

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of town.

Jared Kremer, of Rebersburg, gave us a pop visit, looking the picture of health.

W. A. Sandoe went to Harrisburg Tuesday afternoon to attend the Democratic State Convention.

Miss Maybelle Keller has been appointed one of the operators in the new telephone exchange here.

Mr. and Mrs. John Foreman, of near Centre Hill, spent yesterday with their son Frank, in town.

Mrs. John Harper has been visiting at the home of her son, Recorder J. C. Harper, for the last week.

Prof. and Mrs. C. L. Gramley, of Rebersburg, were the guests at the home of Mr. Simon Harper yesterday.

Prof. James Gregg, of Milesburg, was in town yesterday, looking up the book business with the school directors.

Mrs. Mary Hartman, of Millinburg, was the guest at the home of her brother, George W. Ocker, on Monday and Tuesday.

Miss Romie Van Pelt arrived home last Friday from Wilson College, Chambersburg, Pa., on the College vacation.

Miss Tace Kremer left on Tuesday morning on an extended visit to her sister, Mrs. Samuel Heckman, at Lock Haven.

Mrs. H. G. Strohmeier has been quite ill the last two or three weeks, suffering from stomach complaint. She is slowly improving again.

Mr. Wm. Goodhart, one of the good and substantial citizens of near Spring Mills, was in town yesterday spending the day with friends.

Samuel Rowe has been employed by a Western house to handle their line of engines and stone crushers. He is now traveling through Michigan and Wisconsin.

Rev. S. H. Eisenberg returned home from Tiffin, Ohio, last week. He was in attendance at the Reformed Synod, and had been absent about three weeks.

Lewis Waltz, one of our esteemed patrons of Gregg, gave us a call and gave his label the '99 cast. He informs us his wife is still suffering from an attack of paralysis months ago. His corn needed a second planting but he thinks it will catch up.

C. J. Shaffer, our traveling salesman, has come out and announced himself as a full-fledged candidate for Recorder on the Republican ticket. Jeff is in the fight to win the nomination, but he won't get anything more than that. This is a Democratic year for Centre county.

Will Boozer went to Hazleton on Monday to attend the State Camp Sons of Veterans, which meets there this week. He is the delegate from the Centre Hall Camp. Other members who went with him were Harry Harper, Ed. Riter and John Martz. The boys all went in full uniform.

John C. Miller, of Bellefonte, out as a Republican candidate for Recorder, is scouring through our valley putting up jobs for his nomination. He called at this office yesterday, and in a short time he was confronted by his opponent, Jeff. Shaffer. We kept a good stout club handy to "salvate" either one of the boys should they get gay within these sacred Democratic precincts. We expected trouble when they came together, but they simply exchanged salutations, no confidences however, and then each took a sneak in different directions hunting up voters, and a vague explanation why the good farmers in our valley are justified in paying an increase in school taxes so that Quay's spoilsmen would have more booty.

SPRING MILLS.

Some of our Young Men Reprimanded for Disturbing Church Services.

Dr. D. M. Wolf and Miss Mabel Sankey will close their schools this week. What has become of the Spring Mills base ball club; have they disbanded?

The Spring Mills Castle K. of G. E., report having had a delightful picnic on Thursday last.

A. E. Miller and wife, of Lock Haven, formerly of our village, were here for a few days last week.

Coal operations in this neighborhood seem to be in a quiescent state. Were the efforts to obtain coal only the attempt and not the deed?

Hiram Durst is putting the finishing touches on his handsome residence, painting it entirely white. The building presents a very attractive appearance.

The foundation for the building located on the Avenue above the Spring Mills planing mill, and to be occupied as a skim station or cream separator, is about finished. The erection of the building will be commenced at once.

The Democratic ticket as nominated at Tuesday's convention meets with the approval of a majority of Democrats in this locality, and is regarded as an unusually strong ticket; of course some were disappointed, but this was to be expected.

On Sunday morning last D. H. Ruhl, our popular landlord and Republican candidate for the nomination for sheriff, had a slight attack of vertigo, but it passed off in a day or two, and like the Duke of Gloucester he can now exultingly exclaim "Richard's himself again."

Several young men were before Magistrate Grenoble on Monday evening last, to answer the charge of disturbing the congregation of the Lutheran church in Georges valley. After a sharp reprimand and paying the costs they were allowed to depart, with the understanding that if repeated, it would oblige them to appear in Bellefonte and prove a very serious matter.

Merrill, son of Archibald Allison, Esq., of our village, a student in the Susquehanna University, at Selinsgrove, Pa., is at present home on his vacation. Merrill is a lad of uncommon promise; highly polished in his manners, very quiet and reserved, brilliant in conversation, and evidently at no distant day will make his mark.

MILLHEIM.

The Telephone People Have Trouble in Putting up Their Poles.

A. C. Musser and wife left on Tuesday for Renova, to pay a visit to Mr. Musser's sister, Mrs. J. H. Swartz.

Mrs. C. H. Morris and Mrs. J. W. Stover are among the Millheim representatives at State College this week.

Rev. H. W. Buck and son Harry are at New Berlin this week, attending the commencement of Central Penna. College.

The wheat fields have improved very much of late. The outlook is for a much better yield than was anticipated earlier in the season.

Already the cherry vander plies his vocation on our streets. The early varieties are large and of a fine flavor; no trouble to induce people to buy.

J. H. Auman the fruit gardener of our town, is at present disposing of his crop of strawberries. The fruit is very large and of the finest varieties.

P. H. Musser and family took a trip overland to Williamsport, leaving here on Saturday morning. While in the city they were the guests of D. J. Brown, a former resident of this place.

The water question evidently has been lost sight of during the political excitement of the last few weeks. But the matter is now likely to receive attention.

The men employed in putting up the poles for the Commercial Telephone company, had some very unpleasant experiences with some of our citizens concerning the location of the poles. Some people are always "otherwise."

The Democratic primaries were largely attended on last Saturday; in many places the vote polled was as large as that polled at the regular election. Of course the Leelers got their work in, and many an innocent, honest voter was prevailed upon to vote for the other fellow. Some few candidates were left, and the number that will be around to interview the people has been materially decreased by Saturday's result.

COLVER.

Interesting News Items from that Hazy Section.

Farmers are busy cultivating corn; some are still replanting.

Mrs. John Love, of Centre Hall, visited at the home of Wm. Merts and O. K. Love last week.

J. S. Houseman preached quite an interesting sermon in the United Ev. church Sunday evening.

Misses Cora and Ross Mayes, of Millheim, visited friends and relatives in our section several days this and last week.

Thomas Farnar has returned home on a short vacation from Lebanon, where he is taking a short-hand and commercial course.

Jackson Weaver is hustling the work on his new house; he has it under roof and in a few days will be ready for the plasterers.

John Boyer, of Ohio, who has been visiting Union county friends and relatives, returned to the home of his son Reuben, our energetic merchant.

Clyde Boyer intends giving up his position as operator and will assist Perry Cole firing the dinky on the lumber road at Linden Hall.

Henry Stoner has gone to Harrisburg and will purchase a new engine to propel his new machine bought last fall. Henry seems to see prosperity beaming in the future.

G. P. Meiss is already preparing for a general good time on the evening of July 4th. Mr. Meiss expects having a grand display of fire works; balloon ascension, and festival furnishing ice cream, cakes, candies and bananas. All are cordially invited to attend the feast of the 4th.

Centre Hill.

The recent warm wave was rather hard on the candidates.

George Hettinger and family visited relatives at Centre Hall, on Sunday.

Centre Hill was well represented at the Teachers' examination at Centre Hall yesterday.

The Commercial Telephone Company stretched two more wires along the line this week.

Mrs. Ellen Burkholder left last week for New Jersey, where she will spend a few weeks among relatives.

Quite a number of our citizens attended the Democratic county convention at Bellefonte on Tuesday. They report a large crowd.

Misses Cora and Rosie Maize, two bright and accomplished young ladies of Millheim, visited at the home of A. C. Ripka a few days this week.

Stamp Statistics.

In a recently published catalogue of the postage stamps of the world are some interesting statistics. The total number of all known varieties of stamps issued by all the governments of the world up to the present time is 13,811. Of this number 131 have been issued in Great Britain and 3,843 in the various British colonies and protectorates, leaving 9,837 for the rest of the world. Or, dividing the totals among the continents, Europe issued 4,456, and Oceania, 905.

Taking the countries separately, the most prolific in stamps is the United States, which leads the list with 287 followed (curiously enough) by Spain with 278, and Uruguay and Shanghai with 215 each. Two of the British colonies have issued more varieties of stamps than the mother country—Victoria with 174, and Ceylon with 138. The rarest stamps, consequently the most expensive, are the Mauritius, worth $5,000 each; one British Guiana of the same value; one of Roumania appraised at $4,000; one of the United States at from $500 to $1,200 each.

Summer Outings.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company announces the following Personally-Conducted Tours for the summer of 1899:

To the north, including Niagara Falls, Toronto, Thousand Islands, the St. Lawrence, Montreal, Quebec, Roberval (Lake St. John), the Saguenay, Au Sable Chasms, Lakes Champlain and George, Saratoga, and a daylight ride through the Highlands of the Hudson, July 22 to August 7. Rate, $125; August 12 to 25, visiting same points as first tour except Roberval and the Saguenay. Rate, $100 for the round trip, from New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, and Harrisburg. Proportionate rates from other points.

For itineraries and further information apply to ticket agents, or address Geo. W. Boyd, Assistant General Passenger Agent, Philadelphia. Jun 15-21

Bicycle Trust.

A bicycle trust, with $80,000,000 behind it, has just been organized, and it is said that nearly every bicycle manufacturing establishment in the country has become a member of the combine. The trust has secured the control of the tube and billet works and of many of the rim manufacturing establishments. It is said that the trust will increase the price of bicycles, and that no wheel will be sold under $50. The increase in price is to take place on August 1, 1899, and it is stated that after that date all wheels will be handled by one dealer in each city. Orders that are placed now for wheels will be filled at the regular prices, but after August 1st, the orders will be filled at trust prices.

Reduced Rates to St. Louis.

On account of the meeting of the Grand Lodge, B. P. O. Elks, at St. Louis, Mo., June 30 to 23, 1899, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell round-trip tickets from points on its line, to St. Louis and return, at greatly reduced rates. Tickets will be sold June 18 and 19, good to return until June 25.

For specific rates and conditions apply to ticket agents.

Recent Union County Deaths.

Try the Reporter for all job printing.

I was seriously afflicted with a cough for several years, and last fall had a more severe cough than ever before. I have used many remedies without receiving much relief, and being recommended to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, by a friend, who, knowing me to be a poor widow, gave it to me, I tried it, and with the most gratifying results. The first bottle relieved me very much and the second bottle has absolutely cured me. I have not had as good health for twenty years. Respectfully, Mrs. Mary A. Beard, Claremore, Ark. Sold J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; H. F. Rossman, Spring Mills.

Was Justly Punished.

Jacob Olmsted, of near Linden, who a few weeks ago snubbed a cow's tail until it was jerked out by the roots, was sentenced by Judge Metzger, at Williamsport, to fifteen months' imprisonment in the Eastern penitentiary.

PUBLIC LEDGER

PHILADELPHIA.

SPECIAL OFFER TO LEDGER READERS.

The Public Ledger offers to its readers in connection with a 26 weeks' subscription, and the payment of 50 cents additional, a copy of The Ledger's Unrivaled Atlas of the World. This Atlas has been specially prepared for the Public Ledger by Rand, McNally & Co., New York and Chicago, and is one of the best works of its kind ever offered to the public.

The Unrivaled Atlas of the World contains over 230 pages, elegantly printed on fine calendered paper, marbled edges, bound in English cloth, with handsome gold side stamp, size 11x14 1/4 inches.

It contains 157 full-page colored maps, showing every country on the face of the globe, every State in the Union, principal cities, etc., with fine marginal index.

It contains nearly 400 fine engravings of the world's people, statesmen, soldiers, etc.

It contains a ready reference list of every town in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and Delaware.

It contains in a brief comprehensive form more general, practical information regarding the physical, historical, ethnological, governmental, financial, and commercial conditions of the world than any work published.

This Atlas is offered to introduce The Ledger to new readers with the firm belief that those who become acquainted with the merits of The Ledger will not be willing to give it up.

The Public Ledger is Pennsylvania's Greatest Home Newspaper, giving all the news of the day, classified and in complete form. In its columns every statement is verified and carefully edited; its news is therefore reliable and clean.

The Directors of many school districts have adopted The Ledger for supplementary reading matter in their schools, and placed a copy of The Atlas in each school library.

How to Get the Atlas.

Forward the price of 26 weeks' subscription, plus 50 cents ($3.62) to The Ledger and the name of your nearest express office. The Atlas will be forwarded by express, or if you are not near an express office include 52 cents for mailing and the Atlas will be mailed to your postoffice with The Ledger.
