(Special Correspondence.)

Harrisburg, Feb. 27 .-- Charges of the attempted bribery of members of the head last Friday when a Philadelphia Republican newspaper openly charged that efforts had been made to get members of the house, for cash considerations, to vote for a reconsideration of the postponement of the McCarrell jury bill. The charges made were that certain members had been offered ams of money from $250 to $1,000 to vote for the reconsideration of the vote whereby the until March 21, after the Quay trial. The newspaper in question, the Philadelphia Press, publishes the statements without giving names, but in an editorial declared its willingness to furnish names to a legislative investigating committee. In at least two of the cases the attempts at bribery were made upon reputable and influential members of the Democratic party, but in both instances the offers were indignantly spurned. It has been already stated in these letters that a numerous and powerful Quay lobby was at work here in Harrisburg, endeavoring to bribe Democrats to vote for Quay legislation. These charges of attempted bribery, apparently, substantiate these claims

DEMOCRATS REFUSE BRIBES.

It is to the honor of the Democratic party and a high tribute to the character of its members that these attempts have been spurned and that the would-be bribers are about to be brought to justice. In speaking of the charges Representative George R. Dixon, one of the scholarly and brainy leaders of the Democracy in the house, said: "There is no doubt that attempts at bribery have been made. Valuable considerations have been offered for votes for political legislation. We have some of the best young men in the state in the Democratic party, but they are in danger of being corrupted by the influences that are surrounding them in Harrisburg. I sincerely trust that the guilty parties, who have been attempting to seduce and corrupt Democratic members, will be speedily brought to justice.

On Friday last General W. H. Koontz, of Somerset, one of the anti-Quay Republican leaders in the house, offered a resolution to investigate. In his resolution he named a committee for the purpose, which was an eminently fair committee. A Quay man was made chairman and the Quay faction was given two ridicule among even the staunchest members, the Democrats two members question told the would-be briber to write out what he wanted him to say, which was agreed to. Before this could be done, however, a motion to adjourn was made and the scheme fell through. The Democratic member in question expressed regret that the affair had not proceeded to a finish, because he would then have had evidence of the deal. As it is, the offer was made substantially as recited, says the Philadelphia paper in question COLONEL GUFFEY HERE.

National Committeeman Guffey was an interested witness of the proceedings in the house on Friday last when the effort was made by the Quay people to defeat the resolution to investigate. In view of the fact that nearly all of these assaults have been made by the Quay machine on the integrity of the Demo cratic party, Colonel Guffey feels that an investigation will clear the atmosphere. On Friday afternoon four Democratic members, who have been conspicuous for their efforts to kick against certain party measures and who were in a scheme, having signed a petition, to reconvene the caucus and take down the name of Hon. George A. Jenks and substitute that of some other Democrat, visited Mr. Guffey and declared that their opposition was at an end. That from now on they would join in no more underhand work in the Democratic organization. As an evidence of their good faith they produced the petition to reconvene the caucus and tore it up in Colonel Guffey's presence. Congressman-elect Joseph C. Sibley has not been in Harrisburg for a week. The newspapers report that he had an interview in Washington with Senator Quay and ex-State Senator W. H. Andrews on Thursday last. What the ip-terview was about can only be conjectured. It doubtless had to do with Mr. Sibley's utter failure to break the lines of the Democratic organization and unseat its leader, Colonel Guffey. The future for the Democracy is now brighter than ever and the integrity of its members and their splendid honesty in refusing bribes will add lustre to the party for years to come.

The Quay trial was to begin on Monday, but the commonwealth's attorney, Mr. Rothermel, moved for a postponement until April 10. The reasons are kept secret but the dailies intimate a discovery the Quay people had tampered with some of the jurors.

There was an odd result in the joint convention balloting on Saturday. Only 28 votes were cast, and Mr. Jenks had 14, Quay 13 and Irvin 1. The number paired was 168. This put Jenks ahead for once and there's where he would remain if the honor of the commonwealth were respected.

Replying to a question by Mr. Labouchere in the English parliament, Mr. George Wyndham, secretary of the War Office said that Gen. Kitchener's officers reported that 10,000 Dervishes had been killed at Omdurman and 10,000 wounded, besides the 400 killed in taking the town.

Col. Bryan, the other day, made the remark that there is a marked difference between the government at Madrid and the government at Washington. The government at Madrid court-martials and punishes its generals and admirals who lose battles and ships; but the government at Washington persecutes the general and the admiral who win victories.

Bribery has been attempted to pass the Quay jury bill. Two Democratic members were offered money for their votes and these have told of the bribe offered. An investigation has been ordered.

Speaker Farr's committe to investigate the charge of bribery is made up of four with Quay leanings, and a fifth, Gen. Koontz, anti-Quay. The four are likely to whitewash the guilty.

THE MANILA WAR.

The administration is wisely hurrying reinforcements to Manila, remarks the Pittsburg Post, for if the announced policy of an aggressive, subjugating war is adhered to General Otis will need all the troops he has, all that are on their way and many more besides. Instead of the two regiments ordered to Manila the other day, the army under Otis should be doubled just as abandon our brave soldiers or leave worst climate of the world, for that is what it will be in Manila for three months. The resistance of the Filipinos takes precisely the character that | tion would only obscure the real investiwas looked for-what has been followed out in the war with the Spaniards both in the Philippines and Cuba. The natives are adepts at guerrilla warfare. The official telegrams from Manila describe it as "worrying tactics." So it is, for it gives little opportunity for rest. The attempt to fire the city of Manila a week ago involved immense destruction, and the hard work of our brave boys may be judged from the fact that they had not only to fight the fire in the city, to as follows: It is alleged that a crush out the incendiaries, but to defend their lines on the outskirts from the attacks of scattered bodies of the insurgents. The latest news shows that Manila is feeling the full horrors of war, and that the American troops are now engaged in the most arduous the blizzard to the home of this member

There was an ice gorge at Vicksburg, also some-thing unknown, and so much ice in Captain Skinner, of Fulton (Dem.), also opposed the house naming the committee, and in this he stood alone among the Democrats. Why he did so is uncertain-when such stalwart Democrats as Dixon, of Elk: Creasy, of Coof Philadelphia, fought to take the appointment out of the hands of the Quay speaker, Farr.

AGAINST INVESTIGATIONS.

Voorhees, of Philadelphia, the Quay leader in the house, declared that investigating committees were only white washing affairs and for this reason he opposed any investigation. He said that members had been insulted by having placards hung around all the hotels in Harrisburg offering $25,000 reward for bribery

At this point General Koontz, of Somerset, demanded of Mr. Voorhees to know who it was that had first offered $10,000 reward for evidence of bribery. and Voorhees was compelled to say that it was Senator Quay himself, Voorhees also offered a substitute for the investiquickly as possible. It will not do to gating resolution, demanding that not only should senatorial bribery cases be investigated, but that newspapers and them to be cut to pieces in detail or newspaper correspondents be investigated overwhelmed by excessive duty in the on the ground that they had been paid cash to distort news and bias public opinion.

Representative Coray, of Luzerne, speaking in reply, said that this proposigation, and that the result of it would be the farce of investigating newspaper editors and publishers over the state, thus giving the committee months of time in which to make their report and in the end defeating the object of the resolution. Mr. Voorhees subsequently withdrew his substitute: 'General Koontz withdrew his proposition that the house name the committee and the resolution to investigate passed.
