Union County Barn Burned.

The barn on the farm occupied by James G. Hoy, in Limestone twp., was struck by lightning, and entirely destroyed by fire on Sunday, Aug. 27, including all of this year's crops, along with the wheat stored from last year's crop. Two horses and several calves perished. Insured in Buffalo Valley Company for $2,500.—Lewisb. Journal.

Whirled on a Shaft.

Newton Overdorf was caught on the line shaft of the sawmill in which he was working in Sugar valley. He was whirled around with lightning-like rapidity until every particle of clothing except his shoes was torn from him. Strange to say, he escaped uninjured.

DIED AT BELLEFONTE.

Mrs. James E. Scott Passes Away on Sunday Morning.

Mrs. Anna M., wife of James E. Scott, died at her home at Bellefonte last Sunday morning, after an illness of nearly a year from an ailment of the stomach, aged 37 years, 3 months, and 25 days. Mrs. Scott bore her illness bravely, although a great sufferer. Services were held at her home at Bellefonte on Monday evening, and on Tuesday morning the remains were taken to Potters Mills, where they were interred in the family plot in the Sprucetown cemetery. Rev. J. M. Rearick, of Centre Hall, officiated in the services at the grave.

Mrs. Scott was a daughter of the late William McCormick, and was born at Potters Mills. She leaves to survive her a husband and a son. Four brothers and two sisters also survive her. They are, Mrs. Phillip Mersinger and Samuel McCormick, both of Joliet, Ill.; Thomas McCormick, Chicago, Ill.; James McCormick, Cleveland, O.; Vance McCormick, Montandon, Pa.; and Mrs. Maggie Dawson, of Missoula, Montana.

The Coming Fair at Brook Park, Lewisburg.

The fifty-sixth Annual Fair of Union County Agricultural Society will be held at Brook Park, Lewisburg, Pa., on September 26, 27, 28 and 29, 1899. It is one of the oldest and most progressive organizations in the country and has stood the test of time for nearly half a century. New officers, good track and large purses. Lately the racing course has been sodded and covered with loam making it the best half mile track in the state. The premium list has been thoroughly revised and increased, making it very attractive to owners of fast horses, live stock raisers, farmers and farmers' organizations, manufacturers and others. It is distinctively agricultural in every method and feature, with competition unrestricted, turf attractions more ample than ever before, several races each day and special attractions between heats, which can be witnessed from grand stand. The indications are that the attendance will be the largest in the history of the fair. Full particulars are given in pamphlets issued by the Society which can be had on application or by addressing C. Dale Wolfe, Cor. Sec'y, Bucknell, Pa. The public is assured that this year's exhibition will be the best ever held. A large and spacious grand stand, with private boxes, will ensure the best accommodations for those desiring to witness the track events.

A Meteorological Portend.

Yesterday morning, Wednesday, a heavy sky darkened the air, about 6 o'clock, making it necessary to use lamps in-doors. The western sky had an inky blackness, portentous of trouble—fortunately all passed over us with faint thunder and a mere sprinkle of rain, and in less than an hour the firmament was bright with sunshine. This may teach us that the darkest hours of life may fit over us harmlessly, to be followed by brightest sunshine and that not all life's clouds carry in their folds shrouds and destruction.

Where Doctors Don't Benefit Undertakers.

Centre Hall, although one of the healthiest little towns beneath the sky, boasts of four physicians, with a possible fifth disciple of Aesculapius now entering his last course of lectures at Baltimore. Millheim, Aaronsburg, and Rebersburg, have one doctor each, while Madisonburg, Woodward, Coburn and Pleasant Gap have no doctors and depend upon pills being supplied by outsiders.

As we have only one undertaking establishment, and it not being kept busy, would indicate that our doctors are doing safe work in rescuing their patients from the grave.

Old Tombs.

One of the oldest graves in the valley can be seen in the graveyard at Aaronsburg, where the German Reformed church once stood, the inscription on the tombstone indicates 102 years, and notes the death of Mrs. Elizabeth Duncan, died Feb. 8, 1797, aged 28 years.

She was the first wife of James Duncan, who died October 14, 1843, aged 85 years. In the same lot lie the bodies of his second and third wives.

Stricken With Paralysis.

We regret to learn from Rev. D. M. Wolf, D. D., that the venerable James Evans, of near Spring Mills, had a serious attack of paralysis, at his home on Friday last. His left side is paralyzed but his mind was unaffected.

Afflicted with Dysentery.

The physicians in town report a prevalence of dysentery in this section and they have a number of cases in attendance. The disease is attributed to the sudden changes of weather, warm days and cold nights. No serious cases are reported.

Recent Union Co. Deaths.

Recent Union county deaths: Near Cowan, Nelson Biddle, aged 61 years. Near Forest Hill, Mrs. Harriet Kline aged 63 years. In Lewisburg, Irene, daughter of Harvey Bartholmev, in her 6th year. At Baxter Springs, Ka., Dr. Charles H. Shreiner, aged 41 years.

THE SOLDIER'S REUNION.

Preparations for the Annual Meeting on the 16th, at Centre Hall.

The Centre County Veteran Club holds its annual picnic this year at Centre Hall, in Grange Park. Saturday of next week, 16th, is the date for the occasion, and the town on that day will be handed over to the old veterans who went to the front at the country's call when its very foundations were trembling.

Centre Hall is an ideal place for holding the annual reunion, being centrally located and easy of access by train and private vehicle, and with fair weather, there promises to be a tremendous crowd in attendance.

Special trains in addition to the regular will be run, leaving Bellefonte at 10.10 in the morning, and returning leave Centre Hall at 7.00 in the evening for Bellefonte. A special will also be run to Coburn, leaving Centre Hall at 5.30 p. m. The train accommodations are very good.

The committee is completing their program for the day, and there will be entertainment for all. Prominent speakers will be present to deliver addresses in the auditorium.

BARN BURNED.

H. C. Campbell's Barn, With Crops, at Fairbrook, Burned.

The barn of ex-commissioner H. C. Campbell, at Fairbrook, in Ferguson twp., was destroyed by fire on last Friday afternoon about 3:30.

Mr. Campbell's hired man, James Glasgow, occupies the premises. Some of the family was fumigating the hen house by burning tar and it is supposed the fire was caused thereby.

The barn was 45x90, a bank-barn, and was burned to the ground with all this year's crops. No implements or stock were burned. The crops all belonged to the landlord.

There was $900 insurance on the barn and $500 on the crops, in the Centre Hall Company.

Former Aaronsburg Boy Weds.

Thursday evening of last week the fine residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Jenkins, at Milton, was the scene of a large and brilliant wedding, the marriage of their daughter Mary Blanche to Mr. Lewis Kurtz Ettinger. The father of the bride for many years has been a leading business man of that town and is one of the proprietors of the Milton Nail Works. The groom for many years has been the trusted foreman of Sheimer's large brass foundry and machine shops, and is a son of Wm. Ettinger, dec'd., formerly of Aaronsburg. About 150 invited guests were present, Washington, Harrisburg, Bellefonte, and other towns, being represented. The ceremony was performed by the Baptist minister of the place. The presents were many and fine, in silver, China and cut-glass ware, etc., valued at $1000. The happy couple received showers of congratulations, and departed on the 8 p. m. train for a ten day's trip to Philadelphia and other cities.

Snyder County's Veteran Hero.

The little Snyder county town of Chapman will have the distinction of sending to the Grand Army encampment at Philadelphia, the man who raised the first American flag over the City of Mexico, nearly fifty-two years ago. Eighty-seven years old, but just as vigorous physically and mentally as a man of twenty, lives there, General E. C. Williams, and the banner which he hauled aloft in Mexico, was the same that Betsy Rose made with her own hands and gave to Washington. He was a member of the Second Pa Regiment in the Mexican War.

Phillipsburg's Tenth Boys.

William Hirlinger, Robinson George and Frank Devinney, members of the Tenth Regiment, all of Phillipsburg, arrived home on Wednesday of last week and were received most heartily, the fire companies, military and semi-military organizations and societies, with music, being drawn up in line at the station. Thousands of people were present to witness the demonstration. Following the parade a formal reception was held in the public building, where numerous addresses were made.

Schools Opened.

Young America quit the streets on Monday morning, after a four months' vacation, and hid himself to school. He was early and did not wait on the ringing of the bell, for he believes in the aphorism of the early bird getting the rear seat—instead of the worm as in practice lines in copy books. The number in attendance was large, with quite a number yet to come in. 102 pupils were enrolled Monday morning, and under the compulsory school law there are 145 within the legal limit who should attend if the parents are so inclined.

A New Proprietor.

The University Inn at State College, which was run by Peter S. Burrel for the past two years, will in the future be looked after by P. D. Foster, the new proprietor, who took charge on Wednesday of last week.
