

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of town.

—R. D. Musser, one of Gregg twp's most esteemed citizens gave us a business call.

—George Mowery removed with his family last week to Lewistown, where he is now employed.

—Mr. S. P. Hockman, one of Gregg township's good citizens, was a Centre Hall visitor yesterday.

—Miss Emma McCoy returned on Monday from a two months visit with friends in Harrisburg and Philadelphia.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Aikens, of Bellefonte, were in attendance at the funeral of Mrs. Martha Olenkirk, on Monday.

—James W. Lee, of Farmers Mills, was a caller to order bills for his public sale of live stock and implements on March 27th.

—Our townsman E. M. Huyett was confined to the house all last week from the effects of a heavy cold, but is now out again.

—Mr. Jacob Wagner, Potter township's worthy citizen and Democrat, was a pleasant caller on Monday, while in town on business.

—Mrs. Tamer Boal has been confined to her bed for the last week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. L. R. Lingle, at Earlestown, with a nervous ailment.

—Mrs. Samuel Barr, who had been visiting her brother, W. H. Stiver, near Potters Mills, for some weeks past, returned to her home in Tyrone on Saturday.

—Miss Romie Van Pelt departed last week for Philadelphia, where she expects to remain a short time visiting her uncle, Col. J. L. Spangler, and will then resume her studies at Wilson College, Chambersburg, Pa.

—W. S. Musser, station agent, and Howard F. Rossman, merchant, two of Spring Mills' representative and popular young men, were in Centre Hall a few evenings ago, circulating among their many friends.

—Mr. J. C. Brown, of Potters Mills, was in town yesterday on one of his periodical visits. He is seriously considering giving up farming this spring and making a trip through the west on a sight-seeing tour.

—R. D. Armstrong, of Siglerville, Millin county, has decided to become a citizen of Centre Hall, and was in town on Monday to secure a dwelling, which he did in the house of ex-Sheriff Spangler, now occupied by James Durst. Mr. Armstrong is setting up a large stove mill on Dale's tract on top of Nittany mountain, and he will operate extensively the coming year, with Centre Hall as his shipping point, employing a large number of men on the plant.

—The Philadelphia papers of Tuesday contained a list of the names of the successful candidates who passed the examination before the State Medical Board, and among those who secured the much coveted license to practice in the state was Dr. W. E. Park, of Centre Hall. Out of a class of 81, 35 failed to pass, a higher percentage of failures than ever known. The Dr. passed the New York examination, but this state does not recognize the same, and compelled him to go through it again, which he did successfully.

BOALSBURG.

Death of Jacob Condo, a Highly Esteemed Citizen.

There are many sick in this community—the news, therefore, is principally of the sick.

Miss Katie Myers returned from a visit to her sister, Mrs. Gettig, at Altoona, last week.

The sleigh bells rang merrily on Sunday after the fall of snow, but by evening much of the snow gave place to slush.

Rev. C. C. Creitz, the financial secretary of Home missions of the Reformed church, last week preached four excellent sermons for Rev. A. A. Black, in the Reformed church. Except one stormy evening, the house was always crowded. Your scribe thinks Rev. Creitz one of the best pulpit orators he ever heard.

The following persons of our town are sick with la grippe: Major Miller, Isaac Woomer, Mrs. Jacob Condo, Mrs. Philip Meyer, Mrs. Scott Brickner. Calvin Reiley is seriously ill with pneumonia, and Thomas Reiley has for more than a week been confined to the house with another attack of appendicitis, however, he is now able to be out again.

Mr. Jacob Condo, an old and highly respected citizen of Boalsburg, died Saturday morning after being confined to bed one week, with pneumonia, and a complication of other diseases. The deceased was buried from his residence on Main street, Monday at ten o'clock, interment in the Boalsburg cemetery. Rev. G. W. Leisher officiating. Mr. Condo was a farmer, and a leading citizen. He was for many years an official in the Lutheran church of which he was a member, and out of much respect the church council acted as pall bearers at his funeral. He was also for a number of years a school director of Harris township, and made an excellent official. The deceased was in his seventy-fourth year of age, yet he was always a hale and hearty man, never having been sick in his life before his late sickness.

MILLHEIM.

A Movement on Foot to Break up Petty Stealing.

A Walter and J. P. Condo made a flying trip to Philadelphia on Thursday afternoon, on important business.

Mrs. Grace Miller, of Johnstown, sister-in-law of Mrs. C. H. Morris, arrived in town on Wednesday and is the guest of Mrs. Morris, on Penn street.

The horse radish venders are seen on our streets daily, vying with each other in quality and price. The business must be a paying one, from the fact that so many engage in it.

Mr. James Mauck, of Salona, Clinton county, father-in-law of merchant J. C. Smith, spent a few days with friends in Millheim. He was accompanied by his daughter Minerva.

Rev. J. J. Lohr, formerly pastor of the United Evangelical church of this place, now of Berwick, Columbia county, was in town on Thursday night. The Rev. is as fleet of foot as of yore.

J. C. Smith and wife and W. J. Mauck and wife spent Sunday with Mr. Gummo, in Nittany valley. Mrs. Gummo is a sister of Mrs. Smith and Mr. Mauck, and at this writing is reported to be seriously ill.

Between Charlie and Johnnie some of our young ladies are kept very busy. Some people become over officious, and wonderfully interested, in matters pertaining to others rights and privileges. While the lamp holds out to burn the meanest gossip may return.

There is a movement on foot to break up petty stealing. A number of the citizens have suffered the loss of chickens. On Friday evening several places were invaded, and vigorous efforts instituted to put a stop to it. A warrant was issued and one of the victims lodged in jail. Developments are looked for, that will implicate parties not yet arrested.

Undertaker W. R. Weiser had four burials on hand in three days. On Thursday morning he went to Logan Mills, Sugar valley, and brought the corpse of a three-year-old child of W. D. Bartges to Millheim, and buried it in Fairview cemetery at Millheim. In the afternoon he buried a child of Samuel Wilson's, of Penn township, at Paradise; on Friday morning he buried Mrs. H. E. Crouse, at Aaronsburg, and on Saturday morning Mrs. H. T. Zerby, at Wolfes Chapel, in Haines township.

FARMERS MILLS.

John Ream, of Penn Cave, Met With a Painful Accident.

Lucy Ream is visiting in this vicinity.

Rev. J. M. Rearick contemplates holding a series of meetings here in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Zsigler, of Green Grove, Sundayed with the family of M. L. Rishel.

The family of David Vonada, who have been going throa siege of diphtheria for some time, are able to be about again.

A number of the young people have been attending the revival at Green Grove, which has been in progress for some time.

Farmers throughout this section have had the clearest and most solid ice to store away this winter they have had for some time.

J. S. Houtz, of Kingston, Illinois, who has been visiting his aged mother and relatives for the past four weeks, intends to start for Ill. next week.

Lewis Korman our jolly blacksmith, at Penn Cave, says he has never been so rushed with horse shoeing as he has been this fall, and it is all because he is doing his work at prices according to what the farmer's products are worth. Success to you.

John Ream, son of George Ream, of Penn Cave, met with a painful accident while working on the stove mill at Logan's Gap. He was running the edger and in some way got his hand into the saw, and came very near losing it. But under the careful treatment of Dr. Lee it is getting along nicely.

COBURN.

A Mad Dog Creates no Little Excitement and Chases P. H. Stover.

The family of R. F. Vonada left for Reading this, Thursday morning.

Our schools will observe the Memorial day on the 22nd of February next. The teachers of local institute district No. 1, will hold its annual session on the 9th and 10th of February at Aaronsburg. (Will give particulars later.)

The protracted meeting in the Evangelical church at this place is being well attended, and thus far has been quite successful. About a score of converts, and others seeking.

Emanuel Harter, of near Rebersburg, can wear the belt for raising the largest porker in this section. He shipped a hog on Tuesday that dressed, weighed over seven hundred pounds. Who can beat it?

The newly installed sheriff Cyrus Brungart, had official business in this section on Tuesday. "Du; won di wit schide my brode wennich dickka. Ich wor go 'wained im bush tsu shofa."

P. H. Stover had quite a chase one day last week from a mad dog. He was between Wolfes Store and Rebersburg, when he noticed a dog in the road that looked a little suspicious; he laid the whip to the horse and drove over the dog, but the dog was soon after, giving him an exciting chase for about a mile, when the dog gave up and turned off in another direction. The dog was afterwards shot near Centre Mills by constable Winters, of Miles township.

SPRING MILLS.

The Township Offices Have Good Men Named for the Places.

Our ice houses are being rapidly filled with ice from eight to ten inches in thickness, and clear as crystal.

Wm. Alters and family, of Altoona, are here visiting relatives and friends. They are the guests of J. M. Alters, a brother.

B. F. Kenly returned on Monday last from quite an extended southern trip; he reports having had a very pleasant journey.

A little sleighing was indulged in here on Sunday evening last, and a few sleds were on the road on Monday and Tuesday, but it was a trifle "off."

I hear the names of several gentlemen mentioned by the Democracy for Justice of the Peace. John Grenoble present incumbent, retiring to take charge of his farm, and hereafter will be known as farmer Grenoble, but the sobriquet of "Squire" will remain with him 'til—doomsday. Apparently the most prominent gentleman named for the office, at least, I hear his name mentioned more frequently than any other, is that sterling Democrat M. B. Hering. He seems to be the choice of our people regardless of politics. Mr. Hering is a gentleman of education, a thorough business man and sustaining a character absolutely beyond reproach. His election would be to the credit of the Democracy, as he would grace the office with dignity and honor.

Augur Corman and Jefferson Heckman, both sound Democrats, have again announced themselves for supervisors. These gentlemen have certainly a record they may well be proud of. Besides placing our roads in a condition equal, and in some respects superior to the pike, they have reduced an indebtedness of $1100—which confronted them when entering upon their duties, to less than $500. This speaks volumes, it proves them to be thorough business men and able managers, just the officers our taxpayers need at the present time, and they are discussing the question accordingly. We know what our supervisors have done in the past, would it be wisdom to make a change, would it not be folly? Let our tax payers pause and reflect.

For tax collector, Jerry Snavely, Roland Gentzel and H. D. Rossman have announced themselves as candidates for the Democratic nomination. These gentlemen are quite popular, rank high in character, and the contest for the nomination will be quite lively. H. D. Rossman is the present collector, is decidedly popular and has won golden opinions and many friends by his mild and lenient course by allowing the widest latitude in making settlements, besides introducing several reforms to the advantage of the taxpayers. Mr. Rossman is always pleasant and agreeable, and has no trouble in making his collections. He has quite a large following and will prove a strong candidate.

TUSSEYVILLE.

Personal Mention and Other Items of Interest.

William Stump is visiting friends in Snyder county.

Miss Miller, of Bellefonte, is visiting her friend, Miss Sallie Feese.

Maurice had quite a pleasant trip to Spruceport on Sunday evening.

We are glad to report those better who were on the sick list last week.

Miss Sadie Dorman returned to her home at Zion, after a few days' visit in our vicinity.

Miss Mary Musser, of Pine Grove Mills, is visiting at the home of Clem Fortney.

Mrs. Elizabeth Keller was very sick the beginning of this week, but is improving.

We had fine sleighing Sunday afternoon and evening, but the snow is all gone again.

Rev. Rearick will continue to hold services in our church the remainder of this week.

Misses Katie Love and Mary Feese, who are at Lemont this winter, were home the beginning of this week.

Mr. Walter Kerlin, his sister, Miss Nellie, and Miss Estie Ocker, all of Centre Hall, spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. M. F. Rossman.

LINDEN HALL.

A Letter of Interest from that Busy Town and Vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. K. G. McClellan spent Sunday with friends at Tusseyville.

Miss Bessie Seaton visited with friends at Tusseyville on Monday last.

Miss Valeria Gettig spent Friday of last week with friends at Tusseyville.

Everybody was rejoicing at the snow of last week, but now it is a thing of the past.

Henry Wolf, of Wolfes Store, is visiting friends and relatives in and around town.

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Sellers, of Oak Hall, were the guests of A. E. Meyer and family on Sunday last.

Mr. John Carper west of town entertained his cousin, a Mr. Carper, from one of the western states, a few days of last week.
