

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of town. J. Orris McCormick, of Spring Mills, was in town Tuesday. Miss Tace Kreamer was visiting with friends in Rebersburg over Sunday. Our pleasant friend, Jacob Wagner, from across the valley, was a welcome caller. Mrs. Wm. W. Boob departed on Saturday for Philadelphia, to purchase goods for her store. Mr. and Mrs. James Carson, of near Bellefonte, spent Monday with friends in town. Miss Roxanna Brisbin went to State College on Tuesday on a week's visit with friends. Miss Jessie Fredericks, of Spring Mills, is spending the week with friends in Centre Hall. Sheriff Wm. M. Cronister was in town yesterday, on his way through the valley on legal business. Our industrious friend, William Knoffsinger, Pleasant Gap lumberman, favored us with a call. Our friend Wm. Farner, of south Potter, illuminated our sanctum with his presence the other day. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bierley, of Rebersburg, visited their daughter, Mrs. Forest Ocker, on Tuesday. Mrs. J. W. Wolf and son William arrived home Monday from a short visit to relatives in Harrisburg. Geo. Hettinger, of Centre Hill, was a pleasant caller and before leaving had his name enrolled on our list. L. G. Burris, one of Centre Hill's bright young citizens, gave the Reporter a call and had his label set into '99. Miss Meta Guie, a student at State College, is spending her Easter vacation with Miss Grace Alexander. Forest Ocker is wearing a broad grin since Monday, from the fact of being the father of a fine young daughter. Rev. Robert O'Boyle, pastor of the Reformed church at Sunbury, was in town several days last week inspecting his interests here. Miss Romie Van Pelt arrived home last Thursday on her Easter vacation, from Wilson College at Chambersburg, Pa. Samuel Harter, of Georges valley, one of the most esteemed citizens down that way, was a pleasant caller, and before leaving set his label into 1900. Daniel Hosterman, Penn township's assessor, looking the picture of health, was in town, and as usual, gave our sanctum a call and whiled a half hour in chat. Miss Jennie Longacre, of Bellefonte, Miss Ada Goodhart, of Centre Hill, and Miss Florence Rhone, were entertained at the home of Mr. D. K. Geiss over Sunday. Our old friend J. R. Lawyer, of Earlstown, favored the Reporter with a call to have his label shine into 1900. He reports wheat badly damaged and roads in his section awful. Thomas Farner and Emory Ripka, two young men from the other side of the valley, left on Friday morning for Lebanon, Pa., where they will take a full course in a business college. Mrs. D. R. Sweetwood accompanied by Mrs. J. J. Arney, were pleasant callers in the Reporter sanctum—the former ordering the Reporter to be sent her son in Illinois. J. W. Dasbem, of Centre Hill, gave the Reporter a call and set his label into '99; like many other farmers, he informs us that the severe winter has been damaging to the wheat fields. A. Christ Alexander and family were visiting among friends in and about Centre Hill, the latter part of last week. They were on their way from Penn township to their newly acquired home in Missouri. Mr. J. F. Heckman, of Spring Mills, was a pleasant caller Tuesday, while in town. Mr. Heckman is an old time friend of the Reporter, and a genial gentleman, whom it is always a pleasure to meet. J. S. Showers, of Tusseyville and one of its very useful citizens, gave our sanctum a call and set his label into 1900. He is most successful in raising giant strawberries and will double the area of his patch. J. B. Wagner, of south Potter, a young man of fine qualifications, who has become efficient in telegraphing and the duties of a railroad station agent, has become a citizen of our town and is retained by the P. R.R. as a supply. Jonas Bible, one of our regular and promptly paying subscribers of Centre Hill, was a caller, and now has a '99 label. He informs us his father is not improving, also that the wheat fields have been greatly damaged this winter. James A. Wert, one of the practical farmers of Tusseyville, gave us a business call. He drives a span of the finest blacks in this valley, that would please a prince to drive; to correspond with his team, James drove his label into 1900. David R. Foreman, of near Centre Hill, is finishing out the school term for his brother Frank Foreman, in the second grade. Frank was compelled to give up his school owing to the serious illness of his little son Guy, during the past week, from congestion of the lungs.

SPRING MILLS.

Interesting News Items from Our Neighboring Town. Removals and changes being about over, the next in order will be whitewashing fences and garden making. The United Evangelical parsonage is being pushed forward quite rapidly. Rev. Brown pastor, is about as active as any of the workmen. All the merchants in our village report a satisfactory business during March. Commercial agents passing through here report the prospects for a lively spring trade as being decidedly flattering. Victor Royer who has been absent for several months teaching "young ideas how to sprout" returned home Saturday last. Mr. Royer is a young man of fine personal appearance, highly polished and very intelligent. A. J. Graden the reliable shoemaker, has moved his shop to the new residence on the avenue, recently erected by C. P. Long. The dwelling part of the residence not being entirely completed, he will move his family later. The weather on Easter Sunday was hardly suitable nor reasonable for any spring display of wearing apparel. A few bold ones ventured out of doors "arrayed in purple and fine linen," but soon returned again to the discarded overcoat and gum shoes. Rev. Chilcoat the new appointee for the Penn valley circuit arrived here on Thursday last; Mrs. Chilcoat reached the parsonage on the following Monday. Quite a number of prominent Methodists were present to receive and welcome them in their new field. In the evening they had a very large reception. Rev. Chilcoat will deliver his first sermon here next Sunday evening. Mrs. W. H. Bartholomew, of Centre Hall, formerly of our village, whose death was announced in last week's issue, was interred in the Union cemetery here on Saturday last, Rev. D. M. Wolf officiating. Several clergymen were present, all of whom spoke of the deceased in a very feeling and impressive manner, and of the irreparable loss sustained by the family. The funeral was very largely attended. This spring G. H. Long the energetic merchant of our village, owing to his increasing business, will remodel his present store room by removing all partitions and make one large square room, raise the ceiling about two feet, and placing in front two large windows, and by enlarging those on the north and south of the building will give him plenty of light. In consequence of these improvements on Saturday last, he cut the prices almost in two on all the goods in the store, offers extraordinary inducements in order to reduce stock to the lowest point by the time he begins alterations. The cut in prices are not on old bats—goods that are shop worn and out of style, but new, fresh and desirable, such bargains as he offers will pay any one to purchase for future use. MILLHEIM. What Has Happened in the Vicinity of Recent Date. Miss Hattie Small spent Sunday with her parents in Aaronsburg. Mr. Bassler, of Cleveland, Ohio, is visiting in our town this week. H. F. Keen, of Roland, spent Sunday with his friends at Millheim and vicinity. The public schools are closed and the children are enjoying their vacation. Emory Kupp, of Sugar valley, tarried in Millheim over Sunday and circulated among his friends. Mrs. J. W. King and son and Rev. E. D. Keen, are visiting at the home of D. L. Zerby this week. Miss Esta Smith returned home on Monday, after visiting friends in Nittany valley several weeks. Rev. Chilcoat preached to the M. E. congregation at this place for the first time on Sunday afternoon. Michael Maize, who with his family had moved to Sparrows Point, Md., last fall, has returned to Millheim. Miss Leah Reifsnyder died at the home of her brother William in this place, on April 1st and was buried on Tuesday morning. The services were in charge of Rev. H. M. Buck, of the United Evangelical church. William Mouch, of Huston, who succeeded Cyrus Brungart in the meat market, took charge of the same on the first. Mr. Mauck has the reputation of being a hustler, and will no doubt succeed in his new venture. The Easter services held in the Reformed church were a decided success. The recitations were very good, and the choir, assisted by Messrs. Thomas Weaver and Al. Stover, two of the finest singers in the valley, ably rendered some excellent selections. CENTRE HILL. A Letter of Interest from Our Correspondent. Fathers Strohm and Bible are not improving much. Meyer Bros. shipped a car load of baled hay this week. Rufus Strohm, our new counter jumper, is a hustler. Lloyd Smith is suffering from a severe attack of ring worm in the face. Harry Burkholder left for Nittany valley this week, where he will work for Frank Lee. The Epworth League of Sprucecreek, gave quite an interesting entertain-

LINDEN HALL.

Personal Mention and Other Items of Interest. Frank Tharp and wife, of Boalsburg were pleasant callers in our town Sunday. Miss Valerie Gettig, of State College, spent Easter with her mother at this place. Howard Zeigler and sister Lizzie spent a few days last week with friends in Rebersburg. Miss Virna Rossman, of Farmers Mills, is visiting her cousins, Katie and Lizzie Zeigler at this place. Mrs. John Frazier returned last week from an extended visit with friends in the eastern part of the state. Calvin Spicher and sister Carrie, of near Centre Hall, were the guests of their uncle, Wash Garbrick, on Sunday. The large stock sale of John Cummings, which was held last Friday, was quite a success, financially and otherwise. Mrs. Frank McClinton is again confined to her bed; her many friends wish for her a speedy recovery from her sufferings. Mrs. Margaret Love, of Tusseyville, was a very pleasant caller at the home of her niece, Mrs. Della Ross, at this place, on Thursday last. Mrs. Lizzie Meyer is also on the sick list; she had an attack of la grippe some time ago, from which she has not yet recovered. Miss Gertrude Weiland expects to teach a term of summer school at this place, if enough pupils can be secured. Parents, send your children to school. Noah Fehl, of Rebersburg, who had been spending the winter months with his uncle, Mr. Zeigler, in this place, returned home last week. We are sorry to lose your company Noah. BOALSBURG. Many Real Estate Transfers Made During the Last Month. Bruce Harrison was in Bellefonte last Saturday. We have had a few flittings in Boalsburg this spring and some yet to take place. Enoch Sweney will have sale on April 7, of his stock, but we are informed that he will remain where he is for the present. The Oak Hall grammar school had an entertainment on Friday evening, March 31, which some of our young people attended; it was a decided success. The Boalsburg Lodge I. O. O. F. elected Saturday evening six new members, which will next Saturday night be duly initiated by their team. This makes fifteen or sixteen new members since last October. Water was turned into the pipes of our new water plant last Friday to test the pipes, which we believe was satisfactory. The pipes are all laid but the reservoir is not near completion, so that it will be some time till the plant is completed. Holy Communion services were held in the Lutheran church Easter morning; special services in the evening. Special services of song suitable for Easter tide were held in the Reformed church Sunday evening; fine music was a feature, conducted by Prof. P. H. Meyer. The schools of Harris township have all closed except the primary in Boalsburg; the teacher, Miss Jennie Hunter, has been sick for several weeks and Bruce Harrison will finish her school, three days yet. The schools all over the district we believe were a complete success this year. Principal Hower admitted four pupils by examination from the primary into the grammar school and received by examination seven pupils from the grammar school into the high school. Many real estate transfers have been made in Boalsburg during the last month or two, here are a few of the many: Peter Weber, a house and lot in Boalsburg to L. Kimpfort, consideration $525. The Bohm heirs, a house and lot situated in Boalsburg, to Dr. Kidder, consideration $720. J. P. Weber, a house and lot situated in Boalsburg, to the Misses Goheen. E. Sweney last Thursday made two sales of his farm; one part of his farm to A. Hosterman, after which later in the day withdrew this sale and sold the whole farm to Harry Shirk. A number of other sales of real estate have taken place at or near Boalsburg this spring. The smallest things may exert the greatest influence. De Witt's Little Early Risers are unequalled for overcoming constipation and liver troubles. Small pill, best pill, safe pill; for sale by Smith & Crawford.

"A word to the wise is sufficient" and a word from the wise should be sufficient, but you ask, who are the wise? Those who know. The oft-repeated experience of trustworthy persons may be taken for knowledge. Mr. W. M. Terry says Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other in the market. He has been in the drug business at Elkton, Ky., for twelve years; has sold hundreds of bottles of this remedy and nearly all other cough medicines manufactured, which shows conclusively that Chamberlain's is the most satisfactory to the people, and is the best. For sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Pottery Mills; H. F. Roisman, Spring Mills. Profaneness Punished. An act of March 31, 1890, Section 30: "If any person shall willfully, premeditatedly and despectfully blaspheme, or speak loosely and profanely of Almighty God, Christ Jesus, the Holy Spirit, of the Scriptures, of Truth, such persons, on conviction thereof, shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, and undergo an imprisonment not exceeding three months or either at the discretion of the court. Established 1836. PUBLIC LEDGER PHILADELPHIA. SPECIAL OFFER TO LEDGER READERS. The Public Ledger offers to its readers in connection with a 25 weeks' subscription, and the payment of 50 cents additional, a copy of The Ledger's Unrivalled Atlas of the World. This Atlas has been specially prepared for the Public Ledger by Rand, McNally & Co., New York and Chicago, and is one of the best works of its kind ever offered to the public. The Unrivalled Atlas of the World contains over 250 pages, elegantly printed on fine colored paper, marbled edges, bound in English cloth, with handsome gold side stamp, size 11 1/2 x 14 1/4 inches. It contains 157 full-page colored maps, showing every country on the face of the globe, every State in the Union, principal cities, etc., with fine marginal index. It contains nearly 400 fine engravings of the world's people, statesmen, soldiers, etc. It contains a ready reference list of every town in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and Delaware. It contains in a brief comprehensive form more general, practical information regarding the physical, historical, ethnological, governmental, financial, and commercial conditions of the world than any work published. This Atlas is offered to introduce The Ledger to new readers with the firm belief that those who become acquainted with the merits of The Ledger will not be willing to give it up. The Public Ledger is Pennsylvania's Greatest Home Newspaper, giving all the news of the day, classified and in complete form. In its columns every statement is verified and carefully edited; its news is therefore reliable and clean. The Directors of many school districts have adopted The Ledger for supplementary reading matter in their schools, and placed a copy of The Atlas in each school library. How to Get the Atlas. Forward the price of 25 weeks' subscription, plus 50 cents ($3.62) to The Ledger and the name of your nearest express office.
