

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of town. —Miss Grace Alexander was home from State College a day or two this week.

—Miss Sara McClenahan was visiting with friends in Boalsburg, over Sunday. —David R. Foreman, the South Potter Democratic politician, was in town Monday.

—Hudson W. Love of Lewisburg, stopped off between trains yesterday, to pay his mother a visit. —Mrs. Belle Ward, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Stiver, on Church street.

—Mrs. John Homan, of Pinegrove Mills, visited at the home of her brother, Frank Foreman, over Sunday. —John D. Meyer, teaching school at Alexandria, Pa., was home to see his parents on Friday and Saturday.

—Jerre Miller spent a couple days at Harrisburg, the latter part of last week, returning home on Saturday evening. —Henry Ziegler, one of Harris township's most respected farmers, gave our sanctum a call, and set his label into 1900.

—Mrs. Samuel Barr, of Tyrone, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Stiver, near Potters Mills, who has been quite ill for several weeks past. —Ellis S. Shaffer, the hustling candidate for Sheriff from Miles township was in town last Saturday, on his way home from a vigorous canvassing tour of the county.

—D. Wagner Geiss left on Monday morning for Allentown, Pa., where he goes to attend the sessions of the Grand Lodge of the Odd Fellows. He is the representative of the Centre Hall order. —J. B. Kreamer came up from Rebersburg yesterday in town. He brought up a lot of cattle, and says he is busier than ever with building a new residence in Rebersburg and buying cattle for his meat market in Bellefonte.

—Ex-Governor Hastings and Cashier John P. Harris were in Centre Hall last Friday, on their way down the valley to do some political missionary work. They stopped in town long enough to hunt up their friends. The Governor is on the political war path, and is strengthening his organization in his fight against the Quayites. He will make himself numerous all over the county, and is not by any means the dead duck some of those who posed as his friends supposed him to be.

AWFUL! 29 KILLED

By a Collision on the Reading Railroad. Friday the unveiling of the Hart-rant statue took place at Harrisburg, attended by large crowds by rail. The crowded special from Norristown returned during the evening. At Exeter, near Reading, a freight, by some mistake, stood on the track, and into this the special train, at high speed, crashed. The result was awful and appalling. 29 were killed and many wounded, mostly from Norristown.

Some of the passenger cars were torn into kindling wood, and the groans of the dying and injured were heard rending. Norristown is in mourning; 16 of the dead are prominent persons of the town. Annual Reports of K. G. E. At the twenty-third annual session of the K. G. E. the reports of the grand master of records show that during the year the receipts were $22,562.89; expenditures, $19,612.18. The balance, $2,950.71, is an increase over last year of almost $1,000. The list of subordinate castles at the beginning of the year was 480. During the year 19 charters were surrendered or consolidated. The membership of the order in the state is 38,417. The total amount paid in relief was $142,704.56.

Whooping Cough.

I had a little boy who was nearly dead from an attack of whooping cough. My neighbors recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I did not think that any medicine would help him, but after giving him a few doses of that remedy I noticed an improvement, and one bottle cured him entirely. It is the best cough medicine I ever had in the house.—J. L. Moore, South Burgetstown, Pa. For sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; H. F. Rossmann, Spring Mills.

Weekly Weather Report—Centre Hall. (Government Service). Temperature: Highest. Lowest. May 11 69 42 part cloudy. 12 77 44 part cloudy. 13 77 57 cloudy. 14 72 45 clear. 15 67 48 part cloudy. 16 67 42 cloudy. 17 67 52 cloudy.

Rain, on 16, noon to evening, thunder showers, .63 inch, evening .22 in. and violent storm. Wednesday afternoon, .46 in. rain. Must Hang. At Sunbury, on Saturday, a new trial was refused Edward Cressinger, convicted of murdering sixteen-year-old Daisy Smith, and he was sentenced to be hanged.

SPRING MILLS.

A Letter of Interest from Our Neighboring Town. On Thursday last your correspondent lost or mislaid his spectacles. The finder will greatly oblige by leaving them at any store in our village, or at the planing mill.

No coal yet. The operations on Egg Hill, I am informed, have been abandoned. The next move will be to sink a shaft at the flats. The gentlemen who are engaged in this move are determined to settle the question of coal or no coal without any delay.

Samuel Krape accompanied by C. P. Long while returning from the latter's farm on Friday last met with quite a mishap. The horse becoming frightened by the breaking of some of the harness, made furious efforts to get loose. Both of the gentlemen received slight injuries, while the buggy was almost completely wrecked.

The meat market established here by John Runkle a month or two since is a decided success. He deals exclusively in home dressed meats, and his business has increased so rapidly that he is now obliged to use a double team to serve his customers. It is a great satisfaction to our people to be able to buy fresh meat any day, instead of only once or twice a week as formerly.

Quite a heavy storm passed over our village on Tuesday evening, accompanied with vivid flashes of lightning and terrific peals of thunder. The lightning struck a tree close by knocking off several large branches, the same bolt melted the telephone wires in the office of C. P. Long and Dr. P. W. Leitzell and otherwise damaged the instruments.

G. H. Long the energetic merchant of our village, is making preparations to alter and remodel his store room; the improvements will be quite extensive. All the partitions will be removed and the room made square; an elevator will be introduced to run from the cellar to the upper floors, all the shelving will be changed to the latest style, two large windows in front will add greatly to the appearance of the building, besides give plenty of light in the store room. Mr. Long also contemplates adding several other conveniences, and in the mean time he is almost giving goods away to make room as in about ten days the interior demolition will begin.

C. A. Krape has just received a large consignment of summer shoes. The styles are very beautiful, the extreme tooth pick and peccadilly toe so universal the last year or two, have been entirely discarded, and the more stylish Paris toe with common sense heels and cloth facings substituted—a change decidedly for the better. Oxford Ties, Opera slippers and Saratogs will evidently be the summer shoes. He has them in blacks, browns and russets, all of a high grade of stock at remarkably low prices. Mr. Krape has recently had fitted up in the rear of his emporium building, a regular croquet ground for the amusement of his friends and visitors. It has proven quite an attractive institution.

COBURN.

What Our Correspondent Finds of Interest in the Busy Town. Reuben Boyer, of Colyer, was visiting among friends at this place a few days last week. Come again. Boyd W. Vonada has gone to Jersey Shore and will make his home with J. Frank Torbert, of that place.

W. F. Kern, who has been staying with his father during the winter, left for Pittsburg on Wednesday morning. The frame of P. S. Meyer's new double house was erected on Tuesday. George M. Stover, of Aaronsburg, is head carpenter. Merchant James E. Harter, of this place and his estimable wife, were visiting at the home of James Wert, near Penn Hall, on Sunday.

Green Briar had a quiet wedding on Tuesday morning, the contracting parties being William H. Wert and Della E. Kern. Consider our hat off. W. H. Kerstetter has gone to Harrisburg, where he is employed on a trolley road. His family expects to move there in a week or two.

Henry Eisenhuth expects to move his saw mill back to Ingleby, in the near future, where he will operate it, on timber owned by W. E. Smith. Extensive repairs are being made at the creamery here by the new proprietors. The pig pen is being torn down, and a much larger one will be built. John M. Weaver sold his home to L. H. Stover, consideration $680. Mr. Weaver will now erect a dwelling on his premises across Pine Creek, east of town.

A car load of horses were shipped from this station to Trenton, N. J., on Tuesday morning; this makes the third car load that was shipped from here in a short time. Jacob Wagner and wife, of Tusseyville, were visiting a few days last week at the home of their son, J. B. Wagner, who recently moved from Centre Hall to this place. Howard Kulp came over from Millroy on Sunday, and returned again on Monday, but Mrs. Kulp will remain a week with her parents, Emanuel Eisenhuth's of High valley.

Teachers' examination at Millheim, on last Saturday, was well attended, by our teachers from here, and prospective teachers from other places. None in the class failed.

COLYER.

O. K. Love Killed Three Large Black Snakes in His Yard.

Reuben Boyer made a business trip to Coburn last week. The farmers are busy planting corn in this part of the country. Clyde Boyer, assistant operator at Linden Hall, was home Sunday.

Several of our Reformed people attended Classis at Boalsburg Sunday last. Our neighbor Mr. Dugans, wears his broadest smile, since the arrival of a young daughter.

Misses Mary Moyer and Lillie Leitzell, of Spring Mills, were in our burg over Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. John Stover, of Aaronsburg, were the guests of Jacob Detweiler Sunday.

John Boyer and grand-daughter, of Bellevue, Ohio, visited at Reuben Boyer's, at Colyer, this week. Several of our young sports are attending the select school at Tusseyville, taught by Prof. Calvin Neff. Calvin Runkle is now taking up Blackstone, and being instructed by 'Squire J. S. Housman; we all cordially invite success to you Calvin.

William Lee and Miller are busy at their new house at this place, and when completed William can boast of having the finest house in town. William Mulberger our herdsman, is busy herding his cattle; Monday a herd of about 75 were taken in the mountains, and he expects about 55 more, making a total of 130. O. K. Love, west of town, was greatly surprised last week by finding three large black snakes near a spring in his yard. O. K. killed the snakes and one measured 4 feet 10 inches; the other two were but a mile shorter.

MILLHEIM.

Personal Mention and Other Items of Interest.

Ed. Williams, of Boalsburg, visited his sister, Mrs. H. C. Rothrock, last week. Grant Hoover, an insurance agent from Bellefonte, was in town on Tuesday.

Prof. James Gregg was in town on Saturday, representing the American Book Company. J. H. Reifsnider who had been considerably hurt last week, has sufficiently recovered to be out driving.

The car load of horses bought by E. F. Foresman, of Newark, N. J., were shipped from Coburn on Tuesday morning. Misses Lutetia Goodhart and Alice Robison, of Spring Mills, were among the strangers who took in the examination on Saturday.

Supt. C. L. Gramley held the annual teachers' examination for Penn township, at this place on last Saturday; there were eight applicants examined, and all were successful. William Kreamer is improving the farm bought from A. R. Alexander by putting up several new outbuildings, repairing the house and barn, and giving the principle buildings several coats of paint. E. E. Knarr, the boss painter of Millheim, has the contract for painting the buildings.

CENTRE HILL.

The M. E. Sunday School Preparing for Children's Day.

The late rains have freshened up the spring crops. Irvin Stover, of Niagara Falls, is visiting at the home of his parents.

Mrs. Ellen Burkholder and son Ammon, visited among acquaintances in Nittany valley on Sunday. Two young ladies from a nearby town, passed through our village on Sunday; unfortunately Wilbur was not at home.

G. F. Weaver and Green Decker, of Gregg township, and H. A. Moore, of Howard, three Democratic candidates, canvassed Potter township this week. The members of the M. E. church at Sprucetown, are rehearsing for Children's Day, which will take place on June 4. A very interesting program is being prepared.

LINDEN HALL.

Up the Valley Happenings as Furnished by Our Scribe.

More rain more rest, for the poor, lazy buckwheaters. Miss Laura Brown spent a few days at Centre Hall the past week.

Miss Lizzie Gettig spent several days of this week at State College. Howard Williams and wife attended the funeral of Evan Williams, at Le-mont on Monday.

Miss Manie Swabb, of Pine Grove Mills, is visiting at the home of her grandfather, Geo. Swabb. All ladies are requested to call and examine Mrs. Keller's millinery stock, before buying their spring bonnets.

Some of our farmers are still planting corn, while others are trying to dig theirs out of the ground. Our supervisor has waked up and one can again hear that doleful sound of the stone crusher these quiet mornings.

Our town is still making improvements. A wayside inn and a milliner store have recently sprung into existence.

Our farmers of the east end took a lot of young cattle to the bare meadow this week, where they will be herded during the summer. The scribe was glad to notice that William Swabb was able to be out to church again on Sunday. Will has been getting a sore knee all spring.

The Reformed Classis at Boalsburg last week was well attended by people of our section. Good sermons and good music are always appreciated.

Mr. Steele, the Lumber Company's inspector, was around again this week and conducted the raising of the dinky track from the wharf to the saw mill. Harry Lonebarger has accepted a position as fireman on the railroad. Harry has long been fireman on the saw-mill, and is a fine young man. While we are sorry to lose him we would advise all young men to better themselves when opportunity offers.

George Meyer, of the Branch, and William Mothersbaugh, of Boalsburg, were seen on our streets Sunday afternoon. 'Tis said "Squire" is looking out a location for a new home. We would advise him to consider well before abandoning the project, for all is peace and happiness in our village.

On Friday evening of last week the home of Lucian Spieher was made happy, by the arrival of many neighbors and friends, to do Mrs. Spieher honor on her birthday. When least expected by the family, the door flew wide open, and a curly tailed porker marched into the room and proceeded to make himself comfortable, while a host of anxious eyes and ears waited outside to see what would happen. But the people were all called in, and welcomed. Many other presents were brought, and a general good time enjoyed till the late hours of the night.

I have been a sufferer from chronic diarrhoea ever since the war and have used all kinds of medicines for it. At last I found one remedy that has been a success as a cure, and that is Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.—P. E. Grisham, Gaars Mills, La. For sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; H. F. Rossmann, Spring Mills.

PUBLIC LEDGER

PHILADELPHIA.

SPECIAL OFFER TO LEDGER READERS.

The Public Ledger offers to its readers in connection with a 26 weeks' subscription, and the payment of 50 cents additional, a copy of the Ledger's Unrivaled Atlas of the World. This Atlas has been specially prepared for the Public Ledger by Rand, McNally & Co., New York and Chicago, and is one of the best works of its kind ever offered to the public.

The Unrivaled Atlas of the World contains over 300 pages, elegantly printed on fine calendered paper, marbled edges, bound in English cloth, with handsome gold stamp, size 11 1/2 x 14 1/2 inches. It contains 157 full-page colored maps, showing every country on the face of the globe, every State in the Union, principal cities, etc., with fine marginal index.

It contains nearly 400 fine engravings of the world's people, statesmen, soldiers, etc. It contains a ready reference list of every town in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and Delaware. It contains in a brief comprehensive form more general, practical information regarding the physical, historical, ethnological, governmental, financial, and commercial conditions of the world than any work published.

This Atlas is offered to introduce The Ledger to new readers with the firm belief that those who become acquainted with the merits of The Ledger will not be willing to give it up. The Public Ledger is Pennsylvania's Greatest Home Newspaper, giving all the news of the day, classified and in complete form. In its columns every statement is verified and carefully edited; its news is therefore reliable and clean.

The Directors of many school districts have adopted The Ledger for supplementary reading matter in their schools, and placed a copy of The Atlas in each school library.

How to Get the Atlas.

Forward the price of 26 weeks' subscription, plus 50 cents ($3.62) to The Ledger and the name of your nearest express office. The Atlas will be forwarded by express, or if you are not near an express office include 52 cents for mailing and the Atlas will be mailed to your postoffice with The Ledger. Special inducements to parties working up clubs. Address all communications to Circulation Dept. The Ledger.
