superior clerk.

Quite a large number of our citizens regardless of politics, seem determined to have John Rossman, one of our active and energetic farmers to announce himself a candidate for supervisor, because he knows exactly what the traveling community desire. A few years ago Mr. Rossman occupied that position, and immediately upon entering the office he went to work systematically, and with his knowledge of road building, soon placed our thoroughfares in a very superior condition and at little cost for the amount of work performed, besides Mr. Rossman gave every one an opportunity to work out their tax if they so desired. That he would again prove a supervisor of superior ability and judgment is beyond a doubt.

BOALSBURG.

The I. O. O. F. Supper Well Attended and Greatly Enjoyed.

The Weiland Bros. dined together at the home of John Weiland last Wednesday.

Charles Segner, in the name of the Lutheran congregation, presented Rev. G. W. Leisher with a nice, new portland sleigh.

There is a great deal of sickness about town, being generally bad colds or la grippe, no case, however is considered serious.

A sociable under the auspices of the Lemont Presbyterian C. E. was held last Thursday evening at the home of Samuel Glenn, at which many of our young people were present; all report a pleasant time.

Alva Meyers, who is taking a creamery course at State College, while making ice cream Saturday forenoon, had the misfortune to get the index finger of his right hand in a cog-gearing which cut the finger off at the first joint. He is getting along as well as can be expected.

Rev. Black announced a week of preaching in the Reformed church beginning January 24th, continuing until Sunday, January 29th when communion services will be celebrated in the morning at 10:30 o'clock. Preparatory services Saturday evening previous; Rev. Raub, of Altoona, will assist Rev. Black during the week.

Grandma Woods, who was stricken with paralysis nearly three weeks ago, and has for the past week been in an unconscious state, died Sunday forenoon. Funeral Wednesday at ten o'clock, interment in the Boalsburg cemetery. Mrs. Woods was in her 78th year; she is survived by five children, Mrs. Dr. Woods, Mrs. McGiffen, Mrs. Goheen, of Boalsburg; Cyrus, of Greensburg, and Dr. George Woods, of Pine Grove.

The I. O. O. F. supper held at the home of John Rupp, was a grand success, between eighty and ninety persons were present; visitors from five different lodges were present. The occasion was enlivened by music. After supper Bruce Harrison was selected as toastmaster who with a few remarks called upon the following persons, who responded with short but interesting addresses: Col. Frye, Prof. Hower, Peter Ishler, James Poorman, John Rupp and several others. All present report a delightful time.

MILLHEIM.

Incidents and Personal Mention from this bustling town.

J. C. Keen, of this place, has secured a position as fireman on the Beech Creek railroad.

Miss Jennie Bitner, a bright young lady from Penn Hall, was noticed on our streets Tuesday.

Mrs. Wm. Stover, of Feidler, is spending several days with her brother, F. O. Hosterman, at this place.

Rev. J. J. Lohr began revival services in the United Evangelical church at this place last Wednesday evening.

E. L. Auman, our popular miller, is so pressed with work that he keeps his mill running from Monday morning until Saturday night—without making a stop.

A. A. Alexander, George Keen, L.

Happily, and a number of other young men have taken Horace Greeley's advice and are going west to grow up with the country.

La grippe has made its appearance in this locality, and claimed quite a number of victims, among the most serious cases are W. K. Alexander, P. H. Musser and A. C. Musser.

Since the death of Mr. Bumiller S. D. Miller is acting editor of the Millheim Journal; Sanford is well adapted to the work, brings the paper out on time, and in every respect gives perfect satisfaction.

Saturday evening while Tobias Wetzel was on his way down to church, his foot caught at a pole that extended on the sidewalk and he fell, wrenching his leg. He suffers very much pain and the doctor pronounced the hurt worse than a break.

CENTRE HILL.

A Letter of Interest from Our Correspondent Across the Valley.

Sleighting is all gone. A hustling young man from Tusseyville was seen in town.

After fully completed, Smiths house will greatly improve the looks of the "hill."

Miss Francis Beaver, of this place, has gone to Boston to live with Bucher Holloway.

The meeting which is being held at Sprucetown has so far been real successful, three having been converted and five still seeking.

Rev. Bierly, of Kreamerville, preached on Saturday and Sunday evenings of last week, while Rev. Faus was preaching at the other end of the circuit.

Through the careless driving of some an almost serious accident occurred on Saturday evening while coming home from church. Racing on the road home from church, while the road is full of rigs, is not what it is cracked up to be. Saturday night's accident should be a warning to all.

CALIFORNIA.

Extraordinary Tour via Pennsylvania Railroad.

America is a great country. In variety and grandeur of natural scenery it is unrivaled. To traverse it, to behold its diversities and its wonders, is a liberal education, a revelation to the immersed metropolitan citizen.

The personally-conducted tour to California under the direction of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, which leaves on Feb. 9, affords a most excellent opportunity to view the vast variety and boundless beauty of this marvelous land. The party will travel over the entire route in the model Pullman train of smoking, dining, sleeping, and observation cars exhibited at the World's Fair, Chicago, and subsequently at Atlanta, Nashville, and Omaha.

This train will be placed in service for the first time on this occasion, and will be in charge of a Tourist Agent and Chaperon, who will look after all details of the trip, as well as the individual welfare of members of the party. Stops will be made at Mammoth Cave, New Orleans during Mardi Gras Carnival, El Paso, Los Angeles, San Diego, Redlands, Riverside, Pasadena, Santa Barbara, Monterey, Del Monte, Santa Cruz, Mount Hamilton, Menlo Park, San Francisco, Salt Lake City, Glenwood Springs, Colorado Springs, Manitou and Garden of the Gods, Denver and Chicago. Nineteen days will be spent in California.

Round-trip rate, including all necessary expenses during entire trip $400 from all points on the Pennsylvania Railroad System east of Pittsburg; $395 from Pittsburg. For itinerary and full information apply to ticket agents; Tourist agent, 1196, Broadway, New York, or address Geo. W. Boyd, Assistant General Passenger Agent, Broad Street Station, Philadelphia, Jan 12-21.

NEW JERSEY AND THE TRUSTS.

New Jersey is the birthplace and home of trusts. Every week the incorporation of some great industrial combination is announced from Trenton. A few days ago came the formal statement of the incorporation of the American Steel and Wire Company, with a capital stock of only $90,000,000 common stock and the remainder preferred. Steel wire has been advanced $2 a ton within a few days.

Great aggregations of capital find little or no difficulty in obtaining in New Jersey and West Virginia, authorization to conduct operations which cannot be initiated in the other States. Then, by the comity by which one State gives credence and recognition to the sovereign powers of another State, the Trusts essay to do business throughout the country. It is said that a single small room in Camden or Trenton may be the "headquarters" of as many as a dozen corporations, with capital mounting into the millions, although the office furniture would not bring $10 at a public sale. These corporations may have but normal location in New Jersey, but they derive their authority from the extraordinary laxity of New Jersey laws.

Mr. S. A. Fackler, editor of the Michigan (Fla.) Hustler, with his wife and children, suffered terribly from La Grippe. One Minute Cough Cure was the only remedy that helped them. It acted quickly. Thousands of others use this remedy as a specific for La Grippe, and its exhausting after effects; for sale by Smith & Crawford.

"We All Do Fade as a Leaf."

In memory of Daniel Thomas Weiland. We've lost a neighbor's presence, We miss a social link, And yet we see a halo When he faded like a leaf. That life he lived among us Seems perfect as a sheaf, More beautiful grown as years have flown Then fallen like the leaf.

We've lost a good church brother Whose character was grand, No more we'll see his features Or press his kindly hand, But like a benediction The memory gives relief, That a life not vain, was wholly gain When he faded like a leaf.

We've lost a loving father Whose counsels were the best, Our grief may not be spoken While now he is at rest, But his pure, high example Will help us bear that grief For each one know, he holier grew, While he faded like a leaf.

We've lost earth's life's companion, And earth is lonely grown; Such heavy sad bereavement We'll never know more, But now the holy Reaper Has gathered like a sheaf, The life he gave, beyond the grave That faded like the leaf.

We've lost—but stay, don't say so!!! We have not lost at all, That life but lives more truly Beyond earth's final call, So in this deep affliction, We'll let this thought be chief, That we'll go him, when earth's scenes are dim, For he faded like the leaf.

We've lost—by this dispensation Some ties which held to earth, But scenes beyond the shadows Seem nearer and of greater worth, And we'll hope to be reunited Beyond this life so brief, Near the great white throne, Where we'll all be known, When we've faded like the leaf.

Paul Perry, of Columbus, Ga., suffered agony for thirty years, and then cured his Piles by using De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve. It heals injuries and skin diseases like magic; for sale by Smith & Crawford.

Money Up in Smoke.

A man who chews ten cents worth of tobacco a day or smokes two five cent cigars a day will, in twenty years have spent $730. This put at interest at six per cent., compounded annually, would have yielded $609.99, which, added to the $730, makes a total of $1,339.99. Now is a good time to swear off.

To insure a happy new year, keep the liver clear and the body vigorous by using De Witt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills for constipation and liver troubles; for sale by Smith & Crawford.
