markable degree of strength and his following seems to be steadily increasing and from surprising and unexpected quarters. Unquestionably there is a strong and determined opposition to Mr. Kline, of course this is an unknown quantity, but should it prove wide spread and formidable as is supposed, there is evidently a surprise in the air for our voters, for this dissatisfied element is just as likely to flop over to Kennelley as to Beatty, possibly more so, as a vast majority of vot-measure will be brought before the present session of the legislature to reduce the legal rate of interest in Penn-The Womans' Missionary Society of sylvania to five per cent. A similar bill is to be introduced in New York and New Jersey. The legal rate of interest in Pennsylvania on money was 8 per cent. prior to 1828, when it was reduced to 6 per cent., by an act which permitted bargains to be made for a lower rate. In 1853 the law was amended, stipulating that the rate of traveling almost impossible, and kill- interest should not exceed 6 per cent., and making it impossible to recover more where contests might be made against usury. Twenty years ago it was common in business circles of this state to pay 8 or 10 per cent. on borrowed money.
