

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going—Visitors in and out of town.

Miss Anna Nerhood, of Rebersburg, is visiting her brother, Ed. Nerhood.

Miss Sallie McClenahan went to Spring Mills on Tuesday, to remain a few days.

Will Boozer is home from Lock Haven where he was working on telephone lines.

John Van Pelt came over from Bellefonte to spend Saturday with his grandparents.

Col. J. L. Spangler, of Philadelphia, spent Sunday with his parents in Centre Hall.

Mrs. Christina Reifsnnyder, of Millheim, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. W. Boob.

Rev. Crittenden, long active in Sunday School mission work, paid his respects to the Reporter.

Our former good townsman, Frank Herlachner, of Stormstown, was a visitor here last Saturday.

Mr. J. Q. A. Kennedy arrived here from Johnstown last week on a couple days' business trip.

Editor Raine, of the Millheim Journal, was among a party who took in the Carnival Thursday evening.

Mr. Samuel Stahl and Miss Jennie Stahl arrived on Tuesday at the home of James Stahl, from Tyrone.

Mrs. John Stuart and daughter, Miss Margaret, were the guests of Mrs. Lizzie Jacobs, several days last week.

Harry Condo, of Millheim, spent Thursday and Friday in town, the guest of his friend, Miss Pearl Runkle.

Our old and esteemed friend, John B. Ream, of Penn Cave, favored us with a call and put his label out to 1901.

D. C. Lingle, one of our esteemed patrons from Georges valley, gave our sanctum a call, and had his label advanced.

Edwin Mertz and sister, Miss Anna Mertz, of Altoona, were the guests at the home of E. W. Crawford, part of last week.

Banker Wm. P. Humes, of Bellefonte, who is a lover of fine horse flesh was over yesterday to inspect the fine lot at the hotel stables.

Wm. W. McCormick and bright little son George, and John E. Miller, of Potters Mills, were pleasant visitors when in town Saturday.

Wilbur Harris, who is winning honors as the out-and-out anti-Quay editor of the Bellefonte Republican, took in the Carnival in Grange Arcadia, on Thursday evening.

Misses Maud and Ella Barr, sisters, two of Lemont's handsome young ladies, gave our sanctum a call and our list has another addition. The Miss Barrs were prominent aids in last week's musical convention class.

Mr. H. S. Reed, one of the representative men of Naginy, Millin county, while on a visit to his aunt, the aged Mrs. McCully, who is ill, gave the Reporter a call and enrolled his name on our list.

Hiram Lee, one of Potters Mills' best citizens, favored our sanctum with a call and set his label ahead. We venture to say he is the tallest man in Potter township, measuring 6 feet 2 1/2 inches in height.

Miss Bertha Duck, who has been dangerously ill with typhoid fever for several weeks, is at this writing slightly improved. Mrs. Duck, who has been ill for some time with the same disease is still in a critical condition.

James Sweetwood, was a pleasant caller, and set his label in the column of honest men. Engaged in stripping doors, windows, etc., his record for the past season foots up 91 doors, and a great number of windows, &c.

John Smith, the alive furniture dealer and undertaker, of Spring Mills, spent several days in town last week taking in the amusements then going. John is one of the foremost Democratic politicians in Gregg township, and as chairman of his district he has done good work for the party.

Mr. L. W. Kimpfort and Wm. Hess, two of Boalsburg's good citizens were visitors a few days ago. Mr. Kimpfort will have public sale of his farm stock and implements on March 2nd, disposing of all the property. He is still identified with political work, and in his summary of the situation says "Harris township too, has its Mark Hanna."

J. Will Keppeler, the Ferguson township aspirant for Legislative honors, was in Centre Hall on Thursday and Friday, looking over the political field and making acquaintances among the Democratic contingency. Will is a hustling young Democrat, and with his father some years ago published a paper at Tionesta, Pa. He takes a great interest in political work, and in his canvas he will make a lively and hard fight for the place.

Rev. J. M. Runkle, late of the Hubbersburg Reformed charge, has removed to a charge in Williamsport. He is a son of ex-Judge Runkle, dec'd, and stands high as a minister of the Reformed church. Bro. Runkle favored our sanctum with a call and we were pleased to learn from him that he has regained his health—as will his numerous friends in this his native home.

COBURN.

A Wagon Shed on the Michael Eby Farm Destroyed by Fire.

Andrew Harter is slowly recovering from his attack of lung fever and the grippe but is very weak yet; it is hoped by his many friends that under the skillful management of Dr. Frank, his attending physician, he will bring him out all right in a short time.

The election was not very well attended on Tuesday, considering the beautiful weather; 144 votes were polled, leaving over one hundred that remained at home. The Republicans succeeded in electing one inspector and one supervisor.

On Saturday while on her way to visit a sick neighbor, Mrs. Henry Snavely, of near this place, slipped on the ice and fell to the ground, breaking one of the bones in the forearm and dislocating her wrist. Dr. Leitzell of Spring Mills, was called by phone, and set the broken member, and she is now doing as well as can be expected under the circumstances.

A chicken and waffle supper will be held at this place on Saturday March 3rd, for the purpose of increasing the funds for a public library to be used in connection with the schools of the town as well as the citizens of the town. This project should receive the approbation of the people of the town and surrounding district, as a library filled with choice books, would be quite a convenience to the people of any community.

It is thought that a mad dog passed through town some time during Monday night and passed on towards Union county. About daylight on Tuesday morning some one saw a large black dog, which acted somewhat strangely, with Henry Eisenhuth's dogs at Ingleby, and that the dog then started down towards Poe Mills, and was seen later by some one in Union county. It is not known whether the dog bit any other dogs in this vicinity, but it created somewhat of a stir when it was first reported.

On Saturday while W. W. Vonada was eating dinner with his family, on the Michael Eby farm, a short distance north of Sober postoffice, one of the family chanced to go out of the house and saw that their wagon shed was on fire. Mr. Vonada hurried out to the scene of the fire and succeeded in getting all his farming implements and wagons out except a land roller, and about eighty bushels of corn, belonging to Michael Eby was consumed. It is supposed that the fire originated by a lantern exploding, which some parties from Woodward had on their road cart and had left the road cart, and the lantern burning under the robe, in this shed and had gone to Sober upon some business. Mr. Vonada's loss was slight, Mr. Eby being the heavier loser.

MILLHEIM.

What Our Correspondent Finds of Interest in that Busy Town.

J. C. Smith one of our merchants, is about closing out his stock of merchandise with a view of quitting business.

Quite a number of persons from this vicinity are taking Horace Greely's advice, going west to grow up with the country.

Election day passed off very quietly. There was no open contest, nevertheless there was considerable scalping done on the sly.

J. W. Gramly had sale on Monday, on the Harter farm south of this place, preparatory to going west. The sale was largely attended and his goods brought a good price.

Charles W. Royer having secured employment at Wilkinsburg, is about moving his family and household effects to that place. May success attend them in their new quarters.

E. J. Burd who has been proprietor of the toll gate north of town for several years past, will vacate the place by April first. Mr. Burd moves to Coburn and expects to follow his trade, (plasterer) while his excellent wife will embark in the millinery business. Elijah Burd will make change for travelers in the future.

The horse market is booming in this part of the country. There were two car loads shipped out on Monday and Tuesday; one load was composed of first-class animals, the others were taken out to make room for better ones. Mr. Holloway, from Brownstown, Wis., is expected to arrive with a load on Saturday. Thus the business is kept moving.

POTTERS MILLS.

Personal Mention and Other Items of Interest.

Mrs. Landis has been quite ill; hope she may soon recover.

Mrs. Harshbarger paid a visit to her son James, at this place.

Thomas Keen wears a broad smile, and says it is a girl.

John Bitner has returned from Philadelphia; glad to see you back John.

Our schools will celebrate Washington's birthday today, Thursday.

Michael Smith and wife were on the sick list, but are able to be out again.

Mr. L. A. Smith, of Pine Grove Mills, was visiting friends here Thursday.

Butchering is still in progress; Edward Allison killed some fine porkers last week.

Miss Mabel Smith of this place, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Tom Bartges, at Centre Hall.

Grant Hoover, the insurance agent of Bellefonte, was in our town on business last week.

Mrs. McCoy has not been so well for several days, but we are glad she is again improving.

There is a dandy grey horse comes to our town quite frequently and is driven in the alley at break neck speed.

We feel envious of Centre Hall, they had so much enjoyment last week, but Potters Mills will flourish yet—if it don't die too soon.

James Harshbarger's child has been very ill with bronchitis, but under the skillful care of Dr. Alexander of this place, is improving.

John McClenahan has been on the sick list since he returned from Mill Hall, where he had gone to attend the funeral of his brother.

Our leading merchant Emanuel Smith, has just received a new supply of goods; if you want the worth of your money go to the old reliable stand.

Master Harry Wilkison, our hustling news boy, is seen out Saturday mornings bright and early with his papers, and sells every one. There is nothing like being industrious Harry.

TUSSEYVILLE.

Latest News Items as Gathered by Our Correspondent.

The by-roads are rough. Beaver, the Centre Hill blacksmith, has moved to Milroy.

Our young friend Flory, an excellent tenor, was a good help at the musical convention last week.

Tusseyville and Colyer are cities that sprung up after the going down of Stonemill, and the playing out of its broad-backed snappers, eels, etc.

This locality, once the capital and business centre of the "Loop," has become dried up, even onto its milldam once so famous for its snapping turtles, eels, suckers, and catfish. The life of the days of the Kerlins, Leitzeles, Rubles, and others, has departed, and with these the prestige of Stonemills vanished, while the mill went up in smoke, leaving a ruin of stonepiles to mark the site of the old landmark. Many of the fine stones in the walls of the mill found a lodging in buildings in distant parts. What changes time has wrought!

Our schools will devote this, Thursday afternoon to Memorial exercises, when a collection will be lifted for the Curtin monument.

BOALSBURG.

A Sunday School Convention to be Held in the Lutheran Church.

Mr. Will Woods is home from Philadelphia for a short stay.

Mr. Kremer, of Pine Grove, has been visiting here the past week.

The schools have prepared a program for Washington's birthday celebration.

Mr. Alvin Myers came home from New York last week and will remain for a short time.

The Sunday school convention for this district will be held in the Lutheran church on Friday all day and evening. An extensive program will be carried out.

The High school society is preparing an entertainment to be given the second Friday of March. It will be a reproduction of the "Noble Spy." The proceeds are for the benefit of a library.

The election in Harris township all went Democratic with the exception of the supervisor, Joseph Hedding and William Brooks Republican nominees, were elected with a handsome majority.

SPRING MILLS.

What Our Scribe Finds of Interest in that Busy Town.

Clyde Chilcote, one of our active young lads, is agent for a very superior quality of toilet soaps, also a high grade of extracts, oils and perfumery. Clyde is quite a lively salesman and is meeting with considerable success.

The festival to be held on the evening of the 23d and 24th, by the ladies connected with the congregation of the M. E. church, promises to be a very enjoyable one. All invited; proceeds for the benefit of the parsonage.

On Saturday night last, the weather played us a trick in this part of the valley. At sunset the thermometer registered 40 degrees, and gave promise of a mild Sunday, but at daylight the mercury had fallen to 5 degrees, and remained at that interesting point the greater part of the day. Every body was housed, and simply connected themselves with a stove.

The election here on Tuesday last resulted in the success of the Democratic ticket with two or three exceptions; C. E. Royer, Democrat, was nominated for justice of the peace by the Republicans, and the Democratic caucus occurring at the same time, and not being aware of his nomination, nominated him for judge of election in west precinct, a Democratic Gibraltar, and unwisely remained a candidate on both tickets, of course he was defeated. M. B. Hering regular Democrat for justice of the peace was elected, also D. H. Rhul Republican for judge of election.

Under the circumstances the Democrats refused to support their candidate for judge, and allowed the election to go by default.

C. A. Krape of the shoe m porium has greatly improved his store building by the addition of twenty feet more room with a basement of similar dimensions. The store room was raised a fraction over a foot above the original foundation, in consequence the addition over the basement has only an elevation of about two feet, the entrance being two steps through a wide and handsomely finished doorway. The room is beautifully fitted up with all the modern improvements, plenty of light and all other necessary conveniences, and is used exclusively for ladies, misses, childrens and infants foot wear. The front room has been entirely rearranged and is reserved for mens, boys and youths wear, while the basement which is also fitted up with all necessary conveniences, and entered by a wide stairway, is used for the rubber department, also wool boots, lumbermens hosiery, etc. The extension is a very handsome improvement both to the store and neighborhood, besides affording more room for the assembled wisdom of our village to congregate and expatiate on religion, politics and general news. Mr. Krape's rapidly increasing business really required the improvement; more room was absolutely necessary, and now he has an establishment for convenience and attractiveness is second to none in our village.

Announcement.

I desire to announce that I will open a first-class Clothing and Gents' Furnishing store, which will be located in the vacant room of Reynolds' Bank Building, Allegheny street, and it will be known as

"SIM THE CLOTHIER."

During the past twelve years I was connected with the firm of Messrs. Montgomery & Co., as a buyer and salesman, and in that time I had ample opportunity to study the wants of our people and gain a good idea of what is required in this branch of trade; and it will be my ambition to give this venture the full benefit of that experience.

The store will contain an entirely new selection, as I have just returned from the Eastern cities where I selected the very latest and choicest goods on the market. It will be up-to-date in every particular, embracing those goods that will be popular and principally worn the coming season, which every purchaser will appreciate. The stock will be large and carefully selected, to supply every grade of wearing apparel for men, boys and children, and the best that the markets afford.

I hope to merit, at least, a share of your patronage by being able to supply your wants, both as to the quality of goods offered and the low price at which the same will be sold. The store will be opened March 1st, and I hereby extend a cordial invitation to you to call upon me on or after that date and see what I have to offer. It will be a pleasure to greet you whether you purchase or not.
