McKinley is as great a failure in putting up the price of wheat as he is in putting down the war.

The ticket at the head of this column is one which every honest citizen can support without the least compunction of conscience. They are clean men.

Word comes from Shamokin that "Farmer" Monroe H. Kulp is troubled with nervous prostration, and will be removed to Clifton Springs, N. Y., for the benefit of his health.

Wm. T. Speer, Democratic candidate for Treasurer, is a man who deserves much at the hands of his party. A life-long Democrat and a never ceasing worker for his party's success he has been. Vote for him.

If the Republicans can be kept on the defensive, as they have been thus far in state and county-and there is no reason why they shouldn't-that alone will go a great way toward electing Democratic tickets, and the voters will do the rest.

Ten cities want the Republican National Convention, namely, Cleveland, Chicago, Denver, Kansas City, Milall will send delegations to Washington to seek the favor of the committee.

The total wealth of the United States will be nearly $100,000,000,000 (a hun- from the northern tier to the southern dred thousand millions) when the next century begins, and since the country has grown so rich we have become one of the first among nations that seek investment in foreign lands.

The Business Men's League, of Philadelphia, a Republican organization. whose members know how the State Treasury has long been manipulated for private profit, commends Mr. Creasy to the voters of the State as an honest man, beyond the reach of the inround any machine-choice candidate. What higher praise could be bestowed on a candidate?

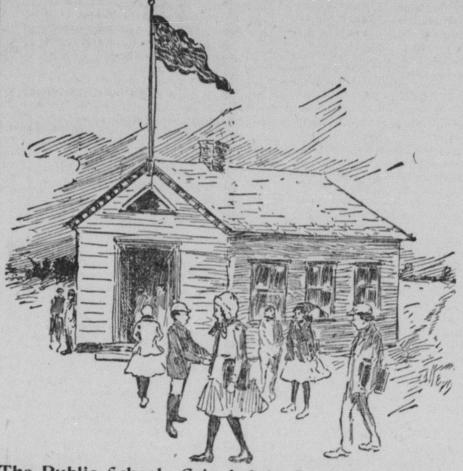

The Quay machine is having a soldier circus travel the state to arouse sympathy for the boodlers. A singing four are part of the crowd. Only desperate straits forces the machine to come down to this. Singing for the children in the schools is part of the program. This wont lead the people to forget who so shamefully robbed the state and the schools.

Ye children of the schools, Twas by machine tools, You were robbed; aye, alone, By Quay's tool, Governor Stone. Sing it again, and again.

Senator Hanna says it is an insult to Admiral Dewey to place his name on the list of prospective presidential canmeans that it is an insult to President McKinley to even think of anybody else in connection with the presidential nomination. But then that doesn't make it so by a good deal. If McKinley made a blunder and botch of the war-which is admitted-and needs instruction from Dewey how to go on, then the Admiral is the better man of the two for the presidency and it is an insult to the American people to talk about prefering McKinley to the hero

The convention of the State League of Republican clubs at Harrisburg a short time ago did not overflow with enthusiasm, and in view of the fact that the Republicans are featuring the American flag as an issue in the Pennsylvania campaign this year it is somewhat remarkable that upon the assembling of the convention there was not a single flag in the hall, large or small, and that they had to send out and get one, proving that boodle was first and foremost in the minds of these patriots and the flag a secondary matter. Boodle first, then the flag to cover it over.

QUAY'S GOVERNOR STRIKES A BLOW AT THE SCHOOLS.

The Public Schools Crippled to Spare the Corporations From Additional Tax.

Governor Stone, the Brawling Friend of the "Little Red School House" Before Election, Their Enemy After Election.

Governor Stone Before Election. Extract from a speech made at Smethport, McKean county, Oct. 19, 1898, at which were present the members of the County Teachers' Institute. which was in session in the town:

"The Republican party is one of education, and it has done more to make the common schools of Pennsylvania a success than any other political organization in the United States. A product of the common schools myself, if elected governor I shall do my part to maintain and protect them."

Governor Stone After Election. "I withhold my approval from $500,000 annually, making $1,000,-000 for the TWO SCHOOL YEARS beginning June 1, 1899."-Stone's

The Common Schools of Pennsylvania.

$1,000,000 veto message.

The common schools are the glory of Pennsylvania, and have served as a model for the systems of other states. Waukee, San Francisco, Pittsburg, St. Thaddeus Stevens, the great commoner, was their main founder, and it re-Louis, Cincinnati and Minneapolis, mained for William A. Stone, the first governor that Boss Quay ever had the distinction of owning outright, to strike them a blow. He set the state affame with indignation by his act. It rang from Lake Erie to the Delawareborder-with protests; and no governor was ever before guilty of so unpatriotic, un-American and needless an executive deed.

Governor Stone was master of the situation, and could have compelled the Republican state senate, under pain of vetoing the pet measures of the machine senatorial ring, to provide additional revenue, if necessary, to meet all demands on the treasury.

For years the Quay machine, by its delay in paying out the school funds. has embarrassed school districts all over the state, it being notorious that the money was kept back and held on fluence which must necessarily sur- deposit in the political banks that Quay and his henchmen might pocket the interest or use it in politics and stock speculations.

School authorities have been compelled to borrow money to meet obligations, while in many of the cities of the state there exists a lack of school accommodations. The schools are overcrowded, while children, barred from them, are neglected. The teachers are underpaid and justly complain that they have been compelled to wait a long time for their pittance.

This blow that Governor Stone has aimed at the schools vitally concerns every school teacher, school trustee and school director in the state. And again, if the governor can shave off one million dollars from the appropriation in 1899, what is to prevent him from lopping off two millions in 1901?

The excuse that the governor gave for his alleged veto of a part of the school appropriation was merely a pretext. The real reason for this outrageous act on the part of the executive was not given and dare not be didates. Probably Mr. Hanna really given or commented upon by the unpatriotic governor of Pennsylvania. has long been a political secret that Senator Quay intended to attack the school appropriation, as he never approved of the increases leading up to the five millions. To the people of the state his act means higher local taxes, a reduction of teachers' salaries, fewer schools and a lowering of the high standard which has made the schools of Pennsylvania famous. He has struck at the very principle to which the people of Pennsylvania owe their greatness as a state. He has given the lie to the proud boast that the Republican party is the guardian of the "Little Red

While Governor Stone vetoed a million dollars of the school appropriation, he cheerfully signed the large appropriation for military purposes, and ndicated in advance that the already large sum should be increased. This shows that he believes more in training men to kill their fellows than he does in training our children that they may grow up without murder in their hearts.

WHAT REPUBLICAN PAPERS SAY.

It is a common saying that a man is bound by his own witness. Let us see what some prominent Republican witnesses have to say of the Quay ticket and the manner in which it was se-

If any Democrats outside of Philadeiphia are apprehensive that the metropolis may give a Republican plurality to overcome the sweep of the rest of the state by Farmer Creasy and his colleagues on the Democratic ticket. let them take courage from the most extraordinary revolt ever witnessed in the Philadelphia newspapers against machine misrule. While the Demoeratic newspapers are doing splendid service for the ticket, the following remarkably severe comments upon the work of Quay's convention are extracted from editorials in Republican and independent Republican newspapers of the great city;

ONLY ONE SATISFACTORY NAME. "We regret that the work of strengthening the ticket by nominating men who would poll the the full party vote should have stopped with the nomination of Mr. Brown. Mr. Barnett brings with him a certain nebulous military halo from the Philippines, which it is hoped may distract attention from his political record as an extreme factionist and chronic opponent of regular Republican nominations. Precedent and propriety alike dictate that Mr. Dimner Beeber, now serving acceptably on the superior bench by appoint ment, should be nominated as his own successor. He is a man of rare judicial qualities, and there was no reason why he should be superseded, except to give place to Mr. Adams,"-Phila. Press, Rep.

SHARP COMMENT ON CANDIDATES. DATES

"It is not as a candidate for a military commission that Colonel Barnett is now before the people. It is to be regretted that the orators who placed his name before the Harrisburg convention did not keep that fact in mind. In their speeches they made much of his soldierly achievements, which was right, but they abstained altogether from touching upon his qualifications for the office of state treasurer, which was an equally strange and unfortunate oversight. And the platform on which he stands is likewise without a word of apology for the laches and crimes of past treasurers, or promise of more faithful performance of duty in the future. The platform pledges Colonel Barnett to nothing, if elected. "Eminent soldiers have often been failures in office. The qualities needed to win distinction in war are not identical with those required of the civil servant.

"Colonel Barnett must hasten to repair the omissions of the platform and of his speechmaking sponsors at the convention. His Democratic opponent, William T. Creasy, is making a canvass which appeals to the good sense of the community. That is to say, he recognizes that as a candidate for state treasurer he should devote himself to convincing the public that he is familiar with the functions of the office. and that he is fitted in capacity and character to discharge them. He takes it for granted that the people of Pennsylvania are intelligent enough to understand that it is of more importance to them that their treasurer should be capable and upright than that he should be either a Republican or a Democrat—that the holder of this state office has no influence whatever in determining the nation's policy as to the tariff, the basis of the currency, or expansion of the republic's boundaries. He assumes that the question of the treasurer's personal honesty is of immeasurably greater practical moment than his ability to delwer a glowing harangue in favor of honest money. "Farmer Creasy is a plain man with an unusual gift for plain speech. He knows all about the history of the state treasury. He is a citizen of established reputation, about whose integrity and courage to do what is right nobody has any doubt.

Colonel Barnett, if he is wise, will realize that he must meet Farmer Creasy on his own ground-that he must go before the people and ask election to the state treasurership, not as a soldier nor as a believer in protection and the gold standard, but as a man the equal in honesty and trustworthiness of Farmer Creasy. If he shall fail to do that and rely on the magic of his uniform and the prestige of the Republican national administration to pull him through, he will be wanting in candor and in perception of the real need of the situation." -Phila, North American, Rep.

QUAY'S PERSONAL CHOOSING. "When the curtain was raised on the convention it was perceived how deftly the stage, the center of which was occupied by Manager Quay, had been set,

The actors were his pupper moved only when and as he pulled the strings. The candidates were of his personal choosing; the platform was of his own making; the delegates were present not as representatives of the will and power of the people of the commonwealth, but as the representatives of the political fortunes of the ex-senator. The convention was his convention; it was controlled by him without contention or protest; it made no decrees, no nominations of its own initiative, and it originated no declarations of principles-it affirmed those of Mr. Quay. The convention merely executed his decrees, ratified his nominations and proclaimed his policies."-Philadelphia Ledger, Ind. Rep.

TRADEMARK OF THE MACHINE.

"The Republican state convention at Harrisburg has plainly demonstrated the mastery of Matthew S. Quay over the party organization in Pennsylva-The proceedings, the platform and the ticket all bear the trademark of the machine. Mr. Quay and his followers were easily in command of the situation at every point, and the convention, for the most part, was little more than a ratification of the program which had been mapped out for it by the little coterie of bosses long ago in their Sabbath musings by the ad sea waves."-Philadelphia Evening Bulletin, Rep.

QUAY RIDES ROUGH-SHOD.

"The convention went the whole figure, so to speak, commending the governor's action in lopping a million dollars off the school appropriation, and likewise his action in appointing to the existing vacancy the senior senator. Some ingentious persons may have thought that Mr. Quay would not press his advantage so far, that he was in a conciliatory mood, and would make some tangible "concessions" to the insurgent element of the party, in the hope of keeping the independent voters in line for the ticket at the November elections. Whenever he has had the power to work his will he has exercised it to the fullest extent in a dull, brutal way, regardless of ultimate consequences. Experience has taught him that there is little danger in this course, and that so far it has not brought him to material grief. So he has gone on, from year to year, shaking the plum tree and trafficking in the spoils of office, giving no thought to and displaying no fear of a possible collapse of the political structure which he has reared. The old man had decreed that he and his henchmen in the executive mansion should be endorsed, and endorsed they were, and that was the end of it, as far as the convention was concerned. As time passes during the next ten weeks, it will be seen whether or not it was the end of it as far as the voters are concerned."-Philadelphia Evening Tele-

THE MACHINE AND THE TRUSTS. "The fact that the Harrisburg convention's platform contains no antitrust plank is bringing from sundry quarters condemnation upon its framers. But really they do not deserve blame. Men do not willingly subject themselves to ridicule, nor do they practice hypocrisy for mere love of false pretense

"Had the Republican machine of ennsylvania declared against the trusts it would have found nobody to believe in its sincerity, and provoked scornful laughter. To ask the machine to denounce trusts is equivalent to inviting children to pass resolutions against their parents.

"Were it not for the trusts, for corporations which spend money freely to retain thieving privileges and to escape the payment of their fair share of taxes, the machine would not exist. "If the Republican organization that held the convention at Harrisburg had condemned the Standard Oil company, for instance, and pronounced against the criminal conspiracy which is maintained by that and other monopolies, it would have drawn the sword against the authors of its being and been guilty of at least appearing to wish to commit the unnatural crimes of parricide "The silence of the machine's convention on the subject of trusts was a decent manifestation of respect for the intelligence of the people of Pennsylvania."-Phila. North American. CHALLENGE TO ANTI-QUAY RE-PUBLICANS.

The Philadelphia Press, which probably speaks with a more authentic voice for the McKinley administration than any other journal in the country, says of the Quay convention:

'The prominence given to national issues to the exclusion of state questions in the formal speeches and the platform of yesterday's Harrisburg convention would greatly puzzle a foreigner studying for the first time American political institutions. He would understand it better when he learned that in the national field the record of the Republican party is a great and glorious one, in which all its members, and, indeed, all citizens, can take a just pride, while in this state an unprincipled close corporation known as the machine has taken control of it and uses it so far as it dare and can for its own selfish purposes.

"Senator Penrose was on safe ground in eulogizing at tedious length the good work of the national Republican party. Most of the platform rides at anchor in the same haven of refuge. The endorsement of Governor Stone's administration was, of course, to be expected from a convention constituted and controlled as this one was, but very many Republicans will not second that endorsement. The expression of gratitude to Mr. Quay and the approval of the governor's action in appointing him to the senate is a direct challenge to all the Republicans who are opposed to Mr. Quay and think that his appointment under the circumstances was indecent and improper. This plank in the platform will be remembered when the rest is forgotten, and will cost the ticket many votes. Perhaps nothing less could be expected from a Quay convention, and the Republican plurality, though a minority of the whole vote, is still very large and invites undue confidence."

Our local Republican papers do not like to hear about the excellent qualities of the gentlemen who compose the county Democratic ticket, fearing that their popularity and eminent fitness for the places for which they are named will make it go hard with the Republican candidates. And so it will.

In a recent issue a paper in Columbia county accused Wm. T. Creasy, the Democratic candidate for State Treasurer, with having used language in a urer, with having used language in a speech in that county, offensive to the pensioners. The president of the meet- TRAINS LEAVE MONTANDES, ZOTWARD ing, D. K. Laubach, who is a stalwart Republican and an ex-soldier with Russel Karns, G. W. Knouse, J. H. Vansickle, F. S. Smith, I. E. While in the Legislature Mr. Creasy's vote was always cast in favor of pensions. Vansickle, F. S. Smith, I. E. Patter-
