

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of town.

—John H. Bare and little daughter, of near Tusseyville, paid our sanctum a visit.

—Mrs. Rebecca Sparr, of Boalsburg, was the guest of Mrs. Simon Harper over Sunday.

—Mr. John Jacobs, of Shingletown, visited at the home of Mrs. W. A. Jacobs over Sunday.

—Daniel Zeigler, one of Linden Hall's good citizens was a prominent visitor in town on Monday.

—Mrs. C. M. Bower, of Bellefonte, spent several days last week with friends in Centre Hall.

—Mrs. Lyeurgus R. Lingle and little son went to Tyrone last Saturday on a visit among relatives.

—Mrs. R. B. Spangler, of Hastings, Pa., arrived yesterday afternoon on a visit to her husband's parents.

—Reuben Boyer, of Colyer, was in town Monday. Mr. Boyer is about removing to Union county with his store.

—Oak Hall's genial and obliging postmaster, Mr. John Klose, was in town on Tuesday, mingling with our citizens.

—John Smith, of Spring Mills, was in town yesterday delivering a load of furniture from their popular store.

—Commissioner's clerk Nelson E. Robb was in our territory on Monday trying to brace up his lost cause for the Recordship.

—Mrs. L. Ray Morgan and mother-in-law, Mrs. Benj. Morgan, of State College, spent Tuesday with friends in Centre Hall.

—Mrs. D. W. Reynolds, Mrs. Claude and Mr. and Mrs. Devine, all of Reedsville, spent Sunday with friends in Centre Hall.

—O. P. Cole, the efficient engineer on the Lindenhall lumber road, and W. S. Shutt, an employe of the company, were callers in our office.

—Will Odenkirk did the lightning slinging at Linden Hall station a couple days last week during the absence of Agent Philip Bradford on a hunting trip.

—Jacob R. Bible, of near Potters Mills, favored our office with a call on Saturday while in town. Mrs. Bible accompanied him to town to do some shopping.

—Mrs. John F. Orbison departed yesterday afternoon for her home in Sidney, Ohio, after having spent a month with friends in Centre Hall and vicinity.

—Prof. B. M. Wagenseller, principal of our schools, went to Selingsgrove last Thursday afternoon to attend the wedding of a relative. He returned Friday morning.

—Miss Alda Sankey went to Philadelphia on Wednesday, to visit with friends and take in the sights at the Exposition. She expects to be gone about ten days.

—Mr. John Lawyers arrived home last week after an extended trip of about two months to St. Louis Mo., and points in other states where Centre county people are found.

—Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Meyer left on Monday morning on a trip to Philadelphia to take in the way down to visit their son at Millersburg.

—N. B. Bitner, telegraph operator at Pine, Pa., with his wife, are visiting among old friends in the valley the past week. Next, was in charge of the station at Paddy Mountain several years ago.

—Mrs. Chas. Garis, wife of the late Sergeant Garis, of Pleasant Gap, visited at the home of Byron Garis. She was on her way home from Lloydsville, where she had taken her son to enter the Soldier's Orphan School.

—Mrs. and Mrs. Henry Sankey, of Potters Mills, came home last week from a visit they had been making with friends and relatives in Kansas. They were absent over two months, and both were greatly benefitted with experiences along the route.

—Willis Rishel, landlord at Montgomery, Pa., was a pleasant caller, and looks the picture of health. He will accompany his aged widowed mother to Philadelphia where she will in future reside with her son Ward who has a clerkship in the Penn'a R.R. office.

—Mr. John B. Bitner, west of town, departed last week for Gaines, Tioga county, where he will make his home for the next several months with his son-in-law, H. E. Shadle, who recently purchased a large hotel at that place.

—G. M. Smetzler, of Potters Mills, gave us a call on Monday morning. Mr. Smetzler will quit farming, and last Friday made public sale of his stock and implements. The sale was a success, being largely attended and prices up. One cow was sold for $51.50, and other stock in proportion.

—James W. Runkle, of Middleburg, gave us a call and advanced his label. Mr. Runkle is traveling for the new shoe-factory of that town, which employs 65 hands, and we infer from his talk that the people of Middleburg are imbued with a true spirit of enterprise that builds up but does destroy investments.

—Miss Virginia Witmer, of Los Angeles, California, has been in our valley for the last two weeks on a visit among relatives, and since Friday last has been the guest of the Hoffer, Murray and Wolf families. She is on her way for a European tour and sails from New York for Germany in about ten days.

—Miss Mabel Boal arrived home last Friday after a two weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. Charles Meyer at Millersburg, Pa. The pleasure of her trip was somewhat marred last Wednesday at her sister's home by being almost asphyxiated by coal gas from the kitchen range which escaped during the night, the effects from which she has not yet fully recovered.

SPRING MILLS.

What Our Correspondent from that Section Finds of Interest.

R. D. Runkle, one of our esteemed citizens, will relinquish farming, and on November 2nd, will have public sale of all his live stock, farming implements, etc. Mr. Runkle will then leave for Johnstown with the possibility of locating there. His family however, will remain here until spring.

David Berrell has just completed and erected in the Spring Mills cemetery a massive and very beautiful monument. The design was left entirely to his own judgment, and the taste and skill displayed by Mr. Berrell in accomplishing the work so satisfactorily and in such an artistic manner, that it ranks him as an artist of a very high order.

Edwin Ruhl has just added a large and full line of very choice candies and confections to his general stock of eatables. His restaurant has become quite popular and is well patronized, particularly the oyster department; his stews are tremendous—a dish for an epicure. Mr. Ruhl is proving himself to be a first class caterer.

Archibald Allison Republican candidate for Auditor, is gaining very considerable strength in this neighborhood, and evidently will be in advance of his party vote in this valley. Mr. Allison is well known and is one of our highly esteemed citizens, a gentleman of the old school. His character is absolutely beyond reproach.

It is rumored, and not without considerable foundation, that J. H. Runkle, our reliable meat merchant, in addition to his market here, intends starting a meat market in Centre Hall, and will deliver fresh home dressed meats from both places all winter. Mr. Runkle is also buying quite largely of poultry, and shipping them to New York City.

J. K. Thompson, Republican candidate for county treasurer was here last week, visiting old friends and making new ones. Mr. Thompson is a gentleman of considerable intelligence, very pleasant and affable, but in this Democratic Gibraltar nothing less than an earthquake can check the growing popularity of W. T. Speer, his Democratic competitor.

For the last two weeks Evangelist Warden has created quite an awakening in Georges valley and surroundings. The meetings are held in the Lutheran Cross church and the building has not sufficient capacity to accommodate the immense attendance; to prevent confusion and to avoid too much of a jam, the doors are locked when all the room and seats are occupied. Large numbers are being converted, and many are yet halting between two opinions. Mr. Warden is a gentleman of fine personal appearance and a very fluent and persuasive speaker.

Mr. Sheffer, of Williamsport, is one of the employes at the creamery at this place, and makes his home with Mr. Wilson.

W. J. Rote is making preparations to build a house (?) on Main street; we presume he will capture the bird after the cage is completed.

Frank Barges is rushing work on his new house on East Main street. He has it under roof and is nearly ready for the plasterers.

Mr. Wilson, one of the owners of the creamery at this place, moved from Millheim into L. K. Stover's house lately vacated by John M. Weaver.

M. P. Campbell, who had been making his home near Clintondale during the summer months came home one day last week, to attend the public schools.

Mr. Smith, of Milton, agent for farm machinery, spent Sunday at this place. Mr. Smith of late has been quite a frequent visitor here, proving that he is a successful business man.

The enterprising lumber firm of Krader & Billmyer will erect a saw mill a short distance below town to manufacture the timber on the tract purchased from Emanuel Kerstetter.

Mr. E. J. Kooney and four children are spending the week at Harrisburg. They may make that city their home in the near future; Mr. Kooney has been there for several weeks, and has secured employment in a planing mill at that place.

Carpenters for the Penna. R. R. have put a new slate roof upon the station at this place and have also added other needed repairs. The painter will soon follow and give it a new coat of paint, which will, no doubt, be of a very aesthetic shade.

Mrs. Ritter, who with her husband left this section in the year 1874, but who now live in the northern part of Ohio, near Sandusky Bay, is in this section visiting relatives. She is a sister to Mrs. Andrew Harter of this place; this is her first visit east since she left here twenty-five years ago; she notices many changes since the time she left here.

Mrs. Susan Hoover, wife of John Hoover, was taken to the asylum at Danville on Wednesday morning by Dr. Frank, of Millheim and Constable D. B. Geary, of Penn township. She has been suffering from melancholia for some time and was getting very troublesome and dangerous, so her husband decided to have her removed to the hospital for the insane for treatment.

A radish was found in the lot back of John Weber's store which measured twenty-nine inches in circumference. Who can beat that?

Three Doctors in Consultation. From Benjamin Franklin. "When you are sick, what you like best is to be chosen for a medicine in the first place; what experience tells you is best, to be chosen in the second place; what reason (i. e., Theory) says is best to be chosen in the last place. But if you can get Dr. Inclinatio, Dr. Experience and Dr. Reason to hold a consultation together, they will give you the best advice that can be taken." When you have a bad cold Dr. Inclinatio would recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy because it is pleasant and safe to take. Dr. Experience would recommend it because it never fails to effect a speedy and permanent cure. Dr. Reason would recommend it because it is prepared on scientific principles, and acts on nature's plan in relieving the lungs, opening the secretions and restoring the system to a natural and healthy condition. For sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Caron, Potters Mills; H. F. Rossman, Spring Mills.
