DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET.

- SHERIFF, CYRUS BRUNGART, Millheim
TREASURER, WM. T. SPEER, Bellefonte.
REGISTER, A. G. ARCHY, Ferguson Twp.
RECORDER, J. C. HARPER, Bellefonte.
COMMISSIONER, DANIEL HECKMAN, Renner Twp.
PHILIP H. MEYER, Harris Twp.
AUDITOR, JOHN H. BECK, Walker Twp.
W. H. TIBBENS, College Twp.
CORONER, Dr. W. U. IRWIN, Huston Twp.

The state issue, this fall, is plainly Quaysim and dishonesty, or Creasy and purity.

Voting Quay's ticket in November, means to keep in power the fellows who plundered the state treasury to the tune of millions.

When Farmer Creasy delivers his address at the Grange picnic, soon to be held at this place, great crowds will want to hear the utterances from the lips of an honest man.

The characters of the nominees on the Democratic county ticket are unblemished and unassailable. A fine tooth comb has been used by them to find a fault, but they have made a haul of nix kum raus.

What's the matter with the Republicans that they want to dodge discussing state issues—their own housekeeping? But Creasy and the Democratic journals and speakers will make them face their work of boodle plunder.

We have information from many districts in the county, and all points to the popularity and triumphant election of our nominee for sheriff, Cyrus Brungart. The name of Brungart has ever been an honored one in Centre county.

The Johannesburg, South Africa, Standard and Diggers' News describes the Boer women as very warlike. They are forming rifle clubs in many districts and petitioning the Transvaal Government against granting the franchise to the Outlanders on the basis of a five-year residence.

A strong movement has been set afoot in New York to fight the trusts, composed of commercial travelers and hotelkeepers. Over a hundred thousand drummers have been thrown out of employment by the trusts, with a general reduction of salaries and wages. The hotelkeepers as a consequence have lost patrons as the drummers have lost employment.

We recently came across one of the prominent business men of central Pennsylvania, a life-long Republican, who informed us of his intention not to vote his party ticket this year because such a vote would be an endorsement of Quaysim. He considers it his duty to vote for Creasy. And there are thousands of the same sort.

Wm. T. Speer, our nominee for Co. Treasurer, is a gentleman respected and held in highest esteem by all who know him. His whole life has been one of honest industry; he is a Christian gentleman, and of the most kindly disposition. Any one can vote for Wm. T. Speer with the consciousness of having supported an honest, worthy and deserving citizen.

Candidate Creasy, the champion of Reform in the legislature, is now busy telling the people from the stump how the machine has plundered them, and how Quay has put up a state ticket composed of men who will continue the thieving methods if elected. Mr. Creasy served in the legislature as an honest man; he saw the astounding corruption, and fought it bravely, but the machine was in the majority.

If John Bull and German Transvaal Boers get into a brush, it will be beef against beef. However, the good queen Vic may not want to smash the Transvaal's jug, Kruger, nor run the risk of having her soldier boys, a la Alger style, dine on poisoned canned beef, and tone down her demands, to avoid a brush between beef and beef.

Judge Greer, at the opening of the Butler county court, had 40 supervisors present upon his request, and laid down the law upon the subject of good roads, in plain language, with the intent that there shall be good roads in Butler county as completely as the law prescribes.

Public opinion would sustain his honor, Judge Love, if he would have the township supervisors appear before him at a term of court, to be instructed as to the requirements of the law pertaining to good roads, and demand of them a throwing aside of the old-fogy system of roadmaking for the method of modern experience that has given such excellent roads to some localities. There are some abominable roads in Centre county, all know why, oft utter incompetents are chosen as supervisors, again a crank who sticks to the old way. Let us have better roads.

When candidate Creasy talks to the farmers and taxpayers in general, at the grange picnic here, they will learn astounding truths about machine corruption, from one who was on the spot and saw and heard and noted the corrupt doings and fought each one inch by inch, but was outvoted. Mr. Creasy has a legislative record without a blemish. He heroically stood up for the interests of the taxpayers and these cannot consistently refuse to vote for Mr. Creasy as the watch-dog in the Treasury department.

With a short crop of wheat in our own country, a short crop in Russia and some other wheat producing countries, it begins to be a mystery to farmers why the price is kept down to 60 and 65 cents instead of $1, or even up to twice 60 cents. Well, farmers, the great milling Trust is doing it, to buy up all the wheat at a low price for the farmer, and then, as soon as the octopus has control of it, up goes the price! The Trust rakes in millions and the farmer loses so much rightfully belonging to him, and what is left him is the rakings for his bread.

The trusts are fast getting in their work, and putting up prices. Beef up 2 and 3 cents a pound. Glassware up. Leather up. Shoes up. Iron up. Matches up. Nails up. Woolen goods up. Coal oil up. Brooms up. Tin up. Coal up.

The only thing not up, is the farmers' grain, and they were promised higher prices. There will soon be at the disposal of the War Department, says the Record, a military force of about 90,000 men, and this large and powerful army may be retained in the service of the Government until July 1, 1901, without change or diminution.

The people will cheerfully pay the enormous cost of this extraordinary accession to our military strength, in the confident belief that when the necessity for such a vast army shall no longer exist the superfluous soldiers will be quickly returned to pursuits of peace.

Farmer Creasy's Pledge. I pledge myself to uncompromising hostility to all corrupt practices and illegal methods that have been the rule of the Machine Treasurers in the past. If elected, I will regard myself as holding a commission from the people and administer the office for their sole use and benefit.—Farmer Creasy at Williams Grove.

The Reason for Meat Extortion. With a candor so extraordinary that it might justly be characterized as insolent, a representative of a meat packing firm has explained to the World the disastrous advance in the price of meat. There is no scarcity of cattle, he says, and hogs are selling at the Chicago stock yards at lower prices than they brought a year ago. But the American Meat Trust desires to control the British market and drive out Australian competition. To that end it is selling enormous quantities of meat in England at a loss, and it has decided to make the American people pay the loss. By shipping large quantities of meat to England it creates an appearance of scarcity here, and with that for excuse it has raised prices here from twenty to fifty per cent., so that its dividends may not be impaired by its losses abroad.

As for the retailers, this packer's representative coolly says, they must protect themselves by advancing retail prices. As for the hungry people, the Trust is not concerned about them. The name of United States Attorney General is John W. Griggs, and he is that sort of Attorney General who thinks it would be "super-officious" for him to try to enforce the law of the land against Trusts.—World.

Rolling Mill Takes a New Start. Captain H. S. Taylor and A. B. Taylor have leased from the Empire Steel & Iron Company the rolling mill in connection with the old Valentine furnace plant at Bellefonte. Work was begun on Tuesday making the necessary repairs for an immediate resumption. The mill has been idle over seven years. It will give employment to 60 men. Captain Taylor is one of Bellefonte's rising young men of enterprise and push.

LATE NEWS NOTES.

Democratic candidate Creasy will speak at the grange exhibition, Centre Hall, Sept. 20.

August 1, it is reported, there would be another rise in coal—the third for this summer.

All Philadelphia and all York had their best Sunday-go-to-meetin's on all this week.

Admiral Dewey will not go to sea again; says if not called out by another war he will retire.

Dewey, on his homeward trip reached Gibraltar Monday morning, and will leave for New York on 11th.

A Russian Prince, Cantacuzene, has arrived at New York, and is to marry Julia, a grand-daughter of General Grant.

It is confidently said that candidate Creasy will get 2000 Republican votes in York county. From other counties come similar reports.

The plague is spreading and there are gloomy reports from Bombay, and in addition to the plague starvation is starting them in the face.

England and the Transvaalers are to have another confab which is likely to result in a settlement of their dispute without resorting to war.

Heat killed three veterans who marched in Philadelphia's big parade, and 350 persons of the sight seeing crowds were prostrated by the heat.

Philadelphia and York had big decorations and celebrations this week. The first in honor of the meeting of the G. A. R., and the arrival of Sampson's fleet. York celebrated its Sesqui-centennial, in great style with a program covering four days.

Wm. Mercer, of Raccoon Creek, W. Va., has married five sisters. Not all at once, of course; but when one wife died Mr. Mercer married her sister. In a word, Mr. Mercer fell in love with the clan Moffatt, and the Moffatts agreed they must keep Mr. Mercer in the family.

Two fellows up in Luzerne, loved the same girl, and she loved the two; being unable to decide between them she proposed they fight it out, and on Monday, accordingly the prize fight was had and the girl was the star looker-on with some other friends of the fighters. They were both severely bruised from the pummeling and the one becoming the loser, the girl took the arm of the victor, and saying "Good boy, Mike," walked off with him.

Four Thousand Smiths Celebrate. Four thousand of the Smith family held a reunion at Peapack, N. J., a few days ago. All of them trace their ancestry to a certain John Smith, who came to that part of the country as a boy 169 years ago. Whether he was a relative of John Smith of the Pocahontas love affair is not known, but it is generally asserted by the Smiths who were around at the reunion that they have some of his blood in their veins. They were a jolly lot of people, these celebrating Smiths.

It is not likely that the Smiths will ever become extinct; they are so numerous everywhere. Centre county has a goodly share of them. In fact the name of Smith outnumber any score of other family names, and they are so wonderfully on the spread that, by our calculation, in 500 years all other names will be absorbed, and all men will be by the name of Smith, and then will be the beginning of the Millennium.

The Reporter is strongly of the opinion that the first man's name was Smith and at the baptism he was named Adam—Adam Smith.

Farm Notes. Farmers are busy seeding and the soil is in good condition for it. All the peach orchards in this county are minus a crop this fall.

The harm done to the corn crop in Brushvalley, by the white grub worm, is serious. One farmer informs us that from 25 acres he does not expect to get over one wagon load of corn. The apple crop throughout that valley will be light.

An observing Miles township farmer is of the opinion that the white grub worm which has ruined the corn crop down there will end its ravages with this season and not appear again hereafter.
