Foster's Weather Forecast.

My last bulletin gave forecasts of the storm wave to cross the continent from October 1 to 5, and the next will reach the Pacific coast about October 6, cross the west of Rockies country by close of 7, great central valleys 8 to 10, eastern states 11.

Warm wave will cross the west of Rockies country October 6, great central valleys 8, eastern states 10. Cool wave will cross the west of Rockies country about October 9, great central valleys 11, eastern states 13.

Temperature and precipitation of the week ending October 16 will average about normal.

October will be a cold month in all of North America east of the Rockies and warm west. Temperature of three fourths of the month will average below normal east of the Rockies and as much above normal on the Pacific slope.

A cold wave will come down the Missouri valley not far from October 3 and the frosts will reach farther south than usual during the first week of the month.

The crest of the high temperature wave due on meridian 90 about 12 will go but little above normal, and this will be followed by another cold wave, reaching meridian 90 about 16.

The highest temperature of the month will reach the meridian 90 about the 24th, and the lowest temperature about the 30th.

Weather of the Pacific coast will be almost exactly the reverse of that which will occur on meridian 90. Between the Rockies and the Atlantic the changes will occur one or two days earlier west of meridian 90, and about as much later east of that line.

Game Laws Must be Enforced.

The Pennsylvania State Sportsmen's association issue the following, calling the attention of every constable to the following facts:

1. The Forestry, Game and Fish laws are made to be as strictly enforced as any other laws.
 2. It is your sworn duty to enforce these laws.
 3. You are not liable for damages if you make a mistake.
 4. You are well paid for every conviction.
 5. You are to make special returns to court on these subjects.
 6. Neglect or refusal on your part to prosecute any violations of the above laws will be punished by heavy fine and imprisonment.
 7. The Pennsylvania State Sportsmen's association proposes to see that constables do their whole duty in this respect and they will proceed against any constable who makes a false return or who refuses to prosecute any offender against the forestry, game or fish laws.
- Therefore post yourself on these laws and enforce them.

Recent Mifflin County Deaths.

Mattawana, John Atkinson, age 90. Milroy, Charles, child of James Bunnell, age near 5 years. Chicago, Wm. Coulter, age 76 yrs. Lewistown, Bertha Limes, age 19. Wayne twp., widow of Christ. Miller, in her 73 year. Altoona, Wm. L. Rhodes, age 65. Lewistown, Nancy J. Rudy, age 75y. Huntingdon, Joseph Strouse, age 50.

Good Haul of Eels.

Some 80 eels were caught in a fish-basket in one night near Coburn, and some of the slippery critters were whoppers. Some fellows are lucky, always.

POSTMASTER IN TROUBLE.

William S. Miller, of Rebersburg, Held in $500 Bail.

William S. Miller, postmaster at Rebersburg, was arrested Monday afternoon by United States Deputy Marshal John Roe, of Altoona, on the charge of opening, reading and examining mail matter passing through his hands, preferred by Harley T. Gregory, United States postoffice inspector. Miller was taken to Altoona on Tuesday. He was arraigned before United States Commissioner McLeod for a hearing. The accused postmaster was represented by ex-Congressman Hicks, of Altoona, while Inspector Gregory looked after the interests of the government.

At the hearing before the United States Commissioner on Tuesday, Inspector Gregory testified that numerous complaints have been received in regard to mail matter having been tampered with at the Rebersburg postoffice. He also testified as to the manner in which he had entrapped Postmaster Miller, by apprehending a letter at Centre Mills, the next postoffice. The letter had been delayed a day after having been posted, and when it came into the hands of the inspector it bore fresh mucilage. Inspector Gregory was handicapped in his work of investigating the case by the defendant learning of his presence in the vicinity of Rebersburg, and so was on his guard. Postmaster George W. Diehl, of Centre Mills, and Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Miller, of 1385 N. Nineteenth street, Philadelphia, also testified. Commissioner McLeod held the defendant in the sum of $500 for his appearance at the March term of United States court at Scranton.

Bellefonte to Have a Match Factory.

Negotiations by which a match factory, in opposition to the match trust, will be established in Bellefonte were concluded on Friday last. The Pennsylvania Match Company, capitalized at $200,000, will erect a factory, 60 by 200 feet, two stories in height. Among the incorporators are Colonel W. Fred Reynolds, Joseph L. Montgomery and S. A. Donachy. Mr. Donachy was superintendent of the Hanover and York match factories. The plant will employ about 100 men and turn out daily 400 gross of boxes containing 200 matches each.

Died in Georges Valley.

Mrs. Rebecca Breon, widow of the late Daniel Breon, who died over a year ago, died at the home of her son George Breon, in Georges valley, last Thursday, after an illness from a dropsical complaint. She was aged 67 years, 1 month and 7 days. Her remains were interred in the Georges valley cemetery on Sunday, Rev. Brown officiating in the services. A large concourse of friends attended the services. She is survived by one son and two daughters.

Twin Fruit.

Mrs. Oscar Rishel, and her 7-year old son, John Newton, accompanied by her younger sister, Miss Wieland, all of near Linden Hall, were pleasant callers to see how things were done in a printing office. Master John had for us a basket of curiosities, consisting of five pairs of northern spy apples, perfect twins, a twin potato like an elongated horseshoe, and a twin ear of corn in the shape of a man, head, trunk and legs. Curiosities like these can't be a bad omen.

Lewisburg's New Water Supply.

Work was started Friday on the new water supply for Lewisburg. It will provide pure mountain water from a point six miles from the mouth of White Deer creek, where a big storage reservoir will be built. The service will deliver 1,700,000 gallons daily against 500,000 gallons supplied by the present standpipe system of river water.

Millinery Opening.

Mrs. Lucy Henney has gone to eastern cities to select a stock of Millinery goods. Her purchases will embody the latest and most fashionable styles of hats and bonnets for the Fall and Winter trade. The new stock will be ready for the grand opening days on Friday and Saturday, October 13 and 14, when she asks the ladies to call and inspect the new styles.

Got Six Birds.

W. O. Rearick and Alf. Krape were after wild ducks on the Red mill dam yesterday morning and in about one hour bagged six birds and wounded another which got away. Quite a number of the birds have been killed over in that section and the game cannot be classed as scarce. Last Sunday a flock of nearly a hundred passed over the town going south.

A Produce Farmer.

J. H. Tebbis, of Howatd, this year took to the Bellefonte market and sold 140 bushels of tomatoes and over 25,000 pickles. These pickles were raised on one-fourth acre of land and the tomatoes on less than one-half acre.

Four Inches of Snow at Corry.

Last Sunday morning the citizens of Corry, Pa., awoke to find four inches of snow on the ground.

Brought Fair Prices.

The public sale of a car load of Kentucky horse and mule colts brought together a rather large crowd from all parts of the county at Runkle's hotel on Monday. The stock was brought from Kentucky and the car arrived here on Friday morning. There were forty-two colts in the car and when it arrived at this station, several of the colts were down and being tramped under the feet of the rest. A mule colt got a hind leg between the car door and floor, and in its struggles broke its leg. It was necessary to kill the animal. The railroad company settled for $35, before the owner would take away the stock. Another mule colt broke a hind leg by getting in between the fence at the stock yards and it was also necessary to kill this one. The prices for the horse and mule colts ranged from $17 to $41, and some of our farmers were lucky in getting promising stock at very low prices.

The Grand Stand.

The grand-stand of a newspaper is its local department, devoted to what is new, useful, and worthy of note locally, and to this grand-stand fairs, public gatherings and church festivals are given "complimentary" space, worth from $3 to $5. The Union county fair this fall, asked, and received, from the Centre county papers, advertising in their local grand-stand, and got it along with the resulting benefit of 1500 to 2000 visitors to the fair from this county. This courtesy was asked from the papers of Snyder, Northumberland, and other counties, and the Union county fair was admitted to the grand stand of all those papers. But, when representatives of those papers presented themselves for admission to the grand-stand to enjoy a brief look at the trotting, they were asked 25c admission! Bah!

The writer cares nothing for horse racing, and rarely seeks the grand-stand, and did not last week, but representatives of other papers did and felt indignant over the snub. We offer our sympathy for the quid pro quo.

Boy Kidnapped.

Carter Haskett, the 10-year-old Virginia boy who recently disappeared from the residence of his uncle, James Singleton, of Greenwood Furnace, Mifflin county, last week, where he had been visiting, returned home Saturday footsore and weary. He says he was kidnapped by a stranger, who promised him a dollar if he would accompany him. The man kept the boy for some time on the mountain, sleeping in an old cabin, and then released him. The boy found his way out of the wilderness and returned to his distracted relatives. The pair had been traced to Pine Grove Mills, and thence to the Laurel Lumber Camp south of Linden Hall.

Their Own Business.

It is as difficult to understand why a dog runs on three feet, instead of four, as it is to comprehend why a woman will wear a skirt out so long behind that she must hold it up all the time, when she might avoid all the annoyance by making it a little shorter. But if the dogs prefer to trot on three feet, holding up the other, and women prefer to go about grasping their skirts with grim determination, it is probably their own business, and poor frail man, who chews tobacco and spits the juice on the sidewalks, ought not to complain.—Oil City Blizzard.

Improvements.

The Lutheran church, of this place, is receiving a new coat of paint. D. F. Luse and Perry Luse paint the outside brickwork, and John T. Lee has charge of the inside woodwork. A new boardwalk has been laid around the edifice.

The residence of Mrs. Wm. Wolf is having improvement in a slate roof by Ed. Foreman and Lyman Smith and a fresh coat of paint by Arney & Stover.

Groom Takes Bride's Name.

A telegram from Coudersport says: Jacob Wagonmaker and Miss Alice Crookston were married at Palmyra Thursday. By consent of the courts the groom, instead of the bride, changed his name and he is now Mr. Crookston. This was effected because the bride was bequeathed a fortune by a relative, who provided that no person not bearing the name of Crookston should inherit the money.

Turned up as a Note.

Over near Hazleton a farmer was induced to allow some fellows who are driving around the country selling "steel ranges," to store one of these wonders in his barn for a few days and to sign a receipt therefore, which later turned up as a note in the hands of an innocent holder.

Understood Them.

The pastor of a congregation, not many miles away from here, was asked to act as peacemaker in his choir, whereupon he remarked: "You will have to excuse me; I never interfere with the war department of my church."

Chestnuts Plenty.

The crop of chestnuts will be a good one from all accounts. The frosts have opened the burrs, and Sunday pilgrimages are now the rule.

THE TOWN CAN GET IT.

An Opportunity for Our Capitalists to Do Some Good Work.

We learn from a reliable source that it is proposed to remove the Central Penn'a College from New Berlin to a more suitable town if fair inducements are offered. New Berlin is a pretty but too much sequestered village for such an institution, away from railroads and other conveniences.

Altoona has made an offer for it and some other towns are anxious to have it. Centre Hall would be a delightful spot, with its healthfulness, beautiful valley scenery, romantic mountain scenery, railroad, telegraph, telephone lines, etc. Our present men of capital with their outspoken spirit of enterprise have their opportunity now to do a good thing for the place and show a noble emulation of those citizens of the town of former years whose works are seen in railroad, mills, waterplants, churches and other substantial improvements of those happy days of harmony and good neighborly feeling when action was more prominent than words. The Reporter will start the ball by an offer of five acres of ground for a site.

Carrie Sankey's Estate.

This case which has been of interest to citizens of Millheim, Mifflinburg and Williamsport, is thus alluded to by a San Francisco paper: Charles Coggins and his wife, Mary, must give their presents back. Judge Belcher rendered a decision canceling deeds to nearly $40,000 worth of property executed by Carrie E. Sankey to her guardians, Mr. and Mrs. Coggins, several years ago.

Carrie Sankey is the young lady who was adopted by Samuel Sankey, of Lycoming county, when she was an infant, which adoption was disputed by the heirs in the courts. The legality of the adoption and of Carrie's right to inherit under Mr. Sankey's will was fully established.

The father of Carrie was Cyrus Sankey, a native of Millheim.

Pay Your Taxes.

Saturday, October 7, is the last day for paying taxes to entitle you to vote at the coming election. If you have paid no tax within two years and fail to do so on or before the above date you will lose your vote. If you voted on age last year you must pay tax this year to entitle you to vote. Don't neglect this important matter, or depend upon the committee to pay your tax, for under the law it is a penal offense, punishable by fine and imprisonment, to pay another man's tax, without his written order. Every voter in the county should pay his own tax and pay it at once.

Accident at the Lewisburg Fair.

Mrs. Aaron Fetter, of Millinburg, while attending the fair on Thursday, met with a very sad accident, having her right leg broken in two places, her nose broken and bruised terribly and it is thought she is hurt internally as she complained of pain across her breast. It appears that she wished to see some friends at the northern end of the grounds and in crossing the race course was run into by a trotting horse meeting with the above results.—Chronicle.

Died at Bellefonte.

W. H. Page, for many years a trusted employe in Sechler & Co's. store, died at his home at Bellefonte last Thursday morning. He had been in frail health for about a year, but was always on duty. On Thursday night he was taken ill, and while his wife was after a physician he expired. He was aged about 58 years, and leaves a widow to survive him.

Narrow Escape from Snake Bite.

A few days ago Mrs. Fred Kirchoff, of Romola, this county, while in the garden cutting off cabbage, felt something strike against her ankle. Looking down she discovered a copperhead snake trying to bite her. Her stocking was thick and the fangs of the snake did not penetrate the skin. Mrs. Kirchoff stepped back and struck the snake with a stick crushing its head to a jelly.

Approaching Calamity.

A story is told of a man who is pretty hard up bought a cheap crash suit of clothes. He says every time the pants are washed they shrink several inches at the bottom and in consequence he keeps letting them down from the top. He thinks he will be able to make both ends meet by the time he needs a new pair.

Quail Will be Plenty.

Nittany mountain, north of Centre Hall, is well stocked with quail, from all accounts. Thousands of these game birds were imported by the Nittany Rod and Gun Club, for stocking their game preserve at Hecla. The birds thrived and multiplied and have spread from the preserve to the mountains.

Got It On to Them.

A gift that was not included in the published list of wedding presents received by a newly married Perry county couple was a receipt for ten years' back subscription to one of the neighboring county papers, the generous contribution of the big-hearted editor.
