

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of town. Our old friend Stiffler, of Centre Hill, was a caller, and just about over the grip. Mr. and Mrs. William Foster, of Millinburg, are guests at the home of Mrs. Mary Odenkirk. Green Irvin, of Oakhall, and Mr. Mitchell who has his home with him, were callers upon the Reporter. F. E. Wieland, Linden Hall's live merchant and grain dealer, gave us a call a few days ago while in town. Mrs. Annie Van Pelt has been confined to the house the last week, from the effects of an attack of the grip. Clyde Smith, who is in the employ of the Commercial Telephone Company, came home Monday on a short vacation. Mrs. J. D. Murray left on Monday on a visit to the home of her son Chris, at Germantown. She will remain several weeks. E. J. Maloney, assistant superintendent, of Bellefonte, was in town a couple days the last week renewing Bell telephone contracts. Perry Luse and wife attended the funeral of Mrs. Luse's aunt, Mrs. Yearick, at Jacksonville on Saturday. Mrs. Luse has not yet returned home. Geo. F. Weaver, one of Gregg township's rising young men, favored our sanctum with a call. He ordered the announcement of his name as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Register. Prof. P. H. Meyer, of Boalsburg, who is conducting the musical jubilee in grange hall this week, is an able instructor, and his conventions are always successful. He is very popular and is one of the few who know how to handle such affairs. John Bitner, of near this place, favored our sanctum with a call in company with tax collector Jacob Lee. Mr. Bitner may be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for commissioner for which, he informs us, he has received fair encouragement.

And They Were Finally Married.

This is how a Bartlett, Tex., reporter recently began an account of a local marriage: "Thursday was a most beautiful day. Not a cloud flecked the blue sky, and the sun placed a mantle of gold on the earth. It was a winter day by the cycles of the earth; it was a summer day by the temper of the city, the pulsation of hearts and the smile of radiant faces. While unseen angels sang the marriage anthem, visible forms whispered o'er and o'er the old, old song of love that the heart fosters through the valleys overgrown with shadowy tresses."

CENTRE HILL.

Items of Interest to Our Readers, From Across the Valley.

Several cases of la grippe around here. Father Strohm, of this place, seems to be growing very feeble. Miss Kathryn Beaver is living with Harry Shirks. Harry and wife are laid up with grippe. William A. Kerr came home Saturday evening, after spending the week at Bellefonte attending court. We are glad to say that Miss Jennie Smith, who had been sick for several weeks, is again able to be around. We notice a great many broken places in the snow along the road, where people have been unfortunate enough to fall. The blacksmith of this place has another fine lumber sled for sale. Now is the time you need it, when there is plenty of snow.

An Honest Remedy for La Grippe.

George W. Waitt of South Gardiner, Me., says: "I have had the worst cough, cold, chills and grip and have taken lots of trash of no account but profit to the vender. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the only thing that has done any good whatever. I have used one 50-cent bottle and the chills, cold and grip have all left me. I congratulate the manufacturers of an honest medicine." For sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Pottery Mills; H. F. Rossmann, Spring Mills.

Thousands of Cattle Die in the Snows of Texas.

Dallas cattlemen received despatches from northwestern and western Texas saying that stockmen in those sections have suffered great loss in their herds by the cold weather of the last month. The thirteenth snow of the season now covers the Texas Panhandle, and cattle have died by thousands from lack of food by freezing. In Moore county the losses of cattle have been particularly severe, and the country west of San Angelo is full of dead sheep. Texas stockmen were not prepared for such a bitter winter, it is thought, and their losses will run into millions.

Mr. S. A. Fackler, editor of the Minnecopy (Fla.) Hustler, with his wife and children, suffered terribly from La Grippe. One Minute Cough Cure was the only remedy that helped them. It acted quickly. Thousands of others use this remedy as a specific for La Grippe, and its exhausting after effects; for sale by Smith & Crawford.

COBURN.

A Letter of Interest as Gathered by Our Correspondent. We have a few La Grippe cases in town, but they are all of a mild character. There seems to be an epidemic of chickenpox among the school children of this place at present. The icy pavements on Saturday was a constant menace to pedestrians, and many falls were the result. D. C. Johnson is about completing his lumber operations on the Kerstetter tract west of town. A German hailing from New York City, was in town a few days this week, repairing clocks and watches. Emanuel Kerstetter has sold his dwelling house to Mary Grimes, who will move into it on the first day of April. Rev. Lohr, of the United Evangelical church commenced a series of meetings Sunday evening to continue several weeks. Jacob Kerstetter and Adam Bowersox took in the Farmers' Institute at Madisonburg last week, and report a good meeting. George Reiter and his family now live in the sales room of the distillery, since their house was destroyed by fire two weeks ago. Mrs. George Mark of near this place, gave birth to a bouncing young daughter one day last week and now Der George can es bubley schuckle de wile es si finger haledoon. The members of the Evangelical church at this place, are making efforts to raise enough funds by private subscriptions to build a shed in the rear of their church lot, and to paint their church when the weather will permit. The contest for constable promises to be hotly contested; two regularly nominated candidates and one independent are in the field, and expect the dear people of the district to elect all of them. The correspondent of the Centre Democrat, hailing from "Georgetown" has found out of a new station along the L. and T. known as Drum Station; as yet we have not found out whether the railroad officials have given their consent to the new name or not. Efforts have been made to secure a singing school at this place to be conducted by Prof. P. H. Meyer, of Boalsburg, but thus far without success. This is the kind of instruction needed by our young people, and the movement should receive the encouragement of all. The fall of the beautiful has made sleighing fine, and now the lumberman chuckles with delight as he hauls the big tree to his mill, and cutteth it up into lumber and shippeth it to market. It maketh his heart glad when he counteth his golden pile, and forgetteth that the rest of mankind batteth with the snow and diggeth the firewood from under the snow and sweareth that the fire will not burn.

SPRING MILLS.

Gregg Township Having a Lively Scramble Over the Constable Question.

Mrs. William P. Alexander, of our village, has been seriously ill for the last ten days or two weeks with heart trouble and other complications. Her present condition is very critical. The suit against P. R. Auman by James McCool, two of our well known citizens; for trespass and damages amounting to five hundred dollars was discontinued, and the costs paid by Mr. McCool. All the stores in our village report a very satisfactory business during January. Commercial agents report traffic on the road as being very fair, orders are small but numerous. Orders for spring stock, advanced dating, are very limited—too early. D. H. Ruhl the popular landlord of our village inn, has been in Bellefonte all week as juror, and being a Republican candidate for the nomination for sheriff, of course when off duty was "looking around." From the scattering information I have received, and from other reliable sources—parties who are well informed as regards the drift of political matters, Mr. Ruhl is evidently growing in favor and popularity, and has already marshalled quite a strong following. On this side of the mountain he is unquestionably the choice of the Republican party for sheriff. William Allison, of the milling firm of Allison Bros, has been quite ill for the last two weeks but is now slowly convalescing. Mr. Allison is one of our present school directors, and has been again renominated by the Republicans for his third term. Being a very popular gentleman and thoroughly qualified for the position, Mr. Allison has always received the support of a large number of Democrats who in the matter of school directors, look to efficiency and ability—not party, and he will again be so supported. His reelection is almost beyond a doubt. D. I. Wance residing a short distance above our village, will leave for Illinois on the 20th inst. We are sorry to lose Mr. Wance, but he has just received a first rate offer from that section and accepted it at once, and is obliged to leave rather suddenly. He had no time to make sale, but informed me that he was now packing all his effects and will have them shipped, all but a new reservoir and dry oven cook stove which he will sell rather than run the risk of having it broken. A man moving west with all his household effects seems to be an unnecessary expense. The ups and downs of life were wonderfully exemplified here on Saturday last. The rain of the previous night froze as fast as it touched the ground, converting our streets and walks into one vast sheet of ice. Quite a number of our goodly people went down "ker-soek" while playing circus on the ice surface in order to retain their footing, and many when up, neglected to remain up and soon went down again. Others in their circumambulations were so cautious and watchful, that it looked as if they were walking on eggs and trying to avoid breakage, and even then despite the care exercised, before they knew it they were sprawling on their backs contemplating strange sights of innumerable stars and odd shaped moons at midday, and at the same time uttering expletives so emphatic, that the ice cracked and the surrounding atmosphere emitted a sulphurous odor. Quite a number were hurt by slipping and falling, but no one very seriously. Since the caucus of both parties, the shoe emporium of C. A. Krape is thronged day and night with politicians of high and low degree, all discussing the political questions of the day. Besides our township candidates the discussions take a wide range, Expansion, Monroe doctrine, Imperialism, Quayism, and almost every other ism under the sun seems to engage the attention of the statesmen congregating in this well known bazaar for high grade shoes for little money. The discussions on the several topics at times is so spirited, lively and confusing, that frequently Mr. Krape can hardly distinguish a brogan from a joint of stove pipe—an extra policy of life insurance for Mr. Krape, is respectfully suggested. Here in Gregg township we have a triangular contest on the constabulary question. J. Orvis Beatty, one of our active young men, has announced himself an independent candidate for constable; the wisdom of his action is pronounced questionable. True, among our voters there appears to be considerable objections to Reuben Kline, present incumbent, and who has held the office for a period of time, the memory of man runneth not to the contrary, although this opposition did not manifest itself to any degree at the primary. Several candidates were nominated and balloted for, but Mr. Kline received fifty-one votes and Mr. Beatty fifty votes, a margin exceedingly slight, but still sufficient to make Mr. Kline the regular Democratic nominee, notwithstanding I have heard quite a number of Democrats assert positively that they will not vote nor support him. Of course this opposition is an unknown quantity, but should it prove very considerable there is a possibility of Mr. Beatty being elected. Still Mr. Kline being unquestionably the regular Democratic nominee, and renominated by a perfectly fair vote, as the case stands today his defeat is not very likely. R. G. Kenneley also one of our energetic young men, is the Republican nominee for the same office. The supposition is that if the division of the Democratic ranks assumes any considerable proportions and the dissatisfied Democrats refrain from voting, he might possibly slip into the office, of course he might, but that word ends all. On a full vote Mr. Kline and Mr. Beatty could divide the Democratic vote between them, and yet either one would have a majority over the Republican nominee. Mr. Kenneley's only hope will be in the dissatisfied Democrats voting for him direct, or by not voting at all, and he receiving the entire Republican vote—a possibility not very probable.

MILLHEIM.

A Lively Runaway Saturday Evening, No Accident Resulted.

Jonathan Harter, of Penn street, is another grippe victim. Miss Leah Herman, of State College, is visiting friends in this section. Harry Condo and L. E. Stover, of this place, are at present housed up with the grippe. Miss Edna Stover, of Loganton, is visiting her brother G. R. Stover, on East Main street. Miss Ada Breen, who has been in Harrisburg for the last four weeks, returned to this place Monday evening. On Monday morning J. H. Crouse and F. O. Hosterman took the latter team of horses to Bellefonte, where they were sold to a Mr. Miller, of Tyrone. The coating of ice which covered the streets since last Friday, made excellent coasting. The coasters started on the hill on West Main street and ran down as far as the marble yard on East Main street. The horse sale on last Thursday brought a great many people to town; the crowd is reported to have been the largest in attendance at any of the sales held before. The price of the horses, which numbered twenty-one, ranged from $35 to $125. Millheim will have a convention next week! Something is actually being done to wake up the people of this place. Prof. R. D. Owen, of New York, has been secured to conduct the music, and will be assisted by Annie Grimm, of Ta Wilson, of Last Saturday.

Mills' sports, were on their way home from this place, their horse became unmanageable and a short distance above town spilled on the occupants of the sleigh and went through town at a break neck speed, tearing out porch posts, breaking off lamp posts, shutters, etc. He was caught in a field east of Aaronsburg, still hitched to the sleigh, and with only a few scratches on his body.

REBEBSBURG.

Personal Mention and Other Interesting Items.

Sleighting at present. William Motz, of Woodward, was a guest at the hotel Saturday evening. Jared Kreamer, of Centre Hall, was a guest at Nearhood's hotel Monday. There has been considerable sickness in our town of late, but all are improving. Our water committee is busy at work as the water of the town has been frozen. George Greninger of this place, will start for Illinois on the 14th of this month. Mr. Steiner and family left for Nittany valley where they intend spending a few weeks visiting friends and relatives. Mrs. Orpha Ocker is getting ready to move to Centre Hall on the 16th of this month; have a little patience Forest, she will be there. Miss Annie Nearhood, daughter of our landlord A. L. Nearhood, left for Centre Hall to visit her brother Ed. and take in the convention this week. Miss Lulu Erhardt formerly of our town, but now of Lock Haven, is sojourning among her friends and relatives; she intends spending about two weeks at home with her parents. George Nearhood who left for Illinois two weeks ago, wrote to his parents and says he likes the west quite well and thinks of making it his future home.

TUSSEYVILLE.

Interesting Items from that Busy Section Given by Our Correspondent.

Lots of snow; good sleighing again. Edward Mersinger has recovered from his recent illness. Alfred Osmen, of Boalsburg, was seen in our village last Saturday. Rev. Christine preached three very interesting sermons to large audiences in Bethany church. District Attorney N. B. Spangler, of Bellefonte, visited his father, G. W. Spangler, of our village. Rev. G. W. Leisher, of Boalsburg, filled the pulpit in the Union church in the absence of Rev. Rearick. The new telephone company has men distributing the poles for the line through here; the poles are twenty-five feet long. Mrs. J. W. Mitterling and son Charles had quite a serious mishap while on their way to Centre Hall. The horse became frightened near the toll gate, threw Charles out and in some manner broke two wheels of the vehicle. That part of the town has a record for accidents of that sort.
