Trouble Setting Poles.

The Bell Telephone people have been working in the town during the last week constructing their line, putting in larger and heavier poles and placing their pole line off the street where possible. This week the men aroused the ire of several property owners out towards the station in placing poles. The company has an ordinance giving them the privilege of placing poles where necessary, and at points where the council's street committee deem best. Coming in from the station the company wanted to run their line in at the side street leading past the home of Mrs. C. M. Hemphill. Mrs. Hemphill objected to having a pole erected at the corner of the two streets. The majority of the street committee located the pole at this place and to avoid day light trouble the construction gang put up the pole between one and two o'clock Tuesday morning. They worked so quietly that they did not arouse the property owners until the stringing of wires awakened the people and then the work had been done. Back the street a pole was erected which Tom. Wilson says will compel him to move his coal house or carry his coal. Some members of the council advised the cutting down of the offending timbers, but the poles still point skyward.

Foster's Weather Outlook.

My last bulletin gave forecasts of the storm wave to cross the continent from 22 to 26, and the next will reach the Pacific coast about 22, cross the west of Rockies country by close of 23, great central valleys 29 to 31 and eastern states Dec. 1.

Warm wave will cross the west of Rockies country about 27, great central valleys 29 and eastern states 31. Cool wave will cross the west of Rockies country about 30, great central valleys December 2 and eastern states December 4.

Temperature of the week ending December 4 will average below normal in the great central valleys and above in the Atlantic states and on the Pacific slope. Rainfall will be above normal in the great central valleys and below on the Pacific slope and in the Atlantic states.

About the date of this bulletin a wave of moderate temperature, averaging much higher than the first week of the month, will be moving slowly eastward across the great central valleys, and following it will come another severe cold wave—much like the first one of this month—and which will go far southward.

Clergyman's Change of Creed.

Rev. O. P. Steckel and wife, of Allentown, were on last Sunday morning confirmed members of the Episcopal church. The confirmation services took place in Trinity Church, and were conducted by Bishop Talbot. Steckel was for six years pastor of Grace Reformed Church, Easton. His contemplated change from Reformed to the Episcopal denomination was known to but few of his friends.

Cards Out.

Ex-Sheriff and Mrs. John P. Condo, of Millheim, have issued invitations announcing the marriage of their daughter, Elizabeth May, to Charles Lester Freeby, of Wilkesbarre, on November 30th.

Winter Schedule.

The Penna. R. R. winter schedule went into effect on November 19th, with but few changes in time of trains and those entirely on the main line. The schedule on the L. & T. remains as before.

HUNTERS WITH A SCORE.

One Party Bags Six Deer and a Bear on a Ten Days' Hunt.

The Fleetfoot Hunting Club which came out of the mountains from a ten days' trip after game, startled the valley with the splendid success they met with. They bagged six deer, a bear, two foxes, two wild turkeys and a number of pheasants. The party was composed of Jacob Sharer and Wm. Homan, Centre Hall; John and Geo. Homan, Harry Miller and Wes. Decker, of the Branch; Jacob Reish and Wm. Leech, Penna. Furnace; Bruce Miller and Wm. Hess, Shingletown; Bruce Lonebarger, Linden Hall; Ira Hess, Altoona; Abe. McCollum, State College, and Sam Knepp, of Boalsburg.

The party were out to the Sand Knobs, in the Bear Meadows district. The deer they got were two does, a spike buck, a four, five and six pronged bucks. Our friend Jacob Sharer brought down one of the does. Hunting parties after deer have considered themselves lucky did they bring home one or two deer, but when they come back with a half dozen and a bear, it is a nine days' wonder.

Too Much Apple.

Will Runkle with his two-horse team was busy Monday and Tuesday hauling rotten apples from the evaporating establishment, dumping them into a large sink at the upper end of town. The evaporating grounds, it seems had a rush of apples larger than the employes could handle, and rot set in. When the team passed through town the smell was like that of vinegar, which leads us to the thought that if some of our enterprising townsmen of capital would tap the earth a short distance below this sink, a well of pure cider vinegar could be struck, far more valuable than oil. Here's a chance to give the town a boom.

A Neat Swindle.

During the last few weeks a number of ladies were the victims of a neat swindle sprung on them by a smooth tongued young man. He canvassed the town claiming to represent a ladies' tailoring establishment located somewhere in Massachusetts. He solicited orders for tailor made suits at the remarkably low price of $6 per suit. He displayed a line of samples from which the ladies were to make selections and when an order was given he exacted $5 in advance, the balance to be collected by a lady who would call at the house and make the suit. Quite a number of ladies were victimized at Phillipsburg, and he got about $100 out of that town. Of course no lady ever offered to make the suit. He has been heard from in other towns in the state.

Criminal Handling of Weapons.

Several hunters have been killed or wounded this season, in the state by being mistaken for game. Criminal carelessness.

Of late several persons were killed by guns aimed at them, "I thought it wasn't loaded." When any one points a gun at another, loaded or unloaded, the law allows you to knock the fool down on the spot, and that should be done in every instance as a lasting lesson. Yes, knock him down twice and wipe the floor with him! Centre, and every county in the state, has painful records hereof.

Rev. Groh Resigns.

Rev. W. H. Groh, pastor of the Reformed church, Carlisle, Pa., has tendered his resignation as pastor to take effect February 9, 1900.

Rev. Groh was the highly esteemed pastor of the Boalsburg-Centre Hall charge, over which he served some twenty years, and resigned some 14 years ago to accept a call from Carlisle.

Union Thanksgiving Services.

There will be the usual Union Thanksgiving services in Centre Hall on Thursday next, to be held in one of the churches and announced later.

Rev. A. A. Black, of Boalsburg, will deliver the sermon. Rev. J. M. Rearick, of this place, will deliver the sermon in Boalsburg on that day.

Anxiously Awaiting a Verdict.

At the November term of court a large list of the appeal cases of the Iron City Mutual Fire Insurance Company vs. Centre county policy holders will be tried. Thousands of dollars are tied up in the controversy and should the policy holders win, it will be a source of great satisfaction to many in the county.

Italian Killed.

Last Wednesday evening an Italian was killed at McCalmont & Co's stone quarries near Bellefonte. A large rock fell from the top of the quarry, striking the man on the top of the head, killing him instantly. The man has a family of wife and five children living in his native country.

A Big Plant.

The Pennsylvania Match Company will begin operations in Bellefonte about January 1, and will employ not less than 300 people. The plant was started in opposition to the match trust which advanced the prices on that necessary article nearly one hundred per cent. With other industries started Bellefonte is having the greatest boom in its history.

POMONA GRANGE.

The Election of Officers and Reports Made.

The Centre County Pomona Grange met in session in the hall of Progress Grange, in Grange Arcadia, last Friday. There was a good attendance of members from all parts of the county, every local grange having representatives present. A number of interesting addresses were made on topics of interest to the order.

The picnic committee made a partial report showing a balance of over $200 on the right side. The secretary of the Grange Insurance company in his report for the quarter ending September 30, showed risks carried to the amount of $3,118,154, a gain for the quarter of $96,324. The amount of risks taken during the three months was $293,354. All losses which were heavy through the year from property destroyed by lightning, were paid.

The officers elected for the ensuing two years were, Master, George Dale, Lemont; Overseer, George Ebbs, Lovellville; Lecturer, Col. James F. Weaver, Milesburg; Treasurer, J. J. Musser, Bellefonte; Secretary, David Campbell, Oak Hall. The next meeting of the grange will be held in January at Hubbersburg.

Bishop Kephart Goes to Africa.

The Phillipsburg Journal says that Bishop E. B. Kephart, D. D. LL. D., probably the best known bishop of the United Brethren church, who was born and reared near Phillipsburg, sailed for West Africa. He goes to attend to important matters of the church, which have been greatly disturbed since the uprising among the natives a year ago, in which seven missionaries of the United Brethren church were massacred. Bishop Kephart takes with him four ministers, three of them accompanied by their wives, missionaries from Pennsylvania, Minnesota and Massachusetts, who are to fill the places of those murdered.

Died in Scranton.

On Monday evening at about seven o'clock, Mrs. M. C. Steinbach died at her home in Scranton. Mrs. Steinbach was the daughter of Mrs. W. P. Shopp, and was well and favorably known by many in this place, having resided here until about six years ago when they removed from this place to Scranton, where she has since resided. Two years ago she was united in marriage to Mr. M. C. Steinbach, an intelligent and industrious young man of Scranton, who is left to mourn the loss of a devoted and loving wife. The funeral took place this, Thursday morning, at 10:30 o'clock. Interment was made in the cemetery at Scranton.

Hunting Notes.

George Harter, of Redmill, a short time ago, shot seven wild ducks in one day on his mill dam. The different flocks that lit on that dam in one day had about 500 ducks.

Up to close of last week seven deer were killed in the Seven mountain region by hunters.

The Homan hunting party of Pinegrove, up to last week, killed three deer.

Theodore Hosterman, of Hains, last week shot a deer in the Seven mountains.

The Wingert brothers killed a 200 pound bear on White mountain south of Poemills, and shipped it to Philadelphia.

Thanksgiving Dinner and Supper.

The ladies of Progress Grange will relieve the cares and worries incident to providing a Thanksgiving dinner by having a turkey dinner on that day in Grange Arcadia. The price is very reasonable, only 25 cents. Dinner will be served from 3:00 to 7:00 p. m. A chicken and waffle and oyster supper will also be provided from 7:00 to 9:00 p. m. at same price. The proceeds will be appropriated to the building fund.

County Plums.

The Centre plums now ripe and ready for a "shake of the plum tree," are of the following excellent varieties:

Commissioners' Clerk, salary $800, extra service $100 making state reports $200—total $1100 per year.

Courthouse Janitor, salary and extras per year, about $700.

Commissioners' Attorney, $400 per year.

County Physician, $100 per year.

Union County Hunter Shot.

While hunting for deer about fifteen miles from Lewisburg, Frank Bair, of Millinburg, was fatally shot by a companion, who mistook him for one of the animals they were pursuing. Blair became separated from his fellow-hunter and the latter fired when he saw the bushes shake. The most of a charge of buckshot lodged in Blair's liver.

At Death's Door.

James Musser, long in the mercantile business at Hartleton, we received intelligence yesterday, was dying, having lingered for months from a complication of diseases. He is a son of Philip Musser, dec'd, at Millheim. His first wife, nee Albert, of Millheim, died some ten years ago. His present wife was a Miss Musser, from Benner township, this county. (The death of Mr. Musser occurred on Wednesday morning. He was aged about sixty years.)

THURSTON-PURMAN.

A Former Millheim Family Connected by Marriage With a U. S. Senator.

The wedding of Senator John M. Thurston, of Nebraska, and Miss Lola Purman (Poorman) took place in the home of the bride's parents, former Florida congressman Major J. W. Purman, in Washington, on last Sabbath morning, by Rev. Dr. Frank M. Bristol.

The father of the bride was known in his boyhood days at Millheim as Billy Poorman. His father was a cabinet maker having his shop near where the millrace crosses Penn street. His mother was a daughter of John Harter, an old resident of Millheim, long deceased.

Young Purman, before reaching his majority, went to Lock Haven and read law and was credited with some ability. In the civil war he rose to the rank of major, and got to Florida with the troops. In the period of reconstruction—the days of carpet-bag rule in the South—Major Purman was twice elected to congress and cut a prominent slash on the floor of the House. He came north again. Settled down in Sugar valley where he purchased several hundred acres of cheap lands on which he planted several thousand apple trees, but the investment proved a loss, and Major Purman was lost sight of, until this marriage of his daughter to Senator Thurston.

Lola Thurston, the bride, is a handsome brunette, with clear blue eyes. She wore an extremely stylish tailor-made gown of gray cloth, with imported velvet hat to match. Their wedding trip was to the South in a private car, and eat their Thanksgiving dinner in Omaha, Neb. The Senator was a widower with two young daughters at school. His second wife is 24 years of age.

The following named persons, in Centre county, are second cousins of the bride: Jacob and Israel Condo, of Boalsburg; Mrs. Emanuel Bollinger, dec'd, nee Condo, of Phillipsburg; Wm. Condo, of Aaronsburg; Mrs. Jonathan Spangler, nee Condo, of Miles township, and John and George Condo, of Illinois, and Dr. John Harter, of State College. The widow of the recently deceased Reuben Hartman, of Millheim, is an aunt of Major Purman and her children second cousins of the bride, namely, John, Wesley, and Wm. Hartman, and the daughters, Mrs. Adam F. Harter, Mrs. Hershberger, Mrs. Willis Weber, and Mrs. Lank Stover, all residing in and near Millheim.

Senator Thurston's bride is a highly-gifted young woman, whose mother was Miss Leadora Finlayson, of the wellknown old Southern family of that name. She is vivacious and a good conversationalist.

If the happy couple will put in part of their wedding trip with their cousins aforesaid, we bespeak for them a "killing of the fatted calf" and a round of turkey dinners with extras, that will set any Washington spread in the shade.

An Excellent Entertainment.

The C. M. Parker Concert Company which appeared in Grange Arcadia on Saturday evening, played to a good house, and provided an entertainment which was highly pleasing. The company is composed of five ladies, every one of whom was an artist and they received encores on every number. The company left here Sunday en route to Meadville, Pa. Should the town succeed in having a return engagement we feel confident Grange Arcadia would scarce accommodate the crowd.

Bellefonte Central Extension.

During the past week the three-mile extension of the Bellefonte Central Railroad from Waddles to Benore was completed, and now the ore from the Scotia mines is delivered to the furnaces at Bellefonte in a haul of only 20 miles, instead of over 50, as heretofore, when shipment was made around by Tyrore. As soon as the extension just completed can be put in good shape it will be opened for passenger traffic to the western end of the county.

Made Old Bruin Tumble.

While hunting near Williamsport Monday Samuel Keltz and Fred Sterling encountered a large bear which was carrying a trap fastened to one of its front paws. The bear was in an angry mood and attacked the men, who emptied their rifles at the bear, who emptied his rifles at bruin, but failed to end his life. They then used their rifles as clubs and succeeded in killing the bear, which weighed 300 pounds.

Closed Down.

The apple evaporator plant closed down on Saturday, having worked up the last of the apples. They were kept busy for over two months and worked up many thousands of bushels of apples, giving employment to about twelve hands. We understand the plant will be operated entirely by a home firm.

Easiest Method Yet.

Emile Rougeoux, of Covington township, Clearfield county, captured a fine buck in a novel manner a few days ago. His dogs ran the frightened animal into the barn yard and held it while Rougeoux cut its throat with his pocket knife. Such luck comes to few hunters.

Hosiery.

Shapely and attractive is every Sock and Stocking in our great line of Hosiery. You may not think it possible for us to sell Hosiery from 15 to 35 per cent. cheaper than our competitors, yet it's a fact. Read what an agent says about some of his stockings we sell: "You are foolish to sell our hose at those prices!" Foolish or not, we are satisfied with the profit.

We are offering an extra good line of "Home-made" Woolen Hose for men, women and children at 24c. to 34c.
