Mountain Fires.

Sunday and Monday the Seven mountains and Nittany mountain on both sides of the valley, were burning fiercely. On Monday the fire gained considerable headway on Nittany mountain east of Centre Hall. An east wind carried the smoke over the valley. It was so thick and heavy that lamps had to be lighted at five o'clock. It was almost impossible to see one square away, and every one complained of smarting eyes. The strong east wind was bringing the fire up the mountain towards Centre Hall when a terrific thunder storm came up and a thorough drenching cleared the atmosphere. The last month was dry, and the mountains were in prime shape for a forest fire to make great progress. The heavy rain stopped the further progress of the fire.

Grange Notes.

The County Grange conducts an insurance company that carries risks for its members amounting to $2,800,000.

After Oil.

The Howard Hustler reports that Martin Gates is trying to organize a company with $3,000 capital to drill for oil on his farm near Mt. Eagle. It will be remembered that some time ago while digging a well at that place the workmen struck what they supposed to be a good flow of oil.

Fresh Meat.

Ishler's meat wagon will be in Centre Hall regularly each Tuesday and Saturday morning, with strictly fresh and first-class beef, and also veal when obtainable, and at satisfactory prices. All meat offered guaranteed as above, and no pains spared to merit a share of the public patronage.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.

The prosecutor lives near Graysville, Huntingdon Co., and met this defendant at a Mr. Fye's sale in Ferguson twp., near State College, early in 1897, and the prosecutor was informed that the defendant was anxious to buy some horses, and some time afterwards the defendant's brother, W. H. Pifer, came from Clinton and looked at Mr. Oliver's horses, after which the defendant wrote Mr. Oliver to meet him at Lemont on March 16, 1897, with the horses, at which place the defendant gave Mr. Oliver his note for $190, at one year after date payable at the First National Bank of Bellefonte, for two of the horses, and represented to Mr. Oliver that he was the owner of a large farm in Porter twp., Clinton Co., and did not owe a dollar. At the close of Com. testimony, on motion of defendant's counsel, the Court held that there could be no conviction as the case was barred by the statutes of limitations, the prosecution not having been instituted in time. Verdict not guilty and the defendant to pay all costs of prosecution.

This case is from near Eagleville, and the defendants, who are boys 10 and 13 years of age, were prosecuted for stoning the house of a Mr. Strawcutter and hitting Mr. Spangler's 6-year-old son on the head with a stone, injuring him to such an extent that he could not be in attendance at court. A Queer Case Tried.

A peculiar case was before the Millin county court. Jeff. Mort and his son, James, were charged by William Yohn with disturbing a religious meeting. The plea of the defense was that the new sect, that worshiped in Atkinson's Mills, had caused a disturbance in the family of Jeff. Mort (now 75 years old) and had nearly separated him and his wife.

The jury returned a verdict of "not guilty," on the charge of disturbing the meeting, but divided the costs between the plaintiff and defendants. This is supposed to have virtually meant that there were aggravating circumstances connected with both sides of the case.

Improving the Place.

What is known as the Confer farm on the pike near the top of the Seven mountains, having come into possession of Wm. J. Thompson's estate by ejectment proceedings, has been leased for a term of years by E. M. Huyett of this place, who has placed thereon Daniel Slotman as manager. Mr. Huyett being of a disposition to have all his belongings in No. 1 condition, is making needed improvements upon the property in a score of items besides adding a 'phone.

Was Drying Up.

During the month of April there was only a slight rainfall, and the long continued drought began to be in evidence on the vegetation. It was broken on Monday evening by a heavy rainfall, which was long-wished for by every one. Nature got a new start, and the fields and grass which showed some signs of drying up were given another lapse.

List of Letters.

Buying Horses.

Daniel Abers, from New York, a horse dealer, has been in the valley the last week buying horses. He will ship a car load in a few days. The valley is all right either way in selling or buying horses.

Working Across the Valley.

The new Commercial telephone lines are now extended across the valley to Potters Mills, Tusseyville, Colyer, and Huyett's mill in the Seven mountains. Phones have been placed in Carson's store, Reish's hotel and Alex. McCoy's residence at Potters Mills. S. M. Swartz and W. F. Rockey at Tusseyville have instruments, while Colyer and two of E. M. Huyett's mills above Colyer and Potters Mills will be connected. Only four or five 'phones have been placed in Centre Hall, but the rest will go in as soon as the exchange is fitted up to handle the business. The switch board was shipped from Chicago, and as it is expected at any time, the company will be prompt in getting it to work to accommodate their patrons. It is supposed that there will be about twenty instruments in Centre Hall, and along with the surrounding country the exchange will have about fifty or sixty phones. The switch board will have capacity for fifty lines.

Illegal Fishing Friends.

We are informed by reliable parties that live in the 7 Mts., that persons have been fishing the trout streams in narrows below Garrity's before the legal time and that along the main run there was a complete path beaten in the snow by fishing before opening of the trout season. These violators of law and decency are supposed to hail from Millin county and we know that dynamite is occasionally used. Whoever the guilty ones may be, regardless as to where from, if anyone knowing their names, will report same, we will see that the proper officials take them in hand for prosecution, allowing parties furnishing the evidence to convict, one half the fine.

Singular Accident.

William Kidder, a carpenter at Madisonburg, met with a singular accident last Wednesday, while working on the house of Mr. Fullmer in that place. Kidder slipped in some manner, and in falling he struck his hand against his hatchet, almost cutting it off. It is feared that the unfortunate man's arm will have to be amputated in order to save his life.

GRAMLEY RE-ELECTED.

Chosen Superintendent of Schools by a Nice Majority.

The school directors settled the contest for county superintendent by re-electing Prof. C. L. Gramley, by a nice majority.

The convention convened in the court house at Bellefonte on Tuesday at half-past twelve o'clock. The meeting was called to order by Prof. C. L. Gramley, and Hon. C. T. Fryberger, of Phillipsburg, was elected president, with H. C. Quigley, Esq., of Bellefonte, Dr. George S. Frank, of Millheim, as secretaries.

The roll call showed 176 delegates present with very few absentees.

John A. Daley, of Curtin township, moved that the county superintendent's salary for the next three years be fixed at $1500 per year. D. F. Fortney Esq., of Bellefonte, offered an amendment making it $1800. The amendment was voted down overwhelmingly and the original motion carried.

G. W. Reese, of Bellefonte, offered the following resolution which was unanimously passed:

Resolved. That great injustice would be done the school children of our state if the Governor reduces the annual appropriation to the public schools.

Nominations, for county superintendent for the ensuing three years was next in order.

D. F. Fortney, Esq., nominated Prof. C. L. Gramley, of Rebersburg, the present incumbent; W. C. Heinle, Esq., named A. Reist Rutt, of Bellefonte; George S. Frank, of Millheim. Prof. H. C. Rothrock, of Millheim.

G. W. Reese arose and withdrew the name of Prof. Rutt, and the vote was called for.

The roll call resulted, C. L. Gramley 123, H. C. Rothrock 53. The president therefore declared C. L. Gramley the choice of the convention for the ensuing term.

Mr. Gramley in a neat speech thanked the convention for the honor conferred and promised to do his best to serve the schools faithfully in the future as he has in the past.
