

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of town.

—Mrs. T. C. Bartges with little daughter, is visiting her parents at Tusseyville.

—Geo. S. Weaver, of Spring Mills gave us a business call and set his label into '99.

—Mrs. B. D. Brislin and daughter Miss Roxanna, visited friends at State College this week.

—Mrs. Mary Fredericks, of Spring Mills, has been spending the past week with friends in Centre Hall.

—Mrs. W. W. Bayard, of Philadelphia, is visiting among friends at her native home at Centre Hill.

—Miss Elvie McClenahan who has been in Williamsport the past two months returned home last week.

—Miss May Rhone, clerk in the State Agricultural Department at Harrisburg, is home on a brief vacation.

—Squire Fergus Potter, Harris township's favorite jurist, was in town Tuesday greeting his many friends.

—Henry Rossman, one of Tusseyville's representative citizens, favored us with a call, and spent a half hour in pleasant chat.

—Anna Bell Kurtz and her friend Ruth Perry, two interesting little misses from Lewisburg, have been spending a week with the editor's family.

—Miss Emille Alexander returned home last Saturday. She had been taking musical instructions at Boston, Mass., for several months past.

—Our pleasant friend, S. K. Emerick, of Unionville, gave us a call. He reports having finished last week, but the grass somewhat short, and that some farmers cut grain before close of the week.

—George Krumbine is home from the Baltimore Medical College, where he is taking a full course. George has one year yet of studies to become a physician, and then he may hang out his shingle.

—Our esteemed farmer friend, John Shafer, of Madisonburg, spent an hour with us, having been on a visit to his aged mother, who has her home with her daughter, Mrs. David Bartges, of near this place. A more upright man does not live.

—Miss Helen Taylor, of Wichita, Kansas, is the guest of her friend Miss Florence Rhone, west of town. Tonight, Thursday, Miss Rhone will entertain a number of her friends in honor of Miss Taylor, at the Rhone home.

—Guests are expected to be present from different parts of the county, and a large assemblage is anticipated.

—Prof. B. M. Wagensöller left for his home at Sellingsgrove on Monday afternoon. He was employed as principal of our schools the last year and gave great satisfaction in performing his duties. Being of a studious and energetic turn, he labored hard to place our schools upon a high plane, and his work has shown excellent results.

—Rev. Robert B. Wolf, of Eureka, Kansas, arrived in this section last week on a visit to his native home, and among old friends in Centre Hall and Brush valley. Rev. Wolf is in charge of the Lutheran church at Eureka, and has built up his charge during his pastorate until it is a flourishing congregation. He came east to attend the Lutheran Synod at York and while east, is visiting his old friends.

Shoveling Hall at Sellingsgrove.

The hall storms which traversed the state from its southern to its northern boundary during the last two weeks have done great injury to the growing crops. Tobacco plants have especially suffered.

Last Friday evening's hail and thunder gust is thus reported from Sellingsgrove:

A hot clear day terminated this evening with a destructive hail storm. Shortly after 7 o'clock the skies suddenly darkened and rain drops began to fall. The transition from rain to hail was equally sudden. Ice globules poured down in a perfect shower. Sky lights in many buildings and thousands of window panes were shattered. Trees are stripped of their foliage, and wheat, corn and fruit crops are nigh to a state of total destruction. Birds fell dead from trees as though shot with a rifle. It was a remarkable sight in June to see people on all sides using snow shovels to clear the pavements of the hall banks.

Saturday afternoon's rain and hail storm was terrific in parts of Lycoming county. The hail stones measured over an inch in diameter. Acres of vegetables, hay and wheat were ruined and the damage to fruit and berries cannot be estimated.

At trout run hail fell to the depth of four inches and at Montoursville many hailstones were found that measured more than two inches in diameter.

At Lock Haven there were five distinct hail storms, and the icy spheres were shoveled from the pavements.

At Glen Union hailstones were picked up that weighed three ounces.

Centre Hall Laundry.

J. H. Zong, formerly of Howard, has opened a steam laundry in the Colyer building, at the station. Being a new enterprise it deserves the patronage of the public of this town and vicinity. See his ad. in another column.

SPRING MILLS.

A Defective Bridge Causes an Accident.—News of the Town.

The ladies of the United Evangelical church of our village, will have a festival in the park on Saturday evening next. A cordial invitation is extended to everybody; proceeds for the benefit of the parsonage.

F. H. Sheary the tontorial artist, has disposed of his boudoir to N. J. Straub, of Elizabethville, Pa. We are very sorry to lose Mr. Sheary; he has been a good citizen, and by his pleasant manner has "won golden opinions from all sorts of people."

D. H. Ruhl, our village landlord, and Republican candidate for the nomination of sheriff, has about completed his canvass, and has all his political fences well wired and in perfect order, and nothing less than a good sized earthquake can upset them. Parties familiar in political circles inform me that Mr. Ruhl's nomination is hardly doubtful.

John Runkle has fitted up his meat market building very conveniently. The whole interior has been remodeled and improved; the refrigerator has been enlarged and supplied with the latest improvements, a new porch in front adds greatly to the appearance of the building. Mr. Runkle is doing quite a large business; home dressed meats evidently has the lead with this community.

Edwin Ruhl of our village, was considerably astonished, if not astounded on Monday morning last when informed that an extremely youthful lad and his infant sister had arrived at his residence at an early hour, and boldly located themselves as permanent boarders. Of course Mr. Ruhl is happy, but when congratulated on this accession to his family, replies very seriously—only two fathers can imagine my feelings.

Smith Bros., the furniture dealers of Penns valley, have done an unusual heavy business this spring. They are now preparing for their general clearance sale to make room for an early fall stock. Decided bargains are always obtained at these special sales; even at the present time, whole suits are closed out at prices which look like absolute destruction. No wonder they handle an immense amount of furniture, they almost give it away.

On Tuesday last C. P. Long and Samuel Krape in driving over Muddy creek in Georges valley, the bridge being under repairs and having only a temporary flooring, gave way, precipitating the horse into the water below, the buggy fortunately remaining on the bridge. The occupants immediately jumped out and in order to free the horse out of the harness, and then had considerable trouble to get him out of the water. Why a bridge undergoing repairs would be floored with loose plank making it simply a man trap is inexplicable, and deserves the severest condemnation. It was only by the prompt action of the gentlemen that possibly a fatal accident was averted; as it was Mr. Long had his right hand very severely shattered and Mr. Krape considerably shaken up. Remarkable to say the buggy was only slightly damaged while the horse escaped unhurt.

MILLHEIM.

A Lively Letter With Much that Will Interest Our Readers.

Mrs. Wm. Mauck and her two sons spent Sunday in Nittany valley, visiting friends and living on the fat of the land.

The Gephart Bros. have erected a steam saw mill in the narrows and expect to engage in extensive lumber operations.

Willie Weiser, a former Millheim boy, now clerk in a popular Altoona store, spent last week among his old associates in this place.

Many of our farmers have commenced cutting grass; the hay crop will not be as large as was expected owing to the extended dry weather.

The trimmers for the Commercial telephone company have incurred the displeasure of some of our people by being unnecessarily rough on trees.

A. Walter the popular cashier of the Millheim Bank, spent the greater part of last week among relatives and friends in his native county of Snyder.

This community was favored with refreshing showers on Friday and Saturday of last week. This will much improve the timothy, and help the corn and potato crops.

The latest fad for horse jockeys is, after having done the other fellow up, put your horse in the granary at night and sleep on the barn floor in front of the granary door. That will fix it.

W. K. Alexander besides looking up the dailies and talking politics, finds ample time to take a lively interest in the Commercial telephone line. Wm. hauls the tools and carries the water.

The lightning played havoc with the Bell telephone poles in this vicinity on last Friday. Many poles were struck and demolished, and the line in general was unfit for service between this place and Bellefonte.

The Millheim Band has been at sea for the last ten days, not being able to decide where to spend the Fourth. They have had a number of calls for their service on that day. P. H. Musser has been spending a good part of his time at the telephone answering calls and negotiating with different parties. The general consensus of opinion is that the boys would like to go to all the places that have asked for them, and if they are not careful they will come home with their pants sawed off.

On last Thursday all the stores of Millheim were closed from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m. and the people of the town hid themselves to the Narrows, north of town for a general picnic. The day was a model one, and all present had a delightful time. Of course there were lots of good things to eat. Merchant J. W. Stover, Ex-Sheriff Condo, Prof. Rothrock, druggist Morris, editor Raine, jeweler McEwen, printer Hosterman and musician Kister, with a few others, squatted down to one table and kept the good ladies busy waiting on them for about one hour and a half. By that time most of them were scarcely able to leave the table without assistance. After sitting around for a time in a helpless condition they began to revive, and the balance of the time was spent very pleasantly. After supper every body went home delighted with the days outing.

LINDEN HALL.

A Letter of Interest as Gathered by Our Correspondent.

William Felding spent Friday of last week with friends at Pleasant Gap. Mame Kline, east of Centre Hall, is the guest of her cousin, Sadie Felding, for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Delaney, of Reedsville, were the guests of George Swab and family over Sunday.

Miss Potter, of Milesburg, is the guest of Henry Potter and sisters, east of town for a few days.

Mrs. Rhoads, wife of Rev. Rhoads, of Centre Hall, spent a few days with friends in and around town quite recently.

Miss Cora Brooks, one of our accomplished young ladies, spent a few days of last week with friends at Pleasant Gap.

We are glad to say that Mrs. George Swab, who has been confined to her bed with inflammatory rheumatism for some time is improving.

Mrs. Cora Burchfield and children, of Johnstown, were the guests of Robert McClellan and family, on Greenbank Avenue, for a few days of last week.

Communion services were well attended on Sunday, considering the inclement weather. Rev. Shultz, of New Berlin, filled the pulpit in the absence of Rev. Reamer, present Presiding Elder, who was unable to be here.

Tusseyville.

Wm. Farnar has erected a new stable on his lot east of Colyer.

G. R. Meiss proprietor of Zion hill, will have a grand rally on Tuesday evening, July 4.

The sensation of having a 'phone in S. M. Swartz's store has turned his son Thomas' hair almost gray.

Chick must be very glad the strawberry season is over; we suppose it must be tiresome work picking berries three nights in a week.

While out working corn the other day, Wm. Breon had a severe struggle with a ground mole; he received a few scratches but otherwise was not seriously hurt.

Jacob Jordan, our hustling young pumpkin roller, of Colyer, is now receiving musical instructions from the instructor who lives at Tusseyville; he has been seen special hours of the night taking long and weary strolls over Zion hill.

Potters Mills.

F. A. Carson is adding to his home by building a new barn.

Miss Jennie Sweetwood closed her term of school on Wednesday.

Miss Katie Hewes, of Bellefonte, is spending her vacation at this place.

The Seven mountain people report a good crop of huckleberries this season. Dr. H. S. Alexander who was to Pittsburg on business, returned home Monday.

There is no need for idleness now, the farmers are inquiring for hands everywhere.

The Y. M. C. A., of Bellefonte, will hold a union meeting in the M. E. church at Sprucetown, on the evening of July 2nd.

Lightning Cuts 50 Holes in a House.

Tuesday morning an electric storm passed over Canton. Lightning struck the house of William Crooks, entering the chimney and throwing brick in all directions. It scattered, passing through every room in the house, through the ceilings and making holes in partitions and outside walls, entering the ground and throwing dirt in every direction. Mr. Crooks, 82 years old, and his wife were in the front room. They were thrown to the floor, but were not shocked into insensibility. They were not seriously injured, but if they had been in any other room of the house they must have been killed. By actual count 50 small holes were left in the outside walls where the fluid passed out. In the east gable it cut a clean hole six by eight feet. On the north, near the ground floor, it cut a hole three by six feet, and plowed a furrow in the ground some ten feet outside.

It Serves Them Right.

Commissioner Robert P. Porter returned from Europe with the report that the "embalmed beef" agitation in this country has hurt the American meat business in Germany to the extent of from $20,000,000 to $25,000,000 a year. Mr. Porter's language gives the impression that he regards the charges as unfounded; but the testimony of officers and men who had experience of the beef is not to be lightly dismissed.

If the men who furnished it to the army are now losing more in a month than they gained by cheating the soldiers, the country at large will not worry. The general verdict will be: it serves them right.—Philadelphia Ledger.

I was seriously afflicted with a cough for several years, and last fall had a more severe cough than ever before. I have used many remedies without receiving much relief, and being recommended to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, by a friend, who, knowing me to be a poor widow, gave it to me, I tried it, and with the most gratifying results. The first bottle relieved me very much, and the second bottle has absolutely cured me. I have not had as good health for twenty years. Respectfully, Mrs. Mary A. Beard, Claremore, Ark. Sold J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; H. F. Rossman, Spring Mills.

PUBLIC LEDGER

PHILADELPHIA.

SPECIAL OFFER TO LEDGER READERS.

The Public Ledger offers to its readers in connection with a 26 weeks' subscription, and the payment of 50 cents additional, a copy of The Ledger's Unrivalled Atlas of the World. This Atlas has been specially prepared for the Public Ledger by Rand, McNally & Co., New York and Chicago, and is one of the best works of its kind ever offered to the public.

The Unrivalled Atlas of the World contains over 330 pages, elegantly printed on fine colored paper, marbled edges, bound in English cloth, with handsome gold side stamp, size 11 1/4 x 15 1/4 inches.

It contains 157 full-page colored maps, showing every country on the face of the globe, every State in the Union, principal cities, etc., with fine marginal index.

It contains nearly 400 fine engravings of the world's people, statesmen, soldiers, etc.

It contains a ready reference list of every town in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and Delaware.

It contains in a brief comprehensive form more general, practical information regarding the physical, historical ethnological, governmental, financial, and commercial conditions of the world than any work published.

This Atlas is offered to introduce The Ledger to new readers with the firm belief that those who become acquainted with the merits of The Ledger will not be willing to give it up.

The Public Ledger is Pennsylvania's Greatest Home Newspaper, giving all the news of the day, classified and in complete form. In its columns every statement is verified and carefully edited; its news is therefore reliable and clean.

The Directors of many school districts have adopted The Ledger for supplementary reading matter in their schools, and placed a copy of The Atlas in each school library.

How to Get the Atlas.

Forward the price of 26 weeks' subscription, plus 50 cents ($3.62) to The Ledger and the name of your nearest express office. The Atlas will be forwarded by express, or if you are not near an express office include 52 cents for mailing and the Atlas will be mailed to your postoffice with The Ledger.
