McKinley is taking Dewey's advice to push the war. The Washington plan had been to fool away time and money, giving politicians pulls in the army, in order to help on McKinley's re-election, thereby unnecessarily prolonging the war.

A.G. Archey, our nominee for Register, is a gentleman of superior qualifications for that position; he is one of Ferguson township's most useful and popular citizens. He is pleasant in his manner as well as obliging and accommodating; in brief, Archey is the right man for the place.

Under the careful nurture of Machine Legislatures during the past 25 years while population has only increased 50 per cent. in Pennsylvania the expenses of the State government have increased 75 per cent. The executive branch of the government has outstripped the other departments. Since Governor Pattison's time the expenditures have been increased 222 per cent! Is it not time to put a check upon the plundering?

The money in the country has increased nearly 33 per cent, in the three years since Mr. Bryan and his followers were trying to make us believe that only free coinage could cause an increase in our currency.-Middleburg Post, rep.

Granted, for argument's sake. But the benefits go to the goldbugs in the Trusts, while the farmers of Snyder, Centre and other counties don't get a smell, although it was sacredly prom-, ised the farmers.

Dewey advises the President to do away with Otis, who is out of place at Manila, and is further advising Mc-Kinley how to conduct the war to a speedy and successful conclusion. Any improvement, therefore, in the situation away out there, will be creditable to Dewey and not to McKinley who has been conducting the war in a dillydally-pap-ladeling manner to aid his re-election. In place of Otis, Dewey recommends Generals Miles and Mer-

The people are against Quay. The Legislature is against Quay and refused to re-elect him.

Governor Stone in spite of this and in violation of the Constitution be swore to support gave Quay a certificate of appointment to the Senate to be presented when congress meets in December.

The Senate from 1794 down to this time has refused to admit senators to seats upon certificates like that given by Stone to Quay.

Will the Senate go back on its honorable record of a century and seat the great boss and boodler?

There was a time when Centre county was weighed down with $40,000 of indebtedness, and it stuck deep in the ruts, until the Democratic commissioners, Greist and Wolf, joined by conservative Campbell, took the ugly bull by the horns, and wiped out a big slice of the debt by economical housekeeping and making delinquent taxcollectors pay up their duplicates, thereby saving much for the county in reducing its interest account. This policy was adopted by future Democratic commissioners, until several years back the great debt was wiped out, and since that old Centre bears the proud distinction of being one of the few counties in the state free from debt. This housekeeping will be pursued by future Democratic commissioners. Our nominees, Daniel Heckman, tried one term and found a true old Roman, and his running mate, Philip H. Meyer, are farmers of intelligence and integrity, hailing from the oldest and best kin of our county, are gentlemen who will do their full duty and deserving the confidence and support of the taxpayers.

Under Heckman and Meyers, there will be no increase of taxes, and the

A FLAG CAMPAIGN.

Quay Exploits the Tenth Regiment For the Machine.

BOLDIERS MONOPOLIZE STUMP.

The Republican State Committee Pays the Expenses of the Tenth Regiment to the Dewey Celebration in New York-Can the Flag Save the Imperiled Machinef

(Special Correspondence.) Philadelphia, Oct. 2 .- As patriotism, according to old Ben Jonson, is the last refuge of a scoundrel, so the waving of the flag and an appeal to the martial spirit of the electors is the final resource of the Quay machine driven to bay and waiting for the fatal shot to be fired into its gangrened carcass.

It is no secret that Boss Quay was seriously thinking of an abandonment of his originally proposed "rally 'round the flag, boys," and God-bless-McKinley campaign, suppressing the leather lung and brass throated stump screamer-preferring to trust his luck to the indifference of the people and on the principle illustrated by the following

"Dad," said the youthful citizen of Dead Man's Gulch, "thar's a big rat-tlesnake under the bed." "All right." replied the old man, composedly, "jist let him stay thar-kase ef you pester the varmit he'll spring his rattle and wake yer mom, and then thar'll be the devil to pay."

But a howl of protest went upagainst a Quaker meetin' campaign from county chairmen and local candi-In a great many counties that contain the seeds of revolution that were planted at previous uprisings against the Republican machine the insurgents are either sullen or openly threatening, making things look as blue as indigo for the county tickets. The party henchmen and the nervous candidates, therefore, stretched out their hands to the boss, appealing like shipwrecked mariners for him tothrow out the life line or Davy Jones' locker or Mr. McGinty's mishap would be their fate.

BRING FORTH THE STARRY FLAG. Hence, it has been decided to attempt to arouse the dormant party spirit and to impress the lukewarm Republicans with the fearful importence of paying a visit to the polls and voting early and often that the imperialistic policy of McKinley and Hanna of making American citizens of the Filipinos with the aid of Krag-Jorgensen bullets may be upheld incidentally and Quay permitted to retain the keys of the state treasury vaults

Keeping the martial and fluttering flag campaign ever in view Chairman Reeder has been directed to turn Colonel Barnett loose and allow him to "swing around the circle." Two milltary parties of campaign orators have been organized to sally forth from Harrisburg, one headed by the youthful Barnett and including a number of the members of the Tenth regiment who intend to vote for the colonel for state treasurer and the other com posed of professional soldier political swashbucklers like General Gobin and Colonel Tom Stewart. This last band of grim warriors wear the service stripes of long and patient office holding. Gobin as a political Poo Bah, like old Sol Gill's watch, is "equaled by few and excelled by none," and can be depended upon implicitly to "put his foot" in it by making some bad break of speech, as he did during the senatorial deadlock last spring and again at the Williams' Grove Granger

Colonel Tom Stewart's greed for office is not yet appeased, and he has a latest patent lightning rod up in hope that the next governorship will strike him. Colonel Stewart was a warrior of great prowess in the civil war. A story is related of him. At the first day's fight at Gettysburg Tom had piled the rebel dead in a great heap under the withering fire of his Springfield, when the attention of his colonel was attracted to his fearful execution. The colonel riding up to him and pointing to the pyramid of his slain said: "Tom, cease firing and go home; you've killed enough."

WELL, WHY DIDN'T HE REMAIN? This martial array of shoulder strapped and gold laced orators is cunningly intended to divert the attention of the ring enslaved people from the home issues that directly concern them most. It is the ingenious policy of European rulers and statesmen when their people become unrestful and threaten to bring out the block and the ax to divert their minds from their domestic troubles with a comic opera imbroglio with some obliging power. This is what Quay, crafty and foxy, is doing, but the Democratic leaders and candidates mean to keep him to his

It will be interesting to note Colonel Barnett's clarion voice ringing out that a vote for Colonel Barnett is a vote to sustain the Hanna-McKinley subjugation of the Philippines in direct contravention of the immortal aphorism of the constitution of the United States that "all men are created free and

If it is essential that Pennsylvania shall vote to keep Quay's stock speculative grip on the state treasury in order to sustain the American position in the Orient why was it that Colonel Barnett deemed it wise and patriotic to return to his native shores from the Philippines, and thus weaken the hands of President McKinley? Colonel Barnett had the opportunity of re-en-listing in Manila, but he preferred his Blackstone to a sword; he preferred running for office in Pennsylvania to running after the Filipinos with a gun in his hand. Then, too, the state treasurer should be a business man. Colonel Barnett is a gallant soldier, who braved Mauser bullets and disease in the far off swamps of Luzon, but because he is a soldier and a lawyer, sans a practice or reputation, does not prove him possessed of the qualifications of a financier. But right here, it may be, is where General Gobin's explanation will fit as a piece of joiner work. The office snatching Gobin confessed to the grangers at the William's Grove picnic that "the state treasurer is only a clerk." Colonel Barnett might, as state treasurer, make an excellent and satisfactory clerk for his boss, which his name is Quay, but the contention of the Democrats is to elevate this office from the lot of a mere clerk into a dignified state official, who will own himself, and will carry out his campaign pledges to the people and "open the books."

HIPPODROMING THE TENTH. Senator Quay could never be induced to persuade President McKinley to make the late Colonel Hawkins, the heroic commander of the Tenth regiment, and who "died with his boots on," a brigadier general. But Quay has no qualms about hippodroming Colonel Hawkins' regiment and exhibiting it as a Barnum's show to save his own hide and tallow. There should have been enough patriotism among the money kings of Pittsburg and its wealthy vicinity to have paid the bills for sending the 'Fighting Tenth' to New York's jubilation over Admiral Dewey. It is notorious, however, that the Republican state committee a la Jones, "paid the freight," not so much to exhibit the sunburned heroes in the streets of New York as to to display them as Philippine curios and as an advertisement through the state of Pennsylvania and in Philadelphia for the Republican state ticket and Colonel Barnett for state treasurer. However, let this political trick pass for whatever it may be worth. The "soler" boys were cheered and feasted and champagned and kissed by good looking young girls, hugged by older enes and divided the honors of the New York jubilee with the hero of Manila bay himself. While the Tenth was in Philadelphia individual members were interviewed as to the reports that had been in private circulation that Colonel Barnett is unpopular in the regiment. It was established that the gallant colonel is the unfortunate victim of cephalic elephantiases, or Napoleonic head, and is a bit of a martinet, which frequently accompanies this malady. His men resented his treatment of them, and his indifference to their comfort and well being. They recall that while they were fighting Colonel Barnett was recruiting in the United States. It was also proven by these interviews what Congressman Acheson maintained in protesting to Quay against Colonel Barnett's selection for state treasurer, that the bulk of the Tenth regiment would oppose him and vote against him. So unpopular is the colonel in western Pennsylvania. where he has the reputation of having for years kicked against the regular Republican organization, that the state committee will keep him campaiging on the eastern side of the Alleghenies, leaving "the warriors bold"-Gobin and Stewart-to drape themselves in the folds of the American flag on the other side of the mountains and shout for lead and sword as the true gospel of American civilization and citizenship for the niggers of the Philippines. MARTIN GIVES A CRUMB OF COM-FORT.

State Senator David Martin, the insurgent chieftain of Philadelphia, has created more than a flutter in the Quay dovegote by an interview, in which he makes the prediction that a light vote will be polled at the November election, and says the hippodroming of the Tenth regiment is a mistake and will This is significant, coming from react. a politician of Martin's importance and girth, since it means that the anti-Quay insurgents have an understanding that they will go fishin' on election day. This "wise man of the east" also ventures the assertion that the vote that will go into the Philadelphia boxes will be honest, and that, better professional lightning calculators. AND STONE SAYS TRUSTS ARE

BLESSINGS. There are two conspicuous landmarks on the Delaware river front that command the eye of the traveler-one being in Philadelphia and the other in Camden. Massive, towering buildings, they are, and yet with no sign of life or activity about them. They are idle sugar refineries. The Philadelphia one is the old Havemeyer plant that in other days gave employment to a thousand men and kept a fleet of vessels busy bringing from the West Indies raw suger to its wharf. The Camden concern was never in operation a single These are silent telltales of the greed of the sugar trust that acquired them only to shut them up that the production of refined sugar could be curtailed and the market manipulated. Giving these fine preperties over to the bats has deprived thousands of willing men of employment, has raised the price of sugar to the consumer and cheated the communities in which they stand of millions of dollars' worth of business. And yet Quay's governor has the audacity to declare over his own signature that trusts are blessings and are not a political issue. A BOSS MAKES POLITICS PAY. Practical politics as a pursuit must be profitable after all, when exceptionable advantages can be commanded. Here is Colonel Quay, for instance, who has been receiving a salary of but $5,000 per year as a senator of the United States, and who maintains homes in Washington, in Beaver, in Lancaster and in Florida, and rents cottages at the seashore. He has just directed the secretary of the treasury to transfer to his son, Major Quay, late of the regular army and who was educated at West Point at the public expense. $100,000 worth of United States 4 per cent bonds, while he has added an adjoining farm to his Lancaster plantation, paying $187 per acre. Surely Colonel Quay has other sources of revenue than the salary of a United States senator, and which has now QUAY & CO. FAVOR TRUSTS. Governor Stone's unqualified endorsement of trusts is directly in harmony with the record of his party in the legislature. For years it has obstinately refused to spread a law on the statutes that could not be driven through with a delivery wagon, wiping out the "pluck-me" store, the curse of the mining and great industrial centers. For years the miners have been praying the Republican party to protect them from being outrageously robbed by the rapacious corporations that employs them, in the sale of blasting powder. At the last session the retail grocers of Philadelphia and Pittsburg saked for a law specially taxing the procer monorclist, a new harple that as 50 retail stores, and by cutthroat prices and the marketing of inferior goods drives the legitimate dealer whom he squats alongside of out of business. This bill was strangled, how-measure in years had been so stoutly demanded and so largely petitioned for. Yes, the Republican party as conducted by Quay & Co. has a great respect for trusts and no respect at all for the common people who suffer from them.

HOW NAPOLEON QUAY AND THE

REAL NAPOLEON DIFFER. The admirers of Matthew Stanley Quay love to compare him with Napoleon, and like Napoleon he has had his Waterloo and his St. Helena. How often do we hear Quay exploited by writers and speakers as the Napoleon of politics, although he has repeatedly lost his state, which boasts of 350,000 Republican majority, while his Napoleonic genius failed when confronted with the task of re-electing himself in the face of an organized opposition to the senate of the United States. But there is one material point wherein Napoleon Quay differs with Napoleon Bonaparte, and that is in the matter of trusts. The commercial trust is not a new thing under the sun. The East India company and the Hudson Bay company were the first trusts of which the modern world has knowledge. Their home was in England. Their success excited the cupidity of the world's financiers. Napoleon, when in the hey-day of his civic power in France, was compelled to give them attention. - He had founded the great silk mills of Lyons and had inaugurated a policy for the preservation of the forests, which were coveted, while the government was pressed on all sides by private capitalists to surrender franchises. Napoleon summoned the greatest lawyers of Europe to Paris and submitted to them the question whether trusts were a blessing to the people or a bane to the state. This distinguished conclave concluded that trusts were both dangerous and unlawful, whereupon Napoleon drove them out of France, which is one country in Europe where they have never been able to obtain a foothold. John Russell Young, the historian of General Grant's trip around the world, wrote in the New York Herald of Quay voting alone in the United States senate to save the sugar trust. When by that act of Quay this despicable trust is saved then it is the gravest offense against Pennsylvania since Dailas, by his casting vote, passed the tariff of the Polk administration. The trusts have no more servile slave than greater enemy. THE BOSS WON'T VOTE HIS OWN TICKET.

Matthew Stanley Quay, the people no

Colonel Quay, the chief stoker of the Republican machine, will not even take the trouble to cast his vote for the ticket that he has made. When the November election comes he will be idling in his bungalow on the Indian river, Florida. Colonel Quay has arranged a pair with a well known Democratic newspaper man of Philadelphia. This indifference of the boss will not be permitted to pass without notice, and thousands of disgusted Republicans will follow his distinguished example, only they will not put themselves to the trouble of hunting up emocrats to pair with them. THE PROHIBITIONISTS KICK.

The People, of Milton, the state organ of the Prohibitionists, has a true conception of the appalling frauds at the elections that are committed by the Quay machine in Philadelphia. It grumbles: "Philagelphia's farcical registration goes on piling up the names of voters. The whole proceeding is utterly ridiculous. The "returns" of the assessors show that there are 318,151 voters in the city, an increase of 1,103 over the return in May. State Chairman Jones, of the Prohibition party, proved that dead men, unknown men, unnaturalized persons and endless classes of individuals were put down simply that their names might be voted on by repeaters. Yet .the assessors, who are the products of the rotten system, go on finding houses full of voters that have no existence. The frauds perpetrated in Philadelphia as a result of padded and wrongly made up assessors' lists are greater than any city in the Union ever dreamed of. Yet when an amendment to the constitution was proposed in order to give an honest registration law Governor Stone vetoed it."

WHY DIDN'T THEY GO? Nearly 200 men of the Tenth regiment declined the invitation of the Republican state committee extended through Colonei Barnett to visit New York at its expense and incidentally act as a political "ad." for Colonel Barneit. There must be some embalmed beef at the bottom of the bar'l when so big a percentage of a regiment's membership thus snubs its

IN THE COUNTERFEITING BUSI-NESS. The Republican city committee of Philadelphia some years ago had a counterfeit lithographic plate made from which to print bogus poll tax receipts. These receipts, which are sold by the city for 50 cents each, constituted an onerous burden on the Republican campaign fund, so the counterfeiter's art was resorted to. Thousands of these spurious receipts are printed in each campaign, and the city cheated out of thousands of dollars. This is a pretty business for the party of God and morality to be engaged in

-counterfeiting. Insurgent Leader Martin's dash of chilled water on the Quay machine's prospects raised the goose fiesh on the epidermis of the Quayites, and they became panic stricken and threatened with heart failure and collapse, when Director Brown, of Pittsburg, one of the machine's big wigs, supplemented with this bull's eye shot:

"This hippodroming of the state with military parties in a political cam-paign is all nonsense. It is worse, for it will lose votes. Instead of sending out two bands of soldiers to make spectacular display and appeal to the war feeling or hero-worship of the masses, the campaign should be made on principle and the pending public issues be discussed in an intelligent s.nd dignified manner." THE JUDGE.

The Democratic state and county ticket, from Creasy down to Tibbens and Beck for auditors, is of such gentlemen as carries with it a guarantee of good, honorable, capable and trustworthy men to serve the important positions for which they have been ever, in a senate committee, and notoriously so, for cash, although no not be deceived.
