Quay having speculated with the public funds and held office for forty years, the Independents are simply calling a limitation on him.

Ticket for the Republicans, for President, Wm. McKinley; for Vice President, Secretary Alger. Platform: Report of the Committee of Inquiry on rotten beef.

A bill authorizing the counties to purchase voting machines, has been vetoed by Governor Stone. He, no doubt, thinks the old Quay voting machine is good enough.

The expected has happened—Governor Stone has cut one million off the school fund, and the common schools must as a result of the plundering at Harrisburg for the benefit of Quay's henchmen.

An expedition is to search for Andree the lost north-pole ballist. A party under Professor Nathorst will start for the northeast coast of Greenland within a few weeks. The search will be thorough, and the expense of the expedition will be almost entirely defrayed by a wealthy Norwegian named Hammer.

Great Britain and France have cut up and divided Africa so two tramps would an apple pie, each taking a slice so that nothing is left. The agreement between these powers disposes of hundreds of thousands of square miles of African territory, and leaves only four recognized independent States throughout the continent—Morocco, Abyssinia, Liberia and the Orange Free State. An important feature of the agreement provides for an equality in the commercial treatment of the territory between Lake Tchad and the Nile.

They are getting after the faith curers now. President Murphy, of the Board of Health, has begun an active campaign against all persons who he considers to come under the head of "faith-curers." He has issued a letter to the chief sanitary superintendent of New York, with regard to these persons, in which he says:

"Recent events have shown that uneducated, ignorant, and those whom I believe to be evil-minded persons, go from house to house and take advantage of their more ignorant neighbors, professing that they are endowed with wonderful healing faculties. If this system is allowed to proceed great evil will result."

It isn't all lovely in Cuba either. Governor General Brooke is just now facing the first crisis in his administration, and there is a dash of danger of an absolute break with General Gomez, the moody old man who was chosen the representative of the Cuban army three months ago. There is also the chance that the army may refuse as a body to surrender its arms and return, or rather refuse to accept the $3,000,000 given by the President for the payment of the Cuban soldiers.

The Governor General and the Cuban chief will bring matters to an issue at a conference and if the feeling of Gomez and his following be any indication of what the outcome of the meeting will be the treasure will be sent back to New York.

Governor Stone on 6, vetoed the bill amending the act prescribing the mode of fixing the salaries of county superintendents of public schools and which prevented the school directors of the counties from fixing the salaries of the superintendents at a less sum than $1,500 per annum. Governor Stone said:

"I am of the opinion that there is no reason for presuming that the school directors of any county are not capable of fixing the value of the services of the county superintendent. In my judgment there has been no such abuse of their prerogative in this particular as justifies me in approving a bill which is a reflection upon their intelligence or their fairness."

While the Governor may once in a while throw a tub to the whale, why don't he grapple those larger barnacles, new and utterly useless offices, incessantly high salaries, speculating with the state funds, &c.?

Three fourths of the journals in the United States, of all parties, denounce the report of the Inquiry Committee on the rotten beef matter. The report censures the gallant General Miles for letting out on the poisoned and rotten beef to his army. Other military officers get a growl for talking about the beef, and the evidence of hundreds of soldiers that beef stank, was rotten and poisoned, sickening and killing our brave boys, all this is brushed aside, and the scamps who were guilty, the Alger, the Egans, and the big western beef packers, are let down easy! and on the back of such an outrageous report, insulting to the army and the American people, President McKinley wrote these words, "The Report is endorsed."

To white-wash and hide a murderous wrong is what the committee was appointed for. The beef packers, instead of being indicted for murder, get big prices for their carrion, the other fellows get fat dividends out of it, and the President, knowing all, writes "Endorsed" upon the report.

Miss Beilstein, who was tried last week in Pittsburg, a believer in spiritualism, for shooting her mother, in obedience to a communication from the spirit of her deceased father that he was lonesome in the spirit land and wanted her and her mother to come to him, and after shooting her mother attempted to kill herself, no doubt has become insane from spiritualist teachings and the frauds of mediums. Such cases are not rare, and the teachers of the faith-cure and spiritualist "sciences" should have a curb and be provided with apartments in asylums along with their mental victims.

General Greeley, who, in his capacity as Chief Signal Officer, has given much attention to the Marconi system of wireless telegraphy, makes what seems to be a very practical comment on it. He does not deny that the discovery is practicable, and even valuable, but says that it has its limitations. He thinks it will never supersede wires for general telegraphic purposes; but that it has a field of usefulness in communication between ships at sea, and in doing the work now done by signal flags when darkness or fog or storm renders the latter useless. He does not think secrecy of transmission can be had by this system, however, and, if he is right, this would be a drawback to its usefulness for signal purposes as well as for private communications.

The list of Democratic candidates for the various county offices to be filled at the November election, contains 21 names, namely, 5 for sheriff; 6 for commissioner; 3 for register; 2 for recorder, and 5 for treasurer. All good men and competent, and so far as we can learn, the electing is going on without any ill feeling between rival candidates, which we are pleased to note. There is only one candidate, Daniel Heckman, against whom there is no opposing candidate, and it is conceded he is entitled to and deserving a re-election as commissioner, in accordance with the usages of the party. Mr. Heckman has served the tax-payers of the county faithfully during his present term, and having become thoroughly familiar with the affairs of the county, his re-election will be the act of wisdom. He stood strictly for economy by the board, and the large, influential Democratic connection he hails from, has in Daniel Heckman its first recognition.

President McKinley is at Hot Springs, Va., and has sent the following instructions to General Otis: "Force the fighting. Penetrate far into the interior and capture or destroy every warring Philippino."

"Far into the interior," we thought the end was quite near.

The Republican fur will fly in all directions this year with "Our Dan" at the head of the anti-Quay movement.

The McKinley-Alger Masterpiece.

From the Board of Inquiry into the beef scandal, as shaped and edited by the President, may be fairly called the McKinley-Alger masterpiece.

It censures only the General who discovered and reported the facts, mildly observes that "in some instances certain individuals failed to perform the full measure of duty or to observe the proprieties which dignify high military command," and ends with the impotent conclusion that "The Court is of the opinion that the mere statement in the official report of the facts developed meets the ends of discipline, and that the interests of the service will be best subserved if further proceedings be not taken."

"Nobody to blame"—except Miles! Nobody to be punished—not even the contractors who supplied the "rotten rations," gathered from old stocks at the four corners of the earth, and who in any other country would have been shot! No; not even a scapegoat is selected and sent forth into the wilderness of odium for the crime of poisoning our soldiers!

Alger is to stay in the Cabinet to serve as a member of the second term syndicate. Egan, who bought "nearly seven million pounds" of "unsuitable rations" when "two million pounds would have been amply sufficient," is to enjoy a six years' vacation at full pay. The contractors (who are also campaign contributors) get a big advertisement in the report. Our saintly President goes off to rest his nerves, after approving the shameful recommendation of the Court that "further proceedings be not taken."

Fortunately, in this country there is still a "court of last resort" at the polls.

THE DEMOCRATS ALERT

Strong Candidates and Strong Platform to Be Presented to the People.

JUDGE KENNEDY'S POSITION.

He Will Have a Solid Delegation of Thirty—The West Claiming the Place on the Supreme Bench—Creasy or Dixon For State Treasurer—Not Much Contest For the Superior Court Nomination—Candidates From the East.

(Special Correspondence.) Harrisburg, May 15.—The dissenion in the Republican party between the Quay and anti-Quay factions appears to have been heightened rather than diminished by Governor Stone's action in appointing ex-Senator M. S. Quay to succeed himself until the next legislature meets and elects a senator. The Republican members of the house and senate who joined with the Democratic members to defeat Quay had a banquet at the Bellevue hotel, Philadelphia, on last Friday night. There was the hottest kind of talk, which goes to show that the Republican opposition to Quay has not lessened. The Democratic leaders of the state are preparing to take advantage of this condition. All indications point to the nomination of a first class ticket at their state convention in Harrisburg next month. The adoption of a vigorous platform will also be carefully attended to. The Democracy this year is a united and harmonious body, and with a platform that will denounce the villainous abuses of the Republican party, the mismanagement of state funds by its machine, and the general disgrace and disrepute into which the commonwealth has been plunged by Republican ringsters there is every reason to believe that Democratic candidates will triumph.

THE SUPREME JUDGESHIP. First in importance is the supreme judgeship nomination, because the nominee of the Democratic convention will be elected, there being two vacancies, one to be filled by a Democrat, the other by a Republican. It is generally conceded that the nomination this year will go west of the Alleghenies, this reason being that when Chief Justice Sterritt retires this fall the western district will not be represented on the supreme bench.

While there are four or five possibilities in the west the consensus of opinion is in favor of Judge John M. Kennedy, of Allegheny, president judge of common pleas court No. 3, and one of the most distinguished and able judges on the bench west of the Alleghenies. The reason for Judge Kennedy's being a prime favorite in the race is not only on account of his prominence and ability, but because he will go to Harrisburg with the largest delegation of any candidate thus far mentioned. The bench and bar of Allegheny have unanimously endorsed him, and the Democratic county committee of Allegheny has accorded him the rare privilege of choosing his own delegates, 30 in number, from his county.

JUDGE KENNEDY'S STRENGTH. So far as known no other candidate for the supreme judgeship can rally such a body of delegates around him as Judge Kennedy will be able to command. To this number must be added a considerable number of delegates from neighboring counties and from counties this side the mountains. His friends see in this the nucleus of success. While other distinguished aspirants in the west will go to Harrisburg with delegations, Judge Kennedy will have more delegates, from present indications, than any other two or three candidates combined.

Judge Kennedy has been on the bench since 1891, when Governor Pattison appointed him at the suggestion of the Allegheny county Democratic leaders. He is still in the prime of life, being this side of 60 years of age. He is a native of Chester county, and thus the east and west are linked in his personality. He was a partner of the retiring Chief Justice Sterritt until the latter was elected to the supreme bench in 1877. Other candidates from western Pennsylvania are Judge S. L. Westreath, of Fayette county; Judge Lucien W. Doty, of Westmoreland county; Judge Calvin Reburn, of Armstrong county, and George Allen, Esq., of Erie. Both Judges Doty and Reburn are candidates for re-election to the common pleas bench in their own counties, and with good prospects of success. This narrows the candidates outside of Judge Kennedy to Mr. Allen, of Erie.

In the east there is more than a corporal's guard of distinguished gentlemen seeking the nomination. Among the leading candidates are Judges Harman Yerkes, of Bucks; James N. Ermentrout, of Berks; John Lynch, of Luzerne; W. F. Stewart, of York; Oliver B. Bechtel, of Schuylkill, and Justice Peter Patrick Smith, of Lackawanna county, of the superior court. All of these gentlemen will have solid delegations from their respective counties behind them, and some will receive considerable help from surrounding counties. There is a disposition to vigorously oppose Justice Smith, because it is believed he should be satisfied with his present distinguished place on the superior court without asking more favors.

CREASY OR DIXON. It is a foregone conclusion that Representative William T. Creasy, of Columbia, or Hon. George R. Dixon, of Elm, will be the nominee for state treasurer. Mr. Creasy appears to be the favorite among Democrats who reach Harrisburg from various sections of the state. Either gentlemen will receive a very heavy independent Republican vote. Both are excellent men in every way, and were incumbents of the office of state treasurer in the last legislature.

The number of candidates for the superior court nomination is not very large. It is the one place which the Republicans will likely carry. If the Republicans nominate a weak man for state treasurer it is safe to bet that the Democratic candidate will be elected. If it is either Creasy or Dixon, at any rate the outlook at this moment is decidedly bright for a Democratic state treasurer.

I desire to announce to the Democracy of Centre county that I will be a candidate for County Commissioner, subject to the rules of the party. In 1894, I was candidate for Associate Judge and for the Democratic nomination for Commissioner County Ticket, with no fault of any candidate, but due to a depressed and unsettled condition in the government, and a dissatisfied people all over the country and Democracy was swept out of sight and the Democratic County Ticket went down with the slumps. All the candidates that were on that ticket came to the front, except Aaron Williams, dead, and asked the party for vindication, and it has been done, either by nomination or election, viz: Hon. Jas. Schiefel, elected once; Hon. R. M. Foster, twice; C. B. Bower, Esq., received the nomination for Superior Court Judge. Now I respectfully solicit the same consideration and recognition, and obtain my candidacy to the Democracy of Centre County for their judgment at the coming primary and County convention.
