Mrs. John Orblson, from Sidney, Ohio, arrived here last Saturday, on a visit to friends and relatives in Centre Hall and vicinity. She will remain several weeks.

Rev. J. M. Rearick attended the Lutheran Synod at Belleville, Mifflin county, over Sunday. He was accom-panied by Walter M. Kerlin, the dele-gate from this church.

James N. Leitzell, of Spring Mills, was the loudest mouthed man on Monday we have had in town for many a day. He was the auctioneer at the horse sale and made himself heard.

Rev. C. C. Christine went to Milroy on Tuesday to attend the ses-sions of Huntingdon Presbytery which meets there this week. Elders George Goodhart and Joshua T. Potter are also in attendance.

Jacob Neese, retired farmer, was a caller, and informs us articles at his sale brought better prices than ex-pected. He is one of the good old stock of honest men who would't cheat a man for any thing that's in it.

Miss Mabel Boal, one of the Bell telephone operators, left this morning on a two weeks' vacation. She will visit friends in Milton, Harrisburg and Millersburg. Miss Elsie Geiss will take her place during her absence.

James Sweetwood, one of our honest, toiling farmers, gave us a call. He says it takes all farmers make to meet their taxes, and that the people are stabbing their own interests who are voting with the party that created the Trusts. He is right.

A. G. Archey, the Ferguson township candidate for Register, was in town on Friday while out on a tour looking up the voters. Alex will go in with a good round majority. He's a Democrat who always worked for his party's interest and was to the front at all times.

Zach. Porter, of Johnstown, Pa., who had been here on a visit to relatives and friends for two weeks past, left on Tuesday morning for Buffalo, N. Y. He was accompanied by Mrs. Mary Odenkirk and her daughter Mrs. W. F. Bradford, who will remain in Buffalo for several weeks.

H. Irvin Wise and family, with his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Wise, de-parted on Tuesday afternoon for Ber-wick, Pa., where they will make their home. Irv. has secured a position in the car shops there. He was a most excellent citizen and all were sorry that he should locate elsewhere. His handsome home down street will be occupied by Dr. G. L. Lee.

Miss May Rhone, who served four years as clerk in the Agricultural Department at Harrisburg, and among those compelled to walk the plank when Quay resumed control of the state, has secured a position as ste-nographer in a large publishing house in New York City. The position is a good one with a large salary.

Mrs. Lucy Henney departed on Tuesday morning for Philadelphia, to purchase a new line of the latest style and most fashionable millinery for her popular establishment. She was ac-companied by her son Wilbur Henney and Mrs. W. A. Sandoe. They will re-main about ten days in the city taking in the sights at the exposition.

Miss Ray Irwin, who had been visiting at Johnstown, Pa., for some time past, has again returned to the home of her sister, Mrs. S. H. Eisen-berg, at the Reformed parsonage. Miss Irwin was in charge of the Reformed church Mission in Japan, and was in her native country on a year's vaca-tion, but she has decided not to return again. During her long service in that country she gathered a unique and interesting collection of Japanese curios, which she has had forwarded to her.

Rev. A. W. Orwig and his moth-er, Mrs. W. W. Orwig, of Cleveland, Ohio, have been in this community for several weeks visiting among their relatives, and on Sunday were guests at the home of W. O. Rearick. Mrs. Orwig is a sister of Mr. Wm. Rishel, at Tusseyville. The family years ago resided at Aaronsburg and later at New Berlin, where they published an Evangelical church paper. Later they emigrated to Harrisburg and then to Cleveland, where they continued the publication of the religious paper. Rev. Orwig occupied the pulpit for Rev. Rhoads on Sunday evening and delivered an excellent sermon to a large audience.

SPRING MILLS.

Items of Interest as Gathered by Our Cor-respondent.

Quite a large number of our people attended the fair at Lewisburg last week.

Here the first snow of the season oc-curred on Saturday last; of course straw hats are now at a large discount.

The Spring Mills Planing Mill Com-pany is doing a large business, and are operating the plant to its utmost ca-pacity.

Frank Kennelley who moved from here to near Penn Cave last year to take charge of a peach orchard, has re-turned and is again one of our citizens.

The extensive and costly library be-longing to M. B. Hering, containing many rare and valuable books, has been purchased by Andrew Shook, of our village.

All our merchants report business during September, as having been very fair. Commercial agents passing through our village report trade on the road not very lively.

Edwin Ruhl's new restaurant is a complete success. Commercial agents and travelers passing through here, have discovered it to be a capital place to obtain a hasty lunch. Head quar-ters for Pungateague and little rock oysters.

J. H. Runkle our reliable meat mer-chant, has had his delivery wagon very neatly lettered. His son Bruce, a very agreeable and intelligent young man drives it daily through the vil-lage and vicinity supplying customers with home dressed meat at low prices. Mr. Runkle gives the meat market building and refrigerators his personal attention, and is always on duty there except when engaged at the slaughter house. Evidently he has few idle mo-ments.

G. H. Long the energetic merchant of our village, has his new building on the Avenue under roof. When finish-ed it will be a decided improvement to the neighborhood. John F. Hagan, of Farmers Mills, the well known builder and carpenter has charge of the construction, which is equivalent to saying that nothing will be left un-finished. During the summer Mr. Hagan erected several very substantial and attractive dwellings and modern-ized several others, introducing all the modern improvements possible in a country residence. Many of the con-veniences are entirely original with Mr. Hagan, proving him to be a builder and architect of the highest ability.

MILLSHEIM.

Personal Mention and Other Items of In-terest.

McKINLEY'S MISTAKES.

It is contended by Republican poli-ticians that McKinley has made some grave errors of late:

1. Gross inconsistency in his treat-ment of the Sulu group and the Philip-pine islands. The leaders see that while it may be a good thing from a military standpoint to have treated with the sultan without bloodshed, yet the President has produced the im-pression that a Republican adminis-tration favors polygamy, slavery and bribery of the sultan for an annual fee of $4,600. The heathen Sulus, it is pointed out, are enjoying a measure of liberty, while the Christian Filipinos are only asking what has been granted to a Mohammedan despot.

2. The people of the United States, it is alleged, will not sustain the Pres-ident's act in inciting Mohammedan savages to attack the Christian insur-gents at Samboango and elsewhere.

3. It was a mistake not to have de-manded unconditional possession of the Sulu islands. Had it been refused, the American army should have sub-jugated the Sulus precisely as is being done in the case of the Filipinos. In other words, the treatment of the Sulus, when compared with that of the Filipinos, is indefensible.

4. The present relation of the Govern-ment to the Sulus is one of rank unadulterated imperialism and not ex-pansion, the sultan being merely a prince who is paid an annual fee to allow the United States flag to float over his dominions.

5. The President has permitted Gen-eral Otis to publish a proclamation in Manila, the plain terms of which are that the Philippines are to be governed like all other "provinces" of the Na-tion. The proclamation, it is held, commits the administration to an im-perialistic policy, free and simple. The reference is here particularly to Otis' proclamation of January 4, 1899.

Earliest Frost on Record.

Since Sunday morning there was a frost every day in this county.

The first freezing temperature of the season was reported generally through-out the interior of the Middle Atlantic States Monday morning, and at Wash-ington the earliest killing frost on re-cord occurred, the earliest previous date of first killing frost being October 6, in 1892.

Three Doctors in Consultation.

From Benjamin Franklin.

"When you are sick, what you like best is to be chosen for a medicine in the first place; what experience tells you is best, to be chosen in the second place; what reason (i. e., Theory) says is best to be chosen in the last place. But if you can get Dr. Inclinatum, Dr. Experience and Dr. Reason to hold a consultation together, they will give you the best advice that can be taken."

When you have a bad cold Dr. In-clination would recommend Chamber-lain's Cough Remedy because it is pleasant and safe to take. Dr. Expe-rience would recommend it because it never fails to effect a speedy and per-manent cure. Dr. Reason would rec-ommend it because it is prepared on scientific principles, and acts on na-ture's plan in relieving the lungs, opening the secretions and restoring the system to a natural and healthy condition. For sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tussey-ville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; H. F. Rossmann, Spring Mills.
