No less than a dozen candidates are anxious to succeed Reed as speaker.

The Democrats on Monday swept Baltimore by near 10,000 majority.

Washington officials announce they see the end of the Philippine war. What sort o' telescope do they use?

The crop report put out by the Agricultural Department at Washington on Monday is not as bright as wished for as to the wheat crop.

The National City Bank, of New York, got $40,000 for handling the 20 millions in four checks paid by our government to Spain. A big profit!

New Jersey still keeps grinding out trusts, and pays her state expenses from the incorporation fees. There will be a sorrowful reckoning some

Never, in the history of this commonwealth, did a Governor lower himself so far and throw himself away so soon as did Governor Stone. It is the fate of stones to be thrown away.

The independent Republicans are daring the regulars to run their idol, Quay, for state treasurer, and thereby get at the bottom as to what the people think of the boss. The Reporter rises to second that motion.

Governor Stone's argument for preferring to aid the hospitals before the public schools is:

"I believe a boy who is suffering with disease or who is injured should be ministered to before he is taught his alphabet."

So he should; but what about the hundred other boys who are not injured, and who are suffering from no disease except ignorance? Must they be neglected until the one boy gets Thieving has become so general with officials-about Harrisburg, that Senate and House employes, it is found, at the close of the recent session carried the personal description of the person and House employes, it is found, at off a lot of valuable State property. ty It would, of course, have been rather startling if nothing at all had been stolen, remarks the Record, since the mysterious disappearance of public property has usually been a part of the regular final proceedings of the Legislature. Vice is no longer a monster of frightful mien around the State capital; it is embraced at the first oppor-

The welcome news is sent out from Washington that no more troops are needed for the Philippine war, that the insurrection has collapsed and the Commissioners of Aguinaldo have entered our lines under a flag of truce to plead for a cessation of hostilities. Good, if true. This Philippine affair was a bad one. It has cost this country some 1500 in killed and wounded, with millions of dollars to carry on a war ten thousand miles away from home, saying nothing of the twenty millions paid Spain for the good drubbing Uncle Sam gave her, and for which a check was issued last week.

We repeat, we trust the Washington assurances for once will prove true.

The appointment of Quay-slumper John Hamilton as Secretary of Agriculture and the removal of the faithful Secretary Edge, has aroused the indignation of farmers all over the state and this appointment and request Governor Stone to re-instate ex-Secretary Edge because he is the man the farmers want. Can John Hamilton size himself up to do it?

The output of pig iron in the world in 1898 was five times that of 1850that is, 35,000,000 tons, against 7,000,-000. It was three times that of 1870 and twice that of 1880. These are the figures of the London "Statist." Of the world product last year of 35,000,-000 tons the United States produced one-third. Our output in 1898 was more than twice the production of the world in any year prior to 1850, and exceeded the world's output in any year prior to 1870.

In Great Britain in 1870 the production of pig iron was three times greater than that of the United States in that year. In 1890 it was twice as Democratic party great as the production of the United States. In 1889 Great Britain's output was 700,000 tons larger than that of the United States, but in the following year we passed her in the race, and in 1898 we produced over three million tons in excess of the product of Great Britain. This is the estimate of the State Their Position With Refer-"Statist." And this excess of three million tons over Great Britain in 1898 was more than the entire production of the United States in any year prior

One of the bitterest factional fights in the Republican party in the county, is sure to be very much in evidence this year between the Quay men and the adherents of ex-Gov. Hastings. The fight willibe for the control of the county organization, and the election state of Pennsylvania, being about to of delegates to the Republican State convention. Gov. Hastings has secured the ill-will of the Quay gang during his last two years in office by fearlessly swinging his veto axe into every measure which was passed by the Quay legislature for the purpose of looting the state treasury. Hastings refused and without the electing of a United to do Quay's dirty work, and the States senator. state was saved many thousands of dollars by the fearless attitude the Gov. assumed. In consequence he was marked for a political corpse by of the legislature opposed to his return "the old man," but when the finals are footed up, Hastings will prove to be the liveliest corpse that Quay has yet laid out. The Gov. will direct his campaign personally in the county, and with his faithful lieutenants, will wage a bitter fight. His lines are yet intact and strong and he is by no means a quitter. The Quay side is being looked after by Jack Dale, Judge Love and Judge Beaver, the latter now filling a $7,500 position and perquisites, a gift from the man whom he now would slaughter. Owing to a peculiar condition of affairs, this Quay gang secured control of the county organization last year when the Gov. put up little or no fight. Men from this county appointed to good and lucrative positions and put on their feet through the good influences of Hastings now show their gratitude by stabbing him in the back at their first opportunity. This is the basest ingratitude known. Such men he is only handicapped with and far better rid

ence to the Battle Against Machine Rule.

(Special Correspondence.) Harrisburg, April 27.-Anti-Quay members of the legislature held a meeting and unanimously decided to issue the following address:

To the Republicans of Pennsylvania: "The anti-Quay members of the senate and house of representatives of the separate, after the closing of the memorable session of 1899, make the following statements: "The evils of Quay and Quayism, against which we have been and shall continue to contend, have succeeded in forcing an adjournment of the legislature without the passage of any of the laws for which there is such crying need

"At the election of 1898 the people, at the polls, clearly indicated their opposition to ex-Senator Quay by the selection of a majority of the members to the senate. The minority supporting Mr. Quay has been large enough, however, to prevent the election of a United States senator, and has refused every proposition to elect some other man than ex-Senator Quay, their doctrine being that of 'rule or ruin'the election of Quay or nobody.

"We have, from the first, stood ready and willing to elect any honest Republican of Pennsylvania to the United States senate, and to bring about that end have cast our votes at various times for such sterling Republicans and distinguished citizens as the Hon. John Dalzell, Judge John Stewart, Colonel E. A. Irvin, Hon. Charles W. Stone, Hon. Charles Tubbs, Colonel George F. Huff, Hon. Charles Emory Smith, Alvin Markle, Esq., Hon. Calvin Wells, Judge Charles E. Rice, Hon.

Benjamin F. Jones and others. "We have offered to place in nomination any distinguished Republican in Pennsylvania, at all times standing ready to vote for any of the great army of reputable men who would honor the state as its representative in the United States senate, but the men opposed to us have insisted that no election should be had unless we accepted a man who is under indictment charged with the crime of unlawfully using the people's money, and who is now on trial in the city of Philadelphia.

Every reason existing at the beginning of the session for opposing Mr. Quay existed at the time of taking the last ballot, with overwhelming additional reasons, and the evidence already given to the public in the trial of the case against him in Philadelphia has completely vindicated our opposition, if vindication were needed.

"It has been shown by the books of the People's bank, of Philadelphia, the treasurers of the state, to use for his own personal benefit the moneys of the commonwealth. It has been shown that during the past 12 years he has had the use of over $1,900,000 out of the People's bank, of Philadelphia, alone, belonging to the people, and upon which he has not paid to the state one dollar of interest.

"And we call special attention to the astonishing fact that this corrupt uso of state funds was being carried on at a time when the public schools, the hospitals, the asylums for the insane. homes for the aged, institutions for the deaf, dumb and blind, and many other charitable institutions of the state were suffering for the want of the money which had been appropriated to them by the legislature.

"But the whole truth within the covers of the books of the defunct People's bank will never be known to the public, as the defendant, Mr. Quay, has pleaded the statute of limitation, which confines the commonwealth to the period during which Haywood, another of the defendants, occupied the office of state treasurer. We have full confidence that the people of this state will not allow any man to represent them in the United States senate who pleads the statute of limitation to protect him from a criminal prosecution.

"The failure to elect a United States senator is only one of the many evils brought upon the state by the machinations of the Quay members of the legislature of 1899. "The house of representatives for the first time in 20 years was an anti-Quay body, and the senate was as certainly controlled by the rriends of Mr. Quay. Every good measure which was brought before the house was promptly passed, and every bad measure was promptly defeated. We assert, without fear of successful contradiction, that the record of the senate's work in this respect is the exact reverse to that of the house. Nearly every good measure sent to the senate from the house was promptly defeated, and the bad measures with which we have had to contend in this legislature have generally originated in the Quay faction of the senate.

"The house attempted to raise the necessary revenue to wipe out the deficit in the state treasury, to conduct the state government and care for its charitable institutions by taxing beer and increasing the taxation on corporations, but both measures were promptly throttled by the Quay-con-trolled senate. The house promptly passed the bill submitted by the tax conference, which proposed to impose the burden of taxation impartially on all classes of property, but this bill met the same fate at the hands of the

Quayites in the senate. The thoughtful men of all parties and factions admit that reforms are greatly needed in the present ballot laws of the state, and such reforms were proposed and passed by the house, the result in the senate being the same as with the other reform bills refer-

The testimony developed by the "The testimony developed by the committee of the house appointed to investigate the charges of bribery with reference to the election of a United States senator and the so-called 'Mc-Carrell bill' was most startling in its character. The report of the committee, which was adopted by the house, recommends the prosecution for the crime of bribery and attempted bribery of no less than nine persons, including one member of the house of representatives, all of whom were operating in the interest of Mr. Quay, and, in addition to these, there were a great number of cases, in which, although the testimony was not sufficient to recommend criminal prosecutions, yet, taking all of the testimony adduced, an unprejudiced mind must be convinced that the halls of legislation, from the beginning of the session until the end, were swarming with lobbyists of the most unscrupulous and desperate character, and that the whole official atmosphere of Harrisburg was laden with the stench of corruption. This testimony shows that sums as high as a thousand dollars were offered for a single vote upon the no-torious 'McCarrel bill,' and that as great a sum as $5,000 was offered to secure a single vote for Mr. Quay for

United States senator. "We congratulate the people of the state, and especially those of our fellow citizens who are co-operating with us, on winning the first great battle of the campaign against the political syndicate known as the Quay machine, in the interest of common decency in public morals. And we take pleasure in making this public acknowledgment of the inestimable value to the cause to which we are all devoted of the aid and support given to us by the public press of the state.

"The political revolution which is in progress in Pennsylvania is so far advanced as to make the ultimate triumph of our cause now certain. We have defeated Quay, the man. We propose to carry on the contest until we have defeated that monstrous system of misrule and corruption for which his name stands as the exponent. And, with renewed and heightened courage and confidence, we invite every one of our fellow citizens who loves his state better than his party, and who loves his party better than any individual or set of individuals in that party, to co-operate with us in our efforts to in augurate an era of common honesty and decency in the administration of public affairs.
