Things are getting a little cloudy for McKinley's chances for a second term.

.........Huston Twp

All of Hastings' appointees must be connected with the Walker family. Stone has notified 'em to walk.

Always encourage and respect those who endeavor to make a decent and honest living, they are beneficial to a community.

There is disagreement in the Quay camp, now summering at Atlantic City. The boss wants slate names for his state ticket which don't suit his henchmen. In the Democratic state convention the nominations were made by the people.

Attorney General Taylor, at the request of the Indiana State Medical Board, delivered an opinion that it is for carrying out McKinley's orders. illegal for faith-curists, Christian scientists and other unlicensed persons, who assume the title of doctor to minister to the sick, particularly where a fee is charged.

Pontius, the pleasant and wellknown fruit tree agent of Bellefonte, was promised the deputy collectorship if he would turn in and help the Quay squad carry the county against Hastings; when it was over, the appointment went to Dr. Harter, and a half dozen others were fooled, badly as Pontius.

A republican citizen of the Quay machine type was committed to jail in Philadelphia a few days ago for the offense of voting 37 times at the election last November. When arrested he admitted the crime and declared that he had voted in 37 districts on names registered in these districts.

The effect of the Quay defeat in this county was singularly queer upon the portly Chambers of Bellefonte, leader by brevet, who sits morose in his law office at Bellefonte, astronomically looking into space, utterly oblivious of the fact that he should be serving the Commonwealth at Harrisburg, for the $150 dollars salary per month he is drawing.

The dispute between Great Britain and the United States over the Maine boundary lasted sixty-nine years before a settlement was reached. The Alaslific of material for protonged diplomatic dispute, and it has physical elements of even greater difficulty. The Europe and America may have some effect in abbreviating the controversy.

But then there are Hon. Jack Dale, Chairman Gray and Hon. Clem Dale, all leaders of prominence and worthy of recognition in the Republican sheep fold.

But, the next Judge will be a Democrat, and we hear several good names whispered, one an outsider. With an able, honorable and unstained lawyer on the Democratic ticket the next Judge will be Democrat. The people are lined up for capable and pure men for Judges regardless of politics.

It is said, but incorrectly, that until last week Oakey Hall, Benedict Arnold and Judah P. Benjamin were the only three Americans to throw aside their allegiance to the United States and become subjects of the British crown. Benedict Arnold's motives are easily understood. Mr. Benjamin had ample reason to stay away from his country. Mr. Hall, being a newspaper man whose work was abroad, perhaps permitted that to influence him somewhat. But now comes William Waldorf Astor, and makes a fourth in this distinguished list. Along with a motley rabble from the continent Mr. Astor has renounced his citizenship to stock dealer of Pulaski, Ky., says: become a subject.

One utterance from McKinley woul : have stopped the torrent of abuse; but McKinley never uttered a word. He allowed Alger to stand for all that was complained of, when he well knew that Alger had simply acted as his messenger boy, carrying out McKin-ley's policies and plans, often against his own advice and against his own judgment. The people ought to know that "Algerism," which they denounce, was in reality "McKinley-ism." The friends of Alger who know him best and who still love him blame him only for remaining with the Mc-Kinley administration so long after it was known that he was held blamable

The Philadelphia Press, speaking of judges mixing in politics, says: The Clearfield "Republican" arraigns Judge Cyrus Gordon severely and with many details for his activity in politics. It is an exceedingly good thing to have these Judges who seek to become political bosses called to account now and then. There are not so very many of them, but, comparatively few as they are, there are too many when there are any at all.

It has been demonstrated time and again that the people have no respect for or confidence in a Judge who dishonors himself and his office by using his influence to control politics, to procure certain results from primary elections. Such a Judge ceases to be useful in his place, and his further continuance in office is a menace to every personal and property right the people enjoy. The Judge who can so far disgrace himself as to send for a member of the bar and warn him that it will be to his interest to take his political orders from the Judge is fit only for impeachment. He is lacking that moral character which is a necessity POTTERS MILLS, on the bench.
