CENTRE HALL, PA., THURS. MAR. 30.

The Butler county Republican convention showed up about 75 per cent anti-Quay.

Representative Foster has been true to the anti-Quay pledge made to the Centre Democrat.

The senatorial race on Saturday's ballot was this: Quay 4, Jenks 4, Dalzell 1, Rice 1—total 10.

During the war there were many dead fish seen floating on the Cuban waters. Embalmed beef dumped into the water did it—one nibble did it.

Union county need not be ashamed of representative Brown, he proved a man of honor by refusing a fat bribe to vote for Quay or "miss the train."

"Economy, economy" says the governor, but his Senate has just passed a bill creating four new and unnecessary factory inspectorships at $1200 a year, each.

Governor Stone is busy talking in favor of cutting down expenses and putting in the rest of his time signing bills creating new offices and raising salaries.

The house appropriations committee has recommended $19,000 for the hospital at Philipsburg, and $66,831.59 for State College. The Fish Commission to have $35,000.

It is wonderful how lieutenant-governor Gobin has shrunk since his attempt to tom-rod the joint convention. He has become so little that one don't see nor hear of him.

The State Dairy and Pure Food Department is prosecuting dealers who sell decayed and frozen vegetables. Suit was brought against a dealer in Harrisburg for selling frozen potatoes.

Probably ex-Governor Beaver still thinks that the "canned roast beef" sent to the soldiers was fit for an army ration; but we don't think that any one else entertains a similar opinion.

The Huntington bar has requested Judge Bailey to allow the use of his name as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for supreme judge, to which he assented.

Quay has been in office fifty years without having originated a single measure for the public good. Is it asking too much to have him stand aside and let some abler Republican take his place?

The senatorial bribery investigation, now in progress at Harrisburg, under chairman Fow and his committee, is uncovering a stink as foul as that from the rotten meat fed to the soldiers.

The state now owes $4,000,000 and cannot pay. Governor Stone so states in a letter written to J. B. Hershey, of McKeesport. The Governor is crying aloud to the legislature for economy, all the while, however, he keeps signing its extravagant bills.

A Lebanon man put the following advertisement in a paper of that town last week:

"Public Notice.—I hereby notify all saloon and hotel keepers or any other person not to furnish liquor of any kind to me, as I am making an effort to quit the drinking habit, and cannot do so as long as any one will give me liquor."

The advertiser is well known about town.

Officially the wheat crop of 1898 is reported at 675,148,705 bushels, of this 292,656,000 bushels were spring and 382,492,705 bushels winter wheat. The average for the whole country was a fraction over 15 bushels to the acre. The crop of last year was the record crop of the United States, the nearest approach to it being 611,780,000 bushels in 1891.

The Quay trial for speculating with the public funds will begin April 10. The Commonwealth has subpoenaed all its witnesses in the trial. Between 50 and 60 persons have been summoned to testify for the prosecution, including two Pittsburg bank cashiers. The trial is expected to take place before Judge Beitler.

Centre county may have less than half a crop of wheat this year, as we learn from farmers of many sections of our county. The unusually cold winter was severe upon the grain fields which were too oft without snow protection and lay bare to the icy sweep of storms. If all other sections of the country suffered in the same degree, a half a wheat crop will be the harvest of the United States in 1899.

Major L. Fontaine, a civil engineer, says that while surveying in Arkansas he found the mound builders' metropolis spread over three counties, Desha, Drew and Ashley. On a direct line east and west for 35 miles, and as far as his eye could reach, the ruins continued. Turning north for a distance of 25 miles the ruins did not end. He found that eleven million people had their bones in this great city. Thousands of canals were dug and used by them for irrigation and navigation, and they had countless pottery factories. Many acres are covered six feet deep with the bones of these unknown people.

If any of the Bellefonte lawyers do not have a living practice let them not go to Germany to seek for fat fees. A late report of Consular Agent Harris, who is in Germany, gives some figures showing the fees allowed lawyers in making collections. By reason of the small figures they will interest attorneys in this country. From sums of $5 running up to $300 the fees range from fifty cents to $7. From $300 to $2,300 the amount allowed by law varies between $3 and $13, advancing about $1 for every $250. Concerning larger claims Mr. Harris says:

For all amounts between $2,380 and $11,900, a fee of $1 will be charged, for every additional $476; for amounts between $11,900 and $23,800, a fee of seventy-five cents for every additional $476, and for all amounts above $23,800, a fee of fifty cents for every $476. If an attorney has been put to any expense, this of course must be refunded in addition to the regular fees. If an attorney has to do any traveling, $5 per day must be allowed him extra for this purpose.

50,000 Men for Otis. Additional troops are required for the Philippines, to suppress the insurgents, and these will be sent forward as speedily as possible and until General Otis has at least 50,000 men under his command. To furnish this force and maintain a sufficient reserve it may be necessary to organize the provisional forces of 35,000 volunteers authorized by the Army Reorganization act and there are intimations that upon the return of the President steps will be taken to organize the twenty-five regiments of volunteers provided for in that act.

La Grippe is again epidemic. Every precaution should be taken to avoid it. Its specific cure is One Minute Cough Cure. A. J. I desire to announce to the Democracy of Centre county that I will be a candidate for County Commissioner, subject to the rules of the party. I was a candidate for Associate Judge in 1894. I was a candidate for Associate Judge and went down with all the rest on the Democrat ticket, with no fault of my candidate, but due to a depressed and unsettled condition of affairs in the county, and a division of opinion as to whether or not I was a candidate for the office of Commissioner, I was not named on the ticket. I am now a candidate for the office of Commissioner, and I am confident that I am qualified to discharge the duties of the office with honor and credit.

THOSE BRIBERY CASES.

GETTING CLOSE TO QUAY'S PEOPLE

Representative Foster offered Committee Places if He Could Help the "Old Man"—Racy Revelations Among the Republicans—The Democracy Standing Firm in Their Allegiance to Jenks—Developments Expected This Week.

(Special Correspondence.)

Harrisburg, March 27.—The claim set up by the Quayites, in derision at the work of the investigating committee, that only Democrats had been emmeshed in its toils was proven groundless during the week just closed. Ex-Senator John J. Coyle, Republican, and one of the most noted of the Quay lobby, was on the stand in his own defense. Four reputable members had charged him with offering them bribes. As was expected, Coyle denied everything.

On last Thursday night Representative Robert McCay Foster, Democrat, from Centre county, went on the stand and surprised everybody by declaring that he had voted for Senator Quay he might have been placed on the soldiers' orphans' school commission and the appropriations committee. Mr. Foster's story was to the effect that having been a member of the appropriations committee last year and of the soldiers' orphans' school commission he desired to be retained as a member of both of them the present term. He first went to Senator David Martin, of Philadelphia, who was supposed to be very close to Speaker Farr. Mr. Martin agreed to do what he could for Mr. Foster, but subsequently he told him that it would be impossible for him to aid him.

WAS QUAY'S LIEUTENANT.

Several evenings after someone, he Frank Willing Leach, one of Senator Quay's lieutenants, would be elected except by Democratic votes. Although the standing committee had been appointed by the speaker, he (Leach) would hold the places open for two weeks to give Foster a chance to act. Leach said that while it was popularly supposed that Speaker Farr made up the standing committees, yet he (Leach), was the man who did the appointing. He would hold up the places desired for two weeks and his action would be guided by the action of Mr. Foster.

To the credit and honor of Democracy Foster retorted by saying that he had agreed with his constituents to vote for a Democrat as long as there was one in the field, and that when there was not one, he would vote for any reputable Republican other than M. S. Quay. Under the circumstances he would accept nothing and Leach had nothing to give that he would take.

The investigating committee received an extension of time until April 3. This week it is expected that there will be some very important evidence furnished. After a severe fight, in which all of the opposition came from the Quay faction and the support from the Democrats and Independent Republicans, a resolution was passed, authorizing the investigating committee to call the members of the house alphabetically and inquire of them what they knew of attempted bribery. The call is still going on. Up to the present there having been 60 members subpoenaed, the bribery sensation, of course, is the principal topic of interest in this city.

SENATORIAL SITUATION.

The senatorial situation has not changed, but a change is looked for this week. It will not come from the Democratic side, because they are pledged to Hon. George A. Jenks. Colonel James M. Guffey, national committeeman, who has with such conspicuous skill and diplomacy directed the conduct of the party's affairs here in Harrisburg and under the state since the opening of the legislature, has not ordered any change in the Democratic program and no change is anticipated. Colonel Guffey was here again last week, looking over the field and taking a personal interest in the situation. Never in the history of the Democratic party has any leader identified himself so closely with a personal interest in the individual welfare of every member.

NEW BALLOT LAW.

There is a splendid opportunity between now and the end of the session for the Democrats and their allies, the Independent Republicans, to make some important advances in the present ballot law. While this might be accomplished in the house, there is a great deal of doubt as to whether it would go through the senate. The latter body is the graveyard for good measures, largely because the Democrats and their allies, the Independent Republicans, are in the minority. The Quayites have complete control of the senate majority. The present ballot law requires some change to render it more effective, and there are a number of bills before the legislature having that object in view. As a rule the Democrats are in favor of ballot reform, while the allies of the Quayites and their co-workers in the head of Democracy.

against it is designed to simplify questions of taxation, and was introduced by Representative Crensy, one of the Democratic leaders in the house. The Democrats not only voted for the measure, but their leaders talked for it, and this largely accounts for the success of the bill. It is expected that this measure will add about $2,000,000 to the state revenue, without increasing the taxation of the individual citizen on real or personal property.

CHANGE IN THE SENATORIAL FIGHT.

On Tuesday the Independent Republicans dropped all other names but Dalzell's and gave him their whole vote. Their vote hereafter will go for some one man each day, anti-Quay.

Tuesday's vote was Quay 87, Jenks 69, Dalzell 51.

A dropping out of Quay, or some kind of a break, is predicted within a few days.

Mr. S. A. Fackler, editor of the Miner (Fla.) Huster, with his wife and children, suffered terribly from La Grippe. One Minute Cough Cure was the only remedy that helped them. It acted quickly. Thousands of others use this remedy as a specific for La Grippe, and its exhausting after-effects; for sale by Smith & Crawford.
