Fill Your Own Place.

Young men, don't be a square peg for a round hole. Get in where you fit. Too many fellows already fill positions for which they were never made. Young men as clerks who should be farmers, lawyers who ought to be ropemakers; salesmen who ought to fill the boots of woodchoppers; preschers who ought to be printers, and so on. Don't get in a place either too large or too small for you.

Golden Sentiment.

If every citizen would make a point of speaking good of his or her neighbor, associate or friend in a pleasant way, what a delightful community we should have. Any gossip is idle and evil. Drop the cowardly "they say." We are all open to criticism. Mind your own affairs and let your neighbors take care of theirs.

The merchants of Pennsylvania, says the Philadelphia Press, are especially interested in a bill before the leg-Fred Weber is busily engaged this islature that provides for the licensing winter in manufacturing the "Weber of transient dealers. The measure has ion of such a law would be an act of simple justice to the tradesmen in the state, who are permanently located, have their capital invested and pay taxes to help support the municipal governments. These merchants pay a regular mercantile license to do business, and have to compete with the socalled "bankrupt" or "fire" sale itinerants, who in many cases impose as well upon their gullible patrons and leave for another town before customters awaken to the fake "bargain" they had obtained. Legitimate tradesmen are a foundation to every community, and it is fitting that the law should afford them every due protection against certain kinds of transient venders.

Dangers of the Grip.

The greatest danger from La Grippe is of its result g in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for la grippe we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia which shows conclusively that this remedy is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. It will cure la grippe in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; H. F. PHILADELPHIA.

SPECIAL OFFER TO LEDGER REA

The Public Ledger offers to its readers in connection with a 26 weeks' subscription, and the payment of 50 cents additional, a copy of The Ledger's Unrivaled Atlas of the World. This Atlas has been specially prepared for the Public Ledger by Rand, McNally & Co., New York and Chicago, and is one of the best works of its kind ever offered to the public.

The Unrivaled Atlas of the World contains over 230 pages, elegantly printed on fine calendered paper, marbled edges, bound in English cloth, with handsome gold side stamp, size 111/2 x141/2 inches It contains 157 full-page colored maps, showing every country on the face of the globe, every State in the Union, principal cities, etc., with fine marginal index.

It contains nearly 400 fine engravings of the world's people, statesmen, soldiers, etc.

It contains a ready reference list of every town in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and Delaware. It contains in a brief comprehensive form more general, practical information regarding the physical, historical ethnological, governmental, financial, and commercial conditions of the world than any work published. This Atlas is offered to introduce The Ledger to new readers with the firm belief that those who ome acquainted with the merits of The Ledger will not be willing to give it up. The Public Ledger is Pennsylvania's Greatest Home Newspaper, giving all the news of the day, lassified and in complete form. In its columns every statement is verified and carefully edited; its news is therefore reliable and clean.

The Directors of many school districts have adopted The Ledger for supplementary reading matter in their schools, and placed a copy of The Atlas in each school library.

How to Get the Atlas.
