

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of town.

—Wm. Reed, of Milroy, is staying at the home of his aunt, Mrs. McCully.

—Mrs. Susan McCully, quite an aged lady, is quite ill from infirmities incident to old age.

—Rev. J. M. Bearick is attending the Lutheran conference in session this week at Salona.

—Clyde Smith went to Lewisburg yesterday afternoon after being home for nearly two weeks.

—Mrs. W. A. Jacobs has been ill during the last week from a slight attack of heart trouble.

—Mrs. Julia Lively, of Flemington, Pa., was the guest of her friend, Mrs. N. Benner, last week.

—Mrs. Emma A. Fisher, of Boalsburg, is at the home of her sister, Mrs. W. A. Jacobs, since last week.

—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kurtz went to Philadelphia and West Chester on Monday to remain this week.

—Ex-Co. Commissioner John Wolf, of Rebersburg, was a visitor in town over Sunday with relatives.

—Harrison Walker, Esq., and C. R. Kurtz, of Bellefonte, drove over to spend Sunday in Centre Hall.

—Will R. Keller, son of drayman Peter Keller, has gone to Munson, this county, where he has secured employment.

—Mrs. John Huff returned to her home at Lamar on Monday morning, after a visit with her daughter, Mrs. F. M. Crawford.

—Miss Elsie Foreman, who had been visiting her aunt at Pine Grove Mills, Mrs. John Homan, is home again with her father.

—Will Odenkirk has been at Paddy Mountain Tunnel the last week in charge of the railroad station during the absence of that operator.

—Wm. H. Keller, who is a sawyer in a mill above Williamsport, came home last week to attend the election, and spend a week or two with his family.

—Prof. B. M. Wagenseller left on Friday afternoon to spend several days at Milton and Selinsgrove, returning on Monday morning to resume his school work.

—Mr. S. P. Hennigh, living east of Potters Mills, was a pleasant visitor while in town on Monday. He was accompanied by his two bright young sons, David and Ellis.

—Dr. S. C. Jacquemin, of Blossburg, Pa., has decided to locate at Centre Hall, and open a dental parlor. He has rented the dwelling to be vacated by Geo. Mowery, who moves to Lewisburg.

—Mr. A. O. Detwiler, of near Colyer, was a caller yesterday. He purchased a few days ago the truck farm from C. A. Buttorf, at Colyer, and is thinking seriously of taking possession himself in the spring.

—John Van Pelt arrived yesterday morning from Hastings, Pa., where he has been employed in the coal office of Duncan & Spangler. John will remain at home for some time, and will not return for the present.

—Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Van Pelt arrived here on Tuesday afternoon from Ithaca, N. Y., on a visit among friends in their old home. They will remain a couple weeks while Geary can look after his business interests here.

—Ex-Sheriff John Spangler left Tuesday afternoon for Philadelphia, where he will be the guest of his son, Col. J. L. Spangler. He will remain until ready to come home, and proposes taking in all sights in that section before doing so.

—Samuel Ruhl, a member of the G. A. R., of Philipsburg, came to Centre Hall last Saturday, as the officer detailed for inspection of Samuel Shannon Post. He could not perform his duties, being summoned home by illness in his family.

—Mr. J. B. Fleisher, of Binghampton, N. Y., arrived on Saturday, on a visit to his sister, and to attend to some business in connection with settling up the estate of his father. Mr. Fleisher has been very successful in the business world, amassing quite a fortune.

—Sheriff-elect Cyrus Brungard was in town Monday for a short time on his way to Bellefonte. He has been kept busy receiving congratulations over the large vote given him, but he's the same Cyrus as of old, and not in the least affected by his great popularity.

—Thomas Sankey and William Stover took their departure yesterday from Spring Mills, for Freeport, Ill., where the boys will again resume their positions. They have been at their old homes for the last couple months having a good time and will now get down to work again.

—Dr. E. J. Wolf, of the Gettysburg, Pa., Lutheran Theological Seminary, was here on a visit with relatives over Sunday. On Sunday morning he filled the pulpit for Rev. Bearick, and delivered a sermon that was forceful. The Dr. is endeavoring to raise funds to liquidate an indebtedness on his institution.

—Rev. Rhoads, Will Reuter and Al. Kraps who were out hunting for deer last week with the "Regulars," came home on Saturday, and went in again early Monday morning to join

"de gang." They hadn't any deer up to that time, but there's plenty of fun they are having. The boys will come home this week.

—Harry L. Camp, for several years the traveling representative through the eastern states for a large Chicago candy house, has received the promotion to be superintendent of all the salesmen of the firm. Besides having the direction of the many salesmen, he will also have control of the "Cracker-Jack" department, a line in which Harry met with great success in marketing. He is the son of Mr. W. R. Camp, now residing in Tyrone, and for many years the family were residents of Centre Hall. Harry is married and lives with his family at Tyrone, but will be compelled to move to Chicago in assuming his new position.

BOALSBURG.

A Letter of Interest from that Busy Town and Vicinity.

Mrs. John From spent several days last week at Tyrone.

All persons who wish to go hunting on Saturdays, should not fail to go with Hower and Dinges.

Nannie Baily, who for several weeks has been visiting her sister near Pittsburg returned home.

L. W. Kimport was the first one to slaughter hogs in this vicinity. Pork seems very scarce this fall.

John Wieland and his mechanics are busily engaged in constructing sleighs and sleds for his winter trade.

Dr. Holloway next Friday evening will deliver his lecture, "Sights and Insights of Europe" in the Lutheran church. Admission 15 cents.

Walter Shutt, of Boalsburg, and Annie Johnson, of Pleasant Gap, were married last week above town, at the home of Mr. Hedding, by Rev. A. A. Black.

A party went into the Meadows during the first week of the season, and Harry Bailey succeeded in downing a small doe and that is the only venison that has come to town this fall.

Adam Hosterman and daughter and several other residents drove to Huntingdon, and spent several days at the home of his son Henry, who is employed at the Blair paper works.

The Republican party brought the following persons home for election: Harry Hess, Math. Goheen, Frank Fisher, and Samuel Woods, from Philadelphia, and George Hunter, from Latrobe.

About one hundred scholars are enrolled in the Boalsburg schools at this time; the scholars are about all in. The schools are progressing nicely under experienced and able teachers, and cannot help but be successful.

A party from Shingletown and vicinity are camping at Laurel Run; by Saturday night they had three of the fleet footed animals. These parties anticipate remaining in their respective camps till next Saturday, and possibly longer.

Hunting has so taken possession of the people of our community that even one of the women has frequently been seen shouldering a shot gun and going to the mountains for a day's hunt. We have not heard however of her ever bringing any game home.

Mrs. P. H. Meyer spent part of last week at Spring Mills. Philip, the day after election went into his corn field and with some assistance until Saturday night had his corn all husked. He is now ready to take upon himself the responsibility of the office to which his friends have elected him.

Our community is well represented this fall in the mountains. The Modocs last Wednesday went to camp at Stone creek. Several persons came from their camp on Sunday and report having sighted several deer, and even got several shots, but none effective. The Reilly party located Wednesday morning at the Bear Meadows. Some of the party returned Saturday with no venison.

SPRING MILLS.

Current Comments and Observations by Our Scribe.

Harry Frankenberg has changed his residence, moved on the "hill," into the dwelling formerly occupied by Mr. Feteroff.

R. G. Kennelley, B. F. Kennelley, Harry Coufer, the four Sweetwood brothers, Robert Coultron, Jerry Zettle, C. Gentzel, George Fredericks and Perry Alters, a dozen of our Nimrods, left on Monday last for a weeks' sport, gunning particularly, in the Seven mountains. They established their camp in the Wild Cat Gap. Venison will be plenty next week—perhaps.

When Mr. Ruhl commenced the restaurant business in the village, he asked our merchants as a special favor, not to deal in oysters, but to give him an opportunity to build up a trade in that line with his time and attention. This request was cheerfully complied with, and in consequence Mr. Ruhl has secured quite a large oyster trade. But of late a huckster of our neighborhood not satisfied with dealing in butter, eggs and poultry, and being aware of the understanding Mr. Ruhl had with our merchant is, notwithstanding peddling oysters from house to house from one end of the village to the other, of course his sales are limited, as our people do not approve of such proceedings. No one questions the peddler's right to buy and sell what he pleases, but in this case would it not be better policy, and more creditable to act with the other merchants, and abstain from dealing in oysters.

A day or two since in conversation with a friend about the business outlook, politics and that favorite Republican song of prosperity, when I remarked that I would be really glad to see some evidence that prosperity was a reality—a fact and not a mere phantom or delusion. He laughingly replied evidences, why you can have all the evidence you want, you have it right here in your own vineyard, you know as well as I do that some men are so very busy, so surcharged with prosperity that they are forced to toil on Sunday. Six working days are not sufficient, one man he was informed was so overloaded with prosperity during the week, that he was obliged to tar paint his roof on Sunday. Now he continued with a smile, isn't that prosperity? Of course that is prosperity with a vengeance, only it seems a trifle rough on the moral law.

COBURN.

A Child Found Dead in Bed.—Death of Mrs. John Hoover.

N. B. Schaeffer, of near Centre Hall, was a visitor to this place Tuesday.

The meteoric shower failed to materialize Tuesday night, clouds interfering.

Mrs. J. E. Koonoy and children, after spending three weeks at Harrisburg, returned home one day last week.

The lively sale of T. B. Witmyer on Tuesday afternoon was well attended, and the articles sold brought fair prices.

J. F. Garthoff, our corpulent Justice, had a quiet wedding on Tuesday evening; the contracting parties being Mr. John E. Mullen and Miss Viola Auman, both of Penn township.

The infant child of Robert C. and Sarah Fryer died some time during Monday night. On Tuesday morning when its mother awoke she was horrified to find that her child was dead. The cause of its sudden death is unknown.

The remains of Susan Hoover, wife of John Hoover, of near this place, were brought to this place on Tuesday morning from Danville, Pa., whither she had been taken and lodged in the hospital for the insane, about three weeks ago. Her remains were interred in the cemetery at Paradise church on Wednesday forenoon; she was aged about sixty-five years. Her maiden name was Sanders, sister to Jacob Sanders, and of Mrs. T. F. Auman, of Green Briar.

MILLHEIM.

The Citizens Tender Sheriff-Elect Brungart a Reception.

Mrs. Christian Miller, of Coburn, spent Tuesday in town.

Mrs. Sara Orndorf is entertaining her sister from Huntingdon this week.

Charles Bassler, of Freeburg, is staying at the home of Mr. Spigelmyer at present.

Mr. and Mrs. James Mauck, of Nittany, visited their daughter Mrs. I. C. Smith, on Penn street, over last Sunday.

Druggist Morris, Barber Springer, Blacksmith Fisher, Noey Stover and a Mr. Hoffman, from Millersburg, spent a few days in Little Sugar valley hunting pheasants. They returned on Friday evening with a fine string of birds.

Cap. Keiss, a traveling salesman from Philadelphia, spent Sunday in Millheim. The Captain spent four years with Dewey on the water. He is a very pleasant gentleman and brim full of sailor's yarns. He thinks Mr. Dewey the finest Naval officer in America.

On last Thursday evening the Millheim Band proceeded to the residence of Sheriff-elect Brungart, and gave him a serenade. After the band had discoursed some excellent music Mr. Brungart in his characteristic style made a neat and appropriate address. Prof. Rothrock, although a Republican, followed Mr. Brungart, complimenting the people on their choice. Editor Raine was the last speaker. He became quite eloquent, displaying oratory, until the audience became hilarious. This was the editor's first effort before a Millheim audience, but he proved equal to the occasion.

TUSSEYVILLE BUDGET.

The Events of the Week as Seen by an Alert Scribe.

We are glad to hear that Edna Ishler is improving.

Charles Bitner, of Joplin, Missouri, is still seen in this vicinity.

Mrs. George Burchfield and children are visiting her mother, Mrs. McClellan.

W. C. Love went to Bellefonte Monday to secure employment. Hope he met with success.

The Evangelical Association has quite an interesting meeting; they have had several converts.

From present indications there will be several weddings in Tusseyville and vicinity between this and spring.

Mrs. Mary B. Fortney expects to leave on Wednesday for Lancaster, where she will spend the winter.

Dr. E. J. Wolf delivered quite an interesting discourse in the Union church in behalf of the Theological Seminary at Gettysburg, which was repaired several years ago. The amount received was about $65.

From New Zealand.

Reefton, New Zealand, Nov. 23, 1899. I am very pleased to state that since I took the agency of Chamberlain's medicines the sale has been very large, more especially of the Cough Remedy. In two years I have sold more of this particular remedy than of all other makes for the previous five years. As to its efficacy, I have been informed by scores of persons of the good results they have received from it, and know its value from the use of it in my own household. It is so pleasant to take that we have to place the bottle beyond the reach of the children.
