F. A. CARSON POTTERS MILLS.

Horse Ran Four Miles.

On last Saturday a week Wilbur Henney, had a decidedly interesting experience in a runaway in a wild and lonely region of the Seven mountains. In company with Miss Flodie Clements, of this place, Wilbur left early in the morning to drive to McAlevy's Fort, Huntingdon county. When they had reached the top of the mountain beyond Pine Grove Mills, they stopped to eat a lunch in the mountain wilds. Both were out of the buggy and Wilbur had taken the bridle off the horse to feed it. The horse was nervous and uneasy, and before he succeeded in getting on the halter the horse made a plunge and upset the buggy. Now thoroughly frightened the horse started on a wild run down the mountain into Stone valley. The road was narrow and the buggy soon righted itself, and the horse ran about four miles before it was caught at a settlement. The top and dash were wrecked, while the shafts, spokes and other parts of the buggy were damaged. The horse was badly cut about the legs. In the struggles the horse got a leg over the shaft cross bar and in this way dragged the buggy along. The harness was badly torn. Wilbur thinks the horse frightened at a bear or some other wild animal in the mountains. Wilbur and Miss Flodie had to walk the distance to where the horse was caught, when repairs were made and they resumed their journey.

Enterprise.

Millheim has citizens that are made of the proper material when it is proposed to push an enterprise for the town's benefit. They have organized a board of trade, and that organization has about secured a shirt factory with about fifty machines, and give employment to at least sixty hands. The citizens subscribed liberally to the project, and the company will have a capital stock of $10,000. With the factory in operation all lines of trade will be benefited, but it is sadly handicapped without railroad facilities. A trolley line would be a great advantage, and with the public enterprise shown by its citizens, we feel safe in predicting that it will go through in a few years.

Diphtheria.

The Scientific American gives this recipe, which the whole world ought to know. "At the first indication of diphtheria in the throat of the child, make the room close, then take a cup and pour into it a quantity of tar and turpentine, equal parts; then hold the cup over a fire, so as to fill the room with fumes. The little patient on inhaling the fumes, will cough up and spit out all the membranous matter, and the diphtheria will pass out. The fumes of the tar and turpentine will loosen the matter in the throat and thus afford the relief that has baffled the skill of the physicians."

Could Not be Seen.

That zone of meteors that mother earth was scheduled to pass through some day this week at any time from Monday to this morning, giving us a display of fireworks that was to be magnificent, did not materialize, and we must wait another thirty-three years for another opportunity. Since Monday, the sky was heavily clouded, and the display could not be seen.

For the Clergymen.

Clergymen are interested in the fact that under a new ruling of the general passenger agents' association, a new style of certificate is to be prepared for them. It will cost $1.00, and will entitle them to half rate fares over fifty-seven railroads in the United States.

MANY WANT A POSITION.

Applicants in Plenty for County Office Clerkships.

Now that the election is over and the agony at end for the rival candidates of both parties to secure the good county offices, a gift from the people, there's a grain of satisfaction for all of the defeated Republican aspirants that it is their more lucky opponent who is now besieged on every hand by Democrats from all parts of the county, for the position of deputy or clerk under the new officials.

Around the county court house several positions to be filled after January 1st. The Commissioners need a clerk, a position requiring a man of business ability, at a salary of $800 per year, with a couple hundred more to be picked up around the county offices by the right sort of a fellow. There is a lively chase for this job, among them being Recorder J. C. Harper, Deputy Recorder Dukeman, Boyd Musser, and ex-Prothonotary L. A. Schaeffer, all of Bellefonte, and David Keller, son of James A. Keller, east of Centre Hall, and Frank H. Swab, the prominent Linden Hall Democrat. Friends of all these are pushing the claims of each upon Commissioners-elect Heckman and Meyer. For the legal adviser of the board, a position which the present board increased to $400 per year, several Bellefonte attorneys are lumping themselves, and prominently mentioned as in the race are, J. C. Meyer and C. M. Bower.

Sheriff-elect Brungard will require a deputy. The one mentioned with the most following, is the present obliging official, Harry Jackson. Harry is very popular and by his conduct in office, he has made a host of friends.

Farmed Cabbage.

W. A. Sandoe tried his luck during the last summer as a cabbage farmer, putting out that article on two town lots, and he was rewarded for his labor by harvesting a crop of 6,200 heads. He sold a small lot of the cabbage, and the bulk he manufactured into sauer kraut, of which he has several hundred gallons in course of process. The finished article he will ship to other markets. He expects to do trucking on a very large scale next year, and bewails the fact that we do not have a canning factory to afford a ready market for all lines of vegetables. This valley is an excellent producer, and such an enterprise would have plenty of material to work on.

Concert Saturday Evening.

The C. M. Parker Concert Company will appear in Grange Arcadia, on Saturday evening next, Nov. 18th. The company is an excellent one, and the town is fortunate in having such a high-class entertainment. There are six members in the troupe, and each one is an artist. The company is highly recommended in all towns in the state where it has appeared, and has received flattering endorsements. Admission, 25 and 15 cents.

House Burned.

On Wednesday afternoon a house occupied by Charles Nolan, located about two miles below Jacksonville, caught fire and burned to the ground. Part of the household goods were saved. Mrs. Nolan who was sick at the time was carried out on a bed through the flames, thus saving her life.

A Veteran Journalist Dead.

John F. Meginness, a veteran journalist and well-known historian, fell dead on Saturday evening at his home in Williamsport. He was familiarly known throughout this part of the state, under the name of "John of Lancaster." He was born in Lancaster county in 1827, and served through the Mexican war.

Petition for a New Bridge.

The vacation of the pike from Centre Hall to the Mifflin county line, has thrown that road upon Potter township. The supervisor, Adam Krumrine, informs us the red bridge is in unsafe condition and to put it in safe condition would be at the expense of the township. A new county bridge is likely to be petitioned for.

Lutheran Conference.

The northern conference of the Evangelical Lutheran synod of Central Pennsylvania, was held in St. Paul's Lutheran church, Salona, November 13, 14 and 15. The officers of the conference are: President, Rev. W. M. Spangler; secretary, W. M. Rearick; treasurer, J. M. Rearick.

Immense Lump of Ore.

At one of the iron ore banks near Scotia, this county, there was recently taken out a lump of ore which weighed sixty tons. The lump had to be broken in pieces before it could be removed from the bank.

Increased the Price.

The Pennsylvania railroad has increased the price paid for cross ties to the following: 1st class ties, white and rock oak, 55 cents; 2nd class ties, white and rock oak, 30 cents; chestnut ties, 1st class size, 35 cents.

Rates Advanced.

The Pennsylvania railroad company has issued notices of a general advance of local freight rates of fifteen cents per ton, to take effect on November 15.

Died in Kentucky.

Mr. James C. Benner, a native of this valley, died last Thursday at his home at Grand Rapids, Kentucky, after a long illness. Mr. Benner was aged about seventy years, and leaves a wife and two daughters to survive him. The deceased was born at Potters Mills, where he resided until he attained his majority. For several years he was employed in a store in Bellefonte, later securing employment at Curtin's works. For some years he was the proprietor of a store in Lock Haven, thence moving to Kentucky. At the time of his death he was postmaster of the town in which he died. His wife, Mrs. Aggie, was the daughter of Robert Porter, deceased. The late William Benner, deceased, of Centre Hall, was a brother.

Work of a Centre Haller.—Bethany Church in Philadelphia.

The Ledger: Bethany Evangelical Lutheran Church, in Philadelphia, has just closed its sixteenth year, which has been the most prosperous one in its history. During that period over 15,000 persons have attended the services under the ministry of the pastor, the Rev. S. G. Shannon, and nearly $500 was raised, all current indebtedness having been paid. Last Tuesday evening the Sunday school observed its sixteenth anniversary, when an address was made by the Rev. W. M. Baum, D. D. The report of the Superintendent, W. H. Bartholomew, showed a total membership of 658; attendance, 15,702; visitors, 636, and a gain of 104 scholars during the year. The school contributed $864.69.

Sunday Evening Services.

Rev. Black will occupy the pulpit in the Reformed church, Centre Hall, next Sunday evening, Nov. 18, at 7.00 o'clock. Rev. Black is pastor of the Boalsburg Reformed church.

Rev. Firore, of Williamsport, has accepted an invitation to preach for the Centre Hall charge of the Reformed church as follows: Tusseyville, Saturday evening, Nov. 25, at 7 p. m.; at Union church, Sunday morning, 26th, at 10 o'clock; at Spring Mills, at 2 p. m.; and Centre Hall, Sunday evening, at 7 o'clock.

Small Game Destroyed.

During the recent forest fires hundreds of small game lost their lives in the flames. A hunter on surmounting a small knob near Osceola, which had been encircled by the fire and finally burned over found hundreds of skeletons of rabbits and pheasants which had succumbed to the fury of the flames, after being driven for safety to the circle within the fire, which gradually narrowed until the helpless creatures were suffocated and finally consumed.

Died in Penn Township.

Peter W. Zeigler, an esteemed citizen of Penn township, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. H. Musser, at Smithtown, west of Millheim. He had been in ill health for over a year, and in the latter part of October had a stroke of paralysis, which resulted in death on Friday, Nov. 2. His age was about seventy years. He leaves two daughters to survive him.

Died at Bellefonte.

Mrs. James Haus, sister of G. R. and Shem Spigelmyer, died at the home of her brother Ralph, last evening. She was a resident of Mifflinburg, but for the last three months has made her home with her brother at Bellefonte. She had been ill for some time. Her remains will be taken to Mifflinburg for interment on Friday morning.

Rough on Sheep.

Our friend, A. B. McNitt, as we see from the Lewistown Gazette, had a raid from dogs made on his sheep, a few nights ago, killing and wounding thirty, ten of which were killed outright and others in order to keep them from suffering were killed when found. The auditors met at S. A. McClintic's and assessed the damage at $101.

Crossinger Gets a Respite.

Edward Crossinger, the convicted murderer of Daisy Smith, near Sunbury, who was to have been hanged on November 14, has been granted a respite by Governor Stone until December 5 in order to allow him to get his case before the board of pardons on November 15.

How to Keep Apples.

An exchange tells us that the proper method to keep apples in the winter is to wrap them in old newspapers so as to exclude the air. The newspaper, however, must be one on which the subscription has been paid, otherwise dampness resulting from what is "dew" may cause the fruit to spoil.

Never Recovered from the Injury.

About five years ago Mrs. Sarah Auman, living near Sober, fell and broke her hip. The injury left her an invalid, and her death occurred on Monday of last week. She was aged 73 years, 10 months and 23 days.

Revival in Progress.

Rev. Chilcote, pastor of the M. E. church, began a series of nightly meetings on Monday evening. The Rev. is doing good work, with a good attendance nightly, and seekers already having gone forward.

THE CURTIN MONUMENT.

Citizens Petition Commissioners to Appro- priate $5,000.

During the past week General James A. Beaver, chairman of the Curtin monument committee, sent to every voting district in Centre county petitions for the signatures of voters, which will be presented to the grand jury, November 27, asking for an appropriation from the county funds for the erection of a soldiers' monument in Bellefonte. Reports have already been received from various parts of the county, and it is believed that not less than 5,000 citizens will join in asking for the appropriation. This, it is believed, will have the result of securing at least a $5,000 donation from the county.

With such an amount to start on, in addition to the $1,100 already pledged from other sources, there will be little doubt of the ability to raise a sufficient sum to erect a handsome monument at Bellefonte, to the memory of Centre county's deceased soldiers and sailors, with a life-size statue of Ex-Governor A. G. Curtin as the topmost figure.

Want a Post Office.

The good citizens residing on the other side of our valley in the neighborhood designated as Georges Valley, are agitating the question of a post office in their community. These people are so situated that they receive their mail at Spring Mills or Potters Mills, being distant about two and one-half miles from each point. A post office with a daily mail would be a great convenience to this section, and in the move and in correspondence with the Department, they have been encouraged. Several names have been suggested, among them that of Barger, many families of that name residing in the community, and that of Beech. Frank McClellan will likely receive the commission, and should he do so, he will open a general store near the church.

An Eccentric Man's Funeral.

The funeral Sunday afternoon of the late Furman Field, of Field's Station, Lycoming county, was unique in its simplicity. It was the eccentric request of the old man that no services be held, and that no hearse be used to convey his remains to the cemetery. The coffin was placed in an open spring wagon, and pulled across the country by the deceased's old gray horse, so old that it was almost unequal to the task. By request of the deceased the funeral procession made its way across the country by way of Quaker hill, ten or fifteen miles father than the direct route. Field was a very wealthy lumberman.

A Severe Winter Predicted.

We are to have a cold, hard, long winter. All the signs portend it, and infallible authorities prove it. They have been consulted, and the result is as follows: "The goose bone is nearly all white this year, and those who know say that the result will be that the snow will lie on the ground from early December until late in April, and that a long, cold winter, filled with blustering storms, is ahead. There are other signs that confirm this. Corn husks are unusually thick and the woodchucks and chipmunks are now fat enough to kill."

Weight of Mails.

Postmaster Boal completed the weighing of all mail sent out on railroad from the Centre Hall office, as required by the Department from Oct. 3 to Nov. 6, inclusive. The total number of pounds sent out during that period was 2,006. This does not include the mail sent across to the other side of the valley by wagon. No record was made of the number of pieces handled, which will run up into the many thousands.

Life Tenure in Office.

Commissioner Gemberling has just been elected to his fourth term as county commissioner—a record that very few others can show. Union county officials are a fortunate lot anyhow. Prothonotary Shaffer has five terms to his credit, Register Shields three, Commissioner Harbeson has been elected for the second term and there is no telling where he will stop once he gets his second wind.—Lewistown Journal.

A Hunting Accident.

While out hunting Charles Kline, of Snook, Mifflin county, met with a serious accident. A rabbit ran into a hollow log. He laid his gun on the ground and was searching for the rabbit when he attempted to put the gun in a safer position. The weapon was discharged, tearing the flesh away from the bone of one arm as far up as the elbow.

83rd Anniversary.

The eighty-third anniversary of the birth of Mrs. Hester A. Long was observed by her friends and neighbors at her home at Linden Hall, on Saturday November 11th. A number of useful and appropriate gifts expressed the esteem in which this venerable lady was held.

Getting Some Game.

Our rabbit hunters James Sandoe and Charley Arney have about twenty-five cotton tails to their credit so far in the season. The boys do not report this game as plenty as credited.

Hosiery.

Shapely and attractive is every Sock and Stocking in our great line of Hosiery. You may not think it possible for us to sell Hosiery from 15 to 35 per cent. cheaper than our competitors, yet its a fact. Read what an agent says about some of his stockings we sell: "You are foolish to sell our hose at those prices!" Foolish or not, we are satisfied with the profit.
