—Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Kremer and Mrs. Polly Meyer, of Rebersburg, were the guests of friends in town several days last week. They came up to attend the funeral of Simon Harper.

—J. H. Reifsnnyder, Esq., of Millheim, was a visitor here, looking greatly improved in health, and hopes to get some further health benefits by a short stay at Coney Island. His label now stands for 1900.

—Mrs. H. F. Bitner and two sons, Laurence and Ralph, departed for their home at Millersville, Friday morning, after having spent a month with Mrs. Bitner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Murray.

—Mrs. Gottlieb Strohmer returned from Philadelphia last Wednesday morning, where she has been undergoing treatment in a hospital the past month. She returns much improved in health.

—Rev. L. K. Evans, of Pottstown, Rev. John Evans, of Bedford county brothers, and Rev. D. M. Wolf, D. D., of Spring Mills—all eminent in the Reformed church—illuminated the Reporter's sanctum with an hour's enjoyable conversation.

—Thomas Sankey and William Stover, two of our valley's young men back on a visit, were in town yesterday calling on their old friends. The boys have good jobs at Freepport, Ill., and will return again in a couple weeks.

Paid 15 Cents to Hug His Wife
The maddest man in Platte county, says the Columbus, Nebraska Times, lives at Humphrey. He attended a social, and during the evening the ladies inaugurated a hugging bee, he proceeds to go to the Sunday school. Prices were graded according to the person hugged. For instance, for hugging a young, inexperienced girl they had to give up ten cents; married women brought fifteen cents, and widows a quarter. Well, the man was blindfolded, and giving up fifteen cents, he would take a married woman. After he had hugged fifteen cents' worth the bandage was removed from his eyes, and lo and behold he had been hugging his own wife. Then he kicked and wanted his fifteen cents back.

Too Many Insane People.
James Scarlet, counsel for the trustees of the State hospital for the insane at Danville, wants the name of the Commonwealth to conjure with, in a proceeding to test the right of courts to continue sending patients to that already overcrowded institution, which he says, is nothing more than a place of detention under the present circumstances.

The NEW TELEPHONE RENTAL RATES are made to fit the requirements of everyone.

BRUSH VALLEY.

A Letter of Interest from that Prosperous Valley.

Mrs. Sallie Hillbush and daughter are visiting at Man. Harters.

Corn and potatoes promise a light crop. Es nakst mohl blontz im Yoo-ny!

Auman claims the machine didn't work. When our great daddies used flails, they made 'em work.

The farmers are yearly planting more trees along private roads and lines across the valley as wind breaks.

Joe Moyer is taking time by the forelock and has his big mill well stocked with old corn and wheat. He pays more than they do at Coburn.

Pete Breen on the old Col. Royer place, made the first cider and apple-butter this year. Sie hen over ken schmitz'n g'holte, will 'es foraltes wor. Pit, mach alny!

Jared Kremer is justly proud of his palace now nearing completion, opposite St. Peter's Reformed church in Rebersburg. It will be a model of convenience and beauty in architecture.

O. L. Nichols, ex-Register of Wills, of Lycoming county, will return to Rebersburg to visit at the old Peter S. Bierly homestead, when the Democratic convention in Lycoming county is over. "Nick" was taking a hand for one of his friends down there.

The survivors of Co. A, 148th Pa. and other veterans, had an enjoyable time Saturday in the woods near Kremerville. Many a story of camp fire and forage did they relate, until Heaven's artillery shelled them out of that with icy balls as big as hen's eggs.

That panther which it took fourteen shots from Wolf's Store marksmen to lay low, scared the women and children along the Summer mountain. He walked right up to some places and looked in at the windows, when he knew the brave men were away.

Prof. E. H. Bierly, of the State College, Tallehassee, Fla., expects to return to his post in that excellent institution next month. He has added to his biological specimens some rare ones, among them sections of the human brain and also the brains of animals, showing cell developments and other mysteries of his art.

Squire Reifsnnyder was over from Millheim to adjust that line on the old John Bierly place, between himself and "Tite" Gramley. It took the "Squire" hopping around to hold his own against the three surveyors, but when they found the white oak and the hickory, all went as merry as a marriage bell.

Al Gramly, a native of Brush valley, who made a nice fortune by farming in Illinois, and turned it into cash, is visiting his numerous relatives and friends in these parts. Al's eyes are just as blue, but time (and Mrs. Al, who accompanies him,) have taken some of those Byronic curls out of his once jet black hair. We are all glad to welcome them to the old home.

The storm of electricity and hail which passed over vale and mountain Saturday evening, did considerable damage. In some places the corn was cut into strips and fruit was knocked down, while window lights were broken.

The heaviest passed through the mountains between Brush and Penns valleys; the north side of Brush got a light falling from the return storm. A noticeable fact was the heavy firing from the clouds direct to the earth. It struck sometimes in two or three places almost simultaneously. Some of the veterans said it reminded them of Lee's cannonade on the 3rd of July, 1863, before Pickett's charge.

SPRING MILLS.
Operations for Coal Still Continues in that Locality.

Operations for coal in this locality still continues, but as yet with no very flattering prospects.

Water in Penns creek is very low; in Sinking creek in many places the bed of the creek is perfectly dry.

William Smith of Smith Bros, the furniture dealers of our village, left last week on a visit to Johnstown, Pa. The potato crop down this way will evidently be a large one, and unusually monstrous in size; many are found weighing from a pound to a pound and a half.

Our deputy, the accomplished daughter of postmaster J. D. Long, and her sister, Mrs. Robert Meese, left on Thursday last for a brief visit to Philadelphia and the sea shore.

The Spring Mills Planing Mill Co. is manufacturing some very beautiful or rather, strikingly handsome wood-work, particularly in the construction of the latest style of piazzas. Some of the porches gotten up and shipped by this company, are marvels of beauty and artistic skill. Harvey Confer one of the firm and general manager of the plant is a thorough mechanic, and the exquisite taste and skill he displays in intricate embellishments, trimmings and ornaments—the patterns being exclusively his own draughting, ranks him as an artist and business manager of the highest character.

That jovial old veteran G. W. Dunkle the reliable wall paper merchant of our village, has about the coolest retreat in our neighborhood. In front of his spacious lawn and immediately on the banks of Penns creek, under large overhanging trees he has arranged several comfortable seats and a large swinging chair. In this cool retreat he entertains his friends with royally; cigars are plentiful of course, and being an excellent conversationalist and well informed, nothing is lacking to pass an agreeable and pleasant hour.

Twelfth Year

It affords me great pleasure to express my gratitude for the practical business education I received at the Schissler College of Business. The corps of teachers are all superior instructors and worthy of the positions they hold. Through your kind assistance I have had employment every day since I graduated.

I most heartily recommend the Schissler College of Business to any one desiring a practical business education, which affords one of the greatest opportunities to young men and women as a step-stone to future prosperity. With best wishes for your continued success, I remain, Sincerely yours, R. C. ARTHUR, Dublin, Bucks Co., Pa.

Successful, your highest ambition can be gratified, if you will fit yourself for the many thousand opportunities constantly occurring and available to the graduates of THE TEST OF TIME, an interesting book, containing hundreds of letters just from the graduates of the Schissler College of Business. Others may claim superior instruction and ability to place graduates in positions, but we prove it.

NEW PROSPECTUS NOW READY, and will be mailed on any interested person. Fall Term opens September 4th.

Schissler College of Business, Norristown, Pennsylvania.

SUCH TESTIMONIALS AS THESE WOULD HAVE GREAT WEIGHT.

"After graduating from the Golden Wilmington Commercial College I tried in vain to secure a position, but without success. Then I decided to take a course in Stenography at your College—a decision which I consider a most profitable one. On completing your most excellent course in Stenography, I was assisted by you to the position I now hold, having secured it three days after graduation. I can say without hesitation that your instructors are thorough, painstaking experts in their several branches of work, and my young man leading to success will always meet with fair treatment on part of both instructors and school management. Yours very truly," J. C. GARDNER, Sugartown, Chester Co., Pa.

"We thank you for your kindness to Harry. You have helped him beyond our expectations, and he has always spoken in the highest terms of you and of your College. He says you were always kind and pleasant to him, and the last time he was home he said he was so glad that he selected your College in preference to others. May your school prosper in the future as it has in the past in the wishes of your friends." Ms. Mrs. JOSEPH WATTERSON, Collinsville, Chester Co., Pa.

trouble with his eyes this summer. He has tried, with little success, local physicians who upon examination have found him nearly blind of one eye while the other is also affected. He was recommended to a specialist at present at Lewistown where he went last week for treatment and examination, but we have not learned the result.

The weather continues very dry; many cisterns are empty, save a very dashing rain two weeks ago, we have had no rain for five or six weeks. However, the spring which supplies the town with water seems as strong as ever.

The High School Athletic Association will hold a festival at the school grounds Saturday evening, Aug. 26. All the delicacies of the season will be served, followed by a cake walk. The Boalsburg band will furnish music for the occasion.
