

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of town.

A. C. Mingle and family, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with friends in Centre Hall.

Miss Rilla Morris, of Rebersburg, has been the guest at the home of Forest Ocker, for several days.

Wm. Lohr went to Bellefonte on Tuesday to attend the funeral of his nephew, Geo. I. Blackford.

Recorder J. C. Harper and wife, of Bellefonte, were the guests of friends in this vicinity on Saturday.

Mrs. A. L. Nerhood, of Rebersburg, has been the guest at the home of her son Ed. Nerhood, the past week.

Jesse McClenahan, of Milroy, spent several days this week visiting at the home of Mrs. Mary McClenahan.

Bruce Mitchell and John Bathgate, two of State College's young men, spent Sunday with friends in Centre Hall.

W. L. Malin, supt. of Bell telephone, with Mrs. Malin, were in Centre Hall Saturday, looking after the interests of the company.

W. W. Dellett, one of our former citizens, but now located at Homestead, was here several days last week on a business trip.

Chas. L. Beck, the Atlantic Refining Co.'s agent from Sunbury, was here this week on one of his periodical visits among his many friends.

The aged Mrs. Jane Love, who suffered severe injuries from a fall several weeks ago, is slowly improving, and it is hoped she will fully recover her former good health again.

W. O. Rearick, Geo. W. Ocker, John T. Lee, J. S. Dauberman, and E. M. Huyett, all school directors, attended the election for County Superintendent at Bellefonte on Tuesday.

Boyd A. Musser, of Bellefonte, who came out last week as a candidate for Recorder, was in town Tuesday hustling after and meeting Democrats. He is making a thorough canvass, and wants the job.

L. Ray Morgan, of State College, was a visitor in town over Sunday. He was accompanied home by his wife and little daughter, who had been visiting her sister, Mrs. S. W. Smith, for over a week.

Prof. H. C. Rothrock, of Millheim, and Co. Supt. Gramley, of Rebersburg, two of the candidates for County Superintendent, were in town last Saturday putting the finishing touches to their lively fight for the office.

Miss Nannie Decker returned from Philadelphia on Monday evening. She entered a hospital about a week ago to have a growth removed from the back of her head. She underwent a successful operation and returns greatly benefited.

John B. Bitner, Potter township's candidate for Commissioner, is putting up a lively canvass for the nomination, and is out nearly all his spare time making himself acquainted with the Democrats. Like the other candidates, Mr. Bitner says he has no reason to be discouraged in his canvass.

Must Remove Their Hats.

Three of the leading churches in Columbus, Ohio, have decided on a new rule to be put in force on and after Sunday next, requiring that all women remove their hats. There is considerable opposition among the women, on the ground that the lady visitors to the churches, who cannot be expected to know the rule, will often come with their hair not dressed for removing their hats, and will be embarrassed, but one of the congregations has already provided for such an emergency by employing several maids, who will wait upon the ladies, taking their hats and wraps and issuing checks for the same.

To Get Rebate on Road Tax.

A farmer who uses only draft wagons equipped with four-inch tires to haul loads of 2,000 pounds or more, though he uses wagons with narrower tires to haul less loads, is entitled to the rebate of one-fourth of his assessed road tax, provided the rebate shall not exceed five days labor on the highway for any one year.

Recent Millin County Deaths.

Lewistown, H. W. Bodley, age 27y. Vinyard, Thomas Cochran, age 78y. Huntingdon, Geo. Fry, age 76y. Barrville, Maria Himes, age 65 y. Altoona, Sarah Larned, age 89y. Milroy, Beulah McClenahan, age 23. Brown twp., widow of Matthew Taylor, age 76 years.

Whooping Cough.

I had a little boy who was nearly dead from an attack of whooping cough. My neighbors recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I did not think that any medicine would help him, but after giving him a few doses of that remedy I noticed an improvement, and one bottle cured him entirely. It is the best cough medicine I ever had in the house.—J. L. Moore, South Burgettstown, Pa. For sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Pottery Mills; H. F. Rosman, Spring Mills.

SPRING MILLS.

An Interesting Letter as Gathered by Our Correspondent.

Sunday last being like a summer day all of our churches were well attended. Commercial agents passing through our village report business on the road as being slightly off.

Quite a thunder storm passed over our village on Monday afternoon last. The rain continued for an hour or two—a much needed rain.

Of late Penns creek seems to be the favorite fishing grounds. Any day, Sunday excepted, her concave shores are lined with fishermen.

Mrs. W. P. Alexander of our village, who has been very ill since January last, and most of the time confined to her bed is slowly convalescing.

The dime social held by the ladies of the M. E. church on Saturday evening last was well patronized, and quite a handsome sum of money was realized.

The coal excitement here, has in a manner subsided. That we have coal appears to be certain, but whether in paying quantities is a question. At present all operations in connection with it are in a quiescent state.

Mrs. Van Valzah has had built in front of her spacious residence, a very substantial board walk extending the entire length of the grounds. This gives us almost an uninterrupted board walk along the creek road of five or six hundred feet—a very decided improvement.

The decaying carcass of a dog, referred to last week as lying inside of a fence along the pike within a step of our village, has been removed. It was a crime to allow it to remain there an hour, yet it remained there for several months; the very atmosphere was becoming pestilential.

In a field back of our academy building—the grounds from here down to Penn Hall are very considerably elevated along the pike, and directly on the summit of this one field at present there is a snow bank at least two feet deep.

To speak of a snow bank lying around loose during this warm weather seems like a fancy sketch, but it is a fact nevertheless. The snow is located in a small cave.

C. P. Long the enterprising merchant of our village, has greatly improved the entrance to his store property by the erection of wide steps the entire length of the store porch, one side being protected by a very handsome banister, also a ground platform directly in front, which connects with a very substantial board walk extending from the store to the end of the square. The whole is a very decided improvement.

J. Victor Royer one of our very promising young men, passed a very successful examination a few weeks since, preparatory to entering the law office of Fortney and Walker, in Bellefonte, as a student, a firm ranking very high in the legal profession. Mr. Royer is a young man highly educated, polished, refined, and has always been regarded as a close observer. Unquestionably with his present opportunities at no very distant day he will prove an honor to the bar of Centre county.

MILLHEIM.

Personal Mention and Other Items of Interest.

Harry Long, of Lemont, was in town on Sunday.

Quite a number of our people were to Bellefonte last Wednesday.

J. W. King, of Laurelton, was in town several days last week.

Mrs. E. W. Mauck is entertaining her sister from Shamokin this week.

Mrs. William Browand, of Feidler, is spending several weeks with Mrs. F. O. Hosterman, on Penn street.

John McIntire, of Athens, Pa., is visiting at the home of his father-in-law, Jeff. Swanger, on Water street.

Miss Mammie Miller will leave for Freeburg on Monday morning, to attend the musical college at that place.

Miss Cordelia Ocker, of Aaronsburg, is frequently seen on our streets now, as she is learning dress making with Mrs. E. W. Mauck.

Did you celebrate "Dewey Day?" The bank at this place was closed, but with this exception, no one appeared to be especially observing it as a holiday.

A heavy storm visited this section on Monday evening, and brought with it a very refreshing rain; at five o'clock it was so dark that it was impossible to see without a light.

Fire broke out on the mountain, about a mile north west of town on Monday afternoon, and was burning at a fearful rate until the heavy rain extinguished it.

LINDEN HALL.

What Our Correspondent from that Busy Town Has to Say.

Mrs. Aaron Lutz is entertaining some of her Nittany friends.

Mrs. William Stover and children spent a few weeks with friends in Bellefonte.

J. A. Gettig accompanied by his mother, spent a few days with friends in Pittsburgh.

William Riesel and wife, of Oak Hall, were guests of Harry Zeigler and family on Sunday.

Miss Cora Brooks east of town, entertained some of her many friends over Sunday.

Frank Swab, of Erie, is spending a few weeks vacation with his grandparents at this place.

The long looked for and much needed rain came at last; several heavy thunder showers passed over this section on Tuesday.

A number of fruit trees are frozen throughout this community; peaches, apples and cherries, also grape vines, owing to the extremely cold weather of last winter.

Forest fires were raging in all directions the beginning of the week. A dense smoke settled over every thing; many of our older citizens say such a smoke was not known of since the City of Chicago went up in flames some twenty years ago.

CENTRE HILL.

An Interesting Letter from Our Neighbors Across the Valley.

The recent rains have freshened up the ground.

David Foreman took in the County Superintendent election at Bellefonte on Tuesday.

Rufus Strohm left last week for Pittsburg, where he has accepted a position.

Irvin Burris and wife, of Boalsburg, visited at the home of Benjamin Stover on Sunday.

The Commercial Telephone Company has stretched the wires along the line; unfortunately, Centre Hill does not have a phone.

Two of our young men made a trip one evening this week and wore blue overalls to "suit the occasion." Were they to a dance? Well I guess.

Miss Lizzie Burkholder returned home after spending a few days at the hospital in Philadelphia, where she expected to receive treatment for nervous trouble. The doctors could do very little for her disease.

BOALSBURG.

Death of Two Prominent Citizens the Past Week.

Enoch Sweeney moved to town one day last week, in the house formerly occupied by John Weber.

Frank Fisher, who has been sick in the Philadelphia hospital, with typhoid fever, has returned home.

There were about twenty-five members of the Boalsburg I. O. O. F. at the anniversary at Bellefonte last Wednesday.

The rain on last Monday was very useful as it checked the fire somewhat on the mountain as well as waked up the dry ground.

John Weber, the merchant of Oak Hall, has leased the coal yard and grain elevator at that place and expects to deal in coal and grain.

Benjamin Stemm died on last Wednesday and was buried on Saturday. He was in his 85th year. The cause of his death was catarrh of the heart; Rev. Black officiated.

Mrs. Israel Condo died last Friday evening and was buried on Tuesday at 10 o'clock. She was 56 years old and had cancerous liver. Rev. Leisher officiated; interment in the Boalsburg cemetery.

Colyer Brothers.

The Commercial Telephone lines are nearing this place, and we shall soon be in communication with the outside world. The linemen are busily stringing the wires and will soon have this end completed.

The mountain fire on Sunday and Monday was in close proximity to our neighborhood. The fire was on the Huyett-tract, and much valuable timber was destroyed. At Colyer's mill, the fire got so close that the men were about to start firing against it, when a welcome rain dispelled all danger.

Wm. Lee is erecting a new house. The masonry is being done by Andrew Horner, and this is the most substantial and attractive part of the mansion on account of the mortar used. Wm. has furnished his mason with pure sediment from Colyer's mill dam, and by mixing with lime, it answered the purpose very well. A day or two after this mortar is applied, the wall is decorated with flowers. Lee is about to take several contracts to furnish this mortar, the expense of buying flower seeds being saved the customer.

Established 1836. PUBLIC LEDGER PHILADELPHIA.

SPECIAL OFFER TO LEDGER READERS.

The Public Ledger offers to its readers in connection with a 26 weeks' subscription, and the payment of 50 cents additional, a copy of The Ledger's Unrivalled Atlas of the World. This Atlas has been specially prepared for the Public Ledger by Rand, McNally & Co., New York and Chicago, and is one of the best works of its kind ever offered to the public.

The Unrivalled Atlas of the World contains over 500 pages, elegantly printed on fine calendared paper, marbled edges, bound in English cloth, with handsome gold side stamp, size 11 1/2 x 15 1/2 inches.

It contains 137 full-page colored maps, showing every country on the face of the globe, every State in the Union, principal cities, etc., with fine marginal index.

It contains nearly 400 fine engravings of the world's people, statesmen, soldiers, etc.

It contains a ready reference list of every town in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and Delaware.

It contains in a brief comprehensive form, more general, practical information regarding the physical, historical, ethnological, governmental, financial, and commercial conditions of the world than any work published.

This Atlas is offered to introduce The Ledger to new readers with the firm belief that those who become acquainted with the merits of The Ledger will not be willing to give it up.

The Public Ledger is Pennsylvania's Greatest Home Newspaper, giving all the news of the day, classified and in complete form. Its columns every statement is verified and carefully edited; its news is therefore reliable and clean.

The Directors of many school districts have adopted The Ledger for supplementary reading matter in their schools, and placed a copy of The Atlas in each school library.
