David B. Hill has taken a seat on the big Wagon. No matter what the Democratic platform may affirm or who is on the ticket, he will be in line.

When ballot stuffing is kept up like that by the machine in Philadelphia every honest citizen should stuff his feet into a pair of heaviest plow shoes and then begin to kick like blazes.

Republican organs should let Kentucky alone until ballot stuffing is proved, and turn their attention to Philadelphia stuffing. Down there it is turkey stuffing compared with the Philadelphia article.

The deer hunting season, just ended, resulted in a total of eleven hunters killed and seven wounded in Michigan and the Lake Superior sections of Wisconsin and Minnesota. Pennsylvania can put up an almost equal score of such casualties.

In order to perpetuate such frauds and ballot stuffing as committed in Philadelphia at the recent election, Governor Stone vetoed the amendment for an honest registration-and for that act he deserves impeachment.

Crack up the New York voting machine much as you wish, and it is no touch to the voting machine in Philadelphia which puts a boy of 20 years through 34 precincts, voting in each at a dollar a pop, within a short time, and can put in 200 votes in one batch.

In whatever else cheap Chinese labor may excel it is a fact that American cornmeal can be laid down in Chinese ports at a lower price than the rice which is the cheap breadstuff of that part of the globe. Consul Burlingame Johnson, at Amoy, notes an importation of over 19,000,000 pounds of rice at that port at 41 cents, a price materially higher than cornmeal, grits and hominy could be delivered for. and he believes if corn products were properly introduced there a trade could soon be established in China that much of his surplus. Iowa, Kansas and Illinois corn farmers would be great gainers by securing a market in China for their corn, and the price of States would become higher.

Should China, however, follow the example of this country and put a high tariff on corn, that would knock out alike, each being a block of white marour corn trade with the Celestials.

Beer drinking is on the increase, all over. In France the production of beer does not exceed 8,500,000 hectolitres, whereas in Belgium the consumption exceeds 10,000,000 hectolitres.
