

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of town.

—Mrs. Elizabeth Love is visiting with friends near Tusseyville.

—William Jacobs, of Shingletown, is visiting his son, Dr. W. A. Jacobs.

—C. F. Deininger, of New York, is home on a short visit to his parents.

—Mrs. Mary Dinges, of Williamsport, is here on a visit to her son, H. W. Dinges.

—Homer Barr and wife, of Boalsburg, spent Tuesday in town with friends.

—Miss Laura Runkle, of Middleburg, is here on a visit to her many friends in the town.

—Joe L. Runkle and Miss Jennie Irwin, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with friends in Centre Hall.

—Rev. Christine returned Monday from a two weeks visit among friends in Dauphin and Huntingdon counties.

—Wm. Boob went to Bellefonte on Monday to transact business, and incidentally take a peep at the elephant.

—Miss Elizabeth Stuart, of State College, was the guest of her friend, Miss Grace Smith, on Friday and Saturday.

—Samuel D. Gettig, Esq., one of Bellefonte's young attorneys, was in town Tuesday attending the Decoration services.

—Mrs. Anna Harpster Widder and little son, from Harrisburg, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Jerry Miller, since Monday.

—Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Bohn, of Lemont, were down on Saturday, on a short visit to Mrs. Bohn's mother, Mrs. Wm. Bradford.

—D. F. Luse went to Millheim Tuesday to inspect an engine with which he finds necessary to equip his growing hydrant plant.

—Mrs. John Rishel, who had been visiting her son Willis, at Montgomery, Pa., for some time past, has again returned to Centre Hall.

—Mrs. David Runkle arrived here from Pittsburg Tuesday afternoon, and will remain several weeks visiting among her friends in and about Centre Hall.

—Prof. B. M. Wagenseller having finished the term for Boyd A. Musser in the Bellefonte high school, has again assumed charge of the special term he was teaching in Centre Hall.

—The venerable Fayette Moore, of near Potters Mills, now close to rounding his 85th year, gave us a call, and had his label set to 1900. He is one of the noble men of our valley with a life unswerving.

—J. Toner Lucas, of Moshannon, in the field as candidate for Treasurer, was in Centre Hall on Friday, making the acquaintance of our voters. Mr. Lucas is an old-line Democrat, and has been before the people before.

—John Van Pelt took his departure yesterday morning, heading for the coal mining town of Hastings, Pa. John will join the engineer corps of the coal firm of Duncan & Spangler and proposes learning the mining business in all its phases.

—The Reporter was pleased to have a call on Saturday from Mrs. Sarah Tressler, of near Centre Hill, one of our most esteemed patrons. In renewing her subscription, she stated she could not do without it, and spoke many kind words in its praise.

—James E. Stewart, wife and little daughter, drove by carriage from New Bloomfield last Saturday on a visit among friends in the town. They remained several days and made the return trip overland to their home on Wednesday morning. Miss Sarah Stewart, his sister, accompanied the party.

—W. H. Walker, Esq., of Bellefonte; W. E. Park, of Syracuse, N. Y., with Miss Marie Fox, of Bellefonte, and Miss Lula McMullen, of Hecla Park, took dinner at Runkle's hotel on Tuesday. The party were on their way to attend Memorial services at Linden Hall, where Mr. Walker delivered the address of the day in the afternoon.

—Andrew Reesman took his little grandson, Andrew McCormick, to Altoona, last Thursday evening, to start the little fellow on his way to Wilton Centre, Ill., where he will make his future home with the family of James Love, on a farm. Andrew is a bright little fellow, and did not hesitate to try the change for an adopted home in the west.

—Alfred Brisbin, of Bellefonte, was among the three successful candidates out of twenty to successfully pass the examinations for admission to the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis. He is a son of Gen. Jas. Brisbin, dec'd., and had a brother with Admiral Dewey at Manila, also one in the army service. Alfred has made his home for several years with the family of Col. J. L. Spangler.

—Our aged friend and good citizen, Mr. Daniel Fleisher, had been somewhat unwell for some little time past, but we are glad to still find him able to be about town, although not moving with that agility which was characteristic for years. He is in his eighty-eight year, and bears his age remarkably well for one so old. The past severe winter bore hard on him, but his many friends hope to see him fully recovered.

—District Attorney N. B. Spangler, of Bellefonte, was a prominent visitor in town yesterday.

—George W. Koch, east of town, has been somewhat indisposed of late, enough to keep him confined to his home.

—Misses Crawford and Fredericks, of Spring Mills, were the guests at the home of W. H. Bartholomew, several days this week.

—Candidates Weaver from Penn Cave, and Speer from Bellefonte, were in town yesterday for a final round-up of the Democratic voters.

—Candidate for Sheriff Cyrus Brungard, from Millheim, with Capt. H. S. Taylor, stopped in Centre Hall yesterday morning to meet their many friends, while on their way driving to Bellefonte. Capt. Taylor delivered addresses on Decoration Day at Spring Mills, Millheim and Aaronsburg. He is very popular in all parts of the county, and was in great demand in many places to deliver Memorial addresses. When he spoke Tuesday large crowds were present and greatly pleased with his able addresses.

—On June 1 the Passenger Department of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will publish the 1899 edition of its Summer Excursion Route Book. This work is designed to provide the public with short descriptive notes of the principal Summer resorts of Eastern America, with the routes for reaching them, and the rates of fare. It contains all the principal seashore and mountain resorts of the east, and over fifteen hundred different routes or combinations of routes for reaching them. The book has been compiled with the utmost care, and altogether is the most complete and comprehensive handbook of Summer travel ever offered to the public.

It is bound in a handsome and striking cover, in colors, and contains several maps, presenting the exact routes over which tickets are sold. It is also profusely illustrated with fine half-tone cuts of scenery at the various resorts and along the lines of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

On and after June 1 it may be procured at any Pennsylvania Railroad ticket office at the nominal price of ten cents, or, upon application to the general office, Broad Street Station, by mail for twenty cents.

Lutherans, North and South, United.

At the General Synod of the Lutheran church, held at York last week, a union was effected between the branches North and South.

Sunday last all of the Evangelical Lutheran pulpits of York were filled by ministers from the General Synod. E. F. Ellert, president of the Lutheran League of America, who was a delegate to the Synod, addressed the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor of Zion's Lutheran Church in the evening on the work of the Lutheran League in this country. There are 70,000 members belonging to that body.

The meeting of the Lutheran General Synod is somewhat more than a mere passing event. The opening of the civil war in 1860 was followed by the withdrawal of the Southern Synods with 125 ministers, 205 congregations and 21,008 communicants. This was the first break in the Union of Synods. This continued for some time and it is really only now that a reunion has been effected.

Chain of Tragedies

A double and almost triple tragedy occurred at Scott's station, in Allegheny county, in which two persons lost their lives and the third is at the point of death.

John Pfeifer, 22 years old, who was employed at the sawmill of Nicholas Nolte, was crushed to death while attempting to pass between two moving freight cars. When the news of this was communicated to his 20-year-old sister at his home she dropped on the floor and died from heart failure. She was convalescing from a severe illness.

The shock from these two sudden deaths caused the mother of the victims to be taken ill, and it was feared that she would also die. She is about 55 years old, and is still confined to her bed in a critical condition. The two were buried in one grave.

Reduced Rates to Los Angeles, Cal.

For the National Educational Association Convention, to be held at Los Angeles, Cal., July 11 to 14, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets via direct routes from points on its line, to Los Angeles, Cal., and return, at rate of single fare for the round trip, plus $2.00 membership fee. These tickets will be sold, good going, June 24 to July 7, and, when stamped by Joint Agent at Los Angeles, good to return, arriving at final destination, until September 5.

For further information apply to Ticket Agents. June 24

Mr. P. Ketcham, of Pike City, Cal., says: "During my brother's late sickness from sciatic rheumatism, Chamberlain's Pain Balm was the only remedy that gave him any relief." Many others have testified to the prompt relief from pain which this liniment affords. For sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; H. F. Reesman, Spring Mills.

MILLHEIM.

A Recital Will be Given in the United Ev. Church Saturday Evening.

Miss Lizzie Condo visited relatives at Fairbrook and State College last week.

Mrs. D. L. Zerby visited her sister, Mrs. King, of Laurelton, a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bird, of Swengle, are visiting at the home of Stephen Moyer, on Penn street.

Rev. W. T. Auman, of White Haven, is spending several weeks at his home in this place.

Miss Blanche Meyer, of Penn Hall, spent Tuesday and Wednesday with her friend, Miss Bertie Miller, on Main street.

R. J. Smith, the oldest son of J. C. Smith, one of our popular merchants, left for Rockford, Ill., where he has been offered a position in a paper mill.

Miss Laura Buck, Rev. H. W. Buck, and Herbert Smith, attended the Sunday school and C. E. convention held at Patterson, Juniata county, last week.

Miss Lula Snook, who had been in Philadelphia for the last year, came home last week, very ill with typhoid fever. Under the skillful treatment of Dr. C. S. Musser, of Aaronsburg, she is improving rapidly.

Mrs. W. G. Ulrich, of this place, had sale of her household goods last Saturday, preparatory to joining her husband, who has secured employment at Wilkinsburg.

Prof. Will Blair, of Millinburg, who has been instructing a class in music in this place for several months, will give a recital in the United Ev. church on Penn street, on Saturday evening, June 3. The program will be made up of piano solos, duets, vocal solos, duets, trios, etc. The Prof. has engaged Miss Blanche Whittley and H. F. Blair, two celebrated soloists, to assist him.

Tuesday, Decoration Day, was another big day for Millheim. At twelve o'clock the people began to gather, and by the time the parade formed town was full of people. Capt. Hugh Taylor, of Bellefonte, made a very stirring speech, after which Rev. W. W. Buck very ably addressed the people. The parade this year was far better than any we have had for years; all the Sunday schools were well represented, and the order was admirable.

COLYER.

A Letter of Interest as Gathered by Our Correspondent.

Decoration Day passed off quietly in this part of the country.

We are glad to know that Aginaldo is coming to terms of peace.

E. C. Wagner has been on the sick list; hope he may soon be out again.

The new telephones so long looked for have come, and gladdened the receivers.

Mrs. James Wagner, of Coburn, visited among friends in this section this week.

Farmers are re-planting their corn, which decayed during the cold wave two weeks ago.

Of late Rachel tells his troubles to the town clerk, as he is authorized by law to bury the dead.

The delegates to the Sunday school, Ministerial and Christian Endeavor Convention at Patterson, Pa., last week report a grand success.

Rev. Wm. A. McClellan has completed a ministerial course at Franklin and Marshall College, Lancaster, and visited friends in this section a few days this week.

David Fortney, of Tusseyville, had quite an accident with a fractious team last week. David was thrown from a wagon and received several bruises, but we think and hope none are serious.

A Trust, Too.

A western editor, so they say, gets off these sage sentences: "The biggest trust after all is the country newspaper. It trusts almost everybody, and for that reason the people like it. It is the only trust on earth that is worked to the limit, and the only trust where the proprietor gets the smallest share of the dividend."

I was seriously afflicted with a cough for several years, and last fall had a more severe cough than ever before. I have used many remedies without receiving much relief, and being recommended to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, by a friend, who, knowing me to be a poor widow, gave it to me, I tried it, and with the most gratifying results. The first bottle relieved me very much and the second bottle has absolutely cured me. I have not had as good health for twenty years. Respectfully, Mrs. Mary A. Beard, Claremore, Ark. Sold by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; H. F. Reesman, Spring Mills.

Established 1836. PUBLIC LEDGER. PHILADELPHIA. SPECIAL OFFER TO LEDGER READERS.

The Public Ledger offers to its readers in connection with a 26 weeks' subscription, and the payment of 50 cents additional, a copy of the Ledger's Unrivalled Atlas of the World. This Atlas has been specially prepared for the Public Ledger by Rand, McNally & Co., New York and Chicago, and is one of the best works of its kind ever offered to the public.

The Unrivalled Atlas of the World contains over 500 pages, elegantly printed on fine calendered paper, marbled edges, bound in English cloth, with handsome gold side stamp, size 11x14 1/2 inches.

It contains 157 full-page colored maps, showing every country on the face of the globe, every State in the Union, principal cities, etc., with fine marginal index.

It contains nearly 400 fine engravings of the world's people, statesmen, soldiers, etc.

It contains a ready reference list of every town in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and Delaware.

It contains in a brief comprehensive form more general, practical information regarding the physical, historical ethnological, governmental, financial, and commercial conditions of the world than any work published.

This Atlas is offered to introduce The Ledger to new readers with the firm belief that those who become acquainted with the merits of The Ledger will not be willing to give it up.

The Public Ledger is Pennsylvania's Greatest Home Newspaper, giving all the news of the day, classified and in complete form. In its columns every statement is verified and carefully edited; its news is therefore reliable and clean.

The Directors of many school districts have adopted The Ledger for supplementary reading matter in their schools, and placed a copy of The Atlas in each school library.

How to Get the Atlas.

Forward the price of 26 weeks' subscription, plus 50 cents ($3.62) to The Ledger and the name of your nearest express office. The Atlas will be forwarded by express, or if you are not near an express office include 52 cents for mailing and the Atlas will be mailed to your postoffice with The Ledger.

Special inducements to parties working up clubs.
