The papers throughout the state, Republican and Democratic, strongly express their disapproval of Judge Love's taking part in a factional political wrangle.

The Democratic state and county nominees are men whose characters cannot be successfully asailed.

They are the men for the hour. Corruption is not to be found in the record of any of these nominees. On the other hand, they have opposed corruption in all its methods.

No honest voter can give a valid such unstained private and public records.

The Republican primaries resulted in a greatly deserved rebuke to Governor Stone, because he cut down the school appropriation and then made plans and contracts by which some of the money was to be for costly additions to the executive mansion ; because he vetoed the amendments to the constitution to secure honest elections ; because he is owned by and the servile tool of Quay, and a score of sins committed right along in a very few months.

The planting of shade fruit trees along the public roads appears never to have been thought of in connection with the American system-or rather lack of system. In fact, the chief trouble with American roads is that they are everybody's business, which the proverb says is nobody's business. With proper management good roadbeds and pleasant highways would prove cheaper than the barren clay paths with which people in this country are so familiar.

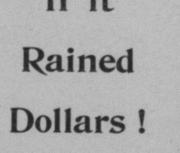

Hon, Gerard C. Brown Gored and Killed By a Bull.

Ex-Senator Gerard C. Brown, of near York, on last Thursday evening, 20, was gored to death by a ferocious Alderney bull at his barnyard near Yorkana. He was dead when found, and a gash on his leg, a severed artery, and the buil's bloody horns attested the cause of death.

so angered the machine.

There was a cloud burst in Centre county last Saturday afternoon, and Hamilton and Jack Dale and Chambers and Fleming, et al., missed getyou ever saw.

The Quay-machine defeat in Centre county, on Saturday, was the worst kind of a Waterloo. All honor to those Republicans who stood against corruption in state affairs under Quayism. General Hastings was dared into the fight-and they have heard from him.

With the resignation of Alger, President McKinley has the sixth break in his cabinet. Sherman, McKenna, Day, Gray and Bliss have in turn resigned, Sherman's resignation being, in fact, a removal. There is general agreement that the appointment of Alger was unfortunate.

The people of Pennsylvania have declared that they want an honest state treasurer. The Democrats offer them one in the person of William T. Creasy. If they are sincere in their declaration they may prove it by electing the Democratic candidate. His honesty is universally acknowledged.

The word comes from Washington that the treasury will demand increased taxation from congress. It is called revision of the tax laws, but means more taxes. What else can be done? The deficiency last year was $85,000,000-the largest since the civil war. It is more than all the deficiencies in all the years of Cleveland's two administrations.

A curious fact, not generally known, is, that in the immediate neighbor. Academies, private libraries, and enhood of Pittsburg there exists what dorsement by leading clergymen and may be justly claimed to be the best prominent educators throughout the wheat belt in the country. This is the ton has other ideas than the carrying bill vetoed by Governor Hastings, and out of Shafter's plan for killing half and one of his wholesome vetoes that the population, the organs of conquest will have no more to do with him.

AFRAID.

Although the Chicago Journal has been a faithful supporter of McKinley and against Mr. Bryan and his followting under Hastings' big umbrella and ers for political reasons, when it comes now they are the worst drowned rats down to a question of facts it gives forth in no uncertain sound. The course of Mr. McKinley has stirred its temper and it says : Afraid to send Miles. Afraid to stop the war. Afraid to call for a large army. Afraid not to. Afraid to retire Alger. Afraid to defend him. gard to the Philippine islands. Afraid to support the gold standard.

Mr. Brown was born in the Tower London in 1842, his mother being the daughter of the tower keeper at the time. He was educated in this coun try, and had a wide reputation as a Democratic politician and farmer. He was twice elected to the State Senate, and was a prominent tariff reformer, one of the ablest men in the state grange, a leading advocate of equal taxation, etc. He was chairman of the York County Farmers' institute, lecturer for the State grange, Patrons of Husbandry, and associate editor of Wonderful Powers of Liquid Air. The wonderful powers of refrigeration possessed by liquid air were illustrated in city restaurant a few days ago to a group of interested brokers and newspaper men. Two gallons of the liquid air were brought into the saloon. Basins were filled with it, and in liquid that appeared to be boiling furious-Afraid to announce any policy in re- ly pieces of ham were frozen so quickly that they could afterwards be broken in the hand like so much chalk. They were frozen so hard that they became brittle. Liquid air was poured into straw hats, and they became so cold that it was unsafe to put them on cold that it was unsafe to put them on the head for some time. A number of curious experiments were made and extraordinary results achieved. What-ever else may be the future of this new agent of man, one thing is clear, it is destined to revolutionize all our meth-ods of refrigeration. There seems to be no reason why in time it should not do away entirely with the ice man. Now that Ostergren, the Swedish in-Now that Ostergren, the Swedish in- July 27-3t ventor, has shown that liquid air can be produced at a cost of 2 to 3 cents a gallon, why could there not be a sys-tem of delivery of liquid air to households, like milk, and each family manufacture its own ice as its needs require?

To keep Off the Cabbage Worm.

To keep the cabbage worm off the late cabbage, soak dry corn cobs in kerosene for a few days, then place an old pan in the patch on a box or other support two or three feet high. Two or more of these would be better than one, if the patch is large. Just at dusk drop two or three of the soaked cops into the pan and apply the match; throw on fresh cobs as needed to keep a bright blaze going for an hour or more, and a large number of moths, which lay the eggs which hatch the worms which destroy our crops will be destroyed.
