DEWEY IS MARRIED.

THE ADMIRAL AND MRS. HAZEN ARE UNITED FOR LIFE.

NO GUESTS WERE PRESENT

The Ceremony Performed in Washington at the Rectory of St. Paul's Catholic Church, by Rev. James F. Mackin, Pas tor of the Church, in the Presence of a Small Company.

Washington, (Special.)-Admiral George Dewey and Mrs. Mildred M. Hazen were married quietly at the rectory of St. Paul's Catholic Church in V street, near Fifteenth, this city, shortly before ten o'clock Thursday morning. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. James F. Mackin, pastor of the church, assisted by the Rev. Joseph H. Foley, assistant pastor, and the Rev. Sidney Huribut. The ceremony was of the simplest character, according to the rites of the Catholic Church, and the only witnesses besides the officiating ciergymen were Mrs. Washngton McLean and Mrs. Ludlow, wife of Admiral Ludlow, mother and sister, respec-tively, of the bride, and Lieutenant Caldwell, Admiral Dewey's secretary.

The arrangements for the wedding were made with all the secrecy which has attended the whole affair. After procuring the license for the wedding Lieutenant Caldwell called upon Father Mackin, of St. Paul's, of which church Mrs. Hazen is a communicant, and arranged for the wedding. As Admiral Dewey is not a Catholic, a special dispensation was required for the performance of the ceremony, and this was procured by Father Mackin from Bishop Curtis, vicar general of the Diocese of Baltimore.

At 9.45 two carriages containing the wedding party drew up before the modest red brick rectory in the rear of St. Paul's. The general public had no intimation of where the ceremony was to take place, and not a single spectator was present as the party alighted. Admiral Dewey and Lieutenant Caldwell quickly stepped from their carriage, and the Admiral assisted the brideelect and her mother and sister from the other carriage. Mrs. Hazen was gowned in a pearl gray silk, over which she wore a long, stylish black wrap, trimmed with silver fox and lined with lavender silk. The Admiral wore a black frock coat, gray trousers and a slik hat. Upon entering the rectory they were ushered into the reception room, where Admiral Dewey was presented to Father Mackin and the two clergymen who were to assist in the ceremony. being presented to Father Mackin the Admiral said he had heard that Father Mackin had in his early years been a sailor, and it gave him additional happiness to know that e was to be married by a clergyman who had at one time followed the sea. Father Mackin replied that when he found he could not become an admiral, he had determined to become a priest. Mrs. Hazen removed her wrap, and she and the Admiral immediately took their places in the center of the little reception room, where the ceremony was performed which made them man and wife. Father Mackin and his assistants wore simple black cassocks. The ceremony was performed with the ring, according to the nuptual rites of the Catholic Church. Including the address of Father Mackin, it consumed less than five minutes. Father Mackin was the first to hail the bride as Mrs. Dewey. Congratulations and felicitations followed, and the ding party drove directly from the rectory to the residence of the bride's mother. Mrs. McLean.

After arriving at the McLean residence, Admiral Dewey was driven to his own house. There he changed his costume for a traveling suit, returning to the McLean residence on foot. The wedding breakfast at Mrs. McLean's lasted an hour. There were present only the bride and groom, Mrs. McLean, Mrs. Ludlow, Lieutenant Caldwell and Mr. Fred Burgher. The table was elaborately decorated with bride's roses.

Early this fall the management of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad decided that the uniformed force should be provided with service stripes, and on the winter uniforms each man has one or more gold stripes on German War. his right sleeve if he has been in the service for five years or more. The gold stripe stands for five years continuous employment by the company, and a glance over the list levelops an interesting and instructive condition of affairs. The ordinary man, in a peaceful and uneventful vocation, is seldom in continuous service for forty years, yet on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad there is a hale and hearty old man, with keen, undimmed eyes, and a springy step that has been in the continuous employ of the company for 50 years. W. H. Green is his name, but everybody on the line calls him "Captain Harry. Captain Green is probably the oldest passenger conductor in the world and wears ten stripes on his right arm. Next to Captain Green, in length of serrice, comes S. R. Hume, who is entitled to nine gold stripes of five years each. S. T. Gill and S. Riley are wearing eight stripes, and there are seven on the blue coat sleeve of E. Caskey, J. F. Galloway, J. E. Lee, E. R. Mullen, W. L. Pearl, A. E. Pickett and L.

G. Watkins. It is a remarkable fact that the conduc tors of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad represent so many years of service. In fact, the average for 191 conductors is 20 years. Some of the passenger brakemen have seen long years of continuous employment, there being three entitled respectively to four, five and six stripes. For many years Baltimore and Ohio train employes have had an enviable reputation for politeness to passengers and attention to duty, and the adoption of the service stripe system will give the traveling public an opportunity to recognize long and faithful service.

TO TRAP AGUINALDO.

AN IMPORTANT EXPEDITION SETS OUT FROM MANILA.

WARSHIPS WILL ASSIST.

General Wheaton in Command of the Forces, Consisting of Two Regiments of Infantry, Two Guns of the Sixth Artillery, and Two Gatlings-An Attempt Will Be Made to Cut Off Aguinaldo.

Manila, (By Cable.)-A fleet of transports and gunboats have left Manila for the most important expedition of the autumn campaign. Its destination is supposed to be Bagupan or some other northern port.

General Wheaton commands, with a brigade consisting of the Thirteenth Infantry, the Thirty-third Infantry, two guns of the Bixth Artillery and two Gatlings. The transports Sheridan, Francisco de Reyes and Aztee carry the troops, with the gunboat Helena as escort.

A despatch-boat was sent ahead to arrange a rendezvous with the United States cruiser Charleston and the other warships that are patrolling the north coast of Luzon.

The landing will be made under cover of the guns of the fleet. It is assumed here that the purpose of the expedition is to move down the Dagupan-Manila Railroad, toward Tarlac, or to prevent Aguinaldo's forces making another base farther north.

Dagupan and Apparri are the strongholds of the insurgents in the north, and, it is supposed, the points where most of the filibustering parties land.

Since the beginning of the hostilities it has been the unanimous opinion of military experts here that Dagupan should be made a base of operations, but sufficient troops have heretofore been lacking. With Gens. Wheaton, MacArthur and Lawton moving upon Tarlac from three directions, and the mountains hemming in the other side, the insurgent capital will soon become untenable.

quarters to the rich tobacco country at the northern end of the island. Possibly, he may slide around General Lawton's front to the southern provinces; but, as MacArthur's and Lawton's troops are spread across the country from Cabanatuan to Angeles, it will be difficult for the insurgents to escape. Should the concerted operations succeed, organized insurrection, on a large scale, should be at an end early next spring, altinue for a long time. No one anticipates

Aguinaldo may attempt to shift his head-that the insurgents will make many bard battles. The problem is to move the troops about the country, to maintain transportation, and to hold the territory gained. The moral effect of the arrival of a large American army is calculated upon to sap Aguinaldo's strength by desertions, and through the loss of hope among the supporters of the revolutionary movement.
