

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of town.

—Jonny Harter, of Millheim, spent two days visiting friends here.

—Mrs. Anne Van Pelt and son John, spent Sunday with friends in Bellefonte.

—James Lutz, of Spring twp., was a pleasant caller and fixed his label for '99.

—Grant Hoover, the insurance agent of Bellefonte, was in Centre Hall Tuesday.

—W. W. Boob and family were visiting friends in Millheim a day or two last week.

—Miss Sara McClenahan returned from Bloomsburg Saturday after an absence of several weeks.

—John Showers will move this spring to the small farm of Wm. Horner, deceased, west of town.

—Our old farmer friend, Christian Platt, gave our sacrament a call and put his label to 1900—follow his example.

—Wm. G. Runkle, Esq., Bellefonte's rising young attorney, was in town Tuesday on professional business.

—H. A. Bibighaus, the well-known hardware salesman, is making one of his periodical visits to the community.

—W. O. Reareck returned home last Friday from a trip of several days through the state marketing his corn-planter.

—Mrs. Potts, wife of Rev. Potts, of Alexandria, Pa., with children, has been visiting her father, Postmaster Alex. McCoy, at Potters Mills.

—Ex-Judge Riley, of Harris, was a hurried caller, and is hustling for the commission, as will be seen by his card in another column.

—H. B. Hering, one of Gregg townships prominent citizens gave us a call. He will have 200 sheep, of best breeds, up at public sale, 29 inst.

—Mr. A. S. Kerlin, who had been confined to the house the last month or so, from an asthmatic trouble, is able to be out and around again.

—W. T. Spear, an old-line Democrat of Bellefonte, and unsullied character, gave us a call, and ordered his announcement as a candidate for county Treasurer.

—J. F. Breon, of Gregg, one of our promptly paying subscribers, was a pleasant caller and set his label into '99; he reports grain fields injured by severity of the winter.

—Enoch Sweeney will take up his residence on the farm he recently purchased near Boalsburg. He will move this week; James Durst will occupy the dwelling vacated by Mr. Sweeney.

—H. A. Kaufman, who occupied the D. C. Keller farm the past six years, will move to the Con. Struble farm, near Zion, next week, which has been purchased, and we lose one of our best citizens. He favored the Reporter with a call and set his label into '99.

—Ivy Bartges, of Centre Hill, was a pleasant caller, and had his label advanced into '99. He has planted 500 peach trees which are in a thriving condition, and has ordered another lot of 500 which are to be set out this season. Ivy is an up-to-date farmer.

—Ira C. Korman, of Oak Hall, the implement dealer, was a pleasant caller on Tuesday. He is the liveliest dealer on this side of the mountain and the last season sold many car loads. There is just as busy a season ahead he reports.

LINDEN HALL.

Interesting Items as Given by Our Correspondent.

Mr. and Mrs. Yarnell and children visited friends in Centre Hall on Sunday.

Miss Mary Kline of Bellefonte, is circulating among her friends in this place.

Harvey Searson and family, of Oak Hall, were the guests of James Searson and family on Saturday last.

Mrs. Kidder, wife of Dr. Kidder, of Boalsburg, was the guest of her friend, Miss Bessie Searson on Saturday last.

Mrs. John Frazier left for Reading on Monday last to attend the Kline family reunion; she expects to stay a week or ten days.

Misses Sophronia and Nellie Segner, of Boalsburg, accompanied by their friend Miss Minnie Neidig, of Pine Hall, were visiting at the home of Henry Zeigler on Saturday last.

Mrs. John Frazier, east of town, invited her friends and neighbors to a "quilting bee" on last Thursday. Some twenty guests were present, and all appeared to have an enjoyable time; and all made good use of the time, two quilts and one comforter were begun and finished. Mrs. Frazier had prepared an excellent dinner, to which all did ample justice.

A Young Girl's Experience.

My daughter's nerves were terribly out of order. She was thin and weak the least noise started her, and she was wakeful at night. Before she had taken one package of Celery King the change in her was so great that she could hardly be taken for the same girl. She is rapidly growing well and strong; her complexion is perfect, and she sleeps well every night.—Mrs. Lucy McNutt, Brush Valley, Pa. Celery King for the Nerves, Stomach, Liver, and Kidneys is sold in 25c. and 50c. packages by G. H. Long, Spring Mills.

AARONSBURG.

Abraham Confer, a Township Charge, Died on Tuesday.

John Yarger had a very serious fall on the ice and injured his right arm so badly he is unable to use it at all. Lately the swelling is beginning to subside so that he can again move his fingers, and hold small things with them.

Billy Stevens, who had gone back to Clearfield county after the death and burial of his sister, returned on Tuesday evening bringing with him a lady who will help him prepare his goods for the sale and also pack what he expects to take with him when he returns to his home again at Pottersdale, in Clearfield. He has sold the house and lot.

Lydia Reed, wife of Jacob Reed, was out with her daughter, Mrs. George Homan one evening last week, and when she started home about ten o'clock, she stepped off the step on to a bit of ice, causing her to slip and fall breaking one of her ankle bones. Dr. Musser was at once sent for, but he to bed where she will have to remain for quite a time.

Abraham Confer, an old citizen of Aaronsburg, was stricken with apoplexy last Saturday afternoon and died Tuesday morning. About three months ago he became a township charge and made his home with Hugh Wance, and on Saturday afternoon the Poor Overseers had sale of his personal effects. After the sale the old man started for Wance's and before he had gotten half way home he dropped on the road. He was put into a buggy and taken home where he soon became unconscious and remained so until relieved by death.

Happenings of the Past Week as Gathered by Our Correspondent.

John Runkle opened a meat market here on Tuesday last, in the building known as Long's meat house. He will serve exclusively home dressed beef.

Sarah Van Valzah, daughter of the late Dr. F. H. Van Valzah has been very seriously ill for the past two weeks and there is no improvement in her condition.

Wm. Allison senior member of the milling firm of Allison Bros of our village, had quite a severe attack of lumbago on Friday last, confining him to the house for several days.

C. E. Confer formerly of this place, is now located in Kaneville, Ill. He expects to play farmer during the summer, and in the fall will resume his former occupation of carpentering and planing mill work. He reports himself in good condition.

E. S. Shaffer, of Madisonburg, Democratic candidate for the nomination for sheriff, made us a flying visit on Saturday last. Mr. Shaffer is a very pleasant and affable gentleman and comes from an old and influential Democratic family, is very popular and his character ranks high in Brush valley. While here he created quite a favorable impression.

C. P. Long, the enterprising merchant is erecting on the Avenue a residence and shop to be occupied by A. J. Graden the reliable shoemaker of our village. Mr. Long is also converting the large new barn located on the south side of the creek, a short distance above the iron bridge into a shop for wheelwright J. L. Roper. He is also erecting a large stable and wagon shed on one of his properties on the avenue now occupied by Harvey Confer. Besides these improvements Mr. Long has in contemplation several other building operations.

Michael Shires the popular insurance agent of our village, a day or two since gave me a first rate exemplification of the advantages of life insurance, by showing me a check for five thousand dollars he just received from his company, to pay to the family of a deceased gentleman whom he had insured a year or two ago. In the meantime the gentleman failed in business and was hopelessly wrecked in fortune, and had he not wisely made this provision, at his death he would have left to his family nothing but poverty, toil and care; of course this insurance places them far beyond want.

TUSSEYVILLE

Personal Mention and Other Interesting Items.

Miss Elizabeth Slack is the guest of Miss Anna Fortney.

J. Morris Runkle visited relatives near Madisonburg last week.

James Kimpfort, of Linden Hall, was seen in our village Monday.

Daniel Roseman purchased a new buggy; may it prove a valuable auxiliary.

M. F. Rossman, wife and daughter visited relatives in Siglerville, Millen county.

Miss Minnie Dashem visited acquaintances in Centre Hall over Sunday.

The boys who attended the party at Mr. Slacks report having a pleasant time.

Miss Anna Smith, of Madisonburg, is visiting her uncle, J. L. Runkle of our village.

Miss Ella Mersinger and brother Edward visited relatives in Boalsburg Sunday last.

Rev. Noah Dubs ably filled the pulpit in the United Evangelical church Sunday morning.

A free school entertainment will be held in the Tusseyville school building on Saturday evening, March 18th. All are invited.

REBERSBURG.

An Interesting Letter from Our Wide-Awake Correspondent.

Roads are muddy.

Park Steinger of town, broke his arm last week.

There will be quite a good bit of moving in town this spring, Oscar Gramley, of Millflingburg, was visiting among friends in our town over Sunday.

Mrs. Blanche Smull who had been sick for several weeks we are glad to say is out again.

Rev. Dostler, of the Evangelical Association, preached his first sermon Sunday morning.

Rev. Salem of town, was called to Wolf's Store to preach the funeral sermon for Ira Brungart's child.

Edwin C. Nearhood and family were in our burg last week to visit his parents, where they are always welcome.

George Deihl talks of going to Ohio; if our boys keep on going west the girls will have to make a break also, or be left.

Mr. Houtz, west of town, died Tuesday morning, very suddenly; he was quite an old man, and was seldom seen on our streets.

The young people of our town had a birthday party for Alma Gramley. Alma was certainly surprised; they all had a fine time.

Howard Miller, one of our merchants intends tearing down the house he now occupies, and will build a much larger house.

Some of our merchants are disposing of their goods at bargains; our people should not fail to make use of these opportunities.

Our winter term of school will soon come to an end, but we will have a term of summer school, taught by Prof. Hosterman; we all know that the Prof. is a good instructor.

Rev. Stover, of the United Evangelical church, who has preached for us for three years, is going to Dueshore, Sullivan county; Rev. Dubs will take his place. We wish them success.

Lloyd Walker, of our town is starting for Illinois on Monday morning to look for work, and if successful he will remove his family there. We are so to see them go as Mr. Walker is a fine young man.

Centre Hill.

An Interesting Letter from that Burg and Vicinity.

Father Strohm is still bedfast.

Palmer Bros have resumed work on Smith's house.

Miss Jennie Smith took a relapse and is again confined to her bed.

George Hettinger moved into A. C. Ripka's tenant house last Monday. He will work for Mr. Ripka.

Peter Smith and Samuel McClinic made a trip to Coburn, Aaronsburg, Millheim and Rebersburg last week.

Welcome spring is coming once again; robins, blue birds, and black birds have put in their appearance.

Movings and sales are again on the program, but we have no sales and not very many movings in our community.

Mrs. Bayard, who had been at home with her sick father, Mr. Strohm, for the past week, has again gone back to her position.

Another school term is very near its close. Some schools in this township close on Friday, but most do not close until next week.

Maurice Burkholder bought a fine young horse at Bradford's sale on Tuesday, but paid a good price for it, $141.50. Now girls, for your buggy rides.

BOALSBURG TOPICS.

Our Scribe Reports the Happenings of His Town.

Lonzo Rupp will move his family to Bellwood in the near future.

Alva Myers left Boalsburg Monday to take charge of the Reynolds creamery.

The pipes of the Boalsburg water plant will all be laid by Friday evening.

Frank Fisher, formerly of Boalsburg but now of Philadelphia, is in the St. Agnes hospital at Philadelphia, sick with typhoid fever.

John Weber will move to Oak Hall this month. Mr. Weber has bought out the Korman store, and John will run the Oak Hall store, while his brother Sam will have charge of the Boalsburg store.

The Swartz Bros, of Pittsburg, last Saturday bought out our druggist, Charles Everit, both at Boalsburg and Lemont. Henceforth Charlie and his dear Mollie will live together happy. Scott says that he will lose half his telephone trade by Charlie leaving.

Prof. Hower and John From spent last Saturday at Axemann and Pleasant Gap, soliciting students.

The Professor is a hustler and will have a first class Teachers' Normal at Boalsburg this spring. The past winter has demonstrated his eminent fitness for the work. Besides his assistant, Prof. Shannon, of Turbotville, Pa., the Principal elected at Centre Hall several years ago, is as well known as a teacher to the people of Penna valley as the principal himself, and with these two men as instructors our town will rank as one of the first in education in Centre county.

PUBLIC LEDGER

PHILADELPHIA.

SPECIAL OFFER TO LEDGER READERS.

The Public Ledger offers to its readers in connection with a 25 weeks' subscription, and the payment of 50 cents additional, a copy of The Ledger's Unrivalled Atlas of the World. This Atlas has been specially prepared for the Public Ledger by Rand, McNally & Co., New York and Chicago, and is one of the best works of its kind ever offered to the public.

The Unrivalled Atlas of the World contains over 550 pages, elegantly printed on fine calendered paper, marbled edges, bound in English cloth, with handsome gold side stamp, size 11 1/4 x 15 1/2 inches. It contains 157 full-page colored maps, showing every country on the face of the globe, every State in the Union, principal cities, etc., with fine marginal index.

It contains nearly 400 fine engravings of the world's people, statesmen, soldiers, etc.

It contains a ready reference list of every town in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and Delaware.

It contains in a brief comprehensive form more general, practical information regarding the physical, historical, ethnological, governmental, financial, and commercial conditions of the world than any work published.

This Atlas is offered to introduce The Ledger to new readers with the firm belief that those who become acquainted with the merits of The Ledger will not be willing to give it up.

The Public Ledger is Pennsylvania's Greatest Home Newspaper, giving all the news of the day, classified and in complete form. In its columns every statement is verified and carefully edited; its news is therefore reliable and clean.

The Directors of many school districts have adopted The Ledger for supplementary reading matter in their schools, and placed a copy of The Atlas in each school library.

How to Get the Atlas.

Forward the price of 25 weeks' subscription, plus 50 cents ($3.62) to The Ledger and the name of your nearest express office. The Atlas will be forwarded by express, or if you are not near an express office include 52 cents for mailing and the Atlas will be mailed to your postoffice with The Ledger.
