CENTRE HALL, PA., THURS. JUNE 15

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET.

SHERIFF, CYRUS BRUNGART, Millheim. TREASURER, WM. T. SPEER, Bellefonte. REGISTER, A. G. ARCHEY, Ferguson Twp. RECORDER, J. C. HARPER, Bellefonte. COMMISSIONER, DANIEL HECKMAN, Renner Twp. PHILIP H. MEYER, Harris Twp. AUDITOR, JOHN H. BECK, Walker Twp. W. H. TIBBENS, College Twp. CORONER, DR. W. U. IRWIN, Huston Twp.

THE COUNTY TICKET.

The Democratic County Convention on Tuesday, nominated an excellent ticket—it could not have done otherwise with such an array of excellent names to select from.

For Sheriff, Cyrus Brungart, of Millheim, had more than enough delegates to nominate him on first ballot, and on that was fittingly put the cap-sheaf of nominating him by acclamation, amid wild shouts of approval. There never was a Centre county Brungart but what was a Democrat of the strictest sect and a citizen of unblemished character, and Cyrus Brungart, the nominee for Sheriff, in every respect, as citizen, business man, generosity and affability, keeps aloft the good name of the large and influential Brungart connection, none of whom ever sought office, and the first deserved recognition is well bestowed in our nominee for Sheriff.

For Commissioner, that faithful farmer, Daniel Heckman, has been re-nominated, upon the principle, "well done, thou good and faithful servant" thou upon thy second term, fittingly dost thou deserve this reward. Daniel Heckman has been true as all Heckmans have been; he has been tried and not found wanting. He has served one term as Commissioner, for the best interests of the tax-payers.

P. H. Meyer, of Harris, is the other nominee for Commissioner. He also hails from good and highly respected Democratic stock, and is so well known in every section of the county as a professor of music (besides his occupation as a farmer) that he needs no extended introduction, suffice it to say he is a gentleman of good character and well qualified for the position for which he has been placed in nomination. Having stood the brunt three years ago, and successfully, he is entitled to, and should receive the entire Democratic support.

Than Wm. T. Speer, of Bellefonte, no more worthy and deserving gentleman could have been nominated for Treasurer. He is the personification of honesty and integrity and a Democrat in whom there is no guile. A workingman all his life-time, a Christian gentleman, respected by all who know him, honored and trusted by all who had dealings with him, Wm. T. Speer's name will add strength to the ticket.

A. G. Archey carried off the prize for Register. He is one of Ferguson township's most active Democrats; his qualifications for the position are all that could be desired; he is a gentleman of unimpeachable character; intelligent, pleasing social qualities, and obliging. The citizens of the county oft have occasion to call at the Register's office, and it is much satisfaction to find the incumbent possessed of the qualities above set forth as belonging to Mr. Archey.

J. C. Harper, the nominee for Recorder, has shown his qualifications for any court house position by years of service; his obliging disposition has gained him many friends and no fault could be found with the manner in which he discharged his duties. He will be re-elected Recorder by the regular Democratic majority.

William H. Tibbens, of College, and John H. Beck, of Walker, were nominated for Auditors. This is one of the most important offices in the county. It requires men of first-class business qualifications and judgment to properly discharge its duties. With these names at the bottom, the ticket rests upon a solid foundation. It will hustle the opposition, Quay and anti-Quay, to match the above ticket. Combined they can't defeat it.

The end of the Filipino war is not yet in sight. Aguinaldo has proclaimed himself dictator.

Grange No. 5, in Columbia county, is after Gov. Stone with a sharp stick cutting down the school appropriation.

Saturday was a bad day for Quay in Lebanon, Huntingdon, Erie and Tioga counties. He only gets 2 out of 9 delegates.

Mr. A. J. Cassatt was elected president of the Pennsylvania railroad by the board of directors of that corporation. Mr. Cassatt started at the very bottom as a railroad hand, and was promoted until now he occupies the highest position in that great corporation.

The pension list of the United States has apparently reached the high-water mark and is now falling. On June 30, 1898, there were 993,714 names on the list. Now there are but 992,644. The largest number of names ever on the pension rolls was 994,081 in August, 1898.

In several respects the Peace Conference, now in session at The Hague, is the most remarkable assemblage of the nations which history records. Of the 1,600,000,000 people who constitute the population of the entire world, about 1,400,000,000 are represented in that gathering.

Both sides express confidence in the outcome of the trials of the legislative bribery suits, which will be called in the Dauphin county court to-day, 14. Counsel for the accused say the testimony is so contradictory and inconclusive that no jury would convict. Then why try to tamper with the grand jury to ignore the bill?

The entire plant of the Nordlinger fireworks, was destroyed by an explosion the other day. Also the Pain's Fireworks Company's plant, on Long Island, was wrecked by an explosion on same day.

Now what will the little boy do for fire crackers on the "glorious Fourth" so near at hand?

During the eleven months ending with May there flowed into the United States treasury the magnificent sum of $436,000,000, collected for the most part on consumption through tariff and internal revenue taxes. Every penny of this came from the pockets of the people. During the same months we expended $573,709,973, of which $281,000,000 for pensions.

The attorney general, Sir Richard Webster, and others of the British Venezuelan boundary commission started for Paris. The opening speech of Sir Richard Webster is expected to last sixteen days.

That's nothing compared with the speech of both read by Quay in the Senate, called a tariff speech, a few years ago, which lasted six weeks. It was done to cause delay, and is a monument to his statesmanship.

At a meeting of manufacturers of plows, harrows, seeders and kindred implements, held in Chicago, it was decided to make a general increase in prices. Committees were appointed to prepare a new schedule. These committees will report to a meeting of the Northwestern Plow Association to be called next fall. It is thought a general increase of from 15 to 25 per cent. will be made.

The implement trust, under high tariff protection is laying tribute upon the farmer.

The Philadelphia "Press" indicts Governor Stone for specific violation of the constitution in not only one but several instances, and the Philadelphia "Record" demands his impeachment. The Philadelphia "Ledger" declares "both are right"—that Stone has violated the constitution in repeated instances and should be impeached. It doubts, however, whether Stone will call the present Legislature together to impeach himself, and what kind of a Legislature we will elect next year, who can tell? Stone elected, boasting, that he was "no Quay man." His boast now is that he will do anything the Boss calls on him to do, openly and flagrantly defying the constitution in obeying orders. He is the most disreputable governor Pennsylvania has ever had. The evidence is that Republican papers which supported him now call for his impeachment for high crimes and misdemeanors. "Bill" Stone is a daisy, and no mistake.

attempts to secure the votes of the grand jury are not stopped. I will have the parties arrested for embezzlement before the bribery cases are submitted to the jury. The attorneys for the defense disclaim all knowledge of the scheme and inform me that if it was being done it was without their knowledge. I have conveyed my information to the district attorney and counsel for the defense and if necessary I will bring it to the attention of the court. If the parties persist in their efforts to corrupt the jury I will make public their names and have them arrested for embezzlement.

President McKinley's recent civil service order, says the Washington correspondent of the New York World, is not merely a "step backward"; it is a long leap toward the corrupt and chaotic conditions which prevailed before there was any serious thought of putting civil service law in force.

When the order was issued friends of the Administration announced that it would exempt 4000 office holders from the operations of the law. The declaration of this departure from the precedents of years caused great surprise and much condemnation. It appears, however, that not half of the tale was told.

Experts who have just concluded an examination of the effect of the order declare that it will place more than ten thousand offices at the disposal of Republican spoilsmen.

Trying to Down Ex-Governor Hastings. The Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph's Harrisburg correspondent says: The Quay machine is making a bitter fight against Ex-Governor Hastings and his friends in Centre county for State delegates. The primaries will be held early in July, and all the power and influence of the machine is being used to punish the former governor. The Quayites want to get even with him for his hostility to the "Old Man," and his crusade against the treasury looters in the legislature of '97. They have secured control of the county organization and of the State and federal patronage through Congressman Arnold and Gov. Stone.

The governor is using the postoffice to strengthen the machine and expects to render it further assistance by appointing none but Quayites as census enumerators. The governor is keeping certain Hastings appointees in office until after the primaries to hold them in line for the Quay candidates. Some of these officeholders refuse to desert an old friend for a new, and rather than turn their back on Hastings they will resign. Neither faction has selected delegates, although both are quietly organizing in every district in the county. Gen. Hastings may not be a candidate himself, but his friends say that his favorites will be elected.

The Quayites are trying to frighten one of Hastings' lieutenants by threatening the dismissal of his mother as a deputy factory inspector unless he supports the Quay candidates. His name is Keller, a son of the late Col. D. S. Keller, and is practicing law at Bellefonte. Mrs. M. E. Keller, of Philadelphia, is his mother, and her position depends entirely on the son. If he supports the machine she will be promptly dismissed and her place filled by one more useful to Quay.

AWFUL TORNADO. Report That 300 Lives Were Lost in Wisconsin. A very heavy storm is reported Monday night to have swept over Hastings, Minn., and Hudson and New Richmond, Wis.

One report places the number of dead at New Richmond at 200. At Minneapolis, during the day darkness and a downpour of water fell over the city for an hour, and 2.34 inches of rain fell, and the lower part of the city was passable only in boats. Winona, Minn., came very near being drowned out that night. Dams and bridges were swept away. Great damage was done at Fountain City. Fruit and crops on all lowlands are a total loss.

Sixteen hours of rain at Black River Falls, Wis., caused much damage, and at Gatesville 20 hours of rain damaged crops and carried away bridges.

ANOTHER TORNADO. Herman, Nebraska, Wiped Out.—100 Persons Killed. A tornado struck the town of Herman, in Nebraska, on Tuesday evening, and wiped the place out of existence. Herman is a place of about 300 inhabitants.

A conductor on the evening train from Sioux City passed through the place not long after the storm, and he says not a building in town is left standing. He counted 12 dead bodies lying in the streets. The killed will undoubtedly run up to a hundred, if not higher.

Mr. P. Ketcham, of Pike City, Cal., says: "During my brother's late sickness from sciatic rheumatism, Chamberlain's Pain Balm was the only remedy that gave him any relief." Many others have testified to the prompt relief from pain which this liniment affords. For sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills. H. F.
