United States Pension Roll.
On June 30, 1898, the pension rolls of the United States contained 993,714 names. Forty-three thousand were dropped during the fiscal year—34,245 because of death and 8,841 because of remarriage. On the other hand, 40,991 new claims were allowed, so that the number of pensions stood on June 30 last at 991,519. The decrease in expenditure during the year was much more marked, the total falling from $144,651,000 in 1897-98 to $123,253,000 in 1898-99. This last is the smallest sum disbursed since the new conditions created by the dependent act have had to be faced, and reasonable assurance of a further natural shrinkage in the annual expenditures is to be found in the fact that $3,000,000 less were paid out last year than three years ago, when the list of pensioners was fully 21,000 shorter than it is today. How slight an addition to pension burdens the war with Spain will make may be guessed from the statement that, although 16,386 claims have been filed for disabilities incurred in that brief contest, only 295 have so far been passed on favorably. Altogether, the outlook for a diminished pension account has greatly improved.

A CHINAMAN'S OATH.

The Celestial Was Particular and Caused the Court Lots of Trouble.

The various forms of oath-making, even in this country, are of considerable interest. It would not, however, be easy to find an instance in which anything like so queer a medium of attestation was employed as a guil-lotined black cockatoo. But no less an extraordinary medium than that was what the police of a country district in New South Wales had to provide the other day for a finical Chinaman, who declined to swear on anything else.
Headless fowls were brought, but in vain, and as the master was important, even a black swan, a luxury surely for a Chinese witness, was suggested, only to be immediately refused.
After some time had elapsed, and when the representatives of the law seemed quite at their wits' end, a dead cockatoo of the required hue was strangely discovered in a hut of one of the other celestials, who mulcted the anxious officials in $2.50 for the bird.
Then the solemn and peculiar oath was duly administered, on which the difficult witness was brought, but in vain, and as the master was im-
