CENTRE HALL, PA., THURS. April 13

President McKinley has again given out that he believes the Philippine war is near its end.

The rotten beef testimony is coming in more damaging every day, and now McKinley can shield Alger and Eagan no longer.

The bribery investigation closed last week and the next interesting thing to follow is the prosecution of the bribers in the Dauphin county court.

The two prominent personages who have run themselves into the fence-corner of humiliation and oblivion, by the senatorial fight, are lieutenant governor Gobin and speaker Farr.

There will be several horse sales in this valley shortly. If the amiable "farmer" Kulp can attend, there may be $200 to $300 dollars in it for him.

The iron trust having raised the price of iron, now the stove trust follows and raises the price of stoves, and the nail trust has raised the price of nails.

Tom Reed is not friendly to McKinley's re-nomination, has a notion he himself should be the next President. This may cause the administration to make a fight on Reed's re-election as speaker.

Trusts are going up by the dozens all the time, but it keeps being blue Monday with all farmers on crop prices.

It's the farmers that need help—the millionaires of the trusts can take care of themselves.

Pat inquired of Moike what was all this matter about trusts you hear so much about. Pat was informed that it meant buying all you want on trust. Both agreed to jine and live high.

Lawyer Ed. Chambers, of Bellefonte, received a fine, sweet doughnut for being a Quay worker. Auditor General McCauley has appointed Chambers attorney for the auditor's department.

The Keator ballot reform bill, passed the house 4th. This measure provides absolute secrecy in voting. Under the proposed law no voter shall have a helper unless he is physically incapable or unable to read.

The war with Spain has made the pension business lively. A statement was recently given out by the Commissioner of Pensions which showed that in some of the regiments which were in the service during the war fully 50 per cent. of their membership have filed applications for pensions.

Young Vanderbilt's palatial residence on Long Island, where he was spending his honeymoon, was burned on Tuesday morning. He and his bride escaped to the lawn to look on and see a million dollars go up in smoke.

Two cowboys with rifles entered the office of a lumber company in Texas, and forced the cashier to hand over a package containing $50,000 and made their escape with the stuff.

The State of Texas, through its Legislature, is putting on record, once and for all its unalterable opposition to a division of that magnificent Commonwealth. It is the Lone Star State, containing over 274,000 square miles, and capable of sustaining a population of 25,000,000 persons without the least difficulty.

Imperial Texas! The greatest gateway to the greatest gulf, and the widest open door to the emigrant and the capitalist on the face of God's earth. One of the youngest and one of the greatest of Commonwealths, an empire in itself, with a farm for every toiler and a welcome for every honest man.

During the month of March the best breeding laws of the State of New Jersey created not fewer than 250 incorporated concerns with a capitalization of one billion and a half dollars. These loose and easy-going laws have been prolific of schemes of enormous over-valuations of stock.

The House did a good piece of work the other day in presenting dates at which the school appropriations shall be paid, and thus putting a stop to the holding up of school money.

The bad beef testimony establishes all these facts: It was embalmed. It stank like carrion. It was uneatable. It made the soldiers sick. It caused the death of some soldiers. It was not inspected. It was hauled on manure wagons. It had maggots in some cans. It was nauseating. It was stringy and tough. It had to be thrown over board. It was buried for its stench. It was bought by Eagan, With the endorsement of Alger.

A move has been made to remove the capital to Philadelphia. Let the city have it if she will pay all expenses for buildings and ground. The state would thereby avoid a job and scandal of millions in the erection of a new capitol at Harrisburg.

Secretary Johnston has issued a call for a meeting of the Democratic standing committee to apportion delegates, and other party work, at Bellefonte, April 24th.

There's talk of prolonging the session of the legislature, time having been fooled away trying to elect Quay.

Governor Stone keeps talking economy. That's right; it's needed. But the Governor keeps signing bills for increase of salaries. That's not right; not needed.

Vice President Hobart is quite ill. The rotten beef investigation has closed and the committee will soon report.

The bribery investigation has closed and the committee will next hand the names of the bribers over for prosecution.

The war with Spain is at an end, the ratification of peace having been exchanged, and the President has issued his peace proclamation, and appointed Bellamy Storer, of Ohio, minister to Spain. But the war in the Philippines is still going on.

The Quay trial began on Monday. The first day there was a wrangle over the bank books that were to be used in evidence against Quay whose attorneys quibbled against it. On Tuesday receiver Barlow and ex-judge Gordon gave some startling testimony about the famous letters and papers.

LATE NEWS CONDENSED. Dewey reports the Filipinos are not of much use in the government service, and that the men he had employed ran away to join the rebel army.

Young Vanderbilt's palatial residence on Long Island, where he was spending his honeymoon, was burned on Tuesday morning. He and his bride escaped to the lawn to look on and see a million dollars go up in smoke.

A collision of steamers on the Greek coast, caused the loss of 45 lives.

Two cowboys with rifles entered the office of a lumber company in Texas, and forced the cashier to hand over a package containing $50,000 and made their escape with the stuff.

At the recent license court in Lycoming county, which was presided over by Judge Mayer, Attorney Ames made a few points that especially concern those who become bondsmen for liquor dealers.

Love, President Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of the 4th Judicial District, consisting of the county of Centre, has issued his process, bearing date the 27th day of March, 1899, to me directed for holding a Court of Common Pleas and Orphan's Court, Court of Oyer and Terminer and general Jail Delivery and Quarter Sessions of the Peace in Bellefonte, for the county of Centre, and commencing on the 4th Monday of April, the 24th day of April, 1899, and to continue 2 weeks.
