The public have lost sight of the Philipsburg statesman, Humelsdorf, Womelsdorf, or be it Oberdorf, and miss him, in these piping times of machine strife.

The Quayites, afraid to make their own doings the issue, will try to pull the wool over the eyes of the voters by playing the soldier racket. Sell is ausgespielt.

Thomas B. Reed in a farewell letter to the voters of his former district makes a sly attack on McKinley's Philippine policy. He says : "Whatever may happen, I am sure that the first Maine district will always be true to the principles of liberty, self-government and the rights of man."

The issue in this State, to be decided next month, is a square one, dishonesty, jobbery, plunder and higher taxes, on one side : or, economy and honest government on the other. The former is Quavism ; the latter is Creasey, true and tried, weighed and not found wanting.

In the prime and freshness of young manhood, he is unanimously presented to the people by a great party for one of the highest and most honorable offices in the state.

"To the thousands of young men in state and nation who are struggling, as he struggled for fame, often almost in despair, his career and achievements will stand at once as a bright and inspiring example and incentive to devoted and courageous effort and continued industry. The keynote of his success is probably contained in the following extract from his speech before the convention which nominated him on assuming his duties as presiding officer, but which was uttered at a time when he could have had no thought whatever of such an event. ont of the This is a go He said people, by the people, for the people,' All men are equal here. His party in the legislature gave him the unanimous nomination as their choice for speaker in recognition of his ability and fidelity to the principles of reform in state affairs, which he and his colleagues on the minority side were bravely battling for.

In the memorable session of 1895 Mr. Creasy first came into prominence in his fight against the "Marshall pipe line bill," and in the same session was the advocate of the farmers when the "Riter equalization tax bill" was before the house. He took an active stand against the banking bill, superior court bill and the public grounds bill, all of which were to increase officials and take from the treasury many thousands of dollars.

In the session of 1897 his honest and sincere work in the house won for him the admiration of many of his Republican colleagues, and no better compliment could be paid him than that uttered by a most prominent Republican politician, who in speaking of the work of that session said: "While in the last legislature (1897) some of the Democratic senators and a number of the Democratic members of the lower house, led by the incor-ruptible Creasy, of Columbia county, were always found on the side of the people.'

Which will you choose?

Colonel Barnett, Quay's nominee for state treasurer against farmer Creasy, says he will be under the orders of his political managers. These managers within a year or two have ordered delay in the payment of school funds and appropriations to the State's benevolent institutions that there might be more money in the treasury for speculation and to shake the plum tree. Is that Colonel Barnett's platform?

This may be a great administration. but one thing is certain, it can get down to smaller and meaner acts than any administration has ever thought of, one of which is in keeping Commodore Schley away from the Dewey celebration and sending Sampson there. But neither this nor any other administration can wipe out the fact that it was Schley, not Sampson, who destroyed the Spanish fleet off Santiago.

Gov. Sadler, of Nevada, who has just had the Gubernatorial fight decided in his favor by the State Supreme court, is credited with saying he owes his majority to the fact that he signed the bill legalizing prize fights in his State.

In our own state the Quay machine has been holding power by jobbery and corruption, and while some selfrighteous ones will view Nevada with holy horror, they will go to the polls and vote for the more iniquitous Quayites in this State.

"Remember the Maine," that will do for all times and climes.

Next, remember, from now until November, 7th, the doings of the machine, its

Cutting down the school fund, one million dollars;

Its useless and horrible bird book, $60,000;

Its padded pay rolls, $25,000.

Its new and useless offices and increase of salaries, $300,000.

Its allowing Quay and son Dick to use hundreds of thousands of public funds for private speculation in stocks while hundreds of school teachers had to wait long periods for their pay ;

Its plundering the State in the fitting up of Grace Church;

Its charging the State $25,000 for a drunken junket to New York ;

Its spending a half million on a fraud of a new capitol, which will be remodeled to furnish the machine a ten million job !

STEPHEN L. MESTREZAT. votes will enable the Democratic candidates to overthrow the Republican machine in November, and thus brighten the prospects for an honest majority in the state legislature to be elected next year.

This presentation of Democratic claims upon the honest judgment of a people not to be deluded by the throwing of irrelevant national issue dust into their eyes, will include testimony from the Republican press as to the excellence of the Democratic state convention's work. There can be no mistaking the purpose of the anti-Quay Republican newspapers to go as ests. far as they can for the election of Iteilly and Creasy. There is of course, no doubt of the election of the candidates of the two great parties for supreme justice, under constitutional provision. NEED NOT FEAR PHILADELPHIA.

With this basis of reasonable hope for routing the machine cohorts in "the country" we have unprecedented antagonism to Quayism in Philadelphia, while in Allegheny resides the chief of the insurgents, Senator Flinn, whose profession of support for the ticket the Quay managers regard as a joke, and another anti-Quay senator, Mr. Magee. Nearly all the principal Philadelphia Republican daily newspapers commend the Democratic candidates, and most vigorously condemn the Quay machine in expressions of hope for its annihilation.

The utmost confidence in the present honored management of the Democratic party has been voiced by the anti-Quay Republican press, particularly in Philadelphia. It was the well founded hope of "the country" for Philadelphia that made Pittston invincible in 1882 and in 1830. Philadelphia Democrats today are united and harmonious in consequence of the wise local leadership as applied to the present county ticket. The Democrats there are as one man, and the Quay machine is opposed within the Republican party by a power greater than ever before confronted it. Why, then, should the Ronest "country" fear this year for Philadelphia?

Let the rest of the story speak for itself. Sectional Contractory and

SKETCH OF CHARLES J. REILLY.

The following narrative of the interesting and honorable career of a conspicuously self made man, Charles J. Reilly, candidate for judge of the superior court, is from the forthcoming publication of the proceedings of the Democratic state convention, compiled by J. W. Moyer, secretary of the state committee: "One of the chief glories of our institutions has ever been the fact that, no matter how high or humble a beginning one may have had, they afford all persons an equal opportunity to rise in the scale of excellence from the lowest to the highest position of influence and power in the gift of the people. MR. CREASY'S RECORD.

The Hon. William Trenton Creasy, Democratic nominee for state treasur-er, was born Feb. 23, 1856, on the farm on which he now resides in Catawissa township, Columbia county. He is the son of Nathan Creasy, who was one of the county's most worthy and * respected citizens. The candidate's ancestors were of the earlier settlers of Pennsylvania and New Jersey, many of them taking an active part in the war of the revolution, and afterwards were always active in the development of their country's inter-

William T. Creasy was educated in the common schools of his neighborhood and the Catawissa academy, and graduated from the Bloomsburg State Normal school in 1875. He also received, under a private tutor, a German education in connection with his other studies.

At the age of 16 he commenced teaching school, and continued in that profession for a number of years. He began farming for himself in the spring of 1875, which occupation he has followed ever since, devoting much of his attention to stock raising and fruit growing.

Mr. Creasy was the originator of the "White Plymouth Rocks," and first exhibited them at the great poultry show held at Madison Square Garden. New York city, in 1886, and besides getting the first prize, received many encomiums from the leading poultry men of the United States and Canada. His orchards, vineyards and various small fruit sections of his well kept farm forcibly reveal the careful attention given to this work, while his well filled barns and granaries show that 'He plows deep while sluggards sleep.' Mr. Creasy has a distinctively agricultural ancestry, who, after fighting in the revolutionary war, settled in central Pennsylvania, near a spot which is now known as "Creasy Staon the Pennsylvania railroad, tion." bordering the Susquehanna river, near Bloomsburg
