—Ralph Arney, son of Dr. George Arney, of Altoona, is visiting among relatives in Centre Hall since Monday.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Weibly, of Linden Hall, made the Reporter's sanctum a pleasant call, and fixed their label for '99.

—Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Ward and two sons, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Stiver, on Church street.

—Phillip H. Meyer, of Boalsburg, the Democratic candidate for Commissioner, was among those in town Friday to attend the funeral of Dr. Jacobs.

—Forest Ocker has been confined to the house since Sunday with slight symptoms of typhoid fever, but is recovering again and will be out in a few days.

—Our friend, Henry Stoner, gave us a business call, and reports general health good across the valley. Stoner's two threshing separators are busy all the time.

—Dr. J. F. Harter, of State College, the newly appointed Deputy Revenue Collector for this district, was in town Friday looking up the business in connection with his office.

—Charles H. Meyer, of Millersburg, Pa., came last Saturday on a short visit to his old home. Charley is the proprietor of a large livery stable at that place and is doing a big business.

—Dr. J. R. G. Allison, of Northumberland, was a prominent visitor in town last Friday. The Dr. several years ago practiced at Spring Mills, and later removed to Northumberland where he has been very successful.

—Dr. Ed. Miller, of Johnstown, Pa., a former Centre Hall boy who is making his mark in the profession, was calling on his old friends in town on Saturday. He was the guest of his brother-in-law, Perry Luse.

—Mr. and Mrs. George W. Ocker and daughter Estie went to Middlecreek, Snyder county, last Friday on a two weeks' visit. During George's absence his grain house and coal business is under the able management of Wm. Floray.

—Ex-County Superintendent, R. M. Magee, for a number of years a resident of Philadelphia, came up to visit friends and did not miss to illumine the Reporter's sanctum for nigh an hour with his presence. He put his label among the '99ers.

—Gen. John I. Curtin and ex-Gov. James A. Beaver, two of Bellefonte's prominent citizens, were here last Friday to attend the funeral of Dr. Jacobs. During the civil war Gen. Curtin commanded the 45th regiment, and Gov. Beaver the 148th, both formed from Centre county.

—Frank P. Duck, east of Penn Cave, one of the Reporter's good patrons, was in town last Thursday. One of Mr. Duck's big porkers had wandered off from home and had been housed in the boro pound for over a week. He came up to redeem the animal.

—Mr. John C. Rible, of near Centre Hill, was in town last week and included this office in the course of his rounds. Mr. Rible informs us he carried no insurance on the barn burned for him last Tuesday and his loss is entire. The tenant, Michael Confer, also suffered a heavy loss with no insurance.

—Mr. Hiram Grove, of Morganza, Pa., was a pleasant caller on Monday, while in town seeing his old friends. He is on a short visit to his father Mr. John Grove, near Spring Mills. For about five years, Mr. Grove has been one of the instructors in the state Reformatory at Morganza, a position he is creditably filling.

—Alf. P. Wieland with his wife and little son, of Syracuse, N. Y., were in town yesterday making short calls on his many friends. They are visiting at the home of his mother near Linden Hall, enjoying his annual vacation in his native valley. Alf. is employed by the H. J. Heinz Co., the largest pickling house in the world, having a responsible and trustworthy position.

—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wilson entertained John Sheffer and Albert Shaw, two young men who were touring through this part of the state by wheel. They stopped here to visit a brother of the former, C. T. Sheffer, an employe in the Wilson creamery. The young men are paper carriers in Williamsport, and made a run by wheel to Altoona, thence here. They left again on Saturday morning.

BRUSH VALLEY BUDGET.

A Bright Letter from that Hospitable Community.

Next the Granger's jubilee! Rev. A. K. Binkley and wife, of New Berlin, are visiting at Rebersburg.

Mrs. O. L. Nichols and family who spent the summer near Rebersburg, returned Monday to Williamsport.

We understand our former well known and esteemed citizen, "Squeer" Magee, has been prowling about Centre Hall. Coom rooner Rube.

Dr. Bright is becoming famous as a kidney curist. Demands for his own remedy are made by the wholesale from even remote parts of the state.

Those farmers who seed in middle of September, it is predicted by an old (Kalender Bauer) sign former will have wheat next year—the others very little.

Mrs. Chestie Stover has returned from Boalsburg, where she was lovingly presiding as grandma in the Moyer domestic circle. Chestie is an amiable grandma.

The apple speculators of Coburn and Millheim will not come over to Brush valley this fall and pick up apples at 25 cents a bushel. Good reason—none to spare.

Carriage constructor Cole has put up a first-class portico all around his residence in Rebersburg. He has spent about $1000 in improvements since he bought the Dan Conser home.

Merchant Miller is congratulating himself upon the completeness of his new home, erected by architect R. D. Bierly, upon the site of the former home of Major Reynolds, which was an ancient land-mark in Rebersburg.

The educational destinies of Rebersburg will be guided the coming session by the Morrises—Pere et Filis—but in the reverse order as to authority. They stand high for competence and experience.

Nearly half of Brush valley was over at Green Burr to the Evangelical campmeeting on Sunday. They bring all good people, speak highly of the profundity displayed in the sermon of Bishop Esher, of Chicago.

Did you notice there is blood on the face of the moon? And the sun is disporting himself in a fiery bath every day. That celestial pair are having a nigger camp meeting time of it just now, in the august heavens. "All on account of McKinley."

Calvin O. Mallory the Bryanesque manufacturer of the sterling silver brand of golden butter, recently mailed to his brother William J., at Globe City, Arizona, a large picture of Brush valley in the vicinity of Rebersburg. "Bill," who is a silver mine owner has not visited his old home since he went west about thirty years ago.

Those brave Quayites who love schools, don't relish the fact that Quay's diamond (Stone) cut the school boodle and raised the term so that the rich Quay farmers have to raise the school taxes, on 55 cent wheat, 20 cent oats and 30 cent corn. They are not peeping now about "dollar wheat," under McKinley.

The Democrats of the east end are loyal to the core and they want the Reporter to serve notice on the west end and middle, and all the other corners of the county, that there must be no cutting and trading this year. It is not enough to put a good man from the east end on the ticket; he and every one on it must be squarely elected this year.

The busy hum of the thrasher is heard, but wheat and oats are disappointing in yield. Instead of twenty bushels to the acre, about fifteen is the average. The price will be kept down by Mr. McKinley's golden wheat trust until the farmers in the west have been forced by the mortgage sharks to let go. Then wheat may go up a spurt.

When a Brush valley farmer owns a farm worth $10,000 in silver and greenback times—but worth about $5,000 now, lends out about $2,000 which he saved out of prices in silver and greenback times, pray where do his interests out-weigh—at the $10,000 farm end or the $2,000 money lending end? One might suppose that in their new golden arithmetic $2,000 was dearer to them than the $10,000 value, now rendered non-productive by the gold standard.

The festival held on Friday evening and Saturday afternoon and evening by the trustees of the M. E. church, was a grand success; they took in over one hundred dollars. Thanks are extended to the people of the vicinity for their patronage.

Miss Nora Fleisher and sister Orpha visited at the home of James Wagner, at Coburn, this week.

T. S. Swartz will leave in a few days for Millheim, at which place he has secured a position in the exchange of the Bell Telephone Co.

The ball game played at this place Saturday between Potters Mills and Colyer was quite an interesting one, the score being 12 to 5 in favor of Colyer. We hope our boys may be able to hold their former good record.

Haines Township.

Had a good rain down this way Monday evening.

On some farms the corn crop will be good, on others poor. The white grub worm is doing some harm to the corn. An eel fishing party consisting of William Stover, Michael Hess, Ralph Stover, and two others, were at Ingleby Thursday and Friday, with fair luck on 65 lines.

The Best Remedy for Flux.

Mr. John Mathias, a well known stock dealer of Pulaski, Ky., says: "After suffering for over a week with flux, and my physician having failed to relieve me, I was advised to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and have the pleasure of stating that the half of one bottle cured me." For sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; H. F. Rossman, Spring Mills.

G. A. R. Encampment, Philad.

Tickets will be sold on September 2, 3, 4, and 5, good to return until September 12, inclusive; but by depositing ticket with joint agent at Philadelphia on September 5, 6, 7, 8, or 9, and the payment of 50 cents, return limit may be extended to September 30, inclusive.

Tickets for side trips to Washington, Old Point Comfort, Gettysburg, Antietam, and Virginia battlefields will also be sold at greatly reduced rates.

About one month ago my child, which is fifteen months old, had an attack of diarrhoea accompanied by vomiting. I gave it such remedies as are usually given in such cases, but as nothing gave relief, we sent for a physician and it was under his care for a week. At this time the child had been sick for about ten days and was having about twenty-five operations of the bowels every twelve hours, and we were convinced that unless it soon obtained relief it would not live. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was recommended and I decided to try it. I soon noticed a change for the better; by its continued use a complete cure was brought about and it is now perfectly healthy.—C. L. Boggs, Stumptown, Gilmer Co., W. Va. For sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; H. F. Rossman, Spring Mills.
