Democrats, don't trade your ticket.

The Gazette, last week declares Jake Herman "windy-cated." After the election Jacob will find himself eradicated.

It's all up with Herman; he is trying to straddle the Quay and anti-Quay boats, a feat that never fails to tumble one under.

Brungart is strong in all the districts on this side, and we hear encouraging reports from the other side. Election next Tuesday, Nov. 7.

"Jolly Jake," despairing of being elected sheriff, thinks of next running for librarian of one of the Bellefonte Sunday schools. He'll do first rate.

We have information direct from most districts in the county, and all points to a Democratic victory. Get out the vote. Election next Tuesday, Nov. 7.

If you endorse the work of the Democratic commissioners of the past years in wiping out a debt of $40,000, then show it by voting for Heckman and Meyers, next Tuesday, 7.

One of the commissioners—which one, that's a riddle—when nearing some dogs, made the remark, "Guess them bow-wows'll all bark at me on account of that blamed dog-tax."

Barnett's regiment, all but a few, refused to sign a paper exonerating him from the charge of cowardice during battles about Manila, and the soldiers would vote for him, they will vote for Creasy.

What doth it profit a farmer if all the iron furnaces and ore mines in christendom are in operation and he gets only 60 cents for his wheat and has to pay an advanced price for every implement he uses?

The three Spanish cruisers sunk by Dewey's squadron in Manila bay and raised by the skill of Naval Constructors or Hobson, are almost ready to be formally initiated into membership in the United States navy.

"Jolly Joe" Herman can't be very popular up in College township, for even "farmer" John Hamilton has not orated a peep in Herman's behalf—yet "farmer" John was as full of eloquence as a balloon is of gas when Abe Miller was a candidate for sheriff.

The Central Passenger Association has decided upon a uniform charge of 6 per cent. of the price of a passenger ticket for the checking of a bicycle. Every wheel, no matter how great or short the distance is to be transported, will be treated as 50 pounds of excess baggage.

Never was there placed in nomination a nobler, truer and more deserving man than William T. Speer, a toiler all his life, intelligent and a perfect gentleman in every sense of the word. Election next Tuesday, Nov. 7, when a vote for Mr. Speer, for Treasurer, will be a noble act.

All farmers will observe a great hub-bub now being made by McKinley organs over a coming of prosperity. Yes, but not for the farmer at all, but at his expense, to fatten the Trusts. What was sacredly promised the farmer is being poured in the greedy lap of the Trusts, hence the organs rejoice that the needy farmer was fooled.

Under Machine management Pennsylvania has not $100,000 left to preserve the forests of the State. But under honest economical management, including the reduction of extravagant salaries and the abolition of sinecures, there would be enough money to preserve the forests as well as to pay the common school appropriation.

Davy Ruhl, the popular Spring Mills landlord, was the real choice of the Republican voters for sheriff, and the most deserving in that party. But twisters and shufflers at the county seat put Mr. Ruhl overboard in favor of the pliable Jacob Herman. Mr. Ruhl and his friends were ignominiously snubbed. In the nomination of Cyrus Brungart, on the other hand, the sentiment of the people was respected.

Farmers are now discussing the prices asked for barbed wire. The fact is brought out that the wire for which they paid $1.75 per 100 pounds one year ago, now costs them $4.50. This is prosperity with a string to it, especially in view of the fact that wheat is lower than last year and prices generally for farm products at a discouraging point. The bottom has not dropped out of taxes, either.

Adams, for being connected with swindling companies, was compelled to resign from the Republican ticket for superior judge.

Now there are still two more fellows that should be hauled off, namely: Barnett, for hiding behind rice dykes when battles were going on, now the candidate for state treasurer. And, Jake Harmon, for bawling out, "Dan Hastings might go to H"—allax or Haverdegass, dunno which.

What reason could there be for any one not to vote for A. G. Archey for Register? He never held a county office; he is one of Ferguson township's most respected and useful citizens; he is intelligent and in every way competent; he is a farmer and has done hard work as such; he is of genial disposition and an all-around kind man in his neighborhood, ready with a helping hand to render assistance whenever needed. Give A. G. Archey a chance.

Against his competitor, Mr. Strohm, we have nothing to say, more than his having had a large share of public office, which he does not deny. Drawing the lines thus, all fair-minded voters must admit that A. G. Archey is the proper man to vote for. Election, next Tuesday, Nov. 7.

"Jolly Jake Herman" was stricken by an amusing mental and optical illusion when the State College primaries closed and the machine came out ahead of the insurgents. Jacob could see himself climbing the ladder to the sheriff's office and his brain reeled with visions that the angel of success was at the top calling unto him, Come on up, Jacob. Jacob, in his wild delight, then was said to have roared, "To h— with Hastings and his sheriff's office."

But ere the clock struck the next hour in rolled intelligence from all over the county that all the Johnnycakes were piled on the Hastings table, and now "Jolly Jake" is machine and anti-machine, just to get a Johnnycake, and would only be too glad if Dan would hand him one thick with 'lassay.

I'm jolly Jake Harman,
And you must see
I'm out for sheriff to be.
If I don't get there,
Then I'll swear he got,
Me editor's a poor wing shot,
When College went Quay,
In a craze I did say,
I'd make a hot chase,
An' Dan Hastings might go
To H—averdegass,
Chances now look blue,
My road is hard,
An' far ahead I see,
A very fast nag,
Cyros Brungart,
So if I don't get there
Be I saint or barbarian,
I'll next run for S. S. Librarian.
A hot Johnnycake,
Jacob is longing to have,
From Uncle Dan's bake.

WHERE DUTY LIES.

Both Heckman and Meyer, nominees for Commissioner, are gentlemen of pure records. Mr. Heckman, during his service in the office, has endeared himself to the taxpayers by setting himself against schemes and jobs, and having his eye upon the important matter of keeping down the taxes of property owners and farmers. What more and better could you ask? when you have a man who fearlessly does his duty, stand by him—hold up his hands. It was by having such Democrats in the commissioners' office, that Centre county's ugly old debt of forty thousand dollars was wiped out, big interest stopped and the county tax reduced!

Philip H. Meyer's private life and record have the ring of honesty, purity and uprightness throughout; a life-long farmer, a tax-payer, he is interested in having good house-keepers in our county affairs, and he promises he'll do it—his word is good as any man's bond.

When you have men of the stamp of Heckman and Meyer it should be a pleasure, as it is a duty, for all honest men to cast their votes for them—and they will.

Election next Tuesday, Nov. 7.

Since Barnett will not take his name off the machine ticket, for the proved cowardice he displayed when his regiment was in battle, the patriotic voter can scratch it off on Tuesday and put an X at Creasy's name.

BOOMERANG BARNETT

Those Who Know Him Best Like Him Least.

NOT WANTED NEAR HOME.

Republican County Chairmen in His Section of the State Ask That He Be Kept Away.

If James E. Barnett, called "Long Distance Jimmy," owing to the distance that he put between himself and danger, has nothing better than his military record to commend him as a candidate for state treasurer, he is in a sorry plight. His military exploits are of the kind in which "distance lends enchantment to the view." So bad is his standing with the boys of the Tenth regiment that he has been kept parading mostly over the eastern part of the state, for Chairman Reeder has been notified that Barnett's presence in counties where the members of his regiment live would intensify the strong feeling that they have against him.

Instead of the gallant and dashing colonel that he has been depicted by those who know nothing about him, dozens of his men accuse him of cowardice, and declare that he was more than once found seeking safety in the rear when he was needed at the front. Desperate efforts have been made to secure the endorsement of the soldiers of his regiment, but they have ended in failure, because a majority of the boys allege that he was a dodger in time of danger, that he treated Colonel Hawkins shamefully, and that he was absent from his men under his command.

As he was nominated on account of being a military man, neither he nor his managers can reasonably object to having the public know just what sort of military record he has. Quay evidently knew enough of Barnett's weakness not to want him nominated, but he was overruled by his lieutenants, who now see that the "Old Man's" political judgment was better than that of those who forced him on the ticket. The Philadelphia Record and The North American are showing up the machine candidate in so unfavorable a light that it was rumored a few days ago that he, like Adams, would be withdrawn from the ticket, and if the campaign were to last another month, instead of a week, it is altogether likely that Barnett would be withdrawn.

AFFRAID OF HIS PRESENCE.

Republican State Chairman Reeder was told by nine of the ten county chairmen in conference with him last week that their campaign affairs were in bad shape. Some of those chairmen are authority for this disclosure, and they add that Reeder was warned by those from counties in which State Treasurer Candidate Barnett is best known, and from which the Tenth regiment had been recruited, not to let him do any campaigning there, as he would only make the ticket's prospects worse.

Barnett's stumping has been confined to the eastern part of the state, but in his county intensifies the campaign feeling, and local Republican disaster might result from bringing Barnett there. County Chairman Crow, of Fayette, said to the head of the state organization: "Nearly every spot where you find a Tenth regiment boy you find trouble for Barnett. Many of them are not only talking among their neighbors against him, but are working against his election." Fayette, like Armstrong and Westmoreland, has a hot judgeship contest, and Chairman Crow, like his Westmoreland neighbor, thought the local scales might turn in favor of the Republicans if the Barnett red rag should not be shaken at the bull.

A canvass of the towns mentioned, as well as of other places, proves that the unpopularity of Barnett among the Tenth regiment soldiers cannot be successfully denied by the Quay managers. A host of reputable witnesses, professional and business men, would arise against them if necessary. It is supposed that about two-thirds of the regiment are Republicans, and it is asserted by many of these in the different counties referred to that a large majority of the Republican soldiers will vote against Barnett.

Philadelphia Record correspondents have interviewed a large number of these anti-Barnett Republican members of the Tenth, and have obtained permission to use some of the names in connection with their stories covering different sorts of accusations against their lieutenant colonel. It is alleged that most of the soldiers in the Barnett spellbinding hippodrome were never in a position to testify from personal knowledge what Barnett did, or failed to do, at the firing line. Certain spellbinders who could so testify, and were among Barnett's opponents, have changed under Quay machine rule figures in some stories, and other soldiers are mentioned to whom the offer of $75 a day and an expense for going on the stump was made in vain.

BARNETT REPUDIATED.

Men of the Tenth Refuse to Certify For Him.

Republican State Committee Falls in Its Effort to Suppress 'Cold Foot' Truths.

Pittsburg, Oct. 24.—"I have nothing to say in reply to the charges the Philadelphia Record makes against me. They have been made before. They are not worthy of attention," said Lieutenant Colonel James E. Barnett, the Republican candidate for state treasurer, at Indiana tonight.

In an interview he pretended to take no cognizance of the story. But at Washington it was different.

BARNETT ASKS VINDICATION.
Under pretense that he did not care about the exposure, he telegraphed Color Bearer Harry Cundall and another by name of Dr. W. Denny, Company H, stationed at Washtington, his home, to prepare a petition refusing the charges of dodging and cowardice made by The Record, and to have it signed by the members of Company H, who are now at their homes. This was done as directed by Mr. Barnett.

HE IS SAD OF HEART.
Immediately upon receipt of Colonel Barnett's telegram the few friends he has in the regiment there began work. The petition was prepared in the office of a well known attorney, four copies being made. They were immediately placed in the hands of Barnett's friends, who were started on the hunt for signers. They reported tonight, when word was sent to Barnett. He is sad at heart.

Out of the 60 or more members of the company here less than one tenth of this number have signed the statements. The pronounced opposition of the soldier boys is most surprising. It was the first opportunity they had of going on record against their superior officer, and they have been forced to do this by the Republican managers.

ONLY FOUR MEN TO UPHOLD HIM.

So far as can be ascertained, only four signatures were obtained. The company is almost unanimous in its refusal to testify on behalf of the Colonel, and the boys allege that a dozen names cannot be secured.

One of the soldiers said this evening that he would not say anything detrimental to the Lieutenant Colonel nor do anything that would hurt his candidacy for State Treasurer, but he could not testify to something which he knew to be untrue.

Others expressed themselves in the same manner. The friends of Barnett realize now the serious blunder which has been made by those who have placed these papers in circulation, as it has done Colonel Barnett's cause infinitely more harm than good by forcing the soldiers to go on record in a matter which they claim would have not been brought into political use.

A 'COLD-FOOT' RECEPTION.

Lieutenant Colonel Barnett was not enthusiastically received at the home of Attorney General John P. Elkin, though that gentleman tried hard to secure him a great demonstration.

No members of the Tenth reside here, but the people know Barnett from the boys of the adjoining counties, who were with him in the Philippines.

None of the 14 members of his "flag" party would discuss "The Record's" charges, and none would even deny any of the specific allegations made by "The Record" concerning his conduct at the battle of Guiguiton, where he is alleged to have crouched behind a rice dyke and pointed the way to Company I, of Greensburg, to the firing line.

Governor Stone, in a speech at Williams Grove in 1898, said: "I am a candidate for governor. It is my firm purpose if elected to disappoint my critics and discharge my duty faithfully to the people of Pennsylvania." Stone as governor has not disappointed his critics. On the other hand he has proved what they claimed, that he is owned down to his undershirt by Quay. He has not discharged his duties faithfully to the people, but on the other hand he has made the most odious, unpopular and lawless governor the state has ever known. He only exceeds Beaver, the smallest intellectually of our governors in one thing—the loyalty of a dog to his master.
