CENTRE HALL, PA., THURS. April 6

Quay's trial comes off on 10th.

Chicago, on Tuesday, elected Harrison, the Democratic candidate for mayor, by 40,000 majority.

Aguinaldo's capital, Mololos, was captured by our troops, one day last week, and the American flag now floats over the city.

"Quay to stick," is the report. Certainly; he is the boss sticker—he stuck the state treasury heavily, right along the last fifteen years.

Perhaps it may now be clear to some why speaker Farr and his supporters fought so hard against having a bribery investigation.

The Democrats on Tuesday carried a number of the larger Ohio cities, and among them Canton, McKinley's strongly Republican home.

With all the astounding testimony of bribery to elect Quay, it is still more astounding that a large element in his party desires his re-election to the senate!

The courts sustained Governor Hastings in his veto of the machine's bill to take $50,000 out of the state treasury for printing the book on chicken lice and such.

The President still keeps beef Alger in his cabinet in the face of new and damaging testimony every day, and in spite of the protests of men of all parties throughout the country.

We believe that there would be a good case for damages by families who had sons and fathers killed in the army by being fed on poisoned meat. Alger, Egan and the beef packers should be made pay damages.

A witness, representative Foster of Montour, testified that Quay offered a bribe for a vote; Quay promised to appoint applicant Harder post-master of Danville if Harder would influence Foster to vote for Quay. This is direct evidence against Quay.

The record of dead and missing at the appalling Windsor hotel fire, is now as follows: Killed during the fire and died subsequently from injuries, 11; unidentified bodies at morgue, 27; total dead, 38; missing, 43. The big office safe was opened a few days ago and the contents found unharmed. The value of the contents reached nearly $200,000.

A gloomy cargo was landed at New York one day last week, consisting of the bodies of 682 soldiers who died in Cuba and Porto Rico. It was an immense funeral of our brave boys! Those of the bodies which are not claimed for private burial will be interred together at Arlington. There are among them 110 unidentified bodies.

Oh, that war and rumors of war, might never rise again! Another attempt at bribery has been uncovered by the investigating committee. Representative Wilson, of Westmoreland county, testified on Thursday, that he was offered $5000 to vote for Quay. With all the corrupt influences that have been brought out by sworn testimony, to bribe members to vote for Quay, his party does not feel the least ashamed of him or his methods!

General Otis cables to Washington the Filipinos are seeking peace and are asking American protection, but that Aguinaldo may keep up the war. Cleveland elected a Democratic mayor with the help of Hanna to spite Foraker.

If more investigating committees would investigate, like the present one at Harrisburg, corruption would soon be driven from politics. The present investigating committee may prove a warning to corruptionists.

The Democratic organs of the State rarely allude nowadays to the "advance agent of prosperity."—Philadelphia Press.

Of course not; they are busy alluding to the robber trusts, under Republican fostering, which are advancing the wages of dozens, while throwing thousands out of employ. Then the rotten beef, fed to our soldiers, winked at by the administration, along with the astounding bribery at Harrisburg, the Press will admit, is enough to keep the Democratic organs busy.

Telegraphing without wires is the latest wonder. Consul General Gowdy, at Paris, has been informed by M. Ducretet, inventor and constructor of electrical apparatus, that messages can now be perfectly transmitted a distance of about 13 miles through space without using wire. The messages are dispatched and received by masts, 99 feet high at each terminal. One of the principal obstacles encountered was the apparent impossibility of accomplishing an automatic registration of a message, but this was overcome.

A message was sent across the English channel, 33 miles, without wires.

Farmer-congressman Kulp charged with attempt to bribe assemblyman Brown to vote for Quay, on Tuesday testified in his defence. He stated that that Brown said was true, only that Brown misunderstood him; he meant that Brown should go to Philadelphia and buy horses for him and that there might be $200 or $300 in it for him; he said he didn't mean to get Brown off so as to make a vote less against Quay. Kulp will now be laughed at over such an explanation.

The New York Herald asks: Does the government intend to prosecute the packers who foisted worthless or poisonous beef upon the soldiers, or is it accumulating mountains of testimony which is merely to be smothered in "reports?"

The laxity of inspection; the fact that there was at times no inspection at all; that vast amounts of the stuff were bought by Egan directly from the packers and "over the head" of the official inspector—all this and worse has been testified by witnesses of unimpeachable character before the army court of inquiry, and as to the character of the meat thus obtained the testimony of officers and men is simply overwhelming.

A Seattle volunteer, writing home from Manila, says: The native women and children in our neighborhood and beyond, as well as the old men and sick, are absolutely starving to death. Their husbands and fathers have been killed, wounded, captured or driven back to Malolos, their houses burned to the ground with all their earthly possessions and they are left with no means of subsistence. They attempt to come into the American lines by thousands, but have to be turned back. We cannot feed them.

Reports from the winter wheat sections in the West indicate serious damage to the crop by reason of the undue severity of the long winter season. In Southern Nebraska the State Board of Agriculture estimates a loss of not less than sixty per cent. There is an exaggeration in this, no doubt; yet the proportion of winter-killed wheat this year is certain to be largely in excess of similar losses during several seasons past. A net loss of even one-half of the Nebraska estimate would mean a deficiency of about 60,000,000 bushels in the country's forthcoming wheat crop as compared with that of last year.

As the ostensible purpose of the trusts is to promote economy by reducing expenses, and, as the greater part of the expense of every kind of production is the labor involved, it follows inevitably that the promotion of trusts involves a reduction of labor. When two concerns are operated by consolidation at the former cost of one, some of the employes of one or both must be thrown out of work, and when this process is repeated in thousands of instances, many thousands of persons must be deprived of the means of livelihood. This fact, which has long been foreseen by students of political economy, is now beginning to force itself upon public attention, and measures to counteract it are being considered.

A convention of contractors representing several classes of workmen has been held at Indianapolis to organize a movement against the trusts, and it was resolved to buy only from parties not affiliated with them. But, while this plan may succeed in some cases, it will not be effectual in all, because there are now many classes so completely under trust control that consumers must buy from them or go without. Some other way than this to fight the trusts must be found, and, in view of Attorney General Grigg's recent declaration that the National Government has no control over them, it is difficult to see what effectual plan can be had. These remarks of the Philadelphia Ledger contain a volume of truth.

Officials Must Show Books. The Philadelphia Press, alluding to the case in Clearfield county, says:

"Editor John J. Short, of the Clearfield Republican, has pursued a fight against the County Commissioners of his bailiwick that redounds largely to his credit. The officials gave him the opportunity by relegating to themselves the assumption that the public records under their care were not duly open to the taxpayers' inspection.

"It is rare that public servants feel called upon to be so secretive, but the Clearfield Commissioners choose to face the issue, and Editor Short has since unveiled such an array of bad business methods and questionable doings that the poor officials have had a sorry time trying to explain matters."

Public officers must show their books when tax-payers, whose servants they are, demand it. This law applies to all officers, from state down to townships, and where their doings are straight they won't refuse.

Is Bad Form. An exchange aptly remarks: Cards of thanks to neighbors and friends for courtesies received on occasions of death and bereavement, printed in a public newspaper, are in very bad form. There is no necessity for them. We are not living in a barbaric community. We are living among civilized people where our neighbors and friends gladly and cheerfully render all the kindness they can at times of bereavement. They don't expect a card of public thanks and its bad form to make one.

I desire to announce to the Democracy of Centre county that I will be a candidate for County Commissioner, subject to the rules of the party. In 1897 I was elected as Associate Judge and went down with all the rest on the Democratic County Ticket, with no fault of any candidate, but to a depressed and unsettled condition of affairs in the government, and a dissatisfaction people here over the country and Democracy was swept out of the ticket, and I was elected to the party for nomination, and I was elected, either by nomination or election, viz: Hon. Jas. C. Mower, Esq., received the nomination for Superior Court Judge. Now I respectfully solicit the same consideration and recognition, and submit my candidacy to the Democracy of Centre County for their judgment at the coming primaries and County convention.

I remain your most obedient servant. Boalsburg, March 16, '99. THOS. F. RILEY
