

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of town.
—Miss Ruth Tripple, of Bellefonte spent Sunday as the guest of Miss Mabel Boal.
—Mrs. D. F. Luse and Perry H. Luse went to Tyrone last Thursday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Wm. C. Luse.
—B. D. Brisbin left on Monday afternoon on a business trip to several points east. He expects to be absent at least ten days.
—Jacob Wagner, that genial and whole-souled Democrat from near Tusseyville, was a pleasant caller while in town a few days ago.
—Rev. G. W. Leisher, pastor of the Boalsburg Lutheran church, filled the pulpit for Rev. Christine last Friday night in a manner that favorably impressed his hearers.
—Farmer Ed. Stump, living a wee bit east of this place, was an hour's caller to engage in pleasant chat; he thinks the late cold snaps did some harm to the wheat fields.
—J. B. Royer, of near Pennhall, gave our sanctum a call and fixed his label to 1900. He will move back to Potter next spring and occupy the Burkholder farm west of Centrehill.
—Miffin R. Moyer and Milton Benner, two young men of Tusseyville, left this morning with the intention of taking up their residence in the west. They will locate near Manhattan, Ill.
—Rev. G. W. Curran, of Bloomsburg, spent a day or two last week visiting among his old friends in town. Rev. Curran was formerly stationed at Centre Hall in charge of the Evangelical church.
—James Love left this Thursday morning to return to his home near Manhattan, Ill. For several weeks past Mr. Love has been visiting his mother, and other friends in different parts of this section.
—Wm. Rokey, the hustling produce dealer at Tusseyville, was a caller on Monday morning. Wm. is one of the stiffest Republicans to be found in Potter township, but nevertheless, he's a first-rate good fellow. Wm. was the victim of a dirty political trick last spring. He was appointed postmaster at Tusseyville by Congressman Arnold. The bond was filed, and then Arnold withdrew his appointment and sent in another without any good reason being given. We doubt if that 5000 majority against Arnold afforded any one more satisfaction than it did William.

Teachers' Institute at Boalsburg. The local institute for district No. 2, will hold its sessions at Boalsburg, Feb. 10 and 11. The following is the program:
Friday, 7 p. m., Devotional exercises, Rev. Black. Address of Welcome, R. B. Harrison. Response, J. B. Stroh, J. L. Holmes.
Address: Opportunity and Responsibility of the Educator.
Saturday, 9 a. m.: Devotional exercises. Recitation, James Glenn. Educational Value of Obedience, H. E. Hosterman. The Teaching of Grammar, M. E. Heberling, J. B. Bible, E. H. Williams. The Teaching of Primary Geography, J. Albert Williams, Bessie Walker, D. K. Keller. The Director in the School Room, Chas. E. Hower. Recitation, George Meyer.
Saturday, 1 p. m.: Recitation, Hattie Kaup. Address, Supt. C. L. Gramley. The Phonetic Element in Teaching, Rev. G. W. Leisher. Observation Work as a Branch of Study, L. W. Musser, D. W. Geiss, W. M. Kerlin. The Teaching of Language and its Use Within School and Without, B. M. Wagenseller. The Use of the Dictionary in the School, G. W. R. Williams, A. J. Tate, D. R. Foreman. Recitation.

Dangers of the Grip. The greatest danger from La Grippe is of its resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for a gripe we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia which shows conclusively that this remedy is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. It will cure a gripe in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Pottery Mills; H. F. Rossman, Spring Mills.

Tusseyville. The evening services at Bethany church will be attended.
Adam Krumrine received the Democratic nomination for road supervisor.
H. C. Shirk has what seems to be a slight attack of the gripe.
John Wert and lady attended evening preaching services at Boalsburg last week.
Rev. H. W. Diller, of Renova, visited at the home of his aunt, Mrs. J. B. Spangler.

La Grippe is again epidemic. Every precaution should be taken to avoid it. Its specific cure is One Minute Cough Cure. A. J. Shepherd, publisher Agricultural Journal and Advertiser, Eldon, Mo., says: "No one will be disappointed in using One Minute Cough Cure for La Grippe." Pleasant to take, quick to act; for sale by Smith & Crawford.

SPRING MILLS.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller Celebrate Their Golden Wedding.
Wm. Steely and wife, of Lewistown, who have been here on a visit for the last week, returned home Monday last.
R. G. Kenneley, Republican nominee for constable, after being afflicted with the prevailing malady for the last week or ten days, is back again at his old post in the Spring Mills planing mill.
William Allison has been on the sick list for the last week; also David Barree and David Burrel two of our war worn veterans. Mr. Allison is slowly improving while the latter gentlemen are not mending very rapidly.

The Democratic caucus on Saturday last nominated the following ticket: Justice of the Peace, M. L. Rishel; Supervisors, A. Cornman, Jeff. Heckman; Overseer of Poor, Emanuel Ungard; School Directors, John Hagan, Elmer Boob; Auditors, John Shook, C. Zeigler; Constable, Reuben Kline; Town Clerk, Geo. Breon. Election Board, Judge, T. Jamison; Inspector, Duncan Runkle. The ticket seems to give general satisfaction with possibly one exception, there appears to be considerable opposition to the candidate for constable, and in all probability an independent candidate will be placed in the field. The result of the Republican caucus is the following: Justice of the Peace, no nomination; Supervisors, E. Feteroff, I. Armbruster; Overseer of Poor, Isaac Smith; School Director, Wm. Allison; Auditor, Samuel Brown; Constable, R. G. Kenneley; Town Clerk, C. King. Election Board Judge, Robert Smith; Inspector, Wm. Alexander. As the lines are pretty well drawn, and this township overwhelmingly Democratic, there is very little hope of any of this ticket being successful with possibly the exception of school director, Wm. Allison, who has proven himself thoroughly qualified for the position, and discharged the duties so impartially and justly, that his reelection might be said to be a foregone conclusion. The political contest in Gregg township is now in full blast.
On the 25th inst. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller, of our village, celebrated the anniversary of their marriage of half a century by a golden wedding. The occasion was a most delightful, one, and participated in by a large number of relatives and friends, many of whom were from a distance. Mr. and Mrs. Miller nee Miss Hannah Kenneley, were married January 25, 1849, by Rev. Daniel Hartman, now deceased. On the occasion of the anniversary, the interior of the residence was beautifully and very artistically decorated with plants and evergreen, evidently the handiwork of an artist, all presenting a most inviting scene. The parlor was thronged with a gay and distinguished assemblage of guests. The venerable groom and his bride of course were the "observed of all observers," and they received their friends in the most cordial and pleasant manner, causing every one to feel perfectly at home immediately after their reception. Congratulations, chit-chat and lively conversation consumed the hour previous to the announcement of dinner. Entering the spacious dining room, was a sight beautiful to behold and one not soon forgotten. The massive tables were very artistically arranged and set in an elegant manner, and furnished with a marvelous profusion of substantial and delicious of the choicest character, to which the guests did ample justice. The presents were numerous, handsome and costly, consisting of gold coin, silver and glass ware, table linen, towels, wearing apparel. Among the presents especially admired, was a half dozen gold lined coffee spoons elegantly chased, and of a very novel design, presented by Mr. and Mrs. M. Shires. Late in the afternoon all the guests departed after expressing themselves as having been most delightfully entertained.

MILLHEIM. Personal Mention and Other Interesting Items.
Charles Bassler, of Freeburg, visited in our town several days last week.
Mrs. W. R. Henney, of West Main street, is confined to the house with gripe.
The widow of the late Robert Miller died at her home on East Main street, Tuesday afternoon.
On February 1st Hosterman and Rain, the new proprietors of the Millheim Journal, took possession of the office.
At the coming spring election the question of "water or no water" will figure largely in the selection of councilmen.
Miss Maude Musser returned to Rochester, N. Y., last Saturday after spending two weeks with her parents at this place.
A Mr. Jack-on from New York, is in this locality endeavoring to introduce some new and plausible features in the line of life insurance.
Miss Lizzie Condo, the attractive daughter of J. P. Condo, left on Tuesday for Hebbville, Md., where she will visit her uncle, Rev. M. A. Kenneley.
J. C. Smith, one of our wide awake merchants, made a flying trip to Pittsburg on Tuesday, accompanying Sheriff Cronister who conveyed several prisoners to the Western penitentiary. The race for constable in Millheim

Boo promises to be an interesting one. It is reported that in addition to the regular nominees one or two additional parties will file nomination papers and enter the race.

BOALSBURG.

The Primaries Well Attended and Nominations Made.
The work on the new water plant is idle at present owing to the cold weather.
William Mothersbach, who has for the past two weeks been sick with the gripe, is about again.
Farmers Institute this week. The decorating committee decorated the church last Friday very prettily, with spruce; the bunting was arranged on Monday making a very handsome decoration.
The High School Literary Society held their first session in the town hall, having been fitted up by the school board for that purpose. A collection will be taken up next Friday night to meet the expenses of the society.
The week of preaching was well attended. Rev. Raub preached Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday evening to a full house. Rev. Black confirmed a class of fourteen persons Saturday night. The communion on Sunday morning was very largely attended.
The Democratic primaries were held Saturday afternoon, with a very large attendance, about a hundred. Prof. P. H. Meyer was chosen chairman and the following nominations were made for the spring elections: Judge, Michael Hess; Inspector, David Bohn; Constable, Alfred Osman; directors, D. Thomas, P. Ishler, Tressler; overseer, Hook; auditor, J. Dingess; clerk, Adam Zeigler; supervisors, A. Kuhn, Ezra Tressler.
Republican primaries were held Saturday night, the following is the ticket named: Judge of Election, A. Felty; Inspector, Frank Allen; Supervisors, A. Zeigler, W. Baumgardner; Constable, Alex Miller; School Directors, J. H. Ross, Frank McFarlane, Wm. Hoover, Sr.; Overseer Poor, O. Mothersbach; Auditor, T. Stuart; Clerk, Wm. Houser.

CENTRE HILL. Items of Interest Gathered by Our Correspondent.
A little snow again, but no sleighing.
A bay horse is frequently seen at the assessors.
Quite a good deal of sickness in the neighborhood.
A heifer owned by the Meyer Bros., gave birth to a pair of twins last week.
Miss Edith Barris sojourned among friends at this place and Potters Mills.
The Lord's supper was administered at Spruce town last Sabbath by Rev. Faus.
Rumor says J. C. Vonada will move on the Benner farm, near the Old Fort, next Spring.
We are glad to say that our neighbor, Mrs. Ellen Burkholder, is again able to be out.
Rev. Faus closed his protracted meeting at Spruce town last Thursday evening. He had fair success; eight joined the church.
Cal. Vonada, who had been gathering milk and eggs for the Centre Hall creamery has given up the job; M. N. Miller expects to take his place.
Mrs. Susan Burkholder has bought the Mrs. Adams home at Potters Mills, and expects to move there next spring. J. B. Royer will occupy the Burkholder farm.

Meyer Bros. are building a hinstack at the same place they built last winter. They are giving their farm quite a cleaning up and will soon have a good farm.
Miss Jennie Smith, who had been living with Dr. Van Valzah's, at Spring Mills, came home sick last week and is still bedfast. She had a slight attack of pneumonia but is somewhat better.
The Democrats had quite an enthusiastic caucus here last Saturday; there were 205 votes cast. People are awakening to their interests; nominations were as follows: Constable, Philip Frank; School Directors, George Emerick, Adam Heckman; Supervisors, John Kuhn, Adam Krumrine; Overseer of Poor, James Moyer; Auditor, David Keller; Town Clerk, John Heckman. North Precinct, Judge of Election, David Bradford; Inspector, Jas. Wert; Registration Assessor, George Koch. South Precinct, Judge of Election, Charles Swartz; Inspector, H. F. Musser; Registration Assessor, W. W. Royer.

LINDEN HALL. A Letter of Interest from the Neighbor-ing Town.
The main topic is gripe.
County Supt. C. L. Gramley visited our school Tuesday last.
Mrs. Robert Corl was visiting friends at Pleasant Gap a few days ago.
Howard Harter, of Laurelton, is visiting friends in this community.
Mrs. Stover and Mrs. Zong spent Tuesday of this week with friends at Oak Hall.
Daniel Welland left for his home in Pueblo, Colo. on Wednesday evening last.
Michael Segner and wife, of Boalsburg, were guests of Mrs. E. Gettig on Thursday last.
Miss Lulu Lowminger was visiting friends at Glen Iron, Union county, a few days ago.

John Long and John Diehl, two of our young sports, took a trip to Brush valley over Sunday.
James Wagner and wife and son spent a few days of last week with friends at Tusseyville.
Wm. Felding and H. C. Gettig took a flying trip to Lemont on Monday and Tuesday of this week.
Mrs. D. T. Welland and sons Daniel, Frank and Clyde were to Bellefonte Monday last on legal business.
Grandfather Markle returned Monday from a visit to his daughter Mrs. Mary Campbell, of Lemont.
Mr. Sechrst and wife, of Lebanon, returned to their home after a pleasant visit at the home of James Ross.
The weather has been so varied the last few weeks that it keeps a person on the jump to keep up with it.
Some of our farmers will leave here in the spring; a number of changes will take place when spring comes.
Henry Zeigler and son Irvin attended the dedication of Green Grove church south east of Spring Mills.
The result of the caucus on Saturday created quite a stir in our community; the two parties seem to be mixed up considerably.
The Farmers' Institute in session at Boalsburg this week is fairly well attended by people from all over the county.
Mrs. Nora Smith wife of Dr. Smith, of Altoona, was the guest of James Ross and family, but returned to her home last week.
A. E. Zeigler and sister Katie also attended the dedication and remained with friends at Penn Hall over Sunday and report a pleasant time.
There is a disease prevailing among the children resembling scarlet fever; it was first supposed to be only a rash, but is now reported to be that dread disease; hope it may not spread.
Quite a number of our people are housed up with the gripe, some of them are not yet able to be around, among them being Squire Sellers and Mrs. George Swabb.

Another Good Worker Heard From. Mr. Fred Kurtz, Editor of the Centre Reporter: Dear Sir: After having carefully examined the last annual statement of The Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Company, as published in the Reporter of Jan. 19th, with great satisfaction and feelings of commendation, for the good work done the last year. I was also greatly pleased to notice an article in the Keystone Gazette of last week, speaking in high terms of commendation of this company; and especially was I pleased to see stated in said article that "the amount of insurance taken in the past year was $366,035, of this amount $111,790 was reported by agent Jacob Bottorf, which is the largest amount yet reported by any one agent." For the part of the successful work done in this matter by my friend Mr. Bottorf, I most heartily commend and congratulate him. But that part of the quoted sentence, "which is the largest amount yet reported by any one agent," I do hereby kindly wish to correct. From the fact that I kept a correct record of all my work done as agent for said Company, for twenty six years, I know that the Company's books will show that I, for the year 1874, reported 65 applications, amounting to $115,177, and for the year 1879, reported 68 applications, amounting to $110,221. Anxiously waiting for the agent who exceeds Mr. Bottorf's and my record, I am still a friend of the Centre Hall Fire Insurance Company. SAMUEL GRAMLEY.

PUBLIC LEDGER
PHILADELPHIA.
SPECIAL OFFER TO LEDGER READERS.

The Public Ledger offers to its readers in connection with a 25 weeks' subscription, and the payment of 50 cents additional, a copy of the Ledger's Unrivalled Atlas of the World. This Atlas has been specially prepared for the Public Ledger by Rand, McNally & Co., New York and Chicago, and is one of the best works of its kind ever offered to the public.

The Unrivalled Atlas of the World contains over 330 pages, elegantly printed on fine calendered paper, marbled edges, bound in English cloth, with handsome gold stamp, size 11 1/2 by 14 1/2 inches. It contains 107 full-page colored maps, showing every country on the face of the globe, every State in the Union, principal cities, etc., with blue marginal index.

It contains nearly 400 fine engravings of the world's people, statesmen, soldiers, etc.
It contains a ready reference list of every town in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and Delaware.

It contains in a brief comprehensive form more general, practical information regarding the physical, historical, ethnological, governmental, financial, and commercial conditions of the world than any work published.

This Atlas is offered to introduce The Ledger to new readers with the firm belief that those who become acquainted with the merits of The Ledger will not be willing to give it up.

The Public Ledger is Pennsylvania's Greatest Home Newspaper, giving all the news of the day, classified and in complete form. In its columns every statement is verified and carefully edited; its news is therefore reliable and clean.

The Directors of many school districts have adopted The Ledger for supplementary reading matter in their schools, and placed a copy of The Atlas in each school library.

How to Get the Atlas.
Forward the price of 25 weeks' subscription, plus 50 cents ($3.62) to The Ledger and the name of your nearest express office. The Atlas will be forwarded by express, or if you are not near an express office include 52 cents for mailing and the Atlas will be mailed to your postoffice with The Ledger.
