CENTRE HALL, PA., THURS. NOV. 9

The Kimberley diamond mines pay $10,000,000 a year profit, on a nominal capital of double that sum.

Many of the Boers are extremely superstitious and terribly afraid of spooks in which they have a firm belief.

Germany will be neutral and has no intention of playing into the hand of France by intervening in the Transvaal.

One wholesome lesson taught the machine in the campaign just closed, is that the people want a swindler on a ticket.

The treaty McKinley made with the Sultan of the Sulu islands allows that monarch $500 and his ministers $2500 per year out of the United States treasury.

The prospects for Quay's getting into the senate on Stone's illegal appointment, are blue. His chances of being elected by the next legislature, are withered.

The REPORTER, some weeks ago, put the Democratic majority in the county at 700, as per our own canvass. Others put it as low as 200.

The colleges, as educational institutions, have shut down, to afford room for foot-ball kicking.

The McKinley administration is getting weak in its love for Dewey since there is mention made of running him for president.

The Philadelphia Record deserves the thanks of every "friend of the flag" for the completeness with which it uncovered the cowardice of Barnett.

Republican organs are bitterly denouncing such of their leaders as do not approve of McKinley's Philippine policy.

I am strictly opposed to enforced annexation of the Philippine islands. We co-operated with Filipinos in driving the Spaniards out, and should now help them to form a republican government of their own.

The rumors of a Continental anti-British coalition continue to occupy the French papers. Referring to the alleged Anglo-American understanding, said to be an outcome of the Hispano-American war, the Figaro says:

The Washington Cabinet is convinced that had it not been for the resolute attitude of Great Britain the McKinley Administration would have had to face a European coalition in Spain's behalf, to deprive the United States of the fruits of victory.

In Ohio there were six state tickets in the field and voted for on Tuesday.

In Pennsylvania there were seven tickets in the field and voted for on Tuesday, namely:

- Republican, headed by Barnett. Democratic, headed by Creasy. Prohibition, headed by Caldwell. People's, headed by Watkins. Socialist Labor, headed by Clark. Union Reform, headed by Woods. Bryan anti-Trust, headed by Creasy. All these individuals standing for state treasurer at head of the tickets.

The Pittsburgh Times is in receipt of a circular from the Cuban Industrial Relief fund, an association in New York, which calls attention to the condition of the people of Cuba a year after the war.

The Sulu islands, with Sultan and people, contain about 100,000 inhabitants and all are Mohammedans.

The Sulu islands, and the treaty guarantees them protection in all their beliefs and institutions, Mohammedanism, polygamy, and slavery!

Housekeepers are interested in prices raised by the Trusts, among others: Wall paper, 25 to 80 per cent. Tinware, from 20 to 500 per cent.

On Tuesday elections were held in twelve states, namely, in Ohio for governor and state officers. Iowa for governor and state officers.

Twelve months ago few people would have predicted that by this time such Republican leaders as John Sherman, George F. Hoar, George F. Edmunds, Thomas B. Reed and Eugene Hale would be utterly without influence or recognition in the supreme councils of their party.

The little band of religious enthusiasts who went recently from Missouri to Palestine, expecting there to witness the second coming of Christ, are in a bad way, according to The N. Y. Tribune.

This is the first state campaign in this county which closed without any meetings having been held or public speaking done by either party.

All that certain piece of land situate in Boggs Township, Centre County, Pennsylvania, bounded and described as follows:

Henry Heffright, the seven-year-old son of John H. Heffright, of Huntingdon, died Tuesday of lockjaw.

A new way to pay old debts was up before Squire Frederick, at Irwin, Pa. S. F. McGonigle charged Mrs. Daniel Long with having eaten up a note for $48.25 held against her husband.

Reading the Democratic candidates pledged themselves to do no treating, and lived up to the pledge, thereby gaining the respect of the people.

High School—Lizzie Bosser, Grace Lee, Elsie Ocker, Edwin Bartholomew, Ralph Bosser, John Foreman, John Hosterman, Walter Lee, Grammar School, Teacher D. W. Gela.

Last year, a corn-farm of 6,000 acres in Iowa yielded a net profit of $50,000. About 3,800 acres of corn were actually planted.

The barn of William and Samuel Yoder, of Bratton township, and tenanted by James Gagegan, was totally destroyed by fire on Monday of last week.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Cubans are threatening war to have their Independence, and hold McKinley as being two-sided.

Reports have it that Aguinaldo is surrounded on three sides and his capture believed certain. So mote it be to end the war.

The Boers are giving out that all the victories claimed by the British, are fudge, and that when they, the Boers, retreated, it was because they were out of ammunition.

Foreign powers discredit all reports of an intended intervention in the Boer war. England, in the end, will conquer, and hold possession of South Africa with a government like that of Canada.

In the good Book is contained the warning that no drunkard shall enter the kingdom of heaven. In the case of Adams' candidacy for superior judge the people decreed that no swindler shall be elected to office.

President McKinley went to Canton, his home in Ohio, to vote.

ELECTIONS HELD.

On Tuesday elections were held in twelve states, namely, in Ohio for governor and state officers.

Iowa for governor and state officers. Kentucky, Mississippi, Maryland and Massachusetts, governors and state officers.

Nebraska a judge of the supreme court and regents of the university. Pennsylvania governor and state officers.

There were five tickets in Ohio, five in Iowa, six in Kentucky, two in Mississippi, three in Nebraska, two in South Dakota, three in Maryland, five in Pennsylvania and five in Massachusetts.

Sayings From "The Ram's Horn."

Some fellows—not men—will only support the Right when they think it is popular, and ready to support the Wrong when that is popular.

There are two kinds of mischief makers, 1st, the open blatherer of untruths about neighbors; 2nd, the underhanded coward who assails you from ambush.

The loud vaporing what this or that one should aid in doing, is generally from the lips of such who have no useful deeds to their own credit.

The unmanly man will ever be jealous of the least profit his neighbor has, but himself exacts the highest prices and skins a neighbor whenever he can.

How Animals Doctor Themselves.

If a Reporter reader has a sick animal remember nature has made it to be its own doctor. When a dog loses his appetite he eats dog grass if he can get it. Cats do the same.

Atte Up a Note for $48.25.

A new way to pay old debts was up before Squire Frederick, at Irwin, Pa. S. F. McGonigle charged Mrs. Daniel Long with having eaten up a note for $48.25 held against her husband.
