

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of town.

Walter M. Kerlin was up at Altoona last Thursday on a business trip.

Jared B. Kreamer, of Rebersburg, was greeting his many friends in town on Tuesday.

Mrs. J. L. Spangler, of Philadelphia, spent Friday on a visit with ex-Sheriff Spangler.

Miss Roxanna Brisbane returned home last week from a week's visit at State College.

Miss Annie Lohr has been quite ill for the past two weeks, from a severe attack of la grippe.

Mr. Amos Lee, of Colyer, while transacting business in town yesterday was a caller at this office.

David Kerr, one of Potter township's substantial and well-to-do farmers, was a pleasant caller Saturday.

Miss Emma McCoy returned from Lock Haven on Monday, where she had gone several weeks previous.

Wm. C. Motz, the Woodward merchant, was the guest of his cousin, Mrs. Flora Bairfoot, for several days this week.

Prof. B. M. Wagenseller left last Friday on a visit to his home at Selinsgrove. He returned again on Monday morning.

Dr. G. S. Frank, Millheim's well known and popular practitioner, was in town a few days ago calling on the medical profession.

Mrs. Porter Odenkirk and little son David, went to Milesburg Saturday, to spend a week with her sister, Mrs. James Gregg.

J. I. Condo and J. N. Litzell, two of Spring Mills worthies and old veterans, came up to spend Saturday with their Centre Hall friends.

Ex-treasurer J. J. Gramley, favored our sanctum with a call, looking over the picture of health. He is engaged at farming near Hubersburg.

P. B. Jordan, one of Colyer's representative citizens, was a pleasant caller, and represents things o. k. and healthy in that section; his label was set into 1900.

Mrs. Elmer Campbell, of Linden Hall, is visiting her aged mother, Mrs. Jane Love, on Church. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Mary Love.

J. Roll Keller was home from Siglerville, Mifflin county, for a day or two last week. Roll is lambling in that section and moved there about six weeks ago.

R. P. Breen, of Penn twp., gave us a pleasant call and moved his label to '01, while he himself will move from the Frank farm to the George Stover est. farm in the spring.

Landlord Reish, of the finely kept Potter's Mills hotel, is a frequent visitor to our town with his showy span and cozy carry-all for the accommodation of his guests.

Mrs. F. F. Christine slipped on the ice at the Presbyterian parsonage, and received a bad fall. She injured her right arm, probably breaking a bone in the wrist.

Mrs. W. W. Rhoads departed last Thursday for Newburg, Pa., being summoned on account of the serious illness of her daughter's husband. She expects to remain some time.

Rev. J. M. Hepler, pastor of the Lemont Presbyterian charge, occupied the pulpit in the Centre Hall Presbyterian church last Sunday morning, to declare the pulpit vacant.

Our townsman W. A. Sandoe, is acquiring a wide reputation as an auctioneer and his services are in demand this spring. He will be found doing the heavy work at quite a number of sales.

W. W. Spangler, Potter's Mills' former postmaster, was a pleasant caller yesterday. Mr. Spangler is making preparations to quit farming and remove to Centre Hall into the handsome home he recently bought from W. H. Meyer. He will make a good citizen.

Decision of Auditor General.

The auditor general has decided that under the new law mercantile appraisers must not publish the amount of tax each dealer is required to pay. The new law makes it necessary for every person doing business to pay a tax, and the appraisers will make a thorough canvass and examine all books. It means more money for the county. The omission of the names keeps from the public the amount of business each merchant does in a year, and in the event of big success he is not likely to have his rent raised by an unscrupulous landlord when the latter becomes aware of the increase in trade.

Patronize Home Trade.

An exchange says that merchants who want newspaper men to roast grocery peddlers, cheap John's stores and the like, would make newspaper men feel more like doing so if they would quit using free letter heads of soap firms, and wholesale gargling oil envelopes, baking powder statements, sidewalk advertisements and rubber stamps, and would patronize the home printing office.

Muslim Sale for two weeks at Aikens', Bellefonte. Greatest bargains in this line ever offered in these parts.

MILLHEIM.

Our School Board Served Notices on Delinquent Scholars.

Miss Della Reighart, of Shamokin, is staying with her sister, Mrs. E. W. Mauek.

Mr. Harry Koch, of Fairbrook, visited his cousin, Harry Condo, over last Sunday.

Mr. Reed, the celebrated horse dealer from Iowa, will offer for sale twenty fine horses on Thursday.

P. H. Litzell moved from his home on Penn street into the Sankey property on Main street, on Tuesday.

Samuel Weiser of this place, was to Bellefonte on Wednesday attending the funeral of his uncle, Mr. Wagner.

Mr. Charles W. Freeby, who had been in Buffalo, New York, for the last few weeks, returned to this place Saturday evening.

Clair E. Kreamer, one of Haines township's most popular teachers, was in town on Saturday attending to important business in which he is interested.

Mr. E. H. Auman surprised his family very agreeably by presenting them a very fine piano, purchased from that "king of music dealers," M. C. Gephart.

The Millheim school board served notices on about twenty delinquent scholars; if they do not improve in attendance they will be dealt with according to law.

Miss Margaret Evans, of Potters Mills, has been assisting Rev. Chilcote in his revival services during the last week. The Bible readings conducted by her proved especially interesting and beneficial.

Mr. I. F. Raine, editor of the Millheim Journal, returned on Monday from a very pleasant visit at his home in Saxton, Pa. During his absence the mansion on the hill had lost all its cheerfulness and the place was utterly devoid of callers. There are some other fellows in town who carry their heads "just so high wie Mr. Raine."

SPRING MILLS.

The Local Nominations Figure in the Public Topics.

Mrs. Charles Miller has been seriously ill for the last week or ten days, but is now convalescing.

All our ice houses are about filled, and with a very superior quality of ice, hard as flint and clear as crystal.

Edwin Ruhl has just received a fine lot of fresh fish, among them are lake trout, haddock, bass, etc. Mr. Ruhl has made his restaurant head quarters for the best of everything in the eating line. His large oyster stews are simply immense and delicious, all blue points, the finest flavored oysters that reach the market. He always keeps them in stock.

What stupendous nonsense the small fry and ignorant hangers-on of the Republican party here invent, simply to cover up their own egregious political blunders, and if possible obtain a little political capital. The brains and intelligence of the party scorn and repudiate their wild and idle schemes, and are well aware that they are only a detriment to the party, and that their repeated follies are simply keeping the Republican party in this township in a woeful minority. The last clap trap these demagogues endeavored to circulate—but it was too absurd, too utterly ridiculous that it fell almost still-born—was, if Mr. Hering, the Democratic candidate for Justice of the Peace, was elected, he would move on a farm below Penn Hall, but this statement was too wild and silly, that it was changed to a dwelling in the village, and in the spring he would resign his office in favor of anybody he pleased—they forgetting, or rather too ignorant to know that the court attended to that business—and then would move to Lewisburg. Could nonsense go much further? The statement is the veriest bosh and is hardly worth denying, but to settle the matter beyond any doubt, I will here say, and with authority, that Mr. Hering has not the remotest idea of changing his residence, never contemplated doing so, but will positively remain in his present location any statement to the contrary notwithstanding.

And then the silly report that Mr. Hering was an atheist, no doubt sounds very amusing to those who know him to be a profound bible scholar, and having been a Sunday school teacher in the Methodist church for the last twenty-five or thirty years. If this and similar nonsense is continued much longer, Mr. Hering might begin to think that he can say with Richelieu, "Beware of surmise, suspicion, I am too great for men to speak the truth of me."

The election of all the Democratic candidates here is a foregone conclusion, with possibly the exception of one candidate in the W. P. The proceedings at the caucus meeting in that precinct were very shady, the chairman giving permission to use his name for a nomination at the Republican caucus without the knowledge of his political associates, seem inexplicable. In consequence, no doubt the Democrats will give their candidate for judge of election a wide berth and allow the election to go by default.

A few days ago I visited the smithery and carriage painting establishment recently erected by F. E. Bowersox, our expert blacksmith. The building is substantial and fitted with every convenience. On the ground floor is the horse shoeing department, and for heavy iron work; here are two massive forges built on a foundation of twelve feet square of concrete and stone these are six feet high with two feet under the surface to avoid frosts. The large upper room is divided into the painting and varnishing departments and are fitted up with all the necessary appliances for the business. The varnish room is similar to a piano finishing loft—air tight, to prevent dust, smoke, etc, from entering. These departments are under the supervision of S. L. Condo, a skillful painter and an artist of reputation. I saw a carriage that he had finished last week, and I must say it was about as fine a piece of work as I ever examined; every part of the carriage had a polish on it equal to a mirror. In driving shoes Mr. Bowersox is hardly a novice; in the month of December he drove 511 shoes and for the year 3540. Can any blacksmith within a circle of ten miles approach that number? It is an acknowledged fact that as a horse shoer, and thoroughly understanding that particular branch, he has few equals and no superior in Centre county.

POTTERS MILLS.

Personal Mention and Other Items of Interest.

Miss Bertha Duck, teacher of our primary school, is ill with typhoid fever.

Dr. H. S. Alexander of this place, reports considerable sickness; he is kept quite busy.

Miss Mary Evans, of Williamsport, is visiting her parents and many friends.

Mr. Samuel Strong's sister-in-law from the west, is visiting friends in this place.

Mrs. Susan Burkholder will move to Milroy in the spring. We are sorry to lose a good friend and neighbor.

Prof. Moyer and nephew, of Freeburg, Snyder county, were visiting friends at this place last week.

We were sorry to hear of the death of William McClenahan, brother of John McClenahan of this place.

John Smith, the hustling furniture dealer of Spring Mills, was in town Friday transacting business.

Potter's Mills is not a very large place but some people have found eight nights in a week; that is a little large.

Miss Margaret Evans was called to Tyrone last week, to make an address. At present she is assisting Rev. Chilcote with his meeting at Millheim.

The clerk for our enterprising young merchant F. A. Carson, has taken a vacation and will improve the time by securing a help-meet for himself. Frank, go and do likewise.

BOALSBURG.

The Boalsburg High School Will Give an Entertainment.

Mr. Harry Fong left our little burg last week and went to Illinois.

Rev. G. W. Fortney, of Turberville, Pa., called on his many friends in Boalsburg last Friday.

The Boalsburg High school is preparing for an entertainment, which will be given about the first week in March.

The Sunday school convention will be held in the Lutheran church at this place February 23. One and all are invited to attend and take part.

Miss Rose Woods anticipates leaving town this week on a visit to her sister in Bedford county, where she will remain the rest of the winter and part of next spring.

30 Oak and White Enameled Chamber Suits To select from at the same old price. No advance. John Smith & Bro., SPRING MILLS.

A Vivid Picture. The Hagerstown Mail says: "We look into a cradle and behold a crying male babe. At the age of ten he is a noisy kid, with half the buttons off his pants and an eye for meanness; at fifteen he is the devil in the print shop; at twenty he is the publisher of a country newspaper, at the head of every enterprise calculated to improve the town or enrich the business men thereof; at 35 he is in emaciated, worn out old man, with a bald head and holes in his pockets, and at 50 he is a corpse, in a cheap coffin, and his only legacy left behind, two cases of long primer, hand press and a subscription book with 678 subscribers.

Slightly Out of Season. This is not just exactly the season for fish stories, but here is one from the south: "A Mississippi woman fell into a mill dam, and when she was rescued, a ten pound cat fish was found entangled in her wire bustle. Her husband wanted to set her again, but she would not consent.

"I think I would go crazy with pain were it not for Chamberlain's Pain Balm," writes Mr. W. H. Stapleton, Herminie, Pa. "I have been afflicted with rheumatism for several years and have tried remedies without number, but Pain Balm is the best medicine I have got hold of." One application relieves the pain. For sale by J. H. Ross, Linden Hall; S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; H. F. Rossman, Spring Mills; J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.
